Floyd Circuit Court

Thomas J. May Pltff Against
Thomas May and
Thomas Owens Defts

Petition
Ordinary

The Plaintiff Thomas J. May states that on the Day of 1879 he was the owner and in the lawful and peaceable possession a certain two wheeled vehicle, with shafts and springs common ly known as a "Gig" and also was in like possession of a full set of single buggy harness. Which said two wheeled vehicle was worth the sum of Twenty Five Dollars and the harness Fifteen Dollars. That on the day above named the Defendants Thomas May and Thomas Owens without right and forcibly and against the will of this Pltff and without the knowledge or consent of this Pltff took said two wheeled vehicle known as a Gig and the harness above named forcibly and without right from the possession of this Pltff and appropriated the same to their own use, wholly depriving this Pltff of the use and ben efit of said Gig and harness, and that while the said Defendants so had possession of said Gig and harness they wantonly carelessly, and
