

Initiated

By Delta Epsilon of Delta Tau Delta—Jim Keneipp, of Louisville, Jim McGraw, of Ft. Thomas, Jack Cameron, of Ft. Thomas, Ben Johnson, of Lexington, Bobby Davis, of Providence.

Delta Chi Hold Founder's Day Banquet

The Kentucky chapter of Delta Chi held its Founder's Day Banquet, October 18 at the Lexington Country Club.

Those present were the guests of Robert Slickle, alumnus of Versailles.

Prominent alumni present were Judge Thomas Moore, James Carroll, Leut. James Stone, Ernest Farmer, James Cassidy and Prof. William Tolman.

Arrangements for the banquet were in charge of Sinclair Rayner and Miller Holland.

KAs To Entertain With Halloween Dance

The active and pledges of Kappa Alpha will entertain with a Halloween dance Thursday night at the chapter house.

The house will be decorated with orange and black and the refreshments will be doughnuts, cider and punch.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the affair consists of Lloyd Robertson, Meade Parris, Shelby Shanklin, and Mrs. Bowman, the housemother.

Sigma Nus, Alpha Gams Entertain Reciprocally

Gamma Iota of Sigma Nu entertained with a buffet supper Friday night honoring the members of Alpha Gamma Delta. The buffet supper followed an open house which the Alpha Gams gave for the Sigma Nus Friday afternoon.

Mrs. B. Drury, housemother, and Jim Cook, social chairman, were in charge of arrangements.

Housemothers To Meet

Miss Sarah O. Blanding, dean of women, will address the housemothers of the University at 2 p.m. Tuesday in the Union. This will be the second of a series of weekly study meetings of the housemothers to be held through December 9.

Official AAA Service TAYLOR TIRE COMPANY (Incorporated) Complete One-Stop Service PHONE 2829 Vine at Southeastern Ave. 24 HOUR SERVICE

During The Past Seven Years

President Roosevelt Has Brought About The Following:

- Maximum wage and minimum hour for labor
Social Security
Old age compensation insurance
Guaranteed collective bargaining
Reduced unemployment
Guaranteed bank deposits up to $5,000.00 by Federal Insurance
Increased corporation profits

He has helped the young men and women by providing worthwhile work through the CCC and vocational opportunities through the NYA.

He dedicates the remaining days of his life to peace. He states, "We will not participate in foreign wars and we will not send our army, naval or air forces to fight in foreign lands outside of the Americas except in case of attack."

University of Kentucky Roosevelt For President Club

Kappa Sigs Give Dinner-Dance

The active of Beta Nu of Kappa Sigs entertained with a dinner-dance at the chapter house Friday night in honor of their pledges.

The house was decorated with the fraternity colors, scarlet, green and white.

Guests were Carolyn Breeding, Ruth Ware, Betty Bow Miller, Betty Jane Brewer, Gene Ray Crawford, Adelaide Boote, Doc Kerr, Jean Johnson, Harriet Horde, Mary Crawford, Margaret Arnsperger, and Ann Cowell.

SPES Entertain With House Party

The active and pledges of Sigma Phi Epsilon entertained with a party Friday night at the chapter house.

Autumn flowers decorated the house. Mrs. Swast, housemother, was in charge of the arrangements to the Omega room.

GUIGNOL

(Continued from page One)

The play, Mary Haines is essentially a colorless character; and this may account for the seeming need for a colorful and robust Miss Smith's rendition. This dramatic frigidly, only defect in an otherwise thoroughly satisfactory performance, served at times to deflect the reviewer's sympathy elsewhere.

Sue Hinkle's portrayal of Sylvia had all the energy and force requisite to the part. Deft in her line delivery, Miss Hinkle almost convinced her audience that she was a lamentable cat, which was just as it should be. Her tendency to extravagant posturing could have been curbed a little, but it was not too objectionable. She proved herself a remarkable welcome addition to the Omega roster.

Elmer Christine McBrayer has learned to act since I last saw her, or she personally persuaded the author to write a part adapted to her abilities. At any rate, in the character of the Countess, she turned in her best performance to date. It was splendidly done.

Wits Well Done

It would be unfair to drop the subject of able acting in the play without mentioning two superb smaller contributions. Dixie Macklin's manuevring is so well done that it nearly stopped the show as far as I was concerned. The girl was extraordinarily clever, and the comers stars may thank whatever gods there be that she did not have a larger part, or she would have carried away the honors bodily.

Also, Mrs. Opal Palmer did a great job in the role of Lucy. That it was reminiscent of Marjorie Main's treatment of the same character only does Mrs. Palmer credit. She is an able veteran at the little theater, but I have never before seen her contribute such a delightfully satisfactory performance.

The production itself indicated that the little theater has inaugurated a new deal of efficiency. The settings were executed with skill and imagination, and were shifted during the quick succession of scenes with commendable alacrity. Costuming struck a new high in the eyes worn by the ladies. The lighting, though a bit lifeless at times, was on the whole quite acceptable.

Cast Listed

- Sylvia, Sue Hinkle; Nancy Blake, Sara Prentiss; Peggy, Lucy Simms; Edith, Lucille Little; Jane, Mary Clare Howard; Mary Haines, Barbara Smith; Mrs. Wagstaff, Mary Ellen Wendellhall; Violetie, Mildred Mastin; Olga, Dixie Macklin; Mildred, Mary Rion; Mrs. Martie Barnes, Loella Barry; Miss Fordyce, Hazel Maiden; Little Mary, Jean Beard; Mrs. Monchard, Jane Ratchford; Miss Susan, Harold Brown Connelly; Miss Bertha, Maybelle Connelly; Miss Shapins, Jean Donnelly; Miss Myrtle, Dorothy Hill; Miss Channing, Frances Arnold South; Crystal Allen, Jane Dudley Murray; Princess Tamara, Stephanie Sorokoli; Yolanda, Glenn Ballard; Maggie, Dixie Wilcoxen; Mrs. Pendexter, Fannie Belle Pirkey; Blossom, Poindexter, Julia Johnson; Corrie Fidget, Mimi Woodemann; Mabel Slocum, Sarah McClean; Miss Watts, Ellen Sun; Miss Trimmerback, Ann Gray; Lucy, Opal Palmer; Flora, Christine McBrayer; Miriam, Emily Hallop; Helme, Shirley Thomas; Mrs. Bradford, Clio Winterspoon; Owendolyn, Micki Bogan; Boots, LaClare, Dawson Hawkins.

Alabama Game To Highlight Colossal Seven-Ring Carnival Over Homecoming Weekend

Governor Johnson, Others Will Greet Returning Alumni

BY HAROLD WINN

Ladies and Gentlemen, announcing the greatest show on earth, the combined Alumni Association-Omega Phi Delta Kappa-Sucky Shows, the Kentucky Homecoming Carnival, in the center ring of this gigantic seven ring feature attraction is the Kentucky-Alabama football game. To the left and right are six other colossal shows, presented for your entertainment, and pleasure.

Come to Hickletown, from Friday morning 'til the last tick of the clock Saturday night, the alumni, students and friends of the University will receive a wealth of entertainment.

Of course, the football game will hold the spotlight, but the anti-sporting nature of this game will be well worth seeing. On the program for 7:30 p. m. Friday night, in the Alumni gym will be the Grynatae gymnasium troupe of the University of Illinois. Deriving its name from Anglo-Indian origin. It means a meeting for athletic contests, mainly by reach.

Though the racing has been dropped by this troupe, they still include precision rhythmic Olympic callisthenic routine, high bar and parallel stunts, hand to hand balancing, tap dancing, juggling, roller skating acts, a Mexican hat dance, mass pyramids, and perch pole stunts that are tops in entertainment.

Admission will be 50 cents and tickets will be on sale for out-of-town alumni at the Alumni office, room 124, Union Building, Lexington, Alumni may obtain tickets at the Birmingham Shoe company, Graves Cox, the Canary Cottage, Thorpe's, and the Strupp Cup for this different and welcome addition to the Homecoming program.

Rally Will Follow

No. level your seats. You won't have to move for the next feature, the pep rally. Following the troupe performance, it features Coach Frank Thomas of Alabama, UK players, and distinguished guests. Now you can get up and follow the parade downtown and back to Stoll field where a huge bonfire will consume the traditional markings of a freshman's first cap.

Saturday morning will find the various fraternity and sorority houses, decorated with decorations, viewing with each other for two beautiful silver cups. They are presented for humor, originality, and method of carrying out the idea of the "Tide" being converted to a tie wash. This annual event will be judged at 11 a. m. Saturday. The trophies are on display at Dunbar Drug Store.

Alumni Flood Expected

And lest little children and Freshmen be run down in the rush, keep clear of the flood of alumni who will return to their Alma Mater. Registration will be from 7:30 to 8 Friday night and 9 to 12:30 Saturday morning at the Lafayette and Phoenix Hotels. "K" buttons and "K" stickers will be in abundance, and members of the Executive committee will be there to extend a welcome.

Open house will be held in the Great Hall of the Union Building by the Association with the Student Union Board and Alma Magna Mater assisting, immediately after the game. In the receiving line will be Governor and Mrs. Keen Johnson, Lieutenant-Governor, Mrs. Rhodes K. Myers, President Emeritus and Mrs. Frank L. McVey, alumni President and Mrs. T. H. Cutler, and Robert K. Balyers alumni secretary. Appropriate decorations have been planned and refreshments will be served.

Dance To Climax Weekend

Climaxing the Carnival will be the Brimstone dance from 9 until 12 midnight in the Bluegrass room of Student Union building. Admission will be $1.00 stag or couple. Tickets will be on sale at the Alumni office. There it is a weekend of action, but if that isn't enough, the show of the big attractions will be there. The "Best Band in Dixie" a show all of its own, will play and march between halves and the card stunts of the freshman section will lend color to the waiting period.

GYMKANA TROUPE'S For Kentucky's first homecoming carnival, calisthenics, acrobatics, tumbling, comedy, and dancing.

Table with 2 columns: Time and Event. Includes Homecoming Carnival Calendar with events for Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.

Let's Go Back 25 Years

BY WARREN J. SHORTER

The Democratic club is showing a great deal of party spirit this year for the coming presidential election. The unusual interest in the club has assured its members of tickets home to vote. President of the University, Henry S. Barker has proclaimed that every man who goes home to vote has a legitimate excuse from class work.

The Wildcats clashed with the Sewanee Tigers in a spectacular battle which ended in a 7-7 tie here on Stoll field Saturday. Offensive work of Thompson, Brittain, Sever and Schader proved the feature in the game. The only injury was sustained by "Doc" Rodes, State's able quarterback.

Meanwhile the freshman team was trouncing the Danville Dummies 38 to 6 here Friday. Poindexter, the bright faced lad from Cynthia, and captain of the team, played the best game.

"Squirrel Food" the feature column, received information that University of Cincinnati students had made arrangements with railroad officials for several cattle cars to come to Lexington this Saturday to witness the football game between Cincinnati and Kentucky. It was urged that our hospitality be extended by meeting them at the station with a few hales of hay and some corn on the cob.

Club To Elect Officers

Organization and election of officers will be held at the meeting of the International Relations Club at 4 p. m. Wednesday in Room 203 Administration building. All students and townpeople interested are invited to the meeting.

Alpha Xi Honor Rushes

With Halloween Party The members of Alpha Xi Delta entertained with a Halloween rush

EDUCATORS NAME BOYD TO OFFICE Dean Re-elected At State Meeting

Dean Paul P. Boyd of the arts and sciences college was re-elected secretary-treasurer of the Kentucky Association of Colleges and Secondary schools during the closing business session Saturday.

Dean T. A. Hendricks, Berea college, was elected president and W. S. Milburn, principal of Louisville Male high school, was chosen vice-president. More than 1,000 educators were attracted to the campus by the two-day joint conference.

Miss Eunice Bone of Madisonville, addressing the Kentucky Association of Teachers of Speech, which held its meeting in connection with the educational conference, paid tribute to the speech contests conducted by the University each year. They "offer incentives for improvement of the speech of our best students," she said, but at the same time pointed out that 90 percent of high school students have no opportunity for instruction along this line.

Alpha Gams Give General Open House

The active and pledges of Alpha Gamma Delta entertained with a general open house Sunday afternoon. Ann Bringardner was in charge.

Miss King Returns

Miss Margaret King, head librarian, returned last night from Savannah, Ga., where she attended a meeting of the Southwestern section of the American Librarians association.

ATTENTION STUDENTS SALE 25c ON ALL DISCONTINUED TEXT BOOKS CAMPUS BOOK STORE

Baynham's SHOES AND HOSIERY OF DISTINCTION The Most Fashionable CLUB IN TOWN TOWNWEAR HOSIERY 89c and $1.00 Baynham Shoe Co. 135 East Main - Look For The Baynham Sign

The Malthouse SOUTH LIME Jones Box Ball COME ON OVER - BICYCLES - LOTS OF FUN BOX BALL YOU WILL ENJOY IT

'House Of Horrors' To Be Presented By French Club

Unwrapped walking mummies, blood-chugging screams and ghastly apparitions will issue forth from the Griguel theater when the French department presents Jean Dupont's "The House of Horrors" in December.

Amateurs, nurses, and all the other modern conveniences of horror plays will be on hand to guarantee the survival of those brave enough to attend the spook session, according to Dr. Hobart Ryland, head of the romance language department.

Both French and English versions of the play will be presented. Harold Dunn, president of the French club, translated the play into English. Harold Dunn and Katherine Nichols, Paris, are tentatively cast for leads in the play, with the first rehearsal to be held at 3 p. m. today.

Miss Sarah Elizabeth McLean, who has an A. B. degree in romance language, will direct the production.

PHOENIX HOTEL

FOR

- BILLIARDS
BOWLING
BARBER WORK
PRIVATE FUNCTIONS
DANCES

All facilities are complete.

We will be pleased to show you our many conveniences.

Ford U-Drive-It

ALL NEW FORDS FOR RENT

NO DEPOSIT REQUIRED OF STUDENTS

129 E. Short Street Phone 648 Lexington, Kentucky

Running Wild

By ROY STEINFORT

What happened to Kentucky Friday night anyway? That's the question we heard on all fronts following the Georgia game, Friday night.

But here's what we'd like to know—What happened to the Kentucky supporters when the train returned from Athens Saturday evening?

Yes, what happened to those would-be-it-they-won Wildcats enthusiasts? If you don't already know, here's what happened—scarcely two score of students were at the depot to meet the weary Cats, after they had fought to their last ounce of energy for Kentucky. Speaking bluntly, Kentucky students, you don't even deserve to have a football team.

Team Is Still Undeafed Kentucky's coaching staff, Ad Kirwan, Bernie Shively and Frank Mosely have raised Kentucky's team from football's bonard to a team that is going into its seventh game of the season undeafed. How many other colleges have a record that can compare to that?

Kentucky's record of four wins, two ties and no defeats ranks them among the top-notch teams of the nation. Certainly, at least half of the student body should turn out to welcome home such a team after a great game with Georgia's sensational sophomores—and they are a sensational eleven.

It's not as though the team was returning at 4 o'clock in the morning or late at night; they returned when it was convenient for everybody to meet them, 7 o'clock Saturday night. There was plenty of time to eat and be dressed before the dance.

Why Not Have The Band At The Depot? Kentucky has three more games away from home this season and one home Saturday with Alabama's Crimson Tide. Here's a suggestion we have to make. Why not have the "Best Band in Dixie" at the depot to greet the team from all road trips, along with a delegation from each fraternity and sorority. The first thing you know the entire student body will follow.

Whether the team wins, loses or draws, they should have a warm reception. Let's all join in with Ab and the boys and help them put Kentucky on the football map for good. We know they can do it, but the job will be twice as easy with our help.

No come on, all of you loyal Cat followers, let's give them a hearty welcome every time they return from a road trip—win, lose or draw. Those boys give their all out on that field. The least we can do is give them a little moral support.

'Bama President Will Attend Game President L. C. Foster of the University of Alabama will occupy a box on the north side of Stoll field Saturday when the Crimson Tide meets the University of Kentucky for the latter's homecoming game. He and his party are making a special trip to Lexington for the game.

Try Kernel Classified Ads.

BASKETEERS START PRACTICE

Five Lettermen Among Prospects

Adolph Rupp's Sugar Bowl Champions opened practice last week with 20 candidates reporting for the team. Conspicuously absent were Ernie Allen and Hoot Combs who are still under Ab Kirwan's tutelage.

Among the men seeking varsity berths were five lettermen—Lee Hubert, Earl Siskins, Keith Farnley, Walter White, and Jim King. Coach Rupp has good prospects from last year's undefeated freshman team and his "Z" squad, in Mel Brewer, Marvin Akers, Mill Tice, Vincent Splane, and Ken England.

Kentucky's cage squad faces a stiff schedule, highlighted by a game with the University of Indiana in the Sugar Bowl. The Wildcats are the defending champions.

TRAIN TICKETS PLACED ON SALE

Louisville Special To Leave At 10:15

Tickets for the special train to Louisville for the Kentucky-Georgia Tech game November 9 are on sale at the Union station and are to be sold by representatives in each fraternity and sorority, and at the information desks in the Union.

The Alumni association and Louisville alumni are sponsoring the second annual "Old Kentucky breakfast," inaugurated last year preceding the Kentucky-Georgia game at 11 a. m. in the Crystal ballroom of the Brown hotel. The price is $1 per plate.

The train, tickets for which are priced at 10.15 a. m. and Louisville at midnight. Classes will be dismissed at 10 a. m. Saturday, according to a recent ruling of the University Senate.

Bulldogs Win Moral Victory With Frank Merriwell Finish

Sinkwich Stars For Georgia Team In See-Saw Battle

There's a Frank Merriwell finish in football and if you don't believe it, just ask the Kentucky Wildcats. Leading 7-0 with two minutes left in the game the Cats saw their lead dwindle to a 7-7 deadlock when Georgia's Bulldogs, featuring sensational Frankie Sinkwich, put on a one-man show in six plays to tie the score and give the Dogs a moral victory over the favorite Kentuckians Friday night in Athens picturesque Sanford stadium.

It was a crazy game with action ranging from a touchdown, scored in the final two minutes, to a fight between Georgia's big tackle Walt Posey and Kentucky's smallest guard Gody Fritz which resulted in Fritz being waved from the game.

Kentucky's offensive appeared brilliant at times and at other times it bogged down to a mere nothing. So brilliant did the Cats perform that the officials never had an opportunity to handle the ball offensively. All they could do was kick out of danger.

The Cats, after pounding the Georgia to smithereens in the opening frame, took the pigskin on the Dogs' 29 on a poor kick. Rough Robert Herbert picked up two on a reverse, and five plays after the start of the quarter, Ernie Allen took a pass from center faded deep, ended several would-be tadders, and rifled a 27-yard heave into the waiting arms of Noah Mullins in the end zone. Julie Jones, "Old Faithful" with his placements, booted a perfect conversion.

The train, tickets for which are priced at 10.15 a. m. and Louisville at midnight. Classes will be dismissed at 10 a. m. Saturday, according to a recent ruling of the University Senate.

headed fullback, who had ripped the Georgia line to shreds earlier, failed to make the goal line, missing by a fraction of a foot. How the Georgians stopped the big Dutchman, Kentucky supporters will never know.

Ernie Allen opened the final period by kicking out of danger. The white-shirted men caught Georgia's clipping and penalized them back to their own 25. On the very next play they were penalized for holding and again the referee stepped off 15 long paces, back to the 18.

Two passes by Heyward Allen, Georgia's pitcher, advanced it to the 37. And here's where bothmen broke loose. Georgia and Kentucky players unraveled themselves from a pile-up. Ten Kentucky players went back to the huddle and ten Bulldogs went back into the huddle. The eleven players, Gody Fritz and Wyatt Mosey, Georgia's biggest tackle, were standing out in the middle of the field sending rights and lefts freely to one another.

No one, not even the coaches, seemed to know how it all started, but the officials quickly separated the two. As a result of the ballfritze was benched from the game and Kentucky was penalized half the distance to the goal, which put the ball on the Kentucky 31-yard marker.

Sinkwich Stars Taking the ball on an exchange of punts, Georgia took the ball at mid-field. From that point on Sinkwich, who is at top speed on his second step, passed and evaded the new-hits to Kentucky's 1-yard stripe. The scene was tense. The Georgia rooters stood, making not a single sound. They had been bucking the Kentucky line all night, but this was the closest they had been.

Sinkwich sent them roaring, plunging over the corvete line from the one. Leo Coala, who spends his afternoons kicking placements, headed fullback, who had ripped the Georgia line to shreds earlier, failed to make the goal line, missing by a fraction of a foot. How the Georgians stopped the big Dutchman, Kentucky supporters will never know.

Ernie Allen opened the final period by kicking out of danger. The white-shirted men caught Georgia's clipping and penalized them back to their own 25. On the very next play they were penalized for holding and again the referee stepped off 15 long paces, back to the 18.

Two passes by Heyward Allen, Georgia's pitcher, advanced it to the 37. And here's where bothmen broke loose. Georgia and Kentucky players unraveled themselves from a pile-up. Ten Kentucky players went back to the huddle and ten Bulldogs went back into the huddle. The eleven players, Gody Fritz and Wyatt Mosey, Georgia's biggest tackle, were standing out in the middle of the field sending rights and lefts freely to one another.

No one, not even the coaches, seemed to know how it all started, but the officials quickly separated the two. As a result of the ballfritze was benched from the game and Kentucky was penalized half the distance to the goal, which put the ball on the Kentucky 31-yard marker.

Sinkwich Stars Taking the ball on an exchange of punts, Georgia took the ball at mid-field. From that point on Sinkwich, who is at top speed on his second step, passed and evaded the new-hits to Kentucky's 1-yard stripe. The scene was tense. The Georgia rooters stood, making not a single sound. They had been bucking the Kentucky line all night, but this was the closest they had been.

Sinkwich sent them roaring, plunging over the corvete line from the one. Leo Coala, who spends his afternoons kicking placements,

Billiard Expert To Appear Here

Beginning his tenth annual tour of colleges, the cue artist, Charles Peterson, better known as the "Father of Intercollegiate Billiards," will appear in an all-day and evening performance on Thursday, November 7, at the Union Building. This will be Peterson's third appearance on the campus.

Holder of the world's fancy billiard show title, he will not only exhibit his wizardry of trick shots in the ivory sport, but will demonstrate world famous shots of other stars, fundamentals of the game, playing-lecture and group teaching of fundamentals to the students. The cue artist's trademark is "Show-Me-A-Shot-I-Can't-Make."

Ranked among the greatest billiardists of all time, Peterson comes to Kentucky under the auspices of the Association of College Yous and National Billiard association.

MICHLER Florist CUT FLOWERS and CORSAGES 417 E. Maxwell Phone 1119

HAVE YOU TRIED Our Delicious STEAKS CHOPS SEAFOOD WING'S American Luncheon 35c

Plan For Education Via Air Furthered By New UK Station

By HAROLD WYNN The University continued its plan of using the radio for the advancement of education when a new ultra-short wave broadcasting station, WBKY, began its inaugural program last Friday at Beattyville, in Lee county.

The transmitter, donated to the University by WHAS in Louisville, operates on a frequency of 42,900 Kilocycles and has a power of 100 watts. The University also supplied short wave battery sets, because the program cannot be heard on ordinary sets.

Fits County Needs Listening centers had previously been installed in the isolated sections, so that the mountain people might keep abreast of the news. Although this plan had worked out exceptionally well, the University felt that localized centers would fit the needs of individual counties in a better way.

According to Elmer O. Sulist, director of radio activities at the University, the opening of WBKY means the opening of numerous opportunities for Lee Countians; an enlarged plan of vision for the schools of the county; and a cultural enrichment for every one concerned.

Local Talent Billed Local talent will be used in the two-hour broadcasts each Monday through Friday with some programs from the main studios at Lexington and rebroadcasts from Beattyville.

Congratulating Acting-President Cooper on the work of the University, James Lawson Fly, chairman of the Federal Communications commission, said, "In a field clamoring for development, this new venture already stands out as a concrete achievement of real significance."

UK Professors To Address Meet Three University professors will speak at the first meeting of the Cincinnati chapter of the American Statistical association at 7 p. m., Saturday, in the Phoenix hotel. It was announced yesterday by Edgar Z. Palmer, professor of economics at the University, president of the Cincinnati chapter.

The University professors who will speak at the meeting are Leon W. Cohen, professor of mathematics, and Leonard F. Meese, assistant professor in the College of Education.

Engineers Attend Meet In Louisville About 30 members of the University branch of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers held a meeting in Louisville Friday, with the Special Scientific school of the University of Louisville.

The day's activities began with a technical meeting in the morning, followed by an afternoon inspection of industrial plants in the Louisville area.

BLOCK, BRIDLE CROP SHOW SET

Exhibits To Open On November 15

Exhibits of hay, grains, forage seeds, and tobacco by freshmen and upperclassmen will make the seventh annual crop show of the Fall Festival sponsored by the Block and Bridle, honorary animal husbandry fraternity, November 15 and 16 in the Stock Judging pavilion. This year's crop is under the direction of the Agronomy club.

Silver cups will be awarded to the exhibitors in the freshman and upperclassmen sections who score the greatest number of points. Ribbons will be given in each ring, and special ribbons will be awarded for the best exhibits in each class.

According to the rules announced, crops may be taken from any farm in the home county; only one entry may be made in a class by one student; exhibits must be turned in not later than noon, Friday, November 15, at the Judging pavilion; freshman shows are open only to freshman students in the agriculture college, and upperclassmen shows are open only to upperclassmen in that college.

Freshman and upperclassmen shows will be held separately but will be governed by the same rules, it was announced.

Team Prospects Tour Stock Farms In order to select the six members of this year's livestock judging team, eight students made a competitive practice judging tour last week in Illinois and Indiana.

Applicants who made the trip were Glenn Clay, Ben Butler, James L. Overfield, Ernest L. Harris, James McConathy, Robert C. Davis, James W. Wilson, and Joe Gayle.

Accompanied by Professor W. P. Garrigus of the animal husbandry department, who is in charge of the team, they visited the experiment station at the University of Illinois and the Beigley horse farm of H. C. Horneham at Perryville, Ind.

CLASSIFIED ADS PART TIME WORK Wanted-A student experienced in shoe metal work. dress box 2745.

Wanted-A Business girls desiring plans for young men and women, starting now. 2524, Hall school of dancing.

LOST-A TRIO-DON pin-somebody between Tri-Delt House and Memorial Hall. If found return to Betty Rose or Kerene 294.

COOPERATIVE members: There will be an important meeting of all Cooperative members (clubs) 7:30 p. m. on Saturday, Union Bldg. This meeting is to determine the future of the Student's Cooper. also.

ROOM FOR RENT: Double room on First floor, single room second floor, and room for two boys on third floor. 129 E. Maxwell. Phone 6993. Mrs. Craddock.

Chesterfield THE WAY TO MORE SMOKING PLEASURE Today, more than ever, people are taking to Chesterfield because Chesterfield concentrates on the important things in smoking. You smoke Chesterfields and find them cool and pleasant. You light one after another, and they really taste better. You buy pack after pack, and find them definitely milder. For complete smoking satisfaction you can't buy a better cigarette. Make your next pack CHESTERFIELD