REPORT OF THE MEMBER OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE NATIONAL AMERICAN WOMAN SUFFRAGE ASSOCIATION.

The Twenty-Fifth Annual Convention of the National American Woman Suffrage Association was held in Washington, D. C., January, 1893.

The opening address was by Rev. Annis Eastman, a Congregational minister. Thirty-six states were represented, numbering ninety delegates.

The most important step taken by the Convention was the amendment to the By-Laws, which allows the Convention to meet in some other city than Washington the second year of each Congress. The object of meeting in Washington was to have a hearing before each new Congress.

Resolutions were adopted without dissent, except the one relating to the right of Congress to close the World's Fair on Sunday. This elicited considerable opposition and discussion before it was tabled.

The Convention will be held in Washington City in February, 1894, as the new Congress assembles in that year.

Respectfully submitted,

SARAH M. SIEWERS, M. D. Member of Executive Committee, N. A. W. S. A.

FRANKFORT COMMITTEE REPORT.

March 12th, 1893, Miss Clay with Mrs. Henry, were called to Frankfort by telegram to hear the final discussion in the House on the Property Rights of Women.

April 5th and 6th, Miss Clay with Mrs. Farmer, endeavored to revive, if possible, the Women Physician's Bill. This bill passed the Senate, was killed in the House, because the Chairman on Charitable Institutions was not favorable to women serving as physicians in the Lunatic Asylums of the State. We were certain of the retention of the School Suffrage Clause in the charters for cities of the second class, but the legislators decided not to change the charters for these cities. Evening addresses were dispensed with. In making personal appeals to the legislators, we found them ever kind and courteous.

EUGENIA B. FARMER, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE CORRESPONDING SECRETARY.

The Sixth Annual Report of the Kentucky Equal Rights Association shows the members of the Association have not been idle. We have cause to be thankful for the conservative Property Rights Bill passed by the last Legislature and signed by Governor Brown on the 19th of May, 1893.

The School Suffrage clause was inserted in the charters for the cities of the second class; but the work was confined to the cities of Covington, Newport and Lexington. The Legislature decided not to change these charters.

TIME AND PLACE OF MEETING OF LOCAL ASSOCIATIONS.

FAYETTE EQUAL RIGHTS ASSOCIATION

Meets weekly at Lexington, but adjourns for the summer months. Have twenty-seven members. Have distributed during the year just past seven thousand five hundred pages of literature. On December 19th, 1892, this association voted out of its treasury eight dollars for state work to be paid on call of the State Association. A committee waited on Representative W. H. May, of Lexington, asking him to use his influence for the Women's Property Rights Bill then pending before the Legislature, and received from him a pledge to do all he could to favor the bill. Also communicated with the Hon. Thos. Pettit in reference to laws favoring women in the new constitution, and were informed that prospects were bright.

In March of 1893, took up the reading of the American Commonwealth, by Bryce; quite a number of the W. C. T. U. women joined us. By request of this Association, Mrs. Eugenia B. Farmer delivered an address in W. C. T. U. Hall, which was well attended, and was both instructive and interesting; subject "School Suffrage." At a meeting on October 12th, 1893, to elect delegates to the State Convention, five dollars was voted to State work.

KENTON COUNTY EQUAL RIGHTS ASSOCIATION

Meets Semi-Monthly in Covington. The principal work has been to secure a clause in the charters for cities of the second class, giving women the right to serve as members of the school board and vote for the same. Have distributed thirty-five hundred pages of literature.

LONDON EQUAL RIGHTS ASSOCIATION.

No report, but we know that some good work has been done.

LOUISVILLE EQUAL RIGHTS ASSOCIATION.

No report, but the women of this Association have not been idle. Some of them have done good work at the World's Fair.

CAMPBELL COUNTY EQUAL RIGHTS ASSOCIATION

Meets in Newport at Temperance Hall twice a month. Have fifty members. Distributed fifteen hundred pages of literature. Have taken up the study of Civil Government and Parliamentary Drill. A local committee endeavored to influence the school board to indorse school suffrage in the new charter. Last winter this Association offered a prize of five dollars to the High School pupils for the best essay in favor of the "Enfranchisement of women." Seven prominent citizens, four men and three women, were selected as judges of the essays and to confer the prize. When the prize was presented we had a public meeting, and essays, eight in number, were read by a young member of our Equal Rights Association, that the audience might benefit by the suffrage sentiment contained in them.

RICHMOND EQUAL RIGHTS ASSOCIATION

Meets once a month at headquarters. The Bible is read at the meetings. The principal work has been the opening of the college in this place to girls as well as boys.

EUGENIA B. FARMER, Corresponding Secretary.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That the Kentucky Equal Rights Association are determined to continue their efforts undaunted until every law is wiped from the statute books making distinction between the legal rights of men and women.

2nd. That the opening of all colleges in Kentucky, except a few, giving equal opportunities to women, encourage us to exert ourselves to have these also opened.

3rd. That we believe one standard of morals should be maintained for men and women, and that we ask that men of high moral character be elected to our legislative halls.

4th. That as our Association is non-sectarian and non-partisan, people of all creeds and parties are asked to work with us.

5th. That we express our gratitude to Rev. G. W. Bradford for his able address in the German Baptist Church, advocating our cause.

6th. That we thank the Fifth Street Christian Church and German Baptist Church for extending to us the use of their buildings.

7th. That we thank the citizens and the Equal Rights Association of Newport for their cordial hospitality, Mr. Farmer for paper and pencils, Mr. Burcaw for the beautiful flowers that decorated our Convention, and the press for their full and friendly notices.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON WORLD'S FAIR WORK.

Mrs. Avery found it impracticable to secure space for representing our work in the Kentucky Building, she decided to place a Kentucky register in the department of the N. A. W. S. A. in the Organization Room of the Women's Building, and to employ the lady attending there to transcribe into it the Kentucky names from the general suffrage register, In this manner nearly six hundred names were obtained. Donations to this committee work were ten dollars from Mrs. Avery and one dollar from Miss Clay.

MRS. B. F. AVERY, Committee of World's Fair Work.

REPORT OF THE FREE LECTURE BUREAU.
