Six Meals Daily

Mr. Grove ate a few pounds more as a result of the Norwegian custom of eating six times a day. And heavy, stable food, too! 'I was counting 100 calories per meal. There was always a lot of meat, potatoes, butter, cabbage, fat barley breads, and, of course, cheese. When a Norwegian wants to let his host know that he has finished his meal, he places a lump of sugar in his mouth. After that, no more food is passed to him. Instead, he gets a cup of hot coffee which he sips through the sugar in his mouth. It serves the people as an economical dessert.'

Some- where I heard that the French didn't bath very often, but I found plenty of tubs and good hot water. And the Metro is the best subway system I've ever seen. You just can't get lost."

Wants To Return By Fall

Mr. Grove recently returned from such a jaunt to the Continent and added that he was able to see nine- ty-nine French people just down the Rhine. Included were visits to historic places such as Amster- dam, Bremen, Antwerp, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Edinburgh, Lon- don, and Paris.

Most of the men were students and teachers from Yale, Harvard, and Columbia, and on another deck was a room full of college girls. Mr. Grove was in Oslo and then to- ward Stogofoten, Norway. Stogofoten is a village summer resort. It is a small town, but it has only one mile away.

Uncle Peder walked for three full days. When Mr. Grove arrived in Stogofoten he found a tall, wrinkled, old man of some 70 years approaching him. With a broad smile Uncle Peder welcomed his visitor to Norway, and they walked to the large log farm house situated in a little valley.

Although mother had taught me to speak Norwegian as a child," says Mr. Grove. "I found I didn't speak the language fluently enough. This meant I had to go through a re- learning process. When our conver- sation started flowing more freely, Uncle Peder said the only way he had recognized me at the station was by my resemblance to his sister. That's my mother, you know! It was especially interesting to see the very room where my mother was born shortly after the house had been built."

Uncle Peder had been a farmer, but he had become a teacher. He was especially interested to see the very room where my mother was born shortly after the house had been built."

The Full House

The between-semester basketball game with the Georgia Bulldogs has caused considerable discussion and criticism among students, especially by those who were turned away because Alumni Gymnasium was full when they arrived.

The following is a copy of a letter sent to the president of SGA by Athletic Director Shively:

February 7, 1950

Miss Catherine Barnett, President
Student Government Association
University of Kentucky
Dear Miss Barnett:

At the basketball game with the University of Georgia at Alumni Gym on the evening of January 28, about 60 of our students who possessed No. 9 tickets were turned away because the gymnasium was filled before they arrived at the doors. This was unfortunate, and I wish to explain the circumstances which caused the over-crowding.

Since the University was not in session the Athletic Department thought it should use the occasion to permit faculty members, none of whom are permitted to purchase tickets to any other games, to attend. Before placing any tickets at faculty disposal I attempted, as carefully as I could, to ascertain the number of students who might be expected to attend. I found from registration records that approximately 2100 students lived either in Lexington or commuting distance.

Since only half the student body had tickets for each game I divided the 2100 by two which gave a figure of 1050. In the past we have found that only about 80 per cent of the students attend basketball games. Under ordinary circumstances, therefore, we might have expected that approximately 840 students would have attended the Georgia game.

Accordingly we gave the faculty and staff the privilege of purchasing two tickets each, with a limit on the total number of tickets sold at 1291. Absolutely no tickets were sold to others than faculty and staff. If the usual percentage of students had come to the game, therefore, the attendance would have been a little over 2100.

Since the gym accommodates 2700, there was a safety margin of over 600 seats to take care of any possible miscalculation in our estimate of the number of students who might attend. We actually allowed for a possible attendance of 1469 students, although experience would have predicted that about 840 would attend.

The fire marshal estimated that there were over 1,750 people sitting and standing in the student section. These people were all admitted on student tickets. It is possible that the majority of these were students who were entitled to admittance. It is quite possible that many students came to the game from greater distances than we anticipated. It is also possible that many students who knew they would not be here for the game gave their tickets to non-students.

Regardless of the circumstances, the Athletic Department deeply regrets the embarrassment and inconvenience caused the students who were turned away. At game time we feel it would have been stupid to have refused to admit the faculty when we could reasonably expect that there would not have been enough students present to half fill the gymnasium.

Very truly,
B. A. SHIVELY,
Athletic Director.

There may have been more students turned away, as several have said—that cannot be very accurately calculated. Certainly, none of us begrudge the faculty the privilege of seeing the Wildcats in action once a year. It should have been announced, however, that the tickets would be sold to them. We believe that in the future such action will be followed.

In the meantime the Georgia game is over and the arch-enemies of the Wildcats, Tennessee's Volunteers, will be here to attempt to defeat Kentucky a third time during this school year. We hope that those who are lucky enough to see that game will do their best to help send the Vols back to Knoxville with rusty rifles. Newspaper people aren't generally superstitious, but after those headlines and pictures this fall, we won't say anything more.

And At Home

In a Saturday Evening Post article called "How Our Commies Defame America Abroad," a Montana University graduate reports the activities of the American delegation to the World Youth and Student Festival in Hungary.

Among other things, Vic Reimner states, the delegation described the United States as a place where, "in a time of developing economic crisis, the few of us lucky enough to land jobs face declining wages, insecure seniority, speed-up campaigns of terror and sabotage against our unions." But the greater part of our young people have no jobs at all, and walk the streets in search of employment. Many of us are former servicemen, our meager veterans' allotments exhausted, our postwar dreams of full employment smashed. To the ever louder demand of our youth for jobs, all Wall Street can answer is "Join the Army."

The largest segment of the 200-member delegation, he explains, was made up of about 95 students.

We do not doubt the truthfulness of the article. We are all fairly familiar with the symbolism and partial truths of Communist propaganda. But the impression remains in the reader's mind that most of those delegates were students.

In this instance, the percentage of students is not alarming, because most young people on the job could hardly take off a few weeks for a trip to Europe even if they wished. But in practically every expose of Communist activity some mention is made of the presence of students.

We do not believe that the impression left by such articles is a fair one, but the fact remains that many students have been and are at present either Communists or fellow-travelers. We do not believe there is a single Communist sympathizer on this campus. But because others have opened the doors to doubt we will necessarily be caught in the draft—and need a coat that isn't red.

LETTERS to the Editor

No Spots?
Editor, The Kernel:

Now that the long-awaited field-house is nearing completion, I say leave us not hide our light under a bushel, a peck or any other such inconvenient measure that the Bureau of Standards can devise.

What I mean is, let's not hide the name of our imposing edifice in the concrete above the door as such architects (you'll pardon the expression) as we have are wont to do. My suggestion is to place a huge, if not magnanimous, neon sign above the entrance so that passers-by as well as sports fans may know just where the new Wildcat den is located.

May I also suggest that the head of a Wildcat be placed under the

Editor, The Kernel:
Why print such an editorial as the one in your January 26th issue? I'm satisfied with the University just the way it is now. Who wants a progressive school with a lot of color, spirit and paeantry? They just take up a lot of your time when you could be doing something else.

We have a fine school and everyone should realize it. You can rest assured that anything the administration does it does for the good of the students. The administration should put SGA off the campus anyway because the students should spend more time studying and less time meddling in affairs that don't concern them.

Jim . . . "Kernel prints routine news because . . . I have a routine staff and the hand is not worth more than a few credit hours anyway. Why try to make it any different?"

This is one of Tau Sigma's projects to interest men in modern dance. Through this class for beginners the men can advance to Tau Sigma.
It is requested that all men should bring gym shorts or a bathing suit for classes.

Nominees Listed For Queen Of Annual Mardi Gras Ball

Candidates for Queen of the third annual Mardi Gras Ball, to be held from 8 to 12 p.m. on Feb. 17 in the SUB Ballroom, have been announced.
All campus sororities and residence halls have nominated candidates for the title. They are Peggy Holmes, Alpha Delta Pi; Mary Blanton Williams, Alpha Gamma Delta; Carolyn Carter, Alpha Xi Delta; Barbara Harris, Chi Omega; Barbara McGhee, Delta Zeta; Joan Rhodes, Tri Delta; Harriet Russell, Kappa Alpha Theta; Doll Price, Kappa Delta; Ann Guthrie, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Elizabeth Friburghouse, Pi Phi; Betty Blake, Rho Chi; Sue Kiffner, Jewell Hall; and Barbara Kline, Lydia Brown House. The Zeta Tau Alpha candidate has not been announced.
Feature of the evening will be the coronation ceremonies, during which the queen and her attendants will be named. Prof. Bobson D. McIntyre, winner of the Most Popular Professor election, will crown the queen and reign as Rex of the Mardi Gras.
Bob Bleidt and his Blue and White Orchestra will play. A floor show will also be presented.
Tickets will be on sale in the Student Union, fraternities, and residence halls. Price of admission is $1.25 per person. Masks and novelties will be furnished. Students may come in costume or semi-formal. Prizes will be awarded for the most novel costumes.
The Ball is sponsored by the Newman Club. Bob Ruberg, law student, is general chairman.

TV Company Plans Contest

A drama-writing contest for college students has been announced by the television branch of the Columbia Broadcasting System and World Video Inc.
The contest, which ends June 28, will be made up of four competitive periods. The first extends from Feb. 3 to March 20. The second is from April 1 to April 20. The next is May 1 to May 20, and the last is from June 1 to June 20. The prizes are $500 for a one hour script and $250 for a half-hour script. Separate awards will be made for each phase of the contest.
Scripts will be judged for originality, freshness, and ingenuity in exploring television as a new intimate visual-auditory medium.
The board of judges is made up of Charles M. Underhill, director of CBS television programs; John Steinbeck, author; and Donald Davis, dramatist and screen writer.
Complete details may be secured by writing to the Director of Awards, 13 E. Forty-seventh Street, New York.

Coeds Urged To Sign Up For Rush Week Feb. 13

All women who are interested in being rushed should sign up to the Dean of Women's Office. Students who have not previously registered will have to pay the dollar rush fee, but those who were registered during this calendar year should sign up to indicate that they are interested in being rushed this semester.
Rush Day will be February 25. Interested students should sign up as soon as possible, preferably by Monday, February 13, but the last day one may sign up is February 20.
The rushing period is informal, with parties by invitation only, and no silence. The rules for this season are few. Rushes may not be held in a sorority house the week before Bid Day. They may make only one date at a time with a sorority.
Oral bidding of unregistered rushes is permitted, but it is not binding until the written bid is accepted. All sorority rush parties must be approved by the Social Director.

Dance Given By SAE

Rushes will be entertained by Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity with a tea dance at the Fireside Room in the Phoenix Hotel from 3-6 Saturday.
Following the dance a buffet dinner will be given at the chapter house preceding the Tennessee basketball game.
The chaperones for the dance will be Mrs. Ballard Lanxon, Mrs. Gerald Griffin, and Mrs. Robert Hood.

Te Deum President To Address UK Club

Mr. George Herline, president of the Te Deum lecture forum, will be guest speaker at the monthly Mass and Communion Breakfast of the Newman Club, Sunday at 9:30 a.m. The meeting will be held at St. Catherine's Academy on N. Limestone Street.
Confessions will be heard beginning at 8:30. The Communion Breakfast will be held in the basement of the Academy immediately following Mass.

Six Are Pledged By Theta Sigma Phi

Theta Sigma Phi, women's professional journalism society, pledged six journalism majors recently. Betty Mastin, president, has announced.
Pledging ceremonies were held for Jane Anderson, Neil Blair, Rosemary Hilling, Shirley Leathers, Mary Sweetman, and Kathryn Whitmer.

'Hearts' To Reign At Patt Hall Formal

Patt Hall will give a formal dance at the dorm from 9-12 p.m. Friday. Woody Woods and his orchestra will furnish the music. A couple will be chosen while dancing to be crowned King and Queen of Hearts.

Delts Give Rushees Valentine Dance

A Valentine informal dance honoring the rushees will be given by Delta Tau Delta fraternity at the Lafayette Ballroom from 9-12 p.m. Saturday.
Music for the dance will be furnished by Woody Woods and his orchestra.
The chaperones at the dance are Mrs. Ethel B. Fish, Mrs. Jeanette Jones, and Mrs. E. V. Inman.

Applications Being Accepted For Membership Until Feb. 17 On SUB Service Committees

Service committees of the Student Union Board are now accepting members. Students interested in joining these committees should apply by Feb. 17 to the SUB.

Committees have definite functions in the governing policies of the SUB. The committees, chairman and activities are:

- Activities Committee—Chairman, Joan Cook. This committee sponsors bridge lessons, chess clubs, student faculty parties, and SUB exhibits.
- House Committee—Chairman, Suzanne Rogers. The members of this committee act as official hostesses and hosts at all activities sponsored by the SUB. These include the Greater Swings.
- Koffee Club—Chairman, Helen Doss. Informal discussions and talks by outstanding speakers on the campus are sponsored.
- Publicity Committee—Chairman, Bob McCowan. Art and Poster—Chairman, Betty Ball. This committee sets up ideas to improve and carry on Student Union publicity. They also publish a SUB publicity sheet.
- Sports Committee—Chairman, Kenneth Fely. All tournaments of a sports nature are sponsored by this committee.
- Outing Club—Chairman, Julie Bradley. This club plans outdoor activities, such as hikes, skating parties, and winter roasts.

Students planning to join these committees should clip and fill in the application blank, which is in this issue of the Kernel. All applicants should be left at the Student Union information desk.

NOW HEAR THIS

By T. J. Clark

To some of you jokers this column will be a new and terrifying experience, so I'll commence this week's NOW HEAR THIS by offering an unsatisfactory excuse of some sort. Not many people give a damn (a damn is an Indian coin worth about one-fourty-eighth of a cent), but there is an organization on the campus known to the front office as the University of Kentucky Radio Service. WBKY and the radio arts department include this service. All my job is to tell Kernel readers about the piece.

As happens at the beginning of new shows and personalities. And in that connection, here goes:

Faculty Personals

Dr. Romanowitz

Dr. H. A. Romanowitz, professor of electrical engineering, spoke on the influence of the television industry at the annual meeting of the Kentucky Society of Professional Engineers held in Lexington recently.

Mrs. Duncan

Mrs. May K. Duncan, head of the Department of Elementary Education, spoke recently to two Mason County school groups in Mayslick.

Her topics were "Problems of Reading," and "The Role of Parents in Teaching Children to Read."

Prof. Baker

Prof. Merl Baker of the Department of Mechanical Engineering, attended the annual meeting of the American Society of Heating and Ventilating Engineers recently in Dallas.

He presented a paper on the "Removal of Internal Radiation by Cooling Panels." It was a report on results of Prof. Baker's research on incoherent filament.

Dr. Chamberlain

Dr. Leo M. Chamberlain, vice president of the University, spoke on the significance of the increase in size and enrollment of colleges and universities in the United States at the recent meeting of the Kentucky Society of Professional Engineers.

Dr. Chamberlain predicted an increase in enrollment by 1955 which, he said, would create unprecedented problems in educational finance. He suggested new tax sources, federal aid, and regional cooperation as possible solutions.

Dr. Allison

Dr. N. B. Allison of the Department of Electrical Engineering spent the week between semesters at the Naval Ordnance Laboratory in Washington, D. C.

He completed a project connected with his summer research work.

Dr. Donovan

President H. L. Donovan was guest speaker at a recent meeting of the Lexington Chamber of Commerce held in the SUB.

Dr. Donovan spoke on the influence of the University on Lexington business. He estimated that UK caused the circulation of more than $15,000,000 in the city.

Dr. Allison

Dr. N. B. Allison of the Department of Electrical Engineering spent the week between semesters at the Naval Ordnance Laboratory in Washington, D. C.

He completed a project connected with his summer research work.

UK Students Make Radio Studio Tours

The Student Branch of the Institute of Radio Engineers made an inspection trip through WRAS and WAYE transmitter and radio studio in Louisville recently.

Prof. H. W. Farris of the Department of Electrical Engineering and twenty-five student members of the IRE toured the studios. Mr. O. W. Towner, technical director of radio station WRAS, was host to the group.

Conn-Cox-'Uns

By Earl Conn and Bob Cox

WE'VE been back whether you like it or not and once again we'll attempt to amuse you with a few of the latest (?) jokes (?) we've been hearing and reading, etc.

For a starter, we'd like to reprint something which appeared in the Purdue River some time ago. It was titled "Shows We'd Like To See."

No. 1—It is opening night of the new show. The big star is suddenly taken ill. Sally O'Schmo, the cute little unknown understudy, sets her big chance. She loses it all up.

No. 2—Two men are in love with the same girl. One is a rich play boy; the other is a struggling young song writer. She marries the play boy. She never regrets it.

No. 3—Insulted by a vulgar rowdy, the new schoolmaster turns to the passing cowboy for aid. He says that it is none of his business and rides away.

No. 4—A soldier makes a blind date with a girl who answers the phone when he gets a wrong number. They don't like each other at first sight. They have a boring evening and part forever.

No. 5—Some crooks offer Charlie, the girl, a very lovely person, tells him to choose between the dishonest money and her, Charlie, not being a damn fool, throws the fight and retains with the $100,000.

No. 6—The girl is being tormented by the Indians. The HERO strides into camp through a cloud of tobacco smoke and calmly tells Chief Eagle-Shoot that he is leaving with the girl. Chief Eagle-Shoot calmly plants a tomahawk between the HERO's eyes. The Indians continue to torture the girl.

Looking oddly at the man who had just given him a nickel for carrying his bags twice blocks, the little boy said, "I know something about you."

Coffee-Loving Students!

Have you tried this easier, better way to ROASTER-FRESH COFFEE?

Next time you know you're going to have to stay up late studying, pick up a jar of Nescafe.

Nothing helps you through long sessions like coffee. And no coffee is easier to make than Nescafe. It's instant. Simply put one teaspoonful of Nescafe in a cup, add hot water (preferably boiling), stir.

Good? It's delicious! Nescafe just naturally makes a better cup of coffee, because it always keeps its roaster's flavor until you reheat it in the cup.

Yes, Nescafe gives you all the flavor of "hot" coffee. It's freshly roasted, freshly brewed coffee, without the fuss and aggravation of brewing.

Nescafe is the instant way to pure coffee enjoyment. If you like good coffee—you'll love Nescafe. Keep it on hand for all occasions.

More people drink Nescafe than all other instant coffees!

*Nescafe (pronounced neh-see-ah) is the exclusive registered trademark of The Nestle Company, Vevey, Switzerland. It is a decaffeinated, instant coffee which contains no caffeine and added pure carbohydrate (dextrose, maltose and dextrane) added solely to protect the flavor.

Kentucky Basketeers Bill Spivey

By Tom Diskin

One of the top features of the Kentucky-Tennessee game tomorrow night in Alumni Gym will be the return match between Bill Spivey and the Vols' pivotman, Art Harris.

The first meeting of these two centers is still very vivid in the minds of Kentucky followers. Harris dumped in 10 goals and eight free throws for a total of 39 points—the highest he ever scored. Spivey, meanwhile, hit only five fielders and two free throws for 12 points, which is low for him.

Big Bill is anxious to get another shot at Harris. Many sports fans, including yours truly, feel that Spivey had one of his rare bad nights and will do much better this time. Anyway, the clash between the two basketeers will be very interesting to watch.

Spivey at the moment is leading the Conference in scoring with 344 points in 20 games for an average of 17.2. His nearest rival is Jim Lane, with 281 in 20 contests, while Georgia's Bob Schloss has 241 tallies in 16 tilt.

Considering the fact that the seven-foot, and one-quarter inch Spivey is only a sophomore, his 17.2 average per game is quite remarkable. We firmly believe that he is destined to become one of basketball's all-time greats. He has the ability, the determination and the physical equipment to become another George Mikan or Alex Groza. His hook shot is one of the best in the nation.

Listed below are the scoring records for Mikan, Groza and Bill Kurland in their sophomore years in collegiate ball. Mikan played for DePaul, Kurland for Oklahoma A & M, and Groza, of course, for Kentucky.

PLAYER	GAMES	PTS.	AVERAGE
MIKAN	496	486	18.6
SPIVEY	20	344	17.2
KURLAND	23	444	19.4
GROZA	37	486	16.2

Some of the gloss of Mikan and Kurland's marks might be dimmed when it is considered that they were playing sophomore ball during the war when many of the top players were in service.

Born in Florida

Spivey is now 20 years of age. He was born March 19, 1929, in Lakeland, Fla., but lived most of his life in Georgia.

He played his final three years in high school for Warren Robins and during this period scored a total of over 1800 points. In his final season there, he racked up 890 tallies in 30 games for an average of 27.6.

Because his team did not go far in the State tournaments, Spivey was never selected for All-Georgia. In fact, he never even made All-Regional which goes to show how unimportant these honors can be sometimes.

Contrary to magazine articles now being written about him, Spivey was never written about in Chicago while his opponent, Pavlovich, got only 10.4 Then two nights later, Spivey racked up over half of the Cats' points by scoring 27, but Kentucky still lost to a fired-up Notre Dame five, 64-51. 5) "Grits" again scored 27 last Feb. 2 against Alabama at Tusculoo as UK barely won, 66-64, in a hair-raising affair.

"Grits" got his nickname from one of Atlanta newspapers about Spivey and his feats at Warner Robins High. That was in the early part of 1946.

Enrolled Here in 1946

Spivey was brought up to Lexington later for a tryout and UK Baron saw possibilities in the Georgian. Spivey then enrolled in UK in the summer of 1946 and picked up some valuable tips from Groza and Kurland, who were then preparing for the Olympic games in London.

That fall, playing on the undefeated freshmen team, Spivey improved rapidly and finished the season scoring 296 points in 15 games for an average of practically 20 points per tilt. He hit 48.3 percent of his field goal attempts for the year.

This season, "Grits," as he is called by his teammates, has been the No. 1 threat on the squad. Spivey, who wears a size-15 shoe, impressed New York sportswriters very much when he tallied 17 points against St. John's while holding Bob Zawoluk to just three points.

Other outstanding performances by the Ukian giant were: 1) When he scored 22 points against Bradley in the finals of the Sugar Bowl tourney while Paul Durah was held to 16. 2) Scoring 22 points against Arkansas three nights later as UK won a close one, 67-64, at Fayetteville. 3) Scoring 21 against DePaul in Chicago while his opponent, Pavlovich, got only 10.4 Then two nights later, Spivey racked up over half of the Cats' points by scoring 27, but Kentucky still lost to a fired-up Notre Dame five, 64-51. 5) "Grits" again scored 27 last Feb. 2 against Alabama at Tusculoo as UK barely won, 66-64, in a hair-raising affair.

Does Playing At Home Make A Difference?

By Earl Conn, Assistant Sports Editor

Does it mean anything to a basketball team to be playing at home and, if it does mean anything, about how many points advantage does it give the home team. A study of this season's records of games through Feb. 4 appears to prove that on the average the home-team has an advantage of 12 points.

Long and loud has the argument been raging about just what the advantage is in playing games at home. Some claim that there is no advantage while others state the point advantage ranges from six points to 15 points.

In arriving at the above 12-point home-court advantage the records of the top 45 teams in the nation which had played some team both at home and away were used. These series of home and away games were some 62 series or 124 games with a joint difference of a total of 752 points better at home.

The perfect example of what the home court can mean to a team would be the case of the Georgia Tech Ramblers.

Georgia Tech played the University of Georgia twice, winning at home, 66-51, and losing away, 55-47, or a point difference of 16 points—the value of their home court in this case. Also they played Tennessee at home winning 68-57, and then losing, 56-48, away. Also they stopped Duke at home, 69-55, but lost 62-64, away.

Yet another example would be Illinois—a member of the Big Ten. Illinois beat Oklahoma 57-47 at home but lost 47-55 away. The Illini stopped Ohio State 66-50 at home but lost 62-63 away—a point difference in this case of some 32 points.

In the case of Illinois which has played three teams both at home and away, their home court has been worth an average of some 27 points a game—an almost impossible fig-

DePaul Exception

The one great exception to the rule is the strange case of DePaul. DePaul played at home and lost to Ohio State 62-70. Then DePaul played at Ohio State and beat the Buckeyes 70-68. Also the DePaul club lost at home to Oklahoma A & M 45-53 but traveled to A & M's home court and won 41-46. These exceptions counted as minus in the study.

Western Kentucky was defeated

at Cincinnati by the Bearcat team 34-33 but Uncle Eddie Diddle said "wait till we get them down at Western" and the Western crew rolled over this same Cincinnati team 66-45 at home.

Some people may argue that the home floor doesn't mean a thing and that the best team will win regardless of where the game is played but just follow the records of such teams as Illinois, North Carolina State, Ohio State, and our own Kentucky (users 60-71 at Georgia but winners here 68-56) and that argument soon fades.

And as final proof, the case of Duke. As a final proof, the case of Duke. As a final proof, the case of Duke. As a final proof, the case of Duke.

Fencers Face Tough Season

The University fencing team, under the tutelage of Coach Scott Breckenridge, Jr., began the 1950 season, yesterday in a match here against the University of Illinois.

This year's schedule is perhaps the toughest the UK swordsmen have had to face since the reorganization of the squad in 1947 by Breckenridge, who was a member of the Kentucky team before the war.

Last season, the fencers lost only to Illinois. They defeated Vanderbilt, Cincinnati and Louisville twice each for a 6-1 record.

Returning letters are Alan Solomon, Doug Brown, George Christian, Sid Neal, John Ford, Charles Mitchell and Jim Ryan.

Others on the squad include Dick Wohlstein, Bob Oman, Bill Southall, Paul Wright, and Frierick Thompson.

The 30 card is as follows:

Feb. 9—U. of Illinois, here
Feb. 18—Vanderbilt, here

at Cincinnati by the Bearcat team 34-33 but Uncle Eddie Diddle said "wait till we get them down at Western" and the Western crew rolled over this same Cincinnati team 66-45 at home.

Some people may argue that the home floor doesn't mean a thing and that the best team will win regardless of where the game is played but just follow the records of such teams as Illinois, North Carolina State, Ohio State, and our own Kentucky (users 60-71 at Georgia but winners here 68-56) and that argument soon fades.

And as final proof, the case of Duke. As a final proof, the case of Duke. As a final proof, the case of Duke.

IM Sports

The only Intramural activity of the new semester is the practice sessions now being held by the aspirants for the basketball crown worn by last year's champs, the Men's Dorm.

The fight for the new halo gets under way Monday night with the first games of the round-robin journey that will decide the winner.

A complete schedule for all games will be posted on the Intramural bulletin board Saturday morning. Deadline for entries is 3 p.m. Friday. Intramural Director Bill McCutbin said.

Feb. 25—Notre Dame and UL at Louisville

Mar. 4—U. of Virginia, North Carolina State, and U. of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, NC

Mar. 11—U. of Cincinnati, here

Wildcats Win Series Of Close Encounters

The Kentucky Wildcats have won five games in a row. Last week, they overcame Vanderbilt, Alabama, and Mississippi in close affairs but dropped from the No. 6 position in the Associated Press poll to No. 7 team in the nation.

The Cats have been idle all this week for a change, in preparation for a return tilt with our beloved neighbors, the Tennessee Volunteers.

Since the AP poll is taken each Sunday (and announced each Tuesday), the result of the Tennessee game Saturday night is doubly important. A good showing against the Vols might move UK up into a higher position providing the other top teams falter.

Holly Cross is first in the country; Bradley next; Dugganese third; Ohio State and St. John's tied for fourth; Long Island U. is sixth; and Kentucky seventh.

The results of the last five games for the Big Blue basketballers played during the exam or mid-semester period are listed below.

Kentucky 38, Xavier 47. "Sunny Jim" Line was Kentucky's brightest star last January 26, when the Cats clipped Xavier University, 58-47, before 7,463 fans at Cincinnati's new $2,500,000 Gardens.

The handsome center from Akron, Ohio, was on the beam with his deadly left-handed shot, scoring 20 points—17 in the first 28 minutes. UK center, Bill Spivey, was next for the Big Blue with 16, while Skippy Whitaker had 10.

High man for XU was Friedman Gene Smith with 19, while Bill Cady, a Northern Kentucky lad, had 13. Shelby Linville made his first appearance since becoming eligible and scored one basket for the Ruppmen in two attempts.

The scoring: Kentucky (58) — F (47) Xavier Line (20) — F (13) Cady Hirsch (2) — F (10) Spivey (16) — C (18) Smith Watson (1) — C (12) Dean Barney (2) — G (2) Mortshorn Sub: UK—Whitaker (10); Pearson (9); Linville (2); Xavier—Kertholl (2); Ruberg; Alston (1). Halftime score: UK 22, XU 25.

Kentucky 38, Georgia 56. The superbly-conditioned Walt Hirsch played one of the best games of his career on January 28th, scoring 21 points to pace Kentucky to an 88-56 revenue win over Georgia in Alumni Gym before an overflow crowd.

It was the Cats' 78th consecutive win here. Hirsch shot well, rebounded numerous times off both backboards and helped feed the roundball into "Grits" Spivey for resultant goals. In the first 10 minutes of the second half, Walt, a 6-4 forward from Dayton, Ohio, scored 15 points.

Spivey outscored his opponent, Bob (Slim) Schloss, 6-8 center, 18 points for Mar. Schloss fouled out before the first half ended, with UK ahead 39-27.

The red-shirted visitors played outstanding ball the first 15 minutes until Kentucky's superior bench strength showed up. The score was 26-26 after the first 15 minutes.

Then the Cats spurred to the front and led 29-23 at halftime. After that it was a case of how much Rupp's Raiders would win by. Reed Morgan, 6-4 transfer from U. of Wisconsin, made his initial appearance for the Cats and did very well, especially on rebounds.

Kentucky (58) (56) Georgia Hirsch (21) — F (20) (3) Rainey Line (11) — F (14) Davis Spivey (16) — C (18) Schloss Whitaker (12) — G (10) Jordan Barney (4) — G (4) Healey Substitutions: Ky—Morgan (4); Linville (7); Pearson (4); Morgan (1); Strong (2) and Towne (11). Georgia—Dinkright (19); Bryant (4); Williams (7); Dykes (3); Day (2) and Thomas.

Halftime score: UK 39, Georgia 33. Kentucky 58, Vanderbilt 54. A capacity crowd at Nashville on Monday, Jan. 30th, saw the Kentucky Wildcats present all the way but they finally defeated the SEC leaders, Vanderbilt University, 58-54, in a wild game.

UK's Shelby Linville got the Cats off to a good start, hitting four of his first six shots and collected 10 points in the time he played. Late in the game he was injured and in the end, Bill Spivey came through with 15 points to lead the Ruppmen.

High man for the Vandy Commodores was Forward Billy Joe Adcock with 18 points. Halftime score was 30-30.

The scoring: Kentucky (58) — F (18) Adcock Hirsch (9) — F (8) Southwood Spivey (18) — C (19) Kelley Barney (7) — G (10) Duvier Watson (6) — G (11) Hedman Reserves: UK—Linville (12); King; Pearson (4); Whitaker (2); Strong and Towne. VU—Karlsson (9); Robinson (1); Smith (1).

Kentucky 66, Alabama 64. "Grits" Spivey and Dobby Watson were key men in a close win over Alabama on Thursday night, Feb. 1, in Bama's Foster Auditorium.

A jam-packed crowd of 3200 saw Kentucky win 66-64, as Spivey hit for 27 points—23 of which came in the first 30 minutes.

It was Coach Adolph Rupp's 400th win since taking over the reins of the Wildcats back in 1939 and one which he will probably long remember.

With five minutes left, the score was 60-60. Seconds later, Watson hit a fielder. With one and one-half minutes remaining, Watson was fouled and connected to make it 63-60. Thirty seconds later, the Owens-

Indiana lads, Grashler and Michiens, were high for the Rebels, with 20 and 12 points respectively. The score at halftime showed the Wildcats with a 32-22 lead, but Ole Miss came back strong and narrowed the lead.

However, the Kentucky basketballers settled down and carefully guarded the slim margin in the last stages of the game.

The scoring: Line (9) — F (7) Reeves Hirsch (4) — F (2) Marshall Spivey (16) — C (9) Smith Barney (11) — G (20) Grashler Watson (14) — G (12) Michiens Reserves: Linville (6); Whitaker (1); Miss—Cook and Childers (6).

Cats Seventh

For the fourth straight week, Holy Cross was voted in the national-wide Associated Press poll as the country's top cage team.

Kentucky dropped from sixth to seventh place.

The top teams are as follows: (first-place votes in parentheses, points on a basis of 19 or over, first, nine for second, eight for third, etc.)

Table with 2 columns: Team, Record Pts. 1. Holy Cross (3) — 17-9 598 2. Bradley (4) — 19-3 728 3. Dugganese (2) — 16-1 599 4. Ohio State (2) — 18-2 492 5. Long Island (3) — 15-2 288 7. KENTUCKY (5) — 16-4 264 8. N. C. State (2) — 17-3 244 9. LaSalle (5) — 14-2 234 10. Kansas State (6) — 15-4 229 11. Western Ky. (4) — 16-4 199 12. UCLA (3) — 15-5 191 13. Louisville — 29-6 165 14. CCNY — 12-2 137 15. San Francisco (8) — 12-5 122 boro guard made another free throw. Then Barney hit a rip and UK led, 66-60.

However, Bama never gave up and with less than one minute left, Bryan Ivey scored twice on set shots before the frenzied game ended.

Dylon Hammer, veteran guard, was UK's high man with 17.

The scoring: Line (14) — F (12) Ivey Hirsch (5) — C (1) Schneider Spivey (27) — C (6) Sullivan Barney (2) — G (17) Hammer Watson (7) — G (11) McKenna Reserves: Whitaker (2); Linville (6); Pearson (3) and Morgan. UA—Moore (12); Dean (5); and Vrotsos.

Kentucky 61, Ole Miss 55. For the third consecutive time the Cats were nearly upset by a Bryan Ivey scored twice on set shots before the frenzied game ended.

Playing the University of Mississippi Rebel Saturday, Feb. 4th, at Memphis, Kentucky captured its sixth SEC victory as against two losses, by a score of 61-55.

Again it was Bill Spivey, 7-foot center from Macon, Ga., and Bob Owensboro, who were important factors in the UK triumph. Spivey flipped in 16 points.

Watson had 14, and Captain Dale Barnstable played one of his best games this season scoring 11 tallies.

Two Indiana lads, Grashler and Michiens, were high for the Rebels, with 20 and 12 points respectively. The score at halftime showed the Wildcats with a 29-22 lead, but Ole Miss came back strong and narrowed the lead.

However, the Kentucky basketballers settled down and carefully guarded the slim margin in the last stages of the game.

The scoring: Line (9) — F (7) Reeves Hirsch (4) — F (2) Marshall Spivey (16) — C (9) Smith Barney (11) — G (20) Grashler Watson (14) — G (12) Michiens Reserves: Linville (6); Whitaker (1); Miss—Cook and Childers (6).

Kittens Score Impressive Wins Over Three Opponents

By Bob Corham

Kentucky's Kittens had little trouble in two games played this week on foreign courts, wallowing these, points on a basis of 19 or over, first, nine for second, eight for third, etc.)

The Little Cats, minus the services of four players who were with the team during the first semester, jumped out to a lead in the opening minutes of the Sue Bennett game and went on to post a 37-13 halftime lead.

Coach Harry Lancaster used his entire squad, with scoring honors going to Dick Pikrone with 15 points, Lindie Castle and Frank Ramsey pushed through 15 each, while Cliff Hagan, who joined the team late last month tabbed 14. Hagan got eight of his points in the final minute of play, after being limited to six up to that time.

Warden Dixon led Sue Bennett with 10 points, followed by Bert Cox with nine. Cox was a member of last year's Kentucky freshman team, but transferred to Sue Bennett this year.

In the Cumberland game, the Kittens jumped out to a quick 12-0 lead and were never challenged. They hit 18 of the 40 shots they took in the first half for a 45 percent average. The halftime score was 47-23.

Castle High Man Six of the eight men Coach Lancaster used in the fray hit the double column in scoring. Lindie Castle was high with 19 markers, Cliff Hagan was next in line with 17. Frank Ramsey and Dick Pikrone flipped in 14 apiece. Lou Tsoropoulos pushed through 11, and Dwight Price notched 10. Bob Frye, two and Chas Riddle's single tally rounded out the scoring.

For the Cumberland five, Watson was high with 10 points, followed by Craig with nine.

The next game for the Kittens will be in Alumni gym Saturday night with the Pikeville Junior College experts. Game time is 8:00 p.m. on Monday night, they tangle with Wesleyan in a return game beginning at 9:30 p.m. Wesleyan is the only team to have defeated the Kittens thus far. The Methodist team won a 55-48 upset at Winchester earlier this season.

Fresh Squad Changes Six freshmen players from last semester are no longer on the Kentucky yearling squad. Gone are Donald Dick, of Rocky River, Ohio; Ray Fritz, Waco, Ky.; Don Uarsons, Berea; Wendall Jones, Maytown; Jimmy Wax, Montgomery, Ala.; and Eugene Hodge, Lexington.

Newcomers since the end of first semester are: Cliff Hagan, 6-4 lead from Owensboro; Walt Balthzell and Bob Frye, Balthzell and Frye were members of the freshmen grid team, while Hagan was recently graduated from Owensboro Senior High after making All-State two years.

Substitutions: Kentucky—Fritz (1); Price (5); Hagan (9); Riddle and Hodge. Xavier frosh—Hills, Brennan, and Hetterich (4).

points. Xavier's Bill Simms, a native of Louisville, scored 16 and Buck Budge, of Fort Thomas, closely followed with 14 for the losers.

Ramsey is now top scorer for Coach Lancaster's quintet with 63 points in five games; Dwight Price is second with 55.

Making his first appearance for UK was Owensboro's Cliff Hagan, twice All-State center, who recently enrolled here. Hagan, working in the double pivot with 6-5 Lou Tsoropoulos, played well in the 20 minutes he was used. Besides scoring nine points, he fouled several Muskie goal attempts with nice defensive plays.

Big Lou Tsoropoulos, of Lynn, Mass., was outstanding on both boards. "Herm" Pikrone, of Chicago, also turned in a fine game for Kentucky. He hit two long set shots and a crisp in the space of 49 seconds of the second-half to help bust the game up.
