NAVAL PARLEY TO CLOSE

London, Dec. 13 (INS)—America's delegation to the London naval parley will leave almost on the day Washington receives Japan's notification of abrogation of the 5-5-3 ratio treaty. This was made a practical certainty today following a conference between Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald of Britain and Norman H. Davis, American's unattached ambassador. Failure of instructions the Japanese representative expected from Tokyo to arrive on time was responsible for the additional delay in suspension of the London talks.

"AMERICAN PRESS FREE"

Washington, Dec. 13 (INS)—The American people are the only people in the world to enjoy a completely free press—free from the whims and dictation of the government. Eliza Hanson, general counsel for the American Newspaper Publishers' association, told a nationwide radio audience last night, "This has been made possible," he said, "through the honesty of purpose of the four great press groups in this country, the newspapers, and cooperation with the radio in the presentation of factual news at a cost to the associations of more than $25,000,000 annually."

BYRNS ASSURED OFFICE

Washington, Dec. 13 (INS)—Rep. Joseph Byrns, of Tennessee, today was assured of election as speaker of the house in the 74th Congress. Confident for weeks of his election, Byrns saw the field being cleared for his unanimous nomination by House Democrats as rival candidates withdrew from the fight. Byrns' nomination by the huge House majority to succeed the late Speaker Henry I. Rainey is expected to come when the House convenes January 2, one day before Congress convenes.

PONIES TO FLY

Chicago, Dec. 13 (INS)—Unseen, snow-filled roads are cleared today the polo ponies of Culver Military Academy will be brought here by airplane for the Academy's annual polo match Saturday night with the 1934 Cavalry Trio. Numerous snow drifts between the two camps, caused Maj. B. F. Hoge of the academy faculty to arrange for airplane delivery of the mounts. The animals, he feared, might contract pneumonia on a slow trip in the cold.

FOREIGN MINISTERS NAMED

Washington, Dec. 13 (INS)—President Roosevelt today announced George T. Sumnerlin, of Louisiana, as Minister to Panama, and Antonio C. Gonzalez, of New York City, as Minister to Ecuador.

SENATOR MCDONALD ILL

Manila, P. I., Dec. 13 (INS)—U. S. Senator William Gibbs McAdoo of California today was stricken with illness while touring the Philippine Islands in company with Senators Tydings of Maryland and McNamara of Tennessee. Word of Senator McAdoo's illness was contained in a brief dispatch from Col. L. F. Manley, U. S. A., who accompanied the senators to Manila. The senators were in Manila, on their tour of the southern provinces of the islands. Colonel Manley's dispatch, which was received by Gov. General Frank Murphy did not describe the nature of the senator's illness but said he was being rushed to Manila tomorrow morning by airplane, at the order of his physician.

ALTITUDE ATTEMPT FAILS

Washington, Dec. 13 (INS)—Wiley Post, of "round-the-world" flight fame, failed in his attempt of December 7 to break the world's altitude record for airplanes, the National Aeronautic association announced today. The altitude reached was not disclosed by the N.A.A., but the Federation Aeronautique Internationale stated that Post, in order to officially return record, now held by Commander Donati of Italy at 47,352 feet, to this country, must climb 656 feet higher into the stratosphere, or to a height of 48,008.

PROFS TO REPRESENT

Tickets May Be Obtained For $1.50 Before 6 O'clock Saturday

The first formal dance of the semester and one of the outstanding events of the social calendar will take place under the sponsorship of the Interfraternity council from 9 until 12 o'clock tomorrow night in the Alumni gymnasium, with Rudy Bundy and his twelve-piece orchestra of radio artists furnishing the music.

The music of the orchestra will be broadcast over station WHAS, Louisville, from 11:30 until 12 o'clock, according to Elmer Sulzer, director of the Publicity bureau. The orchestra is playing regularly in Louisville at the Castle Madrid and broadcasts every night over the station.

Tickets for the dance may be obtained from any fraternity representative on the council, from Dunn's Drug store, or from the office of the dean of men. The admission price will be $1.50 until 5 p. m. tomorrow, after which the price will be raised to $2.00. Arrangements for the affair are in charge of a committee composed of Walter Hunt, Henry McCown, Tommy Chapin, and others. The committee yesterday will be: President and Mrs. Frank L. McVey, Dean and Mrs. T. T. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Hunt, Mrs. P. K. Holmes, Dean and Mrs. P. B. Boyd, Lieutenant and Mrs. P. E. Lester, Major and Mrs. B. E. Brewer, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Portmann, Miss Margaret McLaughlin, and all fraternity housemothers.

Rudy Bundy and his band played on the first RKO circuit from Louisville to coast recently and has appeared on an 18 weeks' engagement at the Show Boat in New York city. The band carries out excellent novelty numbers, and features Marlene Giber, vocalist, while Rudy himself has been declared by critics to be the world's best clarinetist.

The orchestra played for the motion pictures "Moonlight and Pretzels" and "Good News," and has featured such well known songs as "Morton Downey," George Olsen, and Benny Horney in various NBC network broadcasts.

STUDENT DEBATE HELD OVER RADIO

Listeners in Will Be Judges of Debating Contest Held Between U. of K. and University of Louisville

The University debating team, composed of James A. Moore and Elvis Stahr, engaged in a radio debate with the University of Louisville team yesterday morning, over station WHAS. Moore and Stahr spoke from the platform of Memorial hall through the microphone of the extension studios of the University, while the Louisville team argued directly from the radio, listening to the other's arguments through receiving sets at the studio.

The Kentucky team took the affirmative of the question: "Resolved, That the federal government should adopt the policy of equalizing educational opportunity by means of annual grants to the several states for public elementary and secondary education."

Judges of the debate were the listeners of the radio audience, who are to send in their votes to the station. Mr. Louis Clifton, assistant director of University extension, presided over the evening debate.

W.S.G.A. Will Give Christmas Party

A Christmas party is to be given for the students of Patterson and Boyd halls, Monday night, in the Patterson hall recreation room. The program was planned by the W.S.G.A. council at a meeting last Monday night. It will include dancing from 10:30 until 1:30 o'clock. While Frances Riddle will furnish piano music during the party, the W.S.G.A. will offer food and lead the carol service. Refreshments will be served.

The W.S.G.A. council also announced that 11 o'clock permission would be given for next Wednesday night to girls in the dormitories and society houses, at 11 o'clock the night before the holidays begin.

Death Toll Reaches 59 In Tragic Lansing Hotel Fire

Lansing, Mich., Dec. 13 (INS)—As 25 bodies were recovered, placing the official death toll estimate at 59, investigations of the tragic Kerns hotel fire, today brought forth startling evidence to indicate that the alarm was fatally delayed.

The official estimate of 59 dead was made when PWPA workmen and firemen continued their gruesome search of the ruins, and a deep sea diver sought the bodies of victims who leaped into Grand river to escape the flames.

Deputy State Fire Marshal Edward W. Welch revealed that his inquiry showed an apparent gap of 15 to 20 minutes between the time the fire was discovered and receipt of the first alarm.

Two conflicting accounts concerning sending of the alarm were current. J. J. Jones, night clerk, said he telephoned for firemen as soon as he received his first information that there was a fire in the building. Welch said all evidence indicated this could not have been more than 45 s. m.

Another witness, Andrew Thewissen, of Flint, said he ran from the flaming hotel all the way to a nearby fire station, found the engine stuck dead, ten minutes after the fire started, and then telephoned for firemen.

'BIG ED' EDWARDS LEADS SCORERS WITH 24 POINTS

Oglethorpe's "Petrels" Outclassed by Superior Cat Machine

GEORGETOWN-VARSITY TILT IS CANCELLED

Entire Wildcat Squad Sees Action; Visitors Kept on Defense

By JOE QUINN

Starting like the proverbial house afire and gaining momentum as they progressed, Coach Adolph Rogers' Big Blue basketball team rolled up an 81-12 triumph over the Stormy Petrels of Oglethorpe university last night in Alumni gym before a large crowd.

With "Big Ed" Edwards, the huge sophomore center from Indianapolis, cutting the cords with regularity for a total of 24 points, and the entire team clicking as a unit, the Wildcats had little difficulty with the Atlanta team.

The basketball game scheduled for tomorrow afternoon in the Alumni gym was cancelled, it was announced by the athletic department yesterday.

With Big Edwards and co-captain Jack Tucker warm from the outset, the Big Blue began its scoring early and had countered 16 markers in the first five minutes.

The entire Big Blue squad looked better than they did in their initial showing against the Alumni. Their shooting was better, if possible, and their floorwork, which was a bit rugged in the opener, was improved.

CHAMPS ARE TO DEFEND TITLES IN FINAL BOUTS

Sixteen Matches Are Scheduled for Tonight in Intramural Finals

DRURY WILL FIGHT IN HEAVY DIVISION

Butler, Shanklin, Westbrook to Battle in Feature Bout

By JAY LUCIAN

The sixth annual finals of the greatest intramural boxing and wrestling tournament ever seen at the University will be held at 8 o'clock tonight in the Alumni Gym. For the price of 25 cents with student tickets and 50 cents without, the fans will view a dynamite-lined card of 16 matches, eight boxing and eight wrestling.

The 32 performers tonight are the cream of the crop of 175 athletes who started in the preliminaries several weeks ago. Every manner of fair physical combat will be brought into play. There will be science, brute strength, aggressiveness, and finesse of the type only seen in the professional ring. However, the spectators will be assured of one thing and that is plenty of action.

The wrestling will consist of four-minute matches. The winner will either gain a fall during that time or at least a 30-second time advantage. The boxing will extend through three, two-minute rounds, with a one-minute rest period. The contestants will fight under the Marquis of Queensberry rules and will wear 12-ounce gloves. Coach Shively will referee the wrestling and Bob Featherston the boxing.

Outstanding performers tonight will be Holbrook in the 115-pound class in both boxing and wrestling. He is defending his double laurels for the second straight year. In the 145-pound wrestling "Strong Man" Kolyers meets that live performer Charles Mathis.

The 155-pound wrestling is a natural, "Boneshredder" Fish, the Town Tornado, meets an experienced gentleman in Levi Junior, champion of Chicago.

The other wrestling matches are of equal interest, bringing together such boys as McCombs against Hay, Dawson against Bryant, and Drury Simpson, the flying tackle specialist.

Wrestling will be run off before boxing. Several outstanding matches are scheduled in the cuff division. The 125-pound class will bring together those two pile drivers Simpson and Butler. The only man to ever defeat Butler at the University has been Shepherd, who took a year off from wrestling.

COMEBACK

On Saturday evening in the Alumni Gymnasium, the Inter-Fraternity Council, alias the Pan-Hellenic Council, is sponsoring the annual Inter-Fraternity Dance. It is hoped by this organization that the dance will become as popular as the famous "Pan-Hellenics" and also prove to be a means of making money to carry on the good work in the University for which this group stands.

Three years ago, just preceding the Christmas vacation, marked the last of the Pan-Hellenic dances which were regarded as the best social function of the year. It was a gala affair with everyone appearing in formal dress for the first time during the social season. It was the sole source of existence for the now defunct organization, which was in no way as progressive or conscientious a group as the Inter-Fraternity Council on today's campus, yet it thrived well on the sponsoring of one dance a year. Why can not the new organization do the same?

The new group has found it exceedingly difficult to maintain the necessary degree of respect for the lack of funds to carry on even a small part of its ambitious and energetic program of benefit to the fraternity and the University. It has gone to great lengths to secure an orchestra meeting the standards of previous musical aggregations which played for the "Pan-Hellenics" of yest-year in the hope that the popularity of the first formal function of the year will be revived to the advantage of so deserving an organization.

This is the one chance of the Inter-Fraternity Council in establishing its independence and respect on the campus. It is trying to help itself and deserves the support of the student body in offering tickets to the dance for sale at all fraternity houses and popular campus haunts. Get behind the Inter-Fraternity Council and buy a ticket to the Inter-Fraternity dance. Not only will you be aiding the Council, but you will be creating priceless tradition for your school and a most enjoyable annual occasion.

JOURNALISTS DRAFTED

The Kernel is gratified at the recent drafts made on journalists connected with this campus for service in the Federal government.

Recently Prof. V. R. Portmann, assistant professor of journalism, was chosen to a position on the Graphic Arts Kentucky Regional Code Authority committee. This body is instrumental in the administering of rules for newspaper and printing establishments of the state.

James Shropshire, another member of our journalistic personnel, has been granted a leave of absence for six months in order that he may serve on the rural rehabilitation program in Kentucky. During his student days at the University, Mr. Shropshire studied in the College of Agriculture, and was active in journalistic affairs of the campus, serving as business manager of the Kentucky Kernel. For the last four years he has acted as business manager of student publications. Because of the able manner in which he has conducted his duties in the past, we predict success for him in his new work.

The Kernel is happy that recognition of ability to serve the federal government has resulted in the selection of these men, and it is hoped that our campus will continue to supply qualified persons for future governmental service.

STUDENT OPINION

Dear Editor:

Whatever personal editorial differences you and I may have I stand solidly with your editorial policy of being both and nail against the senseless participation of the United States in another European war.

Money for the munitions makers, money for the steel industries, money for the chemical companies—the one vital factor in every war—and not all the money in the world the life of one boy or man. Economically, war may be sound—perhaps the world is becoming too crowded, maybe it is true that in so many hundred years our potential and present food supply will give out, but in the name of common sense, what are we spending millions of dollars on higher education for, if not to insure, in those hundreds of years, minds that can cope with the situation? That settles that.

Have we any right to deprive any man of a line of descendants who are at least mentally sound, simply because theoretically we are afraid that there won't be food enough in the world to go around? It would seem to me that that is being intellectually presumptuous; wouldn't it be better and fairer to let them figure that out for themselves?

If, then, common sense, which definitely excludes that false logic of war propaganda, can find no real reason for our country entering a war, why should such a thing be considered? Our country can stay out of a war, only by its youth flatly refusing to fight. The higher-ups can cook up a war—but they would make a pitiful band to go out and fight one. Besides, those who so proudly set men to fighting, have no intention of getting themselves killed. They prefer to stay at home, and reap the fruits of their "labors."

If the youth of the United States were to decline to fight a battle in which they had no more than an emotional interest, and if the glorious "free" press of the nation could so far forget its collective financial holdings, and present war as it really is, stripped of martial music and the wrong of flags, there wouldn't be any more wars. I suppose by this time some of my war-ringing orators are whirling in their respective graves like dervishes, but this generation has been responsible for the deaths of millions of men, most without exception they have been proven to be sound good sense, and the hysterics of convention and tradition were over.

I don't suppose there is a man or boy in this country, worthy of being a citizen, who would not give his life in a minute in order to protect his home and family from an invading enemy; certainly I would be ashamed of any male member of my family who would refuse to fight in this case, but I'm afraid I would seriously fear for the sanity of one that would shout, "Kiss me goodbye with a smile, my dear—the moneyed interests feel that they may not be able to declare a dividend unless I go out and get stabbed with one of their Grade A, Ultra-special bayonets!"

We are in no danger of invasion, even from our nearest neighbors. England and Canada never use Canada as a means of ingress, even if she were foolishly enough to pick a fight with us. Mexico is a very organized menace, and no country of Europe or Asia is planning on making a long sea journey for a fight which could only end disastrously. So what difference can their fights abroad make to us? We are in the center of a world of civilization with battlements measurable by thousands of miles of water. And any intelligent person believe that to enter another European war would be saving his home and children from foreign rule, and would any intelligent person think of getting himself killed to satisfy a total stranger's lust for more wealth—wealth which he will never be benefited by?

It's the job of you, and of the press, insofar as you represent it, to join this outburst and to appreciate the ethical, not to say sensible stand you have taken. I suppose we are all a little bit tired of keep on crying out the right directions, we can save ourselves from another wholesale slaughter, to make a holiday for U. S. Steel.

And, by the way, have you noticed that they are still spelling that S-T-E-E-L? Keep up the good fight, at least reason is on your side!

SCANDAL SNICKERINGS

By KEN BOOGIE

I'm "Ken," one of the Boogie men, and being as how many pal Buck and being how my pal Buck has got cold feet and won't write this column any more on account of being threatened by a lot of big tough guys, I'm elected to spread a bit of gossip around. You don't know who I am, but I'm old and know who I am, and I'm old and rough and mean and tough, so I don't give a hoop-tra-la about your old threats, and I'm going to give you the real low down. Here's a sample.

Sophisticated and Seventeen
My hat's off to little Sarah Slack, boys and girls. She's only seventeen but they say if they are big enough they are old enough, and this little dame is right there. After three months in school she has done what it takes some girls years to do. She made the first Guinness play, this column the first sixteen issues, has had her picture in both downtown newspapers, got herself talked about by every man on the campus, took what was supposed to be a "Wise Guy's" pin, kept it a week and then crammed it down his throat, and they say she made him like it. Now she is the Phi Delta sweetheart, and her picture is on so many dressers one would think she was Max West or Clara Bow... Oh well, next September there will be a lot of other cute freshmen, and she'll be just another Kappa with Joe Shultz hanging on... Ain't it awful.

You Lose
I was riding on the car this morning with our friend, Delmar "Turkey" Adams, and he complained that the same people made this column all the time. However, he loved that he didn't want to make it, and even insisted that he had a bet that he wouldn't. Pay off, my small friend... pay off.

Oh, Dear Me
David Donahue, Delt pledge and artist superb, wants to know who that gorgeous creature is who sits by him in Contemporary Drama class. For all his art, he can't get a rise out of her. Chio Jean Campbell says that it is her dear sister, "Sis" Brent and she is afraid David might want her to sit for a portrait—in the nude.

They Can Take It
Have you heard about the "Friday Night Club"? From all I hear it's a very exclusive club and only those of the calibre of Chio Jean Campbell, KA Hal Hedale, Faith Abbot and that crowd can make it—small wonder—the initiation consists of drinking a glass straight, and without a "chaser." B-TTTTTT, Count me out.

A Similar Case
Sigma Chi Harold Bush says that he can't go near Chio Jean Turner any more because when he gets around her he gets all excited and is very apt to lose his head. Now ain't that a shame—and Harold seems like such a nice boy too.

"Give Me Back My Wooden Leg"
The KA footballers whipped the Phi Delt again last Saturday by a score of six to nothing. The boys on Limestone street must have seen it coming. I learned from one of the KA men that sometime before the game there was an agreement that the loser should foot the bill for a beer party, but a few days before the game the Phi Delt called it off. Smart boys. And another thing—the afternoon of the game, someone drove up in a black coupe and tossed the missing beer keg to the field and drove away. Were those KA's ever mad when the little boys at the gym told them that some Phi Delt had had it locked up there for some time.

Easy Love Comes—Easy Love Goes
KA Torbitt Thomas reports that Anne Stevenson has spent $37.00 in the last three months on telephone calls to Louisville to her one-time boy friend, Bob Snyder, and that last week he finally decided to come to this fair city. Lo and behold Anne had a date with Bill Smith for the KA house dance and things looked mighty bleak, but Bob must have changed his mind—he didn't come, and so what? Try telegrams, Anne. Be a woman of few words.

Doctor Alvin W. Johnson Is Writer of "Sunday Legislation"

"Sunday legislation is contrary to the principles and precepts of Christianity," said Dr. Alvin W. Johnson, executive dean of Union college, in an article on "Sunday Legislation," appearing in the November issue of the Kentucky Law Journal, published by the College of Law of the University of Kentucky.

"While an array of authorities can be marshalled in support of Sunday laws of uniform operation," continues Doctor Johnson, "the supporters of such laws are by no means agreed on any one principle upon which they can be based."

Seven notes on various legal problems and four reviews of recently published law books complete the volume.

Boxing and Wrestling Finals

FOR U. of K. CHAMPIONSHIPS | FRIDAY, DEC. 14 ALUMNI GYM 8 P. M. Adm. 25c with Student Book 40c General

SEEN FROM THE PRESS BOX

By JAY LUCIAN

It is strange that the only intercollegiate sport for girls at the University today is that very masculine sport, rifle shooting. Such being the case, however, it is in keeping with Kentucky traditions that this girls' team will be the best in the country. The facilities are complete and matches are planned with the leading schools in the country. Any more young ladies wishing to indulge in the infinite satisfaction of destroying things by remote control and also becoming adept at protecting their own firelocks can obtain further information from Miss Averill at the Women's gym.

The current attractions in University athletic circles are basketball and intramural boxing and wrestling. Coach Rupp is unusually genial these days, as some of the best material in years cowers around the Alumni floor. About 20 lads comprise this year's squad. It is still too early to tell who is going to form his first five, but from the few days performance it seems that Edwards, Anderson, Gofford, Lewis, Taylor, Rife, Tucker, Ellington, Lawrence, and Donohue will be the cream of the crop.

However, there is no case of favorites being played. Coach Rupp uses the same style as Coach Wynne when it comes to picking his teams. Only those players who produce constantly in practice are given an opportunity to play. No one can sit back on his reputation and expect to be in all the starting lineups. Consequently, everyone is putting out his best and the total moral of the squad is 100 per cent because they all know their chances are equal to what they do.

The favorites in the boxing are Holbrook, Westbrook, Bryant, Drury, Shanklin, and the Butler brothers. In the wrestling there is Dury, Bryant, Hay, Levi, Colyer, Fish, and Dawson. Coach Shively, former Big Ten heavyweight champ, does an excellent job of refereeing the wrestling, and his fatherly attitude towards the contestants is very well liked. Featherston does the honors for the boxing, and the fact that he has officiated at the University before speaks for his popularity.

Several interesting incidents crop up during the matches. Rare is the match where one or both contestants don't go flying out of the ring. Many of the matches are decided by the poorer physical condition of one of the fighters. The other night two matches were called technical K. O.'s, although the loser had not received any punches for some time. He had just been exhausted from his own exertion.

Then there is the unusual case of "Iron Man" Phillips. He was entered in the 125-pound class and upon weighing in a few hours before the fight found out that he was about four pounds overweight. He put on sweat clothes and exercised for an hour or more until he came down to his weight. Two hours later he entered the ring and won by a technical K. O. when his opponent, a football player, became exhausted in the third round and was unable to continue. Asked how he felt after working off four pounds just before the fight, he answered that it did make him a little tired.

A correction takes us back to the subject of basketball. In The Kernel issue of November 27 it was stated that Michigan State, a new opponent on the Wildcat net schedule, was one of the few teams to defeat Notre Dame last year. This is an error as the only teams to defeat the Irish last year were Pittsburgh, Marquette, and Minnesota. Both times that Michigan State met the Irish last year the South Bend school came out the winner. Mr. Sullivan and Mr. Schwartz sent in this correction from Notre Dame in an interesting and courteous letter and The Kernel is not only glad to make the correction but appreciates the fact that we have discerning see everybody pleased, and I try hard to do anything I can to reflect that "ray of sunshine" attitude but, I am becoming impatient. You have made numerous dates with me and disregarded them as if I were some sort of freshman, standing in complete awe of you, and I'm getting tired of it.

"Damn it," he exclaimed, snapping his fingers, "I've meant to see you about that, but I'll take care of it during the holidays without fail. Even if Kentucky wins the game, I'll see you and give you the dope you're after, so take it easy."

And with Coffman-like brusqueness, he was gone in a flurry of coat tails, last minute consultations and compliments, half-burnt exclamations about being late for something and door slammings—right in the middle of my best argument.

Artfulness is not required for the ordinary thinking mind to realize that vacation has come and gone. Leastways, time continues to pass as it seems to have a way of doing. With me holding the sack or a guilty conscience or something. And I weigh heavily on my mind, for I feel that I have made a stab at doing my part.

Since that's the case my good friends, I ask you: So what?

LAW JOURNALS ISSUED

The first issue of the Kentucky Law Journal for the current year was distributed the early part of last week. The leading articles include: "Legality Liability of the Public Accountant," by Colvin P. Rouse of the Kentucky bar; "Omney v. Morgan—A Judicial Milepost on the Road to Absolutism," by Forrest Black, of the University Law faculty now on leave of absence in Washington, D. C.; "Injuries to the Interest of Landowners," by Charles P. McCormick, professor of law at Northwestern University; and "Sunday Legislation," by Alvin W. Johnson, dean of Union College, Lincoln, Nebraska.

Notes are contributed by Judge Swope, George T. Skinner, Henry C. Smith, William Meiler, Albert R. Jones, Harry I. Stegmaier and Charles Todd. A. Vandenberg, W. Lewis Roberts and Byron Pumpfrey publish book reviews of current legal publications.

Only 25 per cent of the men who apply to the student date bureau at the University of Toronto (Canada) have a preference for blondes.

Ten years ago a football player's outfit weighed 22 pounds. Today it averages eight and a half pounds.

IVORY TIPS

By NORMAN GARLING

Maybe you think six-day bike riders are numb above the shoulders, but bursts of artistic temperament are not infrequent. One of the stars, Al Letourner, threatened to withdraw his entry in the recent Detroit race because one, Blackie, a slugger for Impresario Harry Mendel, left his suitcase in the French riders' room with a note asking him to take it out to Olympia, where the race was to start. "I am fainting," Al screamed over the phone to Mr. Mendel. "If the world's motor paced champion of 1934, 1932, and 1932, am asked to carry the saddle for these Blackies. Such insults!" It took Mendel half a day to quiet the prima donna. No football team ever coached by Bernie Bierman of Minnesota ever has lost to an opponent which Bierman has scouted. A fund is being raised in Baltimore to erect a bust of Babe Ruth, who made his start there. Three members of the Deaver university eleven are married. Texas Tech uses a huddle on offense and on defense.

Cornell's football players of 1890 were the original iron men. They played Union on Monday, Williams on Tuesday, Harvard on Wednesday, Amherst on Thursday, Trinity on Friday, and Wesleyan on Saturday. All the games were on the road, and were played on one trip to save traveling expenses. Coach Charley Hoyt of the Michigan track team has high hopes for a conference title this spring. Aside from Willis Ward, whom he regards as the greatest natural athlete he has seen, he has a fine array of sophomores. He needs only a shot putter. Tutane claims the biggest football coach in America. He is Ted Cox, former Minnesota captain and tackle, who stands 6 feet 4 inches and weighs 252 pounds. Private interests are trying to arrange a post-season game between Columbia and Duke to be played in Richmond, Va., January 1.

Thirteen miles south of Cottonwood Falls, Kansas, in the Flint hills, a granite monument is being erected to the memory of the greatest coach football has developed—Knute Rockne of Notre Dame, who was killed there in an airplane crash March 1, 1931. George Huff, athletic director at Illinois, who has seen all the great figures of intercollegiate football come and go, made this remark: "There was only one Rockne." Dr. Walter Meanwell, director of the athletics at Wisconsin, ventured the prediction

Howard Jones says offense in football needs a stimulus and suggests that five downs instead of four be permitted. Ernest Sutter, third brother in a famous tennis playing family, will make his debut at Tulane university next spring. Dorothy Round announced before leaving Los Angeles for Australia that she would retire from tennis in 1935 if she wins the Wimbledon title again next summer.

proved greatly. With ten minutes gone in the first period, Coach Adolph Rupp sent in five reserves and they continued the damage with apparently as much ease as the starting team. With the Kentuckians controlling the tip-off most of the time, the visitors seldom had the ball. Score at the end of the half was 39 to 6.

Coach Rupp kept his second team in the contest at the start of the second half, and the Oglethorpe team was at its best in the first few minutes of this period. Bob Taylor and Ed Tierney combined to boost the Cat total before they were removed to make way for the entire first string.

With the crowd shouting for a large score, the regulars turned on the bench in the final minutes to run up a near-record score. Dave Lawrence, Jack Tucker, and Garland Lewis were the main offensive threats for the Ruckmen. The entire corps of guards saw action, with Anderson and Donahue standing out.

Lineups and summary:
Kentucky (81) Oglethorpe (13)
Lawrence (14) P. (4) Johnson
Tucker (10) P. (5) Sullivan
Edwards (24) C. (5) Copeland
Donahue (10) G. (3) Fisher competition. Two Sigma Chi's fight it out in the 135-pound class when Bill Butler meets Brindardner. The 145-pound bout is another "natural" between Westbrook, the Phi Tau heavyweight, and Gene Bryant, independent. Craven won in his weight at Camp Knox this summer, while Westbrook won both the 145 and 155-pound classes in the intramurals at North Carolina State last year. Scholl, the West Virginia sharp shooter, meets a fighting Ashland boy in Tierney in the 155-pound class. Shanklin defends his championship against the same opponent he had last year, Forsythe. Forsythe has improved considerably and much can be expected from this.

Two S. A. E.'s, Bill Bryant and Gene Bryant, will fight for the light-heavyweight crown. The heavyweights are Boser from the freshmen football ranks and Drury, undefeated in six years of boxing and wrestling competition.

The judges for tonight's fray are Bill Patrick, Pat Devereaux, and Frank Bunch with Mayes, alternate.

FEELING "BLUE"? GET A LIFT WITH A CAMEL!

LEAF TOBACCO EXPERTS AGREE:
"Camels are made from finer, more expensive tobaccos—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand."

MANNING SMITH, '35—Student of Journalism. Newspaper work calls for the active type of person with plenty of natural, vibrant energy, as Manning Smith, journalism student, well knows. He says: "You've got to be a hustler in the newspaper game! There's lots of 'leg work' and head work, too—and both use plenty of energy. When I'm feeling kind of 'low' generally, I smoke a Camel, and the right words come to me more easily. I can think faster. When I smoke steadily during long sessions at my typewriter, Camels never jangle my nerves."

NEVER GET ON YOUR NERVES!

BUSINESS GIRL. Eve Miller, New York department store executive, says: "I smoke Camels because I appreciate mildness and delicacy of flavor. And Camels give me a 'lift' when my energy is low—and never upset my nerves."

FAMED FOOTBALL REFEREE. Tom Thorp says: "The 'lift' you get from a Camel is valuable to anybody whose job requires fast action. And I know I can smoke Camels as much as I like, and they will never make me nervous."
