

At 722 West Main St. Lex-Ky
This room is over the front hall is on the second story. - From the bay window (the middle window in this photograph) is a plain view of the statue of Henry Clay and surmounts the tall stone column in our Lex. cemetery -

The bed is the brass bed that my father brought for my sister Mary Neville after she reported that at Bryn Mawr College in Douthigh Hall a brass bed was thought to be very fine!
