STOUT FELLOWS

Frank C. Lane, nationally known basketball official, has named Ellis Johnson, Kentucky athlete, as a guard on the first team of his all-American selections. Forest "Aggie" Sale, Wildcat captain this year and an all-American forward last season, was named on the second team, and John "Frenchy" DeMosey, forward, given honorable mention.

ON COURTESY

Kentucky—mirror of courtesy and home of hospitality! How often have we seen that typical expression of our commonwealth printed in books or expressed by transients. Courtesy and hospitality are qualities of good breeding, and the children of good breeding, and the latter may be either of true or foster parentage. A college education supposedly cultivates good breeding.

PARKING ULTIMATUM

Indifference to parking regulations on the campus has been brought to the student body's immediate attention through the recent activity of the Men's Student Council which issued a warning to students who ignore parking rules in the future. During the entire school year, some students driving cars to classes have disobeyed parking rules and have ignored admonitions of the administration. No punishment has been meted out to these guilty persons. If the action of the Council is effective, these offenders will be liable to reprimand, suspension, or expulsion as the Council, with the approval of the Senate, deems wise.

proved values in the past. Whether more stringent methods will alleviate the conditions will depend upon the activity of the Council.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL REPORT

As was predicted in these columns several days ago the final report of the Athletic Council to President McVey contained no startling information, that is, nothing serious, if the reduction of salaries during these stringent times is to be considered commonplace because of its imperativeness.

The course which the athletic board took on the recommendations of protesting students is a wise one. In avoiding a breach of contract with any of its employees, the council has acted only as any other judicial body or business concern would have acted under similar circumstances. Likewise did the Athletic Council conduct itself in a business-like manner in reducing the salaries of its coaching and administrative personnel.

No one is desirous of slashing salaries, but, when there is no alternative, it is the only way. Athletics, whether one thinks of it as a business or as a sport, must be handled with expert skill and sagacious judgment. Where others have had to dismiss employees the Athletic Council has been able, through a cut in its other expenditures, to retain every person on its payroll. On that point, along with others, congratulations are offered the board.

Students can feel only satisfaction with the work which the Council has done in adopting many of the recommendations and in bringing athletics where it belongs, closer to the undergraduate.

STRENGTH IN UNITY

"In unity there is strength." This proverb applies to the budding organization of the new interfraternity council. The movement to mould together the social groups on the campus is indeed a wise one. The constitution, yet to be adopted officially by the new council, will call for the banding together of the fraternities in a mutual effort to create a better campus.

That three of Kentucky's outstanding basketball stars are included in the selections of this referee, who has officiated at games throughout the nation and has seen the best quintets in America in action, is a tribute to these men, Coach Adolph Rupp, and to the University.

JEST AMONG US

According to depression definitions a debtor is a man who owes money while a creditor is the guy who thinks he's going to get it. It seems to the Jester that the moon has more effect on the untied than it does the tied! Famous last words—"Just wait until we get a crack at those Wildcats." One freshman wanted to know when we were going to give a re-echo—The Kernel being the mouth organ of the student body. The guy who wrote, "I May Never Pass Your Way Again" must have been traveling in a model T Ford. And to you eds, if a miss tell you that you had no business kissing her tell her that you did it for pleasure and not for business. Famous last words—"Prosperity is just around the corner." After the feature on the "ideal man" it seems that the main idea is to wear the clothes well. What's

DOTES AND ANTI-DOTES

Since the publication of her waghish revelation of the idiosyncrasies of campus pups, Feature Editor J. C. Hunter's "hench" has acquired a hang-dog look. It seems that in her summary of faculty members' doggies, some were slightly and notice its wagging tail, without feeling guilty. In the meantime, to save her conscience, she plans to write a supplement to her first story.

Among the flashbacks from Judith's first story is the following: My dear Miss Chadwick: I just want to tell you some more about our dogs. First, India is not the name of a dog but the name of our Kennel. Then, you left out the name of the most important of all assured her dog, the little, little Fishaway, who is a regular attendant at the botany class.

There is another dog on the campus you have forgotten—Katherine, who is really our dog but who has elected to spend the remainder of her natural life with Miss Artie Lee Taylor of the Library. Katherine has the distinction of being the oldest dog on the campus; for she is nearly eight years old.

Will you please see that our dog (friends) McFarland, P. S. Katherine can predict the weather. When her rheumatism is worse, we know it is going to rain.

So to the dogs: "Sport," Prof. E. Mollay's Cocker spaniel, looks—he's shaggy and quite sleepless enough, though he doesn't have three heads and at 3 o'clock in the morning he barks at the door intruders, teases them to enter and ruff his wool—anyway, Sport has acquired a new collar which is unfortunately the very fearlessness of this dauntless creature forces him to be very wary as to just how and when he approaches the Kampus. In fact, after his last appearance it was very doubtful as to whether he would come around again.

Rumor has it that the Kampus Kat is about to come forth in a flashy spring coat of four colors... the editors flatly deny that they know anything about it... as usual... they are just beginning to wonder this time on account of they won't have so much to deny after it makes its appearance.

The most peculiar thing about the Kampus Kat is that although its holder with each arrival, its visits become fewer and farther apart... but it last appearance received such a negative reception from the faculty that the request was received that a mere kitten be allowed to purr a little of the Kampus... it was deemed by the relentless hand of Dean Blanding, before it even had its eyes open.

It is a lot to be said for each arrival of the Kat... it is not until the last papers can cut that one appreciates how gentle... etc.

Typewriter clicks: Latest names for chicken and ham sandwiches... "peeps" and "squeals." Alfigam Nancy Hooks says now that spring's coming, her long hair makes her phone number is... why make it easy?

WINTER NIGHT
Snowflakes that fall as softly as light,
Trees standing mute and bare;
A white blanket thrown over the face of night,
And hiding the ugliness that is there;
Nothing but silence and peace seems here;
Nothing but the virginal white;
Winter's true self rules supreme here.
The master of another winter night.
A forgotten by-path he calls him.

THY LOWLY BROTHER
He dwells not in the streets of fame,
A forgotten by-path he calls him.
The wine of life for him is this.
And Bitterness makes him his own.
His portion's small of this world's goods,
But he who has elected to spend the remainder of her natural life with Miss Artie Lee Taylor of the Library. Katherine has the distinction of being the oldest dog on the campus; for she is nearly eight years old.

A'ROAMIN' THE RIALTO

By JOAN CARIGAN

John Barrymore gives his version of the absent-minded professor in the title role of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Topaze" which opens Wednesday at the Strand. Professor Topaze is shown as a kindly old pedant who knows little of the ways of the world, having spent his life in studious pursuits. Like the redoubtable little Red Riddle-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Topaze" which opens Wednesday at the Strand, Professor Topaze is shown as a kindly old pedant who knows little of the ways of the world, having spent his life in studious pursuits.

Like the redoubtable little Red Riddle-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Topaze" which opens Wednesday at the Strand, Professor Topaze is shown as a kindly old pedant who knows little of the ways of the world, having spent his life in studious pursuits.

In Barrymore's masterful hands Professor Topaze becomes lovably human. Myrna Loy heads a lovely supporting cast.

"Dangerously Yours" with Warner Baxter and Miriam Jordan, finishes its engagement at the Kentucky theater today. Wynne Gibson and Jean Hersholt head an all-star cast in "The Crime of the Century," which starts its run in Lexington tomorrow. "The Crime of the Century," is said to be taken from a popular detective mystery. It deals with a timely subject in criminology.

The Ben All theater presents Leo Carrillo on its screen Thursday in the Columbia picture, "Obey the Law." The story has to do with the problem of unscrupulous individuals who take advantage of bewildered immigrants just being introduced to this new country. Lois Wilson and Dickie Moore are included in the cast. Benjamin Slooff directed.

Read Cook in The Louisville Times writes that the results of prohibition are staggering. Well, Ted, I'd say the results just about lay a person out.

And Now, My Dear, It's the Kat

Kampus Kat, Dolled Up in Newest of Spring Outfits, To Make Early Appearance

By JUDITH CHADWICK
Despite the fact that nearly every professor, and dean, and even the president of the campus, are of a dog, there is one KAT that defies all canine hostility... not only that, it defies everything and everybody excepting the advertisers... unfortunately the very fearlessness of this dauntless creature forces him to be very wary as to just how and when he approaches the Kampus. In fact, after his last appearance it was very doubtful as to whether he would come around again.

ALL IS WELL. Whatever your dream, with doubt possessed, Keep, keep it snug within your breast. And lay it out and take your rest. Forget in sleep the doubt and pain, And when you awake, to work again. The wind it blows, the vessel goes, And where and whether, no one knows.

'Twill all be well, no need of care; 'Though hoy it will, and when, and where. We cannot see, and can't declare. In spite of dreams, in spite of thought. 'Tis not in vain, and not for naught. The wind it blows, the ship it goes, Though where and whether, no one knows.

Party for Staff
Mr. and Mrs. Elmer G. Sulzer entertained the members of the university radio staff with a dinner Friday evening at their home on Aylward Place.

The guests were seated at card tables in the living room and dining room. Decorations were red candles in red holders. The dinner was followed by a game of bridge, at which high score prize was won by Miss Elizabeth Hardin. Mr. Wesley Carter was presented with the consolation prize.

Guests included Miss Elizabeth Hardin, Messrs. Wesley Carter, Combs Blanford, Joseph Mills, Harris Sullivan, and Ralph Johnson.

Honoraries Give Reception
Phi Beta and Phi Mu Alpha, honorary musical fraternities, held an informal reception at 8:30 o'clock last night in the Faculty Club rooms of McVey Hall.

Enjoyable refreshments were served. Chaperones were Dean and Mrs. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer G. Sulzer, Prof. and Mrs. Carl A. Lampert, and Miss Mildred Lewis.

Luncheon Meeting
The members of Theta Sigma Phi, honorary journalistic fraternity for women, held a luncheon meeting yesterday in the Commons.

Mrs. Sue D. Anna, president of the chapter, presided, and a literary meeting was planned for March 6 at the home of Miss Virginia Nevin.

Members present were Misses Ann O'Brien, Blise Warren, Elizabeth Baute, Louise Loving, Joan Carigan, Virginia Nevin, Mary Alice Salvary, Judith Chadwick, and Marjorie Hoagland.

Secority Tea Dance
Alpha Delta Theta entertained from 4 to 6 o'clock Saturday afternoon with a tea and dance in the recreation room of Patterson Hall.

Each member of the sorority wore a shoulder corsage of the sweet peas, and the lighted shield of the chapter was hung over the orchestra. Music was furnished by the Kentucky Night Hawks.

Special guests for the afternoon were Misses Edith Gaugh, of Epsilon chapter, Bath County, Kentucky; Cathrine Carpenter, Frances Lutes, and Lillian Goodan, Alpha chapter, Transylvania; Virginia Robinson, Clara Hughes, Mary Edith Bach, Eleanor Dawson, Hazel Nollau, Mary King Montgomery, Louise Mitchell, Marjorie Fieber, Tenney Rhea Inman, Kitty Cook, and Dorothy Compton.

Chaperones were Mesdames Sarah Holmes, H. C. Robinson, Victor Foxmann, S. A. Burke, William Blackburn, A. C. Brown, Charles VanDeren, and Miss Margaret Horsfield.

Hostesses for the dance included the active members and pledges: Misses Sheila Bales, Frances Hughes, Dorothy Martin, Lois Robinson, Fern Osborne, Agnes Worthington, Edna Brumagen, Minnie Lannan, Sadie Farmer, Caroline Vice, Betty Stralair, Hallie Downing, Yvonne Sylvester, Rebecca Graycraft, Martha Honerkamp, Vivian Naab, Margaret Scottow, Katherine Smith, Ethel Smoot, Nancy Alverson, and Lois Mae Banks.

Military Ball
The Military Ball, sponsored annually by Scabbard and Blade fraternity, was given from 9 until 1 o'clock Friday night in the Alumni gymnasium. Several hundred guests attended the dance.

The gymnasium was decorated in a militaristic manner with flags and streamers hung from the ceiling. At the corners of the room, machine guns and cannons were placed. The side walls were decorated with crossed guns and swords.

Music for the dance was furnished by Benny Moten and his Blue Devils from Oklahoma. Members of the orchestra gave a floor show to tap dancing and musical specialties during the intermission.

Following the third no-break, the floor was cleared for the pledging ceremonies of Scabbard and Blade. Preceding the pledging the new sponsors were formally presented by their commanding officers.

The new sponsors were presented in order of their rank: Miss Mary King Montgomery, regional sponsor, was presented first, and wore a white crepe formal evening gown with rhinestone decorations. Miss Edna Brumagen, battalion sponsor, was presented next. Miss Brumagen's dress was red crepe. Miss Jean Dawson, battalion sponsor, was third to be presented. Miss Dawson wore a white crepe creation with a velvet coat and matching accessories.

The company sponsors were pre-

PI Kappa Alpha Formal
Prominent in the round of social events last week-end was the Pi Kappa Alpha formal dance, given Saturday night at the Alumni gymnasium.

The gymnasium was most elaborately decked with garnet and gold balloons and crepe paper streamers. The orchestra stand was placed around the wall. The orchestra stand was banded with crepe paper. Gold candles in candelabra. No-break cards were in the shape of the fraternal emblem, and were fastened of garnet studs.

Music was furnished by the Fourteen Original Blue Devils, and the music was broadcast over the university extension studios of WHAS from 10:30 to 11 o'clock. Mr. Wesley Carter, a pledge of Pi Kappa Alpha, was announcer.

The chaperones were Dr. and Mrs. Frank L. McVey, Dean, Capt. and Mrs. Clyde Grady, Dr. and Mrs. E. Elliott, Major and Mrs. E. E. Brown, Captain and Mrs. H. A. Freeman, Prof. and Mrs. A. C. Here's a tip for the lovers of indoor football—go over to the gym annex some night when the spare time presents itself to you and view the "toni-less" intramural basketball games. You'll enjoy football under a roof.

Once upon a time the campus fraternities had a rule to the effect that freshmen could not attend formal dances under any condition. The Keyholer has been told that this idea was aired in a recent meeting of some group or other. What's wrong with the frosh? Are they too lowly to be allowed to associate with upperclassmen at formal dances?

Report says that Sigma Beta Xi, which will be Sigma Phi Epsilon when the event takes place, will partake of luncheon with the Sigma Chi's at noon Friday, March 3. This is the Chi's way of commemorating the installation of the newest national fraternity chapter on our campus, which will be the Kentucky Alpha of the incoming organization.

If there is no humor in this brief sketch, blame it on the professor who will spring a "pop quiz" on Monday morning.

Casual Observances
It may read as humor, but there is some sense besides the bill collectors who have some liking for the Campus Clubbers! That somebody is in the form of the Sigma Beta Xi group, which is scheduled to go the national route in Sigma Phi Epsilon on March 3, 4 and 5. The boys of the Campus Club have been invited to travel that new road with the Sigma Xi's! It may be a surprise to most of us, especially the Clubbers. We may expect an almost unanimous induction when the party begins Thursday, March 2.

Mr. V. R. Portmann is making big fuss these days while endeavoring to get a few good journalists in shape to be awarded the Sigma Delta Chi fraternity key for making a high standing in all work during the four years spent in this University.

"Chesterfields Satisfy"

WHEN same cigarette day after day... it's a pretty good sign that they're getting what they want... mildness, better taste—a smoke that's always the same.

So we're going right on making Chesterfields just as we always have... selecting choice, ripe tobaccos... aging them... blending and cross-blending them... making them into cigarettes in the most scientific ways that are known.

As long as we do these things we know that smokers will continue to say, "They Satisfy". For that's what people are saying about Chesterfields.

If you smoke, why not find out about them? A package or two will tell you the whole story.

By DELMAR ADAMS (Pinch Hitting for Ye Editor)

Due to the excitement caused by the first Southeastern conference basketball tournament being held in Atlanta, my friend, the sports editor, is unable to write his customary bit, so here we are.

From Atlanta comes the news that the big boys of the conference do not favor holding the tournament in the Georgia city due to the high cost of providing a playing floor, small crowds and other reasons.

The big problem about having a tournament in Lexington is the lack of adequate seating space in the Alumni gym.

Along with the successful march of the Cats toward the finals of the tournament comes the news that if the Big Blue does conquer in the final tonight they will continue the precedent set by the Wildcats in 1921.

The flashy play of the Cats in the current tourney impresses the Atlanta fans but they are cheering for the other team. They do not like favorites and yell for the dark horses.

Louisiana State has the fastest team in the tourney and also the cockiest player in "Sparky" Wade, flashy Tiger guard, who handles his opponents in true "cave man" style.

Some of The Kernel staff are still ignorant as to who won the tournament. Judy Chastain, dirt-digging feature writer, piped up with "Who did win the tournament?"

Now that spring has definitely decided to come, Coach Bernie Shively's hard working Wildcat track men are working out every afternoon.

We reprint from The Lexington Leader of Sunday, February 26, the all-American team chosen by Frank Lane, prominent official.

First Team—Reiff, Northwestern, forward; Krause, Notre Dame, forward; Hooket, Ohio State, center; Smith, Pittsburgh, guard; Johnson, Kentucky, guard.

university union located on the University campus. A part of the program will include a tour of Duke University buildings and its campus.

Museums Opened By Departments

The department of geology expects to do much more with the natural wonders of the state with models showing the geologic history and origin of these features.

According to Professor Webb, the fossil life representing the animals and plants which lived in this region in past geologic ages, and whose remains are now found preserved in the rocks of the state.

The ground system is unique in that instead of using a single buried cable, a great number of square feet of wire mesh, not exceeding one quarter wave of the fundamental, was buried, making a near perfect shield.

The amount of time saved by the old corner police telephones is difficult to compute, but approximately 15 minutes is saved in each ordinary arrest case, while its value in the immediate capture of fleeing criminals is inestimable.

The chief business of the convention will be reports of the national president, executive secretary, publication fund committee, scholarship fund trustees, O. D. K. scholarship award committee, recommendations from the general council, and the presentation of distinguished guests.

Y.W.C.A. To Meet 7:30 P. M. Tuesday

Discussion of "Student Life in Other Countries" will be the program at the meeting of the Y. W. C. A. to be held in Patterson hall at 7 p. m. Tuesday.

Mr. Nedeckoff, president of the Cosmopolitan club, has consented to tell of student life in some of the European countries in which he has studied.

ATHLETIC STARS TO BE FETED THURSDAY

The University Alumni club of Lexington will give their annual banquet for the varsity and freshman basketball squads at 6:30 P. M. Thursday, March 2, at the Lafayette hotel.

This will be the eleventh annual banquet given by the University of Kentucky Alumni club of Lexington in honor of the basketball squads.

Cocher Adolph Rupp will be the principal speaker at the banquet. S. A. "Daddy" Boles will present the varsity members of the team with letters and the freshmen will receive mementos.

The five senior members of the varsity squad to be honored are Captain "Aggie" Sale, Ellis Johnson Darrel Darby, George Yates and George Skinner.

He served in the World War and, in 1917, he was commissioned a major in the U. S. Army, caisson section of the production division stationed at Washington, D. C. In 1919 he was promoted to lieutenant-colonel and made a member of the Army-Engineers board.

In 1923 he was elected governor of Nevada, and last November he was chosen to represent Nevada in the lower house of Congress.

In Nevada he has been prominently identified with education, industrial development, newspaper work, and archaeology, as well as government affairs of the state.

In his archaeological work, Mr. Scrugham is no less important, having fostered excavations that have unearthed valuable discoveries that are now in leading museums all over the country.

An interesting sidelight on Mr. Scrugham's life is that he never cared for political work and left Kentucky, the seat of politics, to work in the new state of Nevada.

Mr. Scrugham is stopping here on his way to Washington to attend the inauguration of Franklin D. Roosevelt.

College girls aren't as fickle as they used to be—one fellow got two consecutive dates with a co-ed.

Ah, Sener! Jim took Susie for a ride along a country lane; He got his Spanish up. To find it wasn't Spain.

ILLUSION: The Oriental girl reclines on a sheet of plate glass supported by two slaves. The magician waves a white sheet in front of the pretty maiden... pronounces a few magic words... Presto! she has disappeared in thin air.

EXPLANATION: "Disappearing" acts are among the most popular in the repertoire of the magician. Dogs, horses, girls, whole rooms disappear—popped into wings, dropped through trapdoors, hidden by mirrors. But this "disappearance" is a bit different. One of the "slaves" is a hollow dummy. When the magician holds up the sheet the little lady disappears completely—into the convenient figure of the dummy.

IT'S FUN TO BE FOOLED ...IT'S MORE FUN TO KNOW

There is also a trick of cigarette advertising, whereby a few magic words are used to create the illusion of "Coolness."

EXPLANATION: Coolness is determined by the speed of burning. Fresh cigarettes, retaining their full moisture, burn more slowly... smoke cooler. Parched, dry cigarettes burn fast. They taste hot. This makes the method of wrapping very important.

Improperly wrapped cigarettes begin to dry out as soon as packed. Camels are cooler because they come in the famous Humidor Pack of welded, three-ply, MOISTURE-PROOF cellophane... and because they contain better tobaccos.

A cigarette that is fresh, full of natural moisture, and blended from choice, ripe tobaccos tastes cooler than one that is harsh and acrid. For coolness, choose a fresh cigarette, made from costlier tobaccos.

It is a fact, well known by leaf tobacco experts, that Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand.

Try Camels... give your taste a chance to sense the difference. You'll appreciate it!
