

you had time to teach school and i am shure you have time to write a letter every day if it was needed i could sell postage stamps for ten cents a piece i have send for them till i am tired i dont want no writing paper nor invals there are dead loads of them hear so no more at present From your

Dear Wife

I write these few lines hoping they will find you and little Eli and my little blue eye baby all enjoying good health as leaves me at present thanks be to the great God for all i am on the the bank of the living where there was thousands of my my fellow soldiers were layin dead and wounded there was an awf fight to be seen the monday after the battle by eye witness of sum of over own men there were three rebels piled to every one of ours to be seen lay ing on the ground the monday morning after the battle if i was shot there you never should hear any account of me more than i was among the missing wheather i was shot or taken prisioner be cause it was after noon Sunday when i found the Regiment and there never a man went out of over company to look for the other three that was on guard rite close to where i was i hope if i should get a shot that i will be able to scabble away my self i dont know how soon i will have to go to the field to fight
