Dear Brother

Feeling very lonesome and knowing that you feel anxious to hear from me I thought I would scribble you a few lines and let you know how I get along. My wound is doing finely all though I cant do ones very graceful walking yet.
I think I will start for the north as soon as I can get my furlough papers made out which will probably be in a week or ten days. I have just recd per express a sword belt and scabbard and if the paymaster pays us off here I will either bring or
