Dear Sister

Your welcome

letter of Dec 4th was received and read with pleasure, it found me enjoying good health, hoping these lines will find You the same, I have been quite negligent in answering Your letter but You must excuse me as I am getting so fat and lazy, that it is getting to be a great task for me to do any thing except eat. (there aint I getting honest) Since writing last we have been overhalling our tent, we dug down about three feet into the ground or sand rather, set up boards around the sides five feet high this makes two feet above the ground then banked up round and set the tent on top of the boards, then we made two tier of bunks round the
