Dear Good,
I seat my self to spend a little time to chat with you with my Pen. I am hearty and well, hoping those few lines may find you all enjoying the same blessing there is nothing of interest to write you, at this time, only that we are in Camp, and are not Exposed to the missiles of death like we have been for the last 4 months. how long we will lay here I can not say as we never know one day what we will do the next, or one hour what we will do the next, but I suppose we will remain here to recruit up the horses and rest our selves
