

Could you not give me some good advice in regard to the subject on the last page if the Girls must and will get married why all right. if they think there is hereafter. let them go on, but as I was agreeing to say, I am not quite so bad as I let on, you said in your next you was going to give me the full accounts of the proceedings at the Grand Marriage but don't do that. for I have tried enough already, now, I was sorrow to hear the Death of John Wilkes. Bell and Clark. have gone home no doubt they are here ere this.

Well as I have nothing more to scribble I will draw to a close. one thing more. Please Remember me kindly to Miss Mary B. and also that I would be very happy to hear from her. by way of Black and White.

With this I close hoping to hear from you soon or sooner. if possible

Well this is from your Brother who is still able to keep Hazard Pack from moulding.

Dear Sister,

Home again and seated as usual in a lonely Tent to inform you that I am once more with my Old Companions in Camp life.
Glad was I to return once more and find the Boys so cheerful and contended with their fate. all were glad to see me return. to take another part in the future Conflict. to crush this Cursed Rebellion. My Health is excellent never since I have entered the Service had as good Health as the present time. I left Camp Distribution on the morning of the 11th and arrived the (14th) eve of the same.
I expected to find a Letter from you but was sadly disappointed however I look for one to day. Ye Ye Ye Ye Ye
