

we ask her whose count is she says I Merivise as plain as you could then she will say I very count going. &c The other have given letters since you left. I think I shall have to buy few hundred of Hay some enough in the way to last 3 or 4 days and what there is over the ~~count~~ horses

if you done for your business you can have my little one & sell it what you have a mind to. I have not seen Mr. Lewis yet but tried to buy a D Haywards he would not sell his without to drive the old horse out it I don't think of any more to write this time Answer soon

Brother Lewis I suppose you think I had ought to have written to you before now. but don't blame me now. This week has been quite Spring like. Since Monday. Monday morning I went over to Greenfield & made some on the coast. & now there is neither coast or snow either to speak of. but plenty of mud.

I went to Cornwall about down to Weymouth last Tuesday. morning expecting Houghton would stop in ^{the} evening
