Friend Lewis,

Your letter
came at hand in due time and I was glad indeed to hear from you I thought you would not write at all, I had not heard that you had left Bridport, I am well now We came to Puttand three weeks ago to work, I dont like Puttand very well. The peopl seem to be so intent upon their own selfish aims and desires that there seem to be no feelings of friend ship for any one.
Lew I think you did well to get away from Bridport
