

next day came back to Mullis Baubis spent a very pleasant evening next day went to Jonesburg to a oyster supper Mr Harry Gorn gave it. had a splendid time got acquainted with two very nice young gentlemen one of them took me out to supper he was gay made me think of Clarence acted so much like him he came down to Budgeton on the train with got me a cup of coffee which I enjoyed very much he wanted to know when we would be in an eastern gentleman also know they all spoke very highly of him in Jonesburg Mr Myers fell in love with a young lady or at least I thought he did about you think Mr Myers and I are good friends Mary kept open doors New Years day she had quite a number of calls I was sorry I was not at home, but I could not cry for I was enjoying myself so much Mr Price has been up here came to see us but did not make up I hope I may never be sorry for what I have done I am feeling gay and hope I may see fell cheerful for you know any one is happier or at least I am so dear boy how I wish I could see you I hope you will meet in the east again to do want to see you dear good bye once more love Mollie

next time of course you will write to me now
 you are more
 I will not
 I could not think of not writing to you any more
 I will try and be more careful with my letters after this, many are my love who dear be if you were only here
 I could tell more things
 can write
 but I must go Budgeton Jan 6th 1870

My Ever Dear Cousin
 Your letter was received and I can assure you its contents were read with pleasure, I expect ere this reaches you, you have changed your name, I wish you & your success and every may your pathway be strewn with flowers is the wish of your Cousin, I certainly should have been glad to have gone with you to the ministers, was Ezra and Addie married when you were by the way Mr Myers and myself attended Miss Mollie Parsons wedding she was married the 28th I officiated as brides maid as her sister was.
