Brother, Dear

I received your pleasant marks, yesterday & was glad to hear that you were well & enjoying yourself. It was glad to hear that you like your I don't know of anything

I have had a letter from Mary Ann since you went away, she was well said. I have called them the other night with his sweetest - I wonder how long before you will have a sweetest - but here! I must not be getting my wonderings on paper It has had a letter from her since I have it.

What did not go to Mr. Hookwood to work after all I hope you was awful sorry Sarah Johnson & Mary Ann Chapman stay'd here all night last night have just gone away a little while ago. We are having very pleasant weather but oh! what awful roads. I shall be glad when it comes good going. I guess you will not care to read any more of my scribbles. Write to us often when you come home as soon as you can.
Accept love from your sister Ann
