Dear Friends at home

I received your Postcard last eve. I am a feeling very well this morning, but have been having a hard cold, but am in hopes it is wearing off. About husking corn the boys can go at that as soon as it will do. Perhaps it would be well to straighten up the feet under the granary before the corn is put in. The apples will want picking ~~and~~ burying, and leave them in granary I take it that Mayflower is all right.
Dear Mr. ^W Journeys will come in time next Monday, so let I see can see him. If I can be spared I may skip for home next week Love to all

E. J. Brown
