

There is more Apples than there was last fall I think of taking Dr. Blanchard to make into Cider on shares. Ed. Jewitt, has a new Cider Mill, he grinds one bushel for minute.

Albert's old Black Horse met with an accident the other day he was running in the lot & fell down & out to a root & hit his inward out They put him back & sound it up but don't think he will be long

Charles Daniels talks of selling his little bay mare to Dan, Sunderland for $145.00 Elisha Smith has sold his colt back to Pat Myrick he is to Middlebury now training they say he crops Spoil 3 minutes now I sold my wool for 24 cents ought to have kept it
