Dear Friend

I will drop you a few lines to let you know we are all alive yet, & hope you are the same & doing very well at present

The boys & girls all work every day & make good wages I heard you were down some time back but you did not come around at all I suppose you were on business, & had not the time, an officer of the police firm told me about you I had spoken to him of you before, I grip that
