13 June 1862

Dear darling Gale"

I received your very kind favor of the 12th inst. for which I am very thankful, not only as an acknowledgement of your friendship, but because it reassures me, that you all remember me. which is a great pleasure to me. to know, that though far away from our fire-magnificent home with dear wife & two children forgotten. It was but a few days ago, that we held daily intercourse with each other. but we did not appreciate those flying moments But your Likenesses are daguerotyped in my inmost heart, never to be forgotten. your faces rise up before me in the silent shades of the night, and I feel them. that I should be perfectly happy to dwell with you always But, as that cannot be, we will have to abide our Fate. I am alone, all alone but my thoughts are with you, and all the dear ones of "Hill-Grove"
