

Head Quarters 15th Reg Conn Vols
2^d Brigade 3^d Division 9th Army Corps
Army of the Potomac Dec 17th 1862

Sir.

In compliance with orders I hereby transmit an account of the operations of my command in the Battle at Fredericksburg together with the names of those killed, wounded & missing during said engagement. In obedience to General Order No 34 Date Dec 10 my command formed on their camping ground at 8 AM Dec 11 and remained under arms during the day and succeeding night. On the following day at 8 AM they took up the line of march left in front and proceeded to the Pontoon Bridge on the Rappahannock where they remained during the day, towards night they marched over the Bridge into the city of Fredericksburg and remained under arms during the night. On the following morning they marched left in front to the flat on the south shore of the River where they formed in Battalion masses and remained under arms during the day.

At about 4 1/2 o'clock PM they took up the line of march and formed in line of Battle under the brow of the hill in the rear of the Slaughter House a little to the right where they lay upon their arms untill next morning when they formed and marched back to the city and remained under arms during that day & night and the
