My Darling Georg.

I came to Puxico last night and my arm hurt me so bad I could not sleep. That cotton was all stuck in the sock and when I took it off it bled and I am afraid it is going to give me trouble. Mr. Sauborn was not at home last night but came home this AM on the train that I came home on. He was in good spirits and did not say a word about me not coming home. He told me that if my arm got worse that I had better go some place and have it treated so if it gets worse I will probably come home and stay a few days. I was up at Mr. Sauborn's last night and talked about an hour.
They have a very fine Bay,
