Covington, Ky. Dec 1st 1906

Miss Laura Clay
Lexington Ky
My dear Miss Clay -

Mr Wolcott and self congratulate you upon the success of your recent Suffrage meeting at Ashland - You have probably noted that the National Grange at its recent session at Denver reiterated its former position concerning Woman's Suffrage. We have not as yet heard from you regarding the decision of Miss Elliott. In connection with the forming of a Grange at Lexington, at your own Miss Elliott's suggestion I should be pleased to know of the situation. With assurances of our high regard we remain

My dear Mrs. McCulloch,

I have been so crowded with letters to write since our state E.R.A. convention Nov. 21st and 22nd that I have left your letter of Nov. 23rd unanswered.

I am sorry that I cannot take a large number of the leaflet which you enclose, for certainly I consider it very valuable. I have read it with a great deal of satisfaction as to its contents and a great deal of appreciation of the thought and labor from you which has provided our cause with such valuable testimony.

I am glad to hear from Headquarters that the National will take fifty dollars' worth of the leaflets; and I shall be able to get a supply sufficient for our demand in Ky. from Headquarters. We do not think that our constitution allows municipal suffrage in our state; and we are now asking for school suffrage and are also going to ask a submission of an amendment granting full suffrage.

I am very sincerely yours,

Laura Clay

My Dear Miss Clay:

I am using a Blickensderfer typewriting machine which was ordered for me by our executive committee for the press work. I have over one hundred editors on my mailing list now and it will be of great assistance in my work. I have heard from you through Mrs. Upton, and Progress said that you were busy building some flats, so that I know that you have been well employed. When you get time drop me a line. I expect if nothing occurs, to attend the convention in Chicago in February. I see that the recent decision of Attorney-General Crawford of Oregon is that the form of initiative petition being used by the suffragists would not make women voters, as "equal Suffrage" means equal between man and man, and the proper term for us to use was "womans suffrage" It is considered that this invalidates all the petitions on hand, which have been obtained since the last election, and that unless reversed by the Supreme Court if a test case had been brought before it, it would have invalidated the amendment had it carried last June. This is from Mrs. Colby's paper November 24th. Excuse all mistakes, after I will write better.

Mr. Farmer wishes to be kindly remembered to you and the sisters in which I join, and the best of love for your dear self.

Sincerely your friend.

My dear Mrs. Shepard,

I am so sorry to hear that you have been sick since return from the convention. I came back very tired, but so pleased and encouraged by all the results of the convention. All our little tangles straightened out and everything so promising for a new year. I got a delightful letter from Laura White, in which she expresses herself so pleased with every thing about the convention.

I took your check to Mrs. Carpenter this afternoon. I enclose Mrs. Bennett's again, endorsed to you. We seem to have had a hard time with the checks!

It is fortunate that you will not have to pay out all the appropriations at once, as we voted more than we had. I hope that at least 149 more dues will be paid before the 1st. of Jan. Do you notice that it will take that many additional to entitle us to the delegates we elected and for the $125.00 we intend to spend? Now, how are we to get them? That is the question. I have been writing a good many letters; among others, one to Mrs. Franceway, urging her to collect the Madisonville dues. I want to write to Louisville again, and see if I cannot find someone who will collect there. I am to speak on the Oregon Campaign before the Woman's club Wednesday, and have to think of my speech, which interrupts my letter writing. I hope it may bring in some members here, and we still have some of the old ones to collect. In fact, if all our E.R.A's would collect carefully right on we could get those 149 without a great effort before Jan. Pray do what you can in Covington. Miss White writes they have nine new members, hope for more, and she will see the Cattlettsburg ladies and try to revive them. Is she not a treasure?

Have you heard anything from Lancaster? Mrs. Patterson is so delicate I am afraid it means she is sick. ~~Ther~~ Maducah ought to be heard from. Do drop me a line when you hear anything from our non-reporting clubs.

I have not yet written to Mrs. Roark about looking for a field secretary for us. She also is to speak to the Woman's Club on School Suffrage, and I will have the chance to talk to her.

Well, I must close. Write soon again and tell me how our finances stand.

Cordially yours,

Dear Mr. Wolcott,

I received your letter today. I am sorry to say that Miss Laura Estill thinks that she cannot organize a Grange here. I feared she might be too young a woman to undertake what I know must be a task requiring some determination and zeal. But she is in other respects so capable that I hoped she might undertake it.

I have not yet thought of any one else to ask; and just now I am unusually busy. I am so much interested, however, that I shall keep on the look-out, and I have not despaired of finding some one who is able and willing to give the matter the necessary thought and labor.

I read with much pleasure the Denver papers, which I presume I owe to your kindness for receiving. I am very grateful to the Grange for their continued advocacy of our cause. I thank you for sending me the account of the proceedings.

Please give my regards to Mrs. Wolcott, and believe me

My dear Miss Blackwell

The next Biennial of the Federated Clubs convenes in Boston a year from next June - or the very last of May doubtless. Some of us have been thinking that it would be a great thing for the Western woman who wish to attend both the N.A.W.S.A. and the Biennial, if our National Convention could be held in Boston about the middle of May. There are hosts of our women working in the Federation who can not afford the time nor the expense of both conventions, who would be delighted with such an arrangement.

Have the Boston women considered ~~making~~ inviting our Association there in the near future? I think that a convention in a new section always brings many beside the regular attendants, and a convention in New England in the Spring, would be a great attraction surely. It might be that on the strength of two big conventions, the roads would grant even better rates than usual. It surely is worth the consideration of the New England Clubs, do you not think so?

Sincerely yours

(signed) Maud G. Stockwell.

Extract from Miss Blackwell's letter.

If the National wanted to come here, I would do my best to get the Mass. W. S. A. to invite the convention.

[Dec 4, 1906]

Quotation from Miss Gregg's Letter.

We have secured headquarters in a business block in a splendid location, where we can catch the people on their way to and from the Convention - only a block and a half from the post office and Convention hall. We pay five dollars apiece for the rooms making the rent ten dollars per month, and we furnish lights and fuel.

They are large and have excellent light - so we shall only have to turn on the electric lights when we work at night.

I am asking the Guthrie people to furnish them, and one man has put in a big stove for us which heats both rooms; a lovely woman sent us a brand new rug which has never been used - one, which she bought for her own home and she gives us the first use of it. So we got enough to start on, and yesterday we had a meeting, and others promised tables and chairs and curtains etc. So I think we shall have a very good looking headquarters at small expense. The Guthrie women seem a good deal interested, and with a little organization among them for the Convention work I think they will render valuable assistance to Mrs. Biggers and Mrs. Bradford.

Mrs. Biggers also has a room of her own which the Oklahoma Association will pay for, and I think she will take some of the state women in with her.

It is too bad that Miss Gordon cannot be on the ground to labor with this Convention of Southern Democrats. It is unfortunate for Mrs. Bradford's work that Colorado went Republican, as both Democrats and Labor men are sore about it here and they throw it at us on all sides.

Dec. 6th, 1906.

My dear Friend:

Today I am in Memphis, Tenn., making arrangements for the Conference of Southern Women to be held here on the 19th and 20th of Dec.

Our headquarters will be at the Peabody Hotel. There we can have a parlor at our disposal, free of cost, in which to hold our meeting. Rooms can be secured from $1.00 a day up, but there is no cafe in the house, so those who stay at the Peabody will be compelled to go out for meals, but there is a good restaurant within a few doors of the house. The Gayose Hotel is only a few steps away, where both room and board can be had, but the rates are higher and we could not there secure a parlor in which to hold our Conference without paying quite a sum for it.

Upon arriving please call for me at the Peabody Hotel. Don't fail to come. I shall count on you and shall feel deeply disappointed if you do not meet me in Memphis on the 19th and 20th of Dec.

I am impelled to believe that great blessings to the entire South will follow this convocation of Southern leaders, who are advocates of woman's suffrage. Please ask every leading woman in the South, whom you know, to attend our Conference in Memphis.

Yours sincerely,

Belle Kearney.

Things are opening up splendidly here: enthusiasm is coming in from unexpected sources. B.K.

My dear Miss Clay:-

In reply to yours of November twenty-ninth in regard to the time for Report of the Committee on Membership, at the Chicago Convention. In thinking over our comparatively brief time for reports, I would say that your Committee can have ten minutes.

I am personally very much interested in this question of increase of membership and if there were time for discussion of the subject, of course, the Committee should then have more time for its report, but as there are other things which would take precedence at this time (the whole question of the memorial fund, for instance) I think we will have to say only ten minutes for the Committee's Report.

Very cordially yours,

Swarthmore, Pa., Dec. 8, 1906.

My dear Mrs. Haskell:-

Yours of December seventh is here. Hurrah for the North American Review! I agree with you that we cannot overestimate its value as an ally. Its swing over to us is one of the best things that has happened for us within the last year.

Our President, Miss Shaw, is living with me this winter, so of course, I have read her your letter and she says she is so sure of the consent of the Business Committee to allowing this use of the enrolled names that she wishes you to go ahead at once and gather them in. In the meantime, she will take a vote of the Business Committee.

Now in regard to the best method of getting the lists copied, would it not be a good idea for you in writing the Chairman of Enrollment for the lists to say that the National Association wants to have them immediately in order to use them for a very important purpose? Then give to each woman the option of making and sending the list to you or of sending you the enrollment cards, which she has in her hands. Some would rather do one thing and some the other and it is really immaterial which they do so long as they do it promptly.

Can you not have the work of making the full lists done by the members of your Interurban Political Equality Council? Of course, you would have to supervise the work and have someone help you to check off afterward, but it seems to me that if they are actively interested and willing to give some time that this would be quite a saving of money as it would involve considerable cost to pay for the copying of so many thousand names.

In the meantime, you are perfectly safe in writing to the editor of the North American Review that you are proceeding to get the lists into proper shape to send to them.

Our President promises to put an article in the next number of "Progress" urging activity on the part of the State Chairmen of Enrollment. I am sending you a roll of National stationery. Of course, there's no use sending you envelopes because they have Miss Shaw's return address on.

Now a word in regard to your report at the Chicago Convention. Of course, if this present scheme can be carried out that will be something which can be reported and it ought to give a boost to the whole enrollment plan of work. I think we could give you ten minutes for the report of the Committee. It seems as if I were being very stingy with time at the Convention but, of course, you understand that it is necessary when the Convention is not as long as usual and then as one whole day is given to the memorial that we must compress reports.

Very cordially yours,

[Dec 8, 1906]

To the Officers and Members of the Women's Political and Social Union:

The suffragists in America have read with the keenest interest the reports in the press of your efforts to secure a hearing and a vote from Parliament upon the vital question of woman suffrage; and we, the officers of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, wish to express our cordial sympathy with your object, our admiration of your earnestness and self-sacrifice, and our indignation for the brutality with which you have been treated, as well as for the unworthy and interminable delays by which a minority in Parliament has been able to hinder the will of the majority from taking effect.

Our hearts go out to you in your courageous and unselfish devotion to a great principle and we believe the very severity of the government will have the effect of arousing the indifferent and convincing the undecided and that it will hasten the day of your full enfranchisement.

May your brave hearts be sustained and wisdom granted by that Power which in all ages has called into service those who were worthy to be the forerunners and martyrs for truth's sake.

I wrote to Mrs

asking for money for expenses of press work, but I have received no answer.
Do you know whether she is at home or not?
I can always get envelopes them charged, but I have to pay cash for stamps and I cannot advance the money myself as I am temporarily "broke". I have written again to Mrs S. and the money may come any day, but in the meantime she articles for the this week afraid you will have to advance a few dollars, unless you think it best to wait. Hereafter I shall write for money a month before my supply will be exhausted and that will give Mrs Shepard plenty of time.

I enclose a column from one of my papers showing how the short paragraphs sent out by Mrs Upton are used. The editor of the Record is a suffragist and his writing would be a good field for organizing an E. R. A., so would the

I wrote to Rev. W. H. Ramsay of the Church of the Messiah, as I told you in a former letter, and he replied in a most courteous letter.
He said he did not know that there was such an organization as our E. R. A. and thanked me for calling his attention to our work, which he promised to speak of in some future sermon.
I am sending him suffrage literature and he sends me his church paper. I wrote also to Dr E. L. Powell thanking him for a recent sermon and sending him our leaflet "What the Rev. Dr. Q has Done" He is more conservative than Mr Ramsay but believes firmly in woman's right & par-

- which is better than nothing.

But the worst is over. I don't want to lose my teeth, for of course a woman who wants to vote mustn't be ugly.

I had a letter yesterday from Mrs M<sup>e</sup> Langhlin telling me all about the Convention and the Covington papers.

THE GUARDIANSHIP OF THE CHILD.

In a recent editorial on the Castellane divorce case, the Courier-Journal regrets that the mother was not awarded the entire custody of the children, and declares that the father is wholly unworthy of being trusted with any share in their guardianship.

Yet in the Courier-Journal's own state, Kentucky, the law makes the father the sole guardian of the minor children. No mother, except the unmarried mother, has any part in the custody and care of her children.

A bill whose object is to make fathers and mothers the co-guardians of their children has been introduced more than once in the legislature of Kentucky, and as many times has failed to pass, and there are now only thirteen states in the Union that give the mother an equal share with the father in the guardianship of minor children.

Lida Calvert Obenchain.

The C-J has never said a word for our co-guardianship bills, but she has manfully its champion, the Countess Castellane. I am trying my best to get this article in a Louisville paper, but it's doubtful if I can.

Mrs. Kate H. Biggers,

Guthrie, Ok.

Dear Mrs. Biggers,

I received your letter of the 10th inst. yesterday, with the enclosed map and instructions. I shall study them carefully and follow them to the best of my ability.

I presume that Miss Shaw wrote to you that I had agreed with Miss Belle Kearney to meet with the conference of Southern suffrage women which she has called in Memphis, Tenn., for Dec. 19th and 20th. I trust that meeting may in some way be made helpful for the cause in Guthrie. I propose to leave Lexington on the afternoon of the 18th, arriving in Memphis the next morning, where I shall be at the Peabody Hotel. Then, I suppose the conference will be over in time for me to leave on the evening train about 8.30.

I shall hope to have a letter from you in Memphis, giving me any further instructions or information that you can. Of course, if any thing occurs which makes you think my coming to Guthrie is not necessary, you will communicate to me, as it was understood between Miss Shaw and me that I would not go to Oklahoma unless you thought it worth while. I intended to go to Memphis to the conference, and had accepted Miss Kearney's invitation to do so before Miss Shaw wrote that I might be of service in Oklahoma. It will make me very happy if I can do so; and I shall do all that is in my power to help you in the grand cause of equal political liberty in your new and most promising State.

Please remember me to our suffrage workers in Guthrie. I am very sorry that the situation in Arizona compels the Business Committee to send Dr. Woods from you to that territory. I know her value and efficiency, and I can appreciate your reluctance to give her up.

I trust that I shall certainly hear from you at Peabody Hotel, Memphis. As far as I can judge from time tables, you will receive this in time to answer it at Memphis before I leave there on the evening of the 20th.

Very truly yours,

[1906]

Ed. of Evening Telegram,

In yesterday's Telegram "A Doubtful Voter" asks of the equal suffragists how certain passages he quotes from the Bible can be reconciled with a free use of the ballot by women, especially wives. As I believe the Bible was the bulwark of the political liberty for which our Revolutionary fathers fought and which they won, may I ask space to show why I also believe that its teachings ~~shoud~~ sustain the movement to admit women to a full participation in that liberty?

The writer quotes Gen. III. 16. And thy desire shall be to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee. This is in the account of the entrance of sin into the world and was plainly a result of the work of the devil just as the parallel passage spoken to the man refers to another such result; "Cursed is the ground for thy sake; in toil shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life; thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee". Both are prophecies, not commands, as all would readily admit if the question were of a provision in the constitution of Oregon for the perpetuation of thorns and thistles. But the prophecies have wrought to show the consequences of sin; and now the words of promise are: "Every plant which my heavenly Father planted not shall be rooted up". Matt. 15-v. 13. "To this end was the Son of God manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil". I John. III. V. 8. The subjection of women is destined to be overthrown, for the ideal state is depicted, not in the third chapter of Genesis after our likeness; and let THEM but in the first; Gen. I. 26/not him) have dominion.....

2.

V.27. And God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. And God blessed them; and God said unto them ..... Have dominion over... every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

The next quotation is I. Cor. vii:39. The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth. The whole scope of this is that she shall not marry another man during the lifetime of her husband; an injunction ~~that is applicable to men~~ applicable to men.

I. Cor. xi:9! For the man is not of the woman, but the woman of the man; neither was the man created for the woman, but the woman for the man! In this passage Paul is not stating a dogma, but drawing a practical lesson from the teachings of nature which are typified on the account of the order of creation. The distinctive qualities of the man were the same at the creation as they are now; and the qualities of the woman are complementary to his; both equally necessary for a perfect humanity; both equally requiring liberty for their full development. This balance of the qualities of the man and the woman is fixed in nature and, as it is not dependent upon human laws, will not suffer disturbance when women have the ballot.

Again, in the quotation from I. Tim. ii:11! Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection. But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence. For Adam was first formed, then Eve! Paul draws a lesson from the creation for rules for the conduct of worship in the churches. Apparently, he thinks women are less suited to teaching than men; though a careful reading of the remainder of the passage indicates that he anticipates that this disqualification will disappear with the development of Christian character, ~~and is without discrimination~~ discrimination. For it is one of those questions of expediency of which he often speaks; but he lays the

Miss Laura Clay,

191 N. Mill St., Lexington, Kentucky.

My dear Miss Clay:-

As you know our Convention will soon be upon us. In Baltimore the Executive Committee voted that there should be a Chairman to the Committee on Program Advertising, and the Business Committee appointed me.

I hope I shall have the hearty Cooperation of the State organizations in securing ads, and that we can make the 1907 Program pay a large part of the Convention expenses.

I send with this a sheet of information as to rates etc.

You can say to prospective advertisers that we desire only such ads as we believe to be absolutely reliable, that the Chairman of the Committee has determined to strengthen the value of the space in every possible way, such as announcing from the platform that the advertisements are strongly recommended by the management and that a statement to that effect will be printed on the program. Emphasize the statement about the anti-Convention edition to be mailed about Jan. 1, and ask for copy early that there may be no embarrassing delays.

I am told by the Editor of one of the best advertising journals in the country that our rates are low for Program advertising but that magazines usually give cheaper rates. You must meet the argument by the fact that our programs are eagerly looked for because they contain about our great Convention, and that our Convention lasts a whole week, and that the ads are to have our personal endorsement. You can say that certain firms have found they paid so well that they have renewed their ads from year to year--( Royal Baking Powder, Conklin Pen, Swain, Earle & Co.--tea and Coffee Importers, and others).

I hope to hear from you soon giving me the names of those who will serve on your Committee, and any other information you can give me as to promise of good work on this line in your State.

Yours for the best paying program we have ever had,

(Mrs) Helen Raul Tindall
Chairman of Program Committee.
