August 28, 1918.

Dear Madam:

I have the honor to inform you that you have been recently nominated for membership in the National Geographic Society by Miss Anna Chandler Goff, ad I have pleasure in sending you an outline of the educational work accomplished by the organization.

The National Geographic Society was founded thirty years ago to increase and diffuse geographic knowledge. Its membership includes many distinguished men and women prominent in the development of our great nation, in educational work, and in the foremost industrial enterprises of the country.

To carry out its object of diffusing geographic knowledge, the Society publishes an illustrated monthly magazine which is sent to all members. The Magazine for 1918 will make two volumes of more than 1400 pages and contain 1300 pictures as interesting as those given on the enclosed circular. All receipts from the Magazine are reinvested in the publication or in research work by the Society

The membership fee is $2.00 per year and by joining the Society now you will receive the 12 issues for 1918.

The May number is devoted to a masterly presentation of the smaller mammals of North America, giving 125 pages of interesting and entirely accurate description of these animals by Edward W. Nelson, 32 pages in full color from new paintings by Louis Agassiz Fuertes, with a reproduction of wild animal tracks in a series of 20 drawings by Ernest Thompson-Seton.

With this wonderful issue is included the Society's new War Map of the battle area in France and Belgium on which there is shown practically every village and crossroads mentioned in the daily dispatches, costing $20,000 to bring out.

During the past year, and at the expense of thousands of dollars, the Magazine has published many remarkable illustrations in color; for example, a series containing 1197 illustrations in full colors of flags of the world, all flags of our Army and Navy and of all other government departments, the official flags of every civilized nation, together with a brief historical sketch of each, and the first complete collection of our state flags ever published; a color series of the larger North American Mammals; a collection giving every official State Flower; also scores of pages of velvety photogravure and frontispieces together with large, authoritative maps.

Even this splendid achievement will be exceeded in the 1918 volumes.

If you desire to become a member, kindly fill out the enclosed blank and return at your convenience.

Very truly yours,

Occustin Secretary.

NAVY LEAGUE OF THE UNITED STATES 1201 SIXTEENTH STREET, N.W. WASHINGTON, D. C. September 4, 1918. Miss Laura Clay, Lexington Ky. Dear Madam: "Don't let me forget" is the way one of our members put it the other day when he discovered that his membership in the League had expired. You have no doubt overlooked the fact that your membership expired in July. For your convenience, we are enclosing a memorandum of your current dues and will appreciate your forwarding us your check to cover. very truly yours, WST: HMB

NAVY LEAGUE OF THE UNITED STATES

(INCORPORATED 1903)

1201 SIXTEENTH STREET, N.W.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

FOR LACK OF SHIPS.

"They told me a million people were made homeless in six weeks. * * * Along the roadside from Warsaw to Pinsk near half a million had died from hunger and cold. The way was strewn with their bones picked clean by the crows. This I have seen." While Mr. Walcott was making this statement, while men and women were dying of starvation, millions of bushels of wheat and tons of food were spoiling in Brazil, Australia and the Argentine - for lack of ships. Ships mean life for the women and children of Belgium, for the starving peoples of Poland, Servia and Armenia, mean sucess for our armies in France and defeat for the Hun.

As an individual you cannot build a ship, but as a member of the League during the past year of war you have helped to get them built. Through your organization you have helped to enroll thousands of skilled workmen for service in the shipyards; to sell more than ten million dollars worth of Liberty Bonds; every American soldier in France has been landed safely under the protection of a Navy made more efficient through your support, and, moreover, you have helped to supply the crews who manned these ships with more than a million comforts garments.

The war is not won. Our task is not yet finished - in fact, is but at its beginning. We must "Carry on."

You have helped us serve where assistance has been most needed. The year ahead can bring but added responsibilities and greater opportunities for service. We know you wish to continue your participation in this work and hence enclose a memorandum of your current subscription. May we ask you to forward your check to cover, and at the same time express to you our appreciation for your past support.

- Sept 4, 1918-Letters from UNITED STATES SHIPPING BOARD, Emergency Fleet Corporation, washington, D. C. April 11,1918. Thank you very much for your letter of April 8th, transmitting copy of the resolutions adopted by the Navy League of the United States in Baltimore on March 28th. I want to tell you how much both Mr. Hurley and I and our associates appreciate the sentiment expressed in the resolutions. It is very gratifying to note such an important body of men as the Navy League of the United States appreciate what has been achieved by the Shipping Board and Emergency Fleet Corporation since their inception. Many good people of the country have overlooked the fact that practically all of the old line shipbuilding companies of the country were engaged on important Navy work when the construction of the Emergency Fleet was begun and that it was necessary for us to begin new yards for practically all our contract ships. tract ships. Such actions as the Navy League of the United States cannot help but give great encouragement to those to whom this important and difficult task has been assigned, and I feel sure the resolutions passed by the Navy League will have great weight in getting before the people the facts relating to the construction of the emergency fleet as they actually exist. Very truly yours, (signed) CHARLES PIEZ Vice President & General Mgr. May 3,1918. This is the first opportunity I have had to acknowledge your very kind letter of April 22d with which you forwarded a copy of resolutions adopted by the citizens of Omaha, Nebr., after your address on Wednesday evening, April 17,1918. I think I should tell you that we have received quite a number of similar resolutions - all the result of the splended work you are doing. It is only another evidence of the great assistance and effective work the Navy League is doing and I assure you that both Mr. Hurley and I are deeply appreciative of the efforts you all are making. Please accept my sincere thanks for sending a copy of the resolutions to me. Very truly yours, (signed) CHARLES PIEZ Vice President.

—WOODROW WILSON TREASURER, GEORGIA E. KECK, BUFFALO VICE-CHAIRMAN, ANNIE SARGENT BEMIS Sept. 16, 1918 Miss Laura Clay,
Richmond, Kentucky. My dear Miss Clay: I am very sorry not to have seen you in Kentucky but we arrived first in Lexington on the 29th instead of the 28th when I told you. We asked at the hotel for mail and for some message from you but there was none the Clerk told us. I tried to telephone to your house in Lexington but when I found the telephone had been discontinued, I decided that you were probably in the Michigan campaign. We went away down to Honmouth, and over to the Pine Fields and saw the Pine Mountain Settlement and around quite a good deal in Kentucky and enjoyed the trip. If I could have let you know long enough ahead, I would have done so, but the time of our starting was so uncertain on account of Mr. Mc-Culloch's pre-occupation in business. I thank you for your inquiries about the children. Lieut. Hugh is very near France at this time, having sailed a week ago. Hathorn whose life Mrs. Upton claims, as you sayed is now 19, and is to continue at Northwestern for a time, but as a soldier under the new regulations. Catharine will finish High School this year. Frankie is in second year. All of us are well but not as happy as we will be when the war closes. Yours truly. atharine W. MCelloch CWM LS

TREASURY DEPARTMENT
Internal Revenue Service
Lexington, Kentucky.

September 18, 1918.

Sir:

On August 17th, 1918 there was mailed to you blank return for corporation undistributed net income tax return. This return was due within 60 days after expiration of six months from the 31st day of December, unless you make your income tax return at the end of fiscal year - if the end of a fiscal year the return must be made within 60 days after six months from the close of the fiscal year.

The specific penalty provided by law for the failure to make this return is not less than $20.00 nor more than $1000.00. Up to the present time your return has not been received at this office. In order to avoid the infliction of the maximum penalty for failure to make this return you are directed to forthwith make the return on the blank form heretofore sent you and return to this office with a sworn explanation as to why you have not heretofore made it.

Respectfully,

Elwood Hamilton, Collector.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT

INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE
LEXINGTON, Ky.

September 26, 1918.

Miss Laura Clay,

Richmond, Kentucky.

Dear Madam:

In reply to your favor of the 21st inst. concerning the Kentucky Equal Rights Association and informing this office of the fact that said association had no net income during the past taxable year, you are advised that it will be unnecessary for this corporation to file a return of undistributed net income on Form 1112. It is the understanding of this office that said corporation is not operated for profit or gain and under that circumstances this corporation will be exempt from making any return to the Government which is subject to tax.

Respectfully,

Collector.

Elwad Nucettan
