I concluded to write a

Frankfort. Saturday night.

Dear Louisa

I have just learned this evening, that there will be a hop here, Monday night, after the American Theatricals, & hasten to drop you a note to beg you, to come down, I had not time to get it into the mail this afternoon, but you will have two hours notice, & your black silk, or white alpacca or tulle will do any of them. I made an engagement for you to go, with Mrs. Jones first to the Theatricals & then to the hop, but now Mrs. Julian afterwards, & he told me, he had written you a note asking you to go with him, & of course I'm bound will give way - I am mighty sorry I couldn't have given you more notice, but just came on - I will be at the depot to meet you, & I know it will be very pleasant - I am so tired I can scarcely hold my pen, was up until 3, at the party last night, & Hercules has just gone, & says he was so sorry to miss seeing you in Lexington - Be sure to come, I will be so disappointed! & I couldn't write earlier for I didn't know of the hop - Yours loving cousin

Dearest Laura,
I arrived,
Chey-ma, safe and well on Saturday night, finding New York, notwithstanding my long absence, totally unchanged. Don't it abominably unflattering to find in a large city? In fact, if there has been any change at all, everything is gay and brighter than ever. I arrived at night and came right up with Jones in a carriage so that I saw nothing of Broadway.
I had a most charming trip. The weather was delightfully warm and pleasant and mes conversations de voyage thoroughly ou fait. The gentlemen, Mr. Hugh Adams came to be married to a young lady. Had just had an affaire au cœur and a disappointment with another young lady, and regaled me with the history of the latter. Even repeated all his love letters verbatim, thereby electrifying the by-standers. You know that these affairs are very absorbing when personal, but stupidly dry, when discussed troussés. I took three or four naps during the continuance of these bursts of eloquence, finding him still talking when the anaësthetic came. I know you enjoy me the situation.

All the girls have been

Lou, Marie, Howard and had a glorious reunion.

I thought of some of my

I could not divide with

My dear Mrs Lelay

I hope, indeed, I know you will not be offended with me for my perhaps ill-timed intrusion upon your sorrow; but, I must say to you how much it moves my heart in thankfulness, that you have sent me this article of deep & lately worn about the person of the dearest and noblest friend of my heart: who, save in memory, is here lost to us forever more. Our expectations and hopes, authorized by his rare promise, are all now quenched, and will never come back to us again: but our pure love for can never decay, till we ourselves with Warfield are sleeping. As he was my very dear friend, as my heart was his dearly and solemnly, as from intimate association, I knew the generous

And many excellencies of his Character And loved his elevated and honorable Dignity of Soul, I must say of him - and you will neither think it unreasonable or indelicate in me thus plainly to utter the honest expression of my heart that he was by far the noblest and purest youth I ever knew. Indeed, Mr Lelay, I have no words to tell you how much I loved him, how greatly my heart suffers both for yourself and Mr Lelay, and how fervently I desire to send you the unaffected sympathy of my heart. By reason of my love for Warfield, I do not feel myself entirely a stranger to any of you: I, therefore, ask the privilege of mingling my grief with that of his sorely afflicted family. You have lost your dear child, and I have lost him that I loved fondly as my own blood-brother.

The servant boy left word that it was your request that I should wear the hat, which so lately pleased dear Warfields brow, and, as it was your expressed desire, I will wear it, but only for a little while, and then I will lay it away, so that so long as my life shall last I may have with me something that belonged to him for whom my heart will ever be in Mourning

Very kindly and trusting

It is right - that - You should feel an interest in Nat & let Your first - duty is to Yourself! Take care of the Rest upon which You feel the very L. Ship are based & it is a curse of that - very quality & you are conscious of feeling with Nat for which the danger stands. I am glad that - You are going from Home & it will indeed be a self reliance upon which almost every success in Life depends.
My advice to You is not speculation - it - is based upon an experience which is not bitter & must give a cert & Character to all the actions of my life - nothing more as I shall be ever so much happier to hear from You & do not fail to write often are my Love - affectionately

You can not slightly understand or imagine "My dear Bradford" how intense & true was the pleasure which Your affectional-letter awakened with me. It positively led me to that - which I have ever believed "that - Your Heart was full of kindness & sympathy & that - it - returned measure for measure the affection which I have ever & hope will ever feel for You. With me, there is nothing in Life without - the sphere of the Affections, the consciousness & receipt - of mutual - & sympathy! No one beside under-est happiness or claims a thing; those things at which men aim & for the attainment of which they make a life long struggle & only in glance on so far as they of pride & joy with those whom I love & thus only would I strive for this secure must: for this only would I care for the position which attracts the gaze & wins the approval of the world. I would not that I - nor so with you - the feeling with me is ennobling in its consequences & combats directed by & fused with the tenacity of will & direction to labor which I see absolutely - entirely necessary to the securement of a position a position through which I can be controlled & thereby governed. Why is it - I will ask you why is it - that a reputation though which I would & struggle & contend for; no basis for its securement? This, the reason I have succumbed to the weakness of self-indulgence. I have not regarded the requirements of the position as the only source though & from which true happiness can be had & thus I have sought the social altogether & made it the purpose of my life & strive for power through the heart entirely! for a time all was well & will be well for a time! But then once on will & beard is the mind will act with heart & met justified & sustained through their work upon their fathers & come to the & better standard.

I know this to be all so dear beloved truly know it - & have suffered in guilt & agonizing anguish when I have seen those whom I love me in & upon whom the most respectable - truest feelings of my father have centered. I wish that you know I have seen that - your inclination on two such as mine have not been that - you are so fond & so entirely delighted with company & general mingling that - in the course of time will be a passing & a possession which will be come out in a still
- our children. You are old enough now to determine as to your purpose in life & resolve to do nothing but you in the world right & this is though "the sun may appear to be the one hand & the moon on the other" This can be done with out by sacrifice of the affection.

Wednesday last the first time since I parted from you Saturday I went to town, I was late as I also had made some guinea marmalade & I put it in jars did an errand then went to Sister Ann's found her at home, very soon Mrs Anne & Miss Perry came all dressed in white looking so bright and pretty, both so pleasant with such beautiful teeth. Sister Anne saw Mr Galt Martin to see me Monday afternoon in course of conversation said she heard that H. Cannon was to live with his son, Mrs Smith Mrs Gibson & Willie pitiable is it not? Thursday I went to see Marie Austin & Anne as they said they would take me to Maria's room where she had fire, this day none was needed for it was summer heat and has remained so they were out, I went on to see Mr Gray & Remilla Grand M had gone to Conington with Elizabeth Higgins - I sat with Mary whom I found much better, then went to Sister Anne; she and I went Wednesday to see Enoch to Mary Snoddy did not get out of the carriage. I found a long pleasant letter from Alice for me in the P. O. He wrote that Lillian Alice and Miss French had gone to Richmond to make a visit of a few days and she finished the letter said they had returned so pleased with their visit; she had spent a week with. Kate in Paris, had her legs lanced 9 times, and they were dripping water from Monday until Saturday afternoon.

In answer to my query as to how she passed her time, she tells me of one day's employment "this with a broken back and 8 galls of bandage on each leg will do very well until it" She has since begun at the time had made 15 pounds of guinea marmalade 14 of jelly - she writes cheerfully and seems to bear the cross God has laid on her as a Christian. Mrs Brown told me yesterday Alice wrote her brother that she and Kate were going to Bin Tuesday to consult a Dr as to Helen's ears - I did not know they were affected in any way. Yesterday morning I went to see Maria, her Julia's carriage at the door, when I went in found Enoch in the dining room on the hill, she told me Myra had come, and the carriage was sent for her, Maria had gone up to dress as her mother wished her to go for Myra, very soon Mrs Snoddy the mother who is on a visit came in, when Maria came down said she hoped I would remain until she returned, as I wanted to see Julia and Myra I did not, Maria told Myra I was there & she got out to see me she is shorter than when here in the Spring otherwise looks the same; she is to sleep with Julia, has a wardrobe in the room, and will have Maria's old room as her own - Emma will have the back room. I said to Myra I had a letter from Mary Barrett a few days before, Mary's second child 8 months old had just died, & mentioned Charles & went to retrieve, she says quite to speak up & said I want to tell you how it was; Charles wrote Henry and asked him to meet him in Hamstead on his

Mrs. Cynthia Flanery,

Dear Mrs. Flanery,

I was pleased to get your letter of the 2nd, telling me of the award of the prize to Mrs. Florence Rowland. I have not yet sent the book, for I am in the country, and I doubt if the book can be bought in Richmond. But I am going to Lexington in a day or two, where if I cannot find the book in the stores I can order it. It is quite a recent publication, and may not yet be in all the bookstores. I will notify Mrs. Rowland when to expect it.

I am writing to ask if you will not send me a copy of that story in rhyme, and particulars of the contest at once to my address in Richmond. Mrs. I. J. Smith, the president of the Federation, has called the first Board meeting to assemble in Richmond the 3-4 of October; and I would like to tell of the contest to the ladies, as I know they will be much interested and it may be a suggestion of something they can do also.

Hoping to hear from you, I am

You will note from this list that it includes the full department of any newspaper. With the National supplying the material, it may not be necessary to find persons to fill all of these department heads. However, they extend the interest and make interesting stuff to be gathered in on the day the paper appears, and will give the local touch which is so essential.

To each city publishing a paper, I will send a copy of our newspaper so that the idea will be more fully grasped. Submit to me any questions to which I will gladly respond.

STEPS TO BE TAKEN IN LAUNCHING A NEWSPAPER EDITION.

ORGANIZATION:

Call together at least 50 to 100 women who you think would be influential in interesting other people. When I say 100, it need not necessarily be that exact number, but the more the better. Choose women who are connected with other women's organizations.

CO-OPERATION:

Try to secure a newspaper willing to co-operate with you for the increased circulation there is possible in it. I have sent to secure an endorsement from the New Orleans paper, which will show what a splendid thing it was for them. You assume the cost of bringing out the entire edition which includes of course the paper's regular list of subscribers, who must be supplied with this edition at no advanced price. However, we feel sure that, if those subscribers are seen, they will be more than willing to pay the advanced price of the paper. Likewise, stand- ing space of regular advertisers will have to be honored, unless they are willing to donate, which I think, if approached properly, they will be most likely to do.

COMMITTEES:

Divide your women into two committees,--one for advertising and one for circulating.

CIRCULATING COMMITTEE:

Have your chairman of circulating committee secure chairmen for each ward in your city, then let her sub-divide her ward into as many divisions as she finds necessary or thinks desirable; and let each one of these subdivisions be canvassed for subscribers. It will be found very easy to secure one person to do a square or two squares; the work is pleasant and will result in discovering a lot of people who believe in suffrage. The appeal can be made upon the ground that this woman's edition will have contributions from leading writers; furthermore, you can appeal to them, even if not in sympathy, to help make a success of a memorial to the woman who pre-eminently stood for, not only educational opportunities, but individual liberties and property rights for the women of the United States.

ADVERTISING COMMITTEE:

The advertising committee should have at its head a woman with considerable business acumen. She should sub-divide the business districts, and place these subdivisions in charge of women of pleasant address and tact. The advertising rates secured in New Orleans were five times the usual rate, and I do not see why we should not be able to demand as much for this advertising venture as we did in New Orleans, particularly as there will be a large outside subscription, which must be earnestly sought for by clubs in outside localities.

A form of advertising contract will be sent to all the committees who undertake one of these editions.

LOCAL EXPENSES:

A very convenient way of launching the financial end of this question was satisfactorily employed in New Orleans. Each one of the original committee called together loaned $5 00, which was returned to them out of the money made in the venture.

TRIBUTARY TERRITORY:

Someone in each town within the district tributary to your edition should be secured to solicit subscriptions. These subscriptions must all be in a week ahead, so that a fair estimate of the number of copies can be secured to avoid unnecessary expense in publishing.

PUBLICATION MATTER.

The main material for the publication of the paper will be supplied through National contributors. However, a certain amount of local news will be of interest.

STAFF:

There should be appointed the following staff, whose duties will be explained by the newspaper people; 1st., an editor in chief, some prominent woman who will, by lending her name to the venture, give social prestige. 2nd., a business managing editor. 3rd., a city editor. (I am enclosing a full list.)

SALES.

On the day the paper comes out, you should secure a number of women to take booths in different parts of the city, and sell the paper. These may be located (as the weather will be too severe to be on the streets, as we did in New Orleans,) in some of the large business buildings, in exchanges, and in leading dry goods stores. I think no objection can be raised to this if the proper women are willing to do it; and almost every paper sold will average 25¢. The selling price of the paper, however, will be 10¢, and we hope to have it contain a lithograph of Miss Anthony.

It may be that some cities could more successfully launch a paper by offering to share their half of the profits with some local charity. It certainly would create a greater opportunity for propaganda purposes, and is a privilege that is given to any of the States to try.

From the time the paper is launched until its appearance, articles upon the personelle of the staff and other items of interest should be constantly appearing.

I think this general outline will give you a full idea of how we managed our paper. Any specific inquiries made of me will receive a prompt answer.

Very cordially,

CHAIRMAN NEWSPAPER EDITION OF THE ANTHONY MEMORIAL.

Miss Laura Clay

Lexington, Ky: Seeing your name in the paper as "Chairman of the nation committee" of "The Woman's Equal Rights party" which will meet in Lexington on the 24, 25, 26 inst, I take pleasure in sending to you a homely pamphlet which is the only one I ever saw that gives a correct statement of that truth which is the only thing that can secure for woman equal rights. Be so kind as to give it a reading, I find some typographical errors in it - several in the references - which of course you need not examine only at your ample leisure, if indeed you are so fortunate as ever to have such a thing. I consider the truths set forth as fundamental and as the only things which can permanently secure to man and woman alike the freedom of which earth's best spirits have dreamed.

The Kingdom of God as a real paramount government is alone able to effectuate that for which you and your coadjutors are heroically struggling. God bless in your grand and auspicious work.

Please show the little work to your noble companions in labor. Give it a thoughtful examination for I assume you that you will find it "an angel in a lousy woolsey dress."

The time has come when a higher evolution must be proclaimed. The present church unity, according to avowals made by very many Reverend doctors of divinity, is a substantial failure. They feel the need of a better expression of truth than they now have, but dare not make it. If "religion" shall be saved from total humiliation and repudiation it must be done by the speedy proclamation of something broader, deeper, more humanitarian and effectual than those elegant plethoras which make up present pulpit effusions.

I bid you and your collaborators God speed; and may you all as women feel the importance of basing your rights to freedom and equality upon something deeper than human laws. Respectfully H. C. Clay M.D.

P.S. Should you think it worth to great a tax upon you, I should be pleased to hear from you your views touching the teachings of the pamphlet.

A great authority on Bible matters one Dr. Herndon of Dallas, Texas, I understand, has pronounced the work "absolutely unanswerable." As to such statements, I give them such passing respect, I feel that happiness depends on freedom, freedom on virtue, virtue on knowledge of the relations instituted by God and regulated by His own ordinations.

It seems to me and to my committee that the time has come for you to give us another paper -

I have thought of "Feminine patriotism" Individualism as affected by our social system. "Women in public life" "Responsibility of women for the tone of public sentiment" as subjects which may appeal to you but in case you have a theme which lies nearer your heart "Haste me to know it" for our mid year conference meets in three weeks - and Ruthless must be represented through you - Sincerely and admirably, Elizabeth Cady Stanton
52. Dearborn Ave. Chicago.

DEAR VOTERS;-

Regardless of your political affiliations we want to invite you to hear Miss Laura Clay and Honorable Frank E. Daugerty, Democratic Candidates for Senate and Attorney-General, who will speak at Ravenna at 3:30 P. M. at the Majestic Theatre, Tuesday Oct. 16th, and at the Court House in Irvine at 7 P. M. on the same date. We want every woman in Ravenna and Irvine and Estill County to hear these speeches. Ladies by all means hear Miss Clay. She has no equal in Kentucky or any other state.

There is one thing in common with all of us; we admire true, honest, upright people. Most one can make glowing promises, "Play to the State" but the thing that counts and upon which people are and must be judged is PRINCIPLE and you can always arrive at good judgement if you know the object to be adjudged.

The Democratic Candidate for Governor, Wm. J. Fields, was born on a little farm in Carter County, Ky., and early in life he had to shoulder the responsibility of supporting his mother and sisters and brothers. This he did with all his might and did well. When grown he became a traveling salesman, and although a Democrat from birth and reared in a Republican County and District, he was urged by his friends to run for Congress. He did run and was elected by 600. This was ten years ago; last fall he was elected by the Democrats and Republicans of his District by over 16,000. He always remained honest and true to his trust and he came from the bottom of the ladder. Now mind you, after he went to Congress he attended the Universities in Washington, and Kentucky University and educated himself, in order that he could SERVE WELL THE PEOPLE WHO HONORED AND TRUSTED HIM. Looks like Lincoln, doesn't it? NO MAN COULD CLIMB LIKE THIS BUT AN HONEST MAN.

On the other side Chas. I. Dawson the Republican Candidate comes from a family of good means. He was born and reared in Democratic Logan County. He was born and reared a Democrat and after he was grown went to Legislature on Democratic Ticket. But he went over to Bell County, the Republican Stronghold, and seeing there was no chance to be elected for office on Democratic Ticket, he became a Republican, and Galvin and Searcy have run him for Governor on Republican Ticket. Why didn't Dawson change his politics while in Democratic Logan? If he will sacrifice principle once will he not do it again? Will a hog return to its "Wallow."

Let's elect A MAN! A MAN WHO HAS STOOD THE TEST! ANOTHER LINCOLN.

Respectfully yours,

Democratic Campaign Committee of Estill County.

RESOLVE

To keep my health!
To do my work!
To live!

To see to it I grow and gain and give!
Never to look behind me for an hour!
To wait in weakness, and to walk in power;
But always fronting onward to the light, Always and always facing towards the right, Robbed, starved, defeated, fallen, wide astray On, with what strength I have!

Dear Suffragist:

"The Story of a Pioneer", which is a partial biography of Dr. Anna Howard Shaw told by herself and edited by Miss Elizabeth Jordan, will be published by Harper & Brothers of New York and put on sale September 1st. Dr. Shaw has arranged with the publishers to sell the volume to the various suffrage societies at the same rate as is given to wholesale book concerns, which is 33 1/3% discount. The book is to sell for $2.00, leaving a profit of 66 2/3% on each book. The understanding with the publishers is that no book shall be sold for less than $2.00 by any society or individual. I am sending you this notice in advance of the publication of the book that your society may have the advantage of obtaining early orders for the first sales which will come in more quickly than those made later. If you desire to take advantage of this opportunity to make money for your society in this way, please notify Mr. Henry Hoyns, Sales Manager of Harper & Brothers, Franklin Square, New York City, or Miss Lucy E. Anthony, Moylan, Pennsylvania, stating the number of books your society would like to order.

The Harper Publishing Company are very desirous of knowing as soon as possible in order to decide upon the size of the edition to be published, and the sooner your orders are entered the better arrangements will be made for immediate delivery.

It has been stated by a number of people that every school and public library should have a copy of this book, and it is earnestly hoped that you will urge the libraries in your community to purchase a volume as it will be a means of inspiration and help, not merely to suffrage workers but to young people throughout the country.

Very truly yours,

Lucy E. Anthony.

Dear Madam,

I hope you recall that you and I exchanged letters in 1902, in reference to <sup>the advance</sup> organizing ment of the cause of a woman suffrage club in Henderson. I expected at that time to come myself to Henderson in the interests of the Ky. Equal Rights Association, and I was pleased to learn that you were a suffragist yourself and had several acquaintances in Henderson who were suffragists, also. I have never been able to accomplish my wish of visiting Henderson, but Dr. Frances Woods, a ~~lectr~~ an organizer of the National Woman Suffrage Association is now on a lecture and organizing tour in <sup>the</sup> western & new western part of the state. She will be in your city in a day or two, and I write to ask of your kindness to ~~assist her in her work~~ by giving her the names of your acquaintances who are interested in ~~suffrage~~, such as assistance as you ~~may~~ <sup>can</sup> be able to give her to enable her to make a ~~suffrag~~ get an audience for a suffrage address, and to organize an ~~association~~

I have asked her to call to see you, though I do not think any acquaintance with you I believe we have added to our entitled me to give her a letter of introduction local C. R. A. in Lexington Miss Genevieve Hart Clay, and have also a number of other members of the D. A. R. It seems to me that logically all the Daughters ought to belong, as the C. R. A. stands for the principles of our Revolutionary fathers.

Dr. Woods is an able and convincing speaker, ~~and~~ a lady who is esteemed as one of the best of the speakers and organizers of the National Suffrage Association. Her family was originally from Kentucky, ~~and~~ a leading one of Madison County. She made a very favorable impression in the state when she lectured in it a few years ago; and I feel confident that she will make ~~an~~ great confidence in her ability to present her subject in a convincing and attractive manner.

Any assistance you can give her in her present mission will be highly esteemed by ~~myself and~~ many other members of the Ky. S. A. who have ~~trusting~~ that your interest in the suffrage cause will incline you to feel that I am not asking more than our acquaintance justifies

Dear Madam,

I observe from the newspapers that the State Grange went on record again as favoring Woman Suffrage at the annual meeting recently held.

On behalf of the Ky. Equal Rights Association I am writing to express our deep appreciation and thanks for the action of the State Grange. We are now expecting to take the initial steps towards the submission of an amendment to the constitution of Kentucky granting suffrage to women. We are going to make that our chief work in the General Assembly until the measure is obtained; and there are no allies whom we more cordially welcome than the State Grange.

Hoping for the co-operation of the State Grange in our efforts to secure Equal Suffrage for women, I am

I received your letter of Aug. 26th which was forwarded to me from Richmond; I am glad that ~~and~~ I sent the silver, a crumb scraper, one fork, three tea-spoons, ~~three~~ table spoons, and the two books by the American Railway Express Co., prepaid.

I bought these things <sup>and a few others,</sup> at the White Hall sale in 1903, and I have made a memorandum in addition to my will for the <sup>among members of our family,</sup> distribution of them; ~~and~~ <sup>but I preferred sending them to you at once as</sup> ~~those~~ <sup>wh</sup> when I learned that you had bought some of your Grandfather's silver from Green Clay. Editor of the "Christian Advocate",

Dear Sir,

In a friend's copy of the "Advocate" of November 10th, I observe ~~in~~ commenting upon the baptism of children at the Woman Suffrage convention in Des Moines, you draw a parallel between the principles of equal rights, and free trade or protection. The report you quote is somewhat misleading, in that it permits the inference that the <sup>words</sup> dedication to <sup>uphold</sup> equal rights was a portion of the baptismal ~~words~~ <sup>ceremony</sup>, whereas in fact it was an ~~additional~~ additional dedication, one of the children having been baptized at another time. I was an eye-witness of the ceremonies, and am aware that there was no irreverence, but a solemn upholding of the sacredness of human liberty. Misled as you probably were, you say "We protest against such irreverence". Now I, in my turn, desire to protest against ~~it~~. How would it look if, at Democratic and Republican conventions, children should be baptized. Now I, in my turn, <sup>desire to</sup> protest against the irreverence of drawing a parallel between the principle of ~~human~~ justice and <sup>as taught by woman suffragists</sup> human liberty, and any mere financial measure, <sup>political</sup> however important. If since Christ promises freedom to his true disciples it is a ~~portion of the structure and admonition~~ <sup>not merely</sup> <sup>part</sup> of Christian of the ~~word~~ <sup>word</sup> to raise up children in the love of it and ~~for its~~ <sup>for its</sup> defense, and dedicated to its defense. The ~~Church~~

Wm. Arch. Hamilton,

Dear Sir

After your strenuous and successful efforts to secure in the House the passage of the Constitutional Amendment Bill which I so much desire, I realize that I have received my due share of your legislative attention. But I feel such a deep interest in Senate Bill No. 7, now in the orders of the day in the House, called the Age of Consent Bill, that I am writing to beg of you to give it your favorable consideration and your vote. In my judgment there never was a time in our <sup>country's</sup> history when wise legislation was so much needed as it is now to maintain the standard of social morality to which <sup>our</sup> civilization has attained. vast numbers of young girls are thrown by industrial conditions into exposed situations practically unknown to other generations. A change in the public view <sup>of sexual morality in my opinion</sup> must be effected to enable young women in these days to maintain the ideals <sup>now thought to be firmly</sup> ~~as for considered~~ established; for women cannot maintain them unless the standard for men is elevated. I believe the new feature of including boys within the protection of the statute is its most valuable advance step, not only for its protection to boys in their <sup>of youthful irresponsibility</sup> but its educational effect in teaching the value to society of sex integrity in both sexes. I believe that your support of this bill will enhance the respect of our people for your legislative ability, which is already so highly esteemed. The bill, as I judge it, is progressive without being rash, and is in keeping with sound Democratic principles.

I am, with great respect,

Very sincerely yours

Leanna Clay.
