

46 M 4

J. B. - wd. you be able to stow this away with Laura Clay pamphls. etc.; sort of interesting bibl.
E 19502

"Think it your greatest commendation not to be talked of." See item 87.

"Women...forgetting the graces and delicacies which now cause them to be loved...will become brawling politicians and unwomanly aspirants for place and power." See item 36.

W O M E N

IN HISTORY.....	P. 2
IN THE SOCIETY.....	P. 3
IN EDUCATION.....	P. 6
IN SOCIAL REFORM.....	P. 8
IN LITERATURE and THE ARTS..	P. 10
IN SCIENCE.....	P. 12
IN INDUSTRY.....	P. 12
IN THE CHURCH.....	P. 13
IN MISCELLANEOUS ENDEAVOR...	P. 13

CATALOGUE NO. 156

All books are 8vo or 12 mo, cloth, in the original edition and in good condition unless noted. Where place of publication is omitted, it is either N. Y. or Boston.

DUFF and M. E. GILFOND temptations in books

148 Colony Road

Silver Spring, Maryland
(suburb of Washington, D. C.)

IN HISTORY

1. ANDERSON, MELISSA G.--Story of a Kansas Pioneer: Being the Autobiography of Mt. Vernon, Ohio (1924). Wrappers, 61 pp., illustrated. 7.50
Home-making with earthen floors and fireplace cooking in a region divided by slavery and inhabited by Indians. U.S.-iana # 243.
2. BEARD, MARY R.--America Through Women's Eyes. 1934. 558 pp., bibliog. 4.75
The history of the Country seen through the contemporary letters and writings of its women.
3. BEARD--Women as Force in History. 1946. 369 pp., bibliog. D.W. Fine. 4.75
A new and, of course, scholarly appraisal of woman's part in history.
4. BEECHER, CATHERINE E.--An Essay on Slavery and Abolitionism, with Reference to the Duty of American Females. Phila., 1837. 2nd ed. 151 pp. 6.50
A reply to Agelina Grimke's Appeal to the Christian Women of the South, in which the early educator reproves the abolitionists--not for their views but for their tactics.
5. BODLEY, RONALD and HEARST--Gertrude Bell. 1940. 260 pp., index. Fine. 4.75
The explorer of the desert regions of the Near East who organized and financed her own caravans and helped create the kingdom of Iraq.
6. BONDFIELD, MARGARET--A life's Work. Lon., ca. 1948. 368 pp., illus. 4.75
The one-time shop assistant dedicated to the cause of the worker, a career culminated as Britain's first woman Cabinet Minister.
7. BRANTOME (PIERRE)--Famous Women. Lon., 1908. 336 pp. Spine chipped. 4.25
A first-hand account of the royal women of France in the 16th-17th centuries.
8. CLEMENT, J. (Ed.)--Noble Deeds of American Women. With a long introduction by Lydia H. Sigourney. Buffalo, 1851. 480 pp. Edges worn. 4.50
Outstanding women in our early history including the less-known: A Kind-hearted Loyalist; A Tennessee Heroine; A Kentucky Amazon; Mohawk Women.
9. CONRAD, EARL--Harriet Tubman. Washington (1943). Tall 8vo, 248 pp. Fine. 5.75
Escaped slave who stole into the South time and again in the operation of her own Underground Railroad for the liberation of other slaves.
10. DOWIE, MENIE M. (Ed.)--Women Adventurers. Lon., 1893. 288 pp., illus. 3.75
Four accounts by women soldiers, one an officer in the Confederate Army.
11. DWIGHT, ELIZABETH A.--Memorials of Mary Wilder White. Ed. by May Wilder Tileston. 1903. 409 pp., index, illus., appendix. 5.50
What an educated New England young woman did and thought around 1800, seen from her writings.
12. EARLE, ALICE MORSE (Ed.)--Diary of Anna Green Winslow. 1895. 121 pp. 3.75
The quaint diary of a Boston school girl before the Revolution.
13. HAGGARD, ANDREW C.P.--Women of the Revolutionary Era. Lon., 1914. 375 pp. 4.50
Women who affected French history in the 40 years before the Revolution.
14. HUMPHREYS, MARY G.--Catherine Schuyler. 1897. 251 pp., index, frontis. 3.75
The General's Lady, a representative of the Colonial Dutch women of N.Y.
15. HURN, ETHEL ALICE--Wisconsin Women in the War Between the States. Intro. by R.G. Thwaites. Wisc. History Commission, 1911. 190 pp., index, illus. 6.75
Women on the home as well as the War front, including Cordelia Harvey's persuasion of Lincoln to remove wounded Union soldiers from the South.

16. JAY, CORNELIA--Diary of. Priv. pub., 1924. 228 pp. Hinges loose. 6.75
The ups and downs of the Civil War seen in the hopes and despair of a well-born, N.Y. young woman with family and friends at the front.
17. JOHNS, JANE M.--Personal Recollections of Early Decatur, Abraham Lincoln, and the Civil War. Ed. by H.C. Schaub. Decatur, 1912. 268 pp. 5.50
The Civil War decade in early Decatur described by the wife of a leading citizen, at whose home Lincoln visited in connection with a slave case.
18. JONES, MARY CADWALADER--Lantern Slides. Priv. pub., 1937. 129 pp. 4.75
And now the Civil War decade in Philadelphia, including the author's accompaniment of her father to the White House to see Lincoln.
19. LANGTON, H.H. (Ed.)--A Gentlewoman in Upper Canada: The Journals of Anne Langton. Toronto, 1950. 249 pp., index, illus. 5.50
The letters, diaries and drawings of a British young woman artist describing pioneer life in upper Canada in the 1840s.
20. LANSBURY, VIOLET--An Englishwoman in the U.S.S.R. Lon., 1942. 325 pp. 3.75
Soviet life portrayed by one who was part of it for 20 years.
21. LESLEY, SUSAN I.--Recollections of My Mother. (1899). 504 pp., index. 5.75
The wife of Judge Lyman of Northampton, whose letters afford a picture of domestic and social life in the first half of the 19th century.
22. My Name is Million. Anonymous. Lon., 1940. 284 pp. 4.75
An Englishwoman's part in the resistance of Poland to the Nazis and Soviets.
23. PASOLINI, P.--Catherine Sforza. Trans. from Italian. Chi., 1898. 400 pp. 4.75
Militant woman ruler in 15th century Italy seen from her letters and papers.
24. Patriot Martyr and Other Narratives of Female Heroism. Lon., n.d. 192 pp. 4.75
Eight profiles of courageous women, including a soldier in the American Revolution (Deborah Sampson) and a lighthouse keeper off R.I. (Ida Lewis).
25. PHILIPSON, DAVID (Ed.)--Letters of Rebecca Gratz. Phila., 1929. 454 pp. 4.75
Member of a prominent Philadelphia family writing to her Kentucky kin, from 1808 to 1866, about her charities, literature, politics, and the War.
26. RICHARDS, CAROLINE COWLES. Diary of...1852-72. N.p. (1908). 162 pp. 3.75
A girlhood in a prominent family of upstate N.Y. before and during the War.
27. STARLING, ELIZABETH--Noble Deeds of Women. Lon., 1853. 486 pp., index. 4.25
Biographical accounts of scores of exemplary women of all Countries and eras.
28. WOODHOUSE, A.E. (Ed.)--Tales of Pioneer Women. Auckland, 1940. 337 pp. 6.50
Of "Maori" (native) scares; driving in bullock drays; unaided childbearing--an inspired collection by New Zealand's pioneers and their descendants.
29. YOUNG, CATHARINE--A Lady Who Loved Herself. 1930. 318 pp, index, bibliog. 4.75
A realistic appraisal of Mme. Roland based on her letters and memoirs.

IN THE SOCIETY

30. ACKERMANN, JESSIE A.--The World Through a Woman's Eyes. 1896. 325 pp. 5.50
The travels of a temperance missionary around the world, emphasizing women's conditions and activities in its remotest places, from Alaska to Tasmania.
31. ANTHONY, KATHARINE--Feminism in Germany and Scandinavia. 1916. 260 pp. 5.75
The progress, philosophy, and emphasis of feminism in Countries supposedly behind their English-speaking contemporaries. (over)

32. BAYLES, GEORGE JAMES--Woman and the Law. 1901. 274 pp., index. 4.75
A Columbia University Professor clarifies the legal condition of American women at the turn of the century.
33. BELL, MRS. ARTHUR--Among the Women of the Sahara. Trans. from the French of Mme. Jean Pommerol. Lon., 1900. 343 pp., 90 illustrations. 4.75
A Frenchwoman's picture of the secluded women of North Africa and the strategy she had to use to come by it.
34. BENNETT, ARNOLD--Our Women. Lon., 1920. 250 pp. Page edges soiled. 3.75
A discussion of all phases of the "woman problem" by the novelist who once edited a woman's magazine.
35. BOULTING, WILLIAM--Woman in Italy. Lon., 1910. 356 pp., index, illus. 4.25
The beginning of the emancipation of women during the Renaissance, and its relation to the larger freedom.
36. BROCKETT, L.P., M.D.--Woman. Hartford, 1869. 447 pp., illus. 5.75
A Brooklyn physician's comprehensive survey of woman--historically, legally, and in all occupations--to point out the right and the wrong of her striving.
37. BURNAP, GEO. W.--Lectures on the Sphere & Duties of Woman. 1841. 272 pp. 5.50
Four lectures by a Baltimore pastor on the education needed by women "to elevate and refine our species".
38. CLAFLIN, TENNIE C.--Constitutional Equality. 1871. 147 pp., frontis. 8.50
Woman's right to political equality shown from a study of the Constitution, by the co-editor of Woodhull & Claflin's weekly, rebel journal of the day.
39. COXE, MISS--Claims of the Country on American Females. 2 vols. Columbus, 1842. 486 pp. Foxed. 8.50
How American women can serve in the "present crisis" shown from a study of the relation between women's status and the morality of society in all ages.
40. DAGGETT, HARRIET S.--Legal Essays on Family Law. L.S.U. Press, 1935. 4.25
Wpps., 170 pp.
The trend of legislation pertaining to women, wives and marriage--historically and in our various States, particularly Louisiana.
41. DAS, SONYA RUTH--The American Woman in Modern Marriage. Philosophical Library (1948). 185 pp., index, bibliography. D.W. Fine. 4.75
An evaluation of the influence of the American woman's status on civilization, developed by an Indian woman from her Ph. D. thesis at the Sorbonne.
42. DELL, FLOYD--The Outline of Marriage. Ca. 1918. 63 pp. Fine. 3.75
A case for birth control based on historical precedent.
43. GALLABER, RUTH A.--Legal and Political Status of Women in Iowa. Iowa City, State Historical Society, 1918. 300 pp., index, bibliography. 7.50
A history of women's rights in Iowa shown through its legislation, the fight for suffrage in the State, and its women in public office.
44. GILMAN, CHARLOTTE PERKINS--The Man-Made World.... 1911. 260 pp. 4.75
A leading feminist's study of the effect on civilization of male domination, and the benefits to be derived from two-sex influence.
45. GISBORNE, THOMAS--An Enquiry into the Duties of the Female Sex. London, 1797. Calf and boards, 429 pp. A fine copy. 8.50
An 18th century discourse on woman's raison d'etre, and the means--education, entertainment, employment--by which it may be achieved.

46. KARTINI, RADEN A.--Letters of a Javanese Princess. 1920. 310 pp. 3.75
The founder of the first school for Javanese women describes the ignorance and "shut in" life from which they must be released.
47. KIRKPATRICK, CLIFFORD--Woman in Nazi Germany. 1939. 319 pp., bibliog. 5.50
First-hand account by the sociologist of the regimentation of German women.
48. KNOFF, OLGA--The Art of Being a Woman. 1932. 307 pp., index. 4.75
The way of success or failure in all phases of a woman's life.
49. LA FOLLETTE, SUZANNE--Concerning Women. 1926. 306 pp. 4.75
The dependence of equality for women on equality of opportunity for all.
50. MANSFIELD, EDWARD D.--The Legal Rights, Liabilities and Duties of Women.... 7.50
Salem, 1845. 369 pp. Covers worn.
An early Professor (Cincinnati College) surveys the legal position of women in various civilizations, with reference to the laws of Ohio in our own.
51. MARY ROSARIA, SISTER--The Nurse in Greek Life. 1917. Wpps., 51 pp. 2.75
The importance and influence of the nurse in ancient Greece.
52. MASON, AMELIA G.--Woman in the Golden Ages. 1901. 396 pp. Fine. 3.75
Status and culture of the women of old Greece, Rome and the Renaissance.
53. McCRACKEN, ELIZABETH--The Women of America. 1904. 397 pp. 4.75
A picture of American women in all walks of life at the turn of the century.
54. MEAKIN, ANNETTE M.B.--Woman in Transition. Lon., 1907. 313 pp., bibliog. 3.75
An anthropologist's study of the progress of women in various Countries.
55. MIRIAM TERESA, SISTER--Legislation for Women in Oregon. Catholic U. Press, 1924. Tall 8vo, wpps., bibliog. Fine. 5.75
The history of legislation for the economic and legal equality of women in the State, and of the fight by its women to achieve it.
56. O'MALLEY, I.B.--Women in Subjection. Lon., 1933. 365 pp., index. 4.75
A scholarly portrayal of the treatment of Englishwomen before 1832, and of the beginnings of their rebellion against it.
57. PING-YING, HSIEH--Autobiography of a Chinese Girl. Lon., 1943. 216 pp. 3.50
The life and rebellion of a girl brought up, with her feet bound, in a traditional Chinese home.
58. ROYDEN, A. MAUDE--Women and the Sovereign State. Lon., 1917. 142 pp. 4.25
The State's debasement of women and the benefit to it from their elevation.
59. SELIVANOVA, NINA N.--Russia's Women. (1923). 226 pp. Fine. 3.50
The subjection of Russian women and the pioneers in their release.
60. SNOWDEN, ETHEL--The Woman Socialist. Lon., 1907. 100 pp. 3.50
How Socialism will improve the status of women.
61. Social (The) and Political Dependence of Women. Anon. (Charles Anthony). 4.75
Lon., 1867. 75 pp.
Scholarly essay condemning women's status and refuting opponents of change.
62. SPENCER, ANNA G.--Woman's Share in Social Culture. N.Y., 1913. 331 pp. 3.75
The part played by women in the various stages of civilization.
63. SPOFFORD, HARRIET PRESCOTT--House and Hearth. 1891. 303 pp. 4.75
An historical treatment of the status of women and family relations. (over)

64. STRACHEY, RAY (Ed.)--Our Freedom and Its Results. Lon., 1936. 285 pp. 5.75
Five Englishwomen discuss women's progress since their enfranchisement.
65. TASISTRO, LOUIS F.--Woman. Baltimore, 1850. Wpps., 50 pp. 4.75
A brave man's blast at a society which values only charm and coquetry in its women and allows them to "pore their eyes out over embroidery frames".
66. THOMPSON, VANCE--Woman. (1917). 229 pp. 3.75
A man's attempt to "tell his sex off" for its injustice to women.
67. THORNWELL, EMILY--The Lady's Guide to Perfect Gentility. 1856. 226 pp. 4.75
The Emily Post of the day prescribes propriety of dress, conversation, and manners, for all occasions, including "Gentlemen's Society".
68. WHITE, SARAH PARKER--A Moral History of Woman. 1937. 324 pp., illus. 4.75
A woman physician differentiates between the "pioneer and parasitic" women of all civilizations.
69. WHITTON, MARY O.--These Were the Women. (1954). 288 pp., bibliog. Fine 4.75
An authority on the history of American women presents the pre-Civil War "female", largely from her own letters and diaries.
70. ZAIMI, NEXEMIE--Daughter of the Eagle. (1937). 271 pp. Fine. 4.50
A girlhood in the "Eagle Land" (Albania) described by a rebel who emigrated to America alone, and became a student at Wellesley.

IN EDUCATION

71. BURSTALL, SARA A.--Frances Mary Buss. Lon. (1938). 94 pp., frontis. 3.50
Founder and headmistress of the first public day school for English girls.
72. BURTON, HESTER--Barbara Bodichon, 1827-1891. Lon., 1949. 220 pp., illus. 4.75
The great devotee of reform for women, and the chief founder and benefactor of Girton, the first woman's college in England.
73. CONVERSE, FLORENCE--The Story of Wellesley. 1915. 284 pp., index, illus. 4.75
Wellesley ideals shown through its Founder, Presidents, faculty and alumnae.
74. (COWLES, EUNICE C.)--The Power of Christian Benevolence Illustrated in the Life and Labors of Mary Lyon. (1858). Rev. ed. 376 pp., frontis. 4.50
Founder of Mt. Holyoke and the early years of the pioneer woman's college.
75. EMERSON, GEORGE B.--Lecture on Education of Females. 1831. Wpps., 27 pp. 4.75
The Maine educator on how to produce "a highly cultivated female".
76. GREENE, JOHN M.--An Address at the Centennial of the Birth of Sophia Smith, May 27, 1896. Northampton. Wpps., 48 pp., illus. 4.50
A friend of the founder of Smith College describes her outstanding traits.
77. HOLMES, LULU--A History of the Position of Dean of Women in a Selected Group of Co-Educational Colleges.... Teachers College, 1939. 141 pp., bibliog. 4.75
The origin of the office and its development, showing the changes in the problems and objectives of co-eds and in the importance of their education.
78. HOSFORD, FRANCES J.--Father Shipherd's Magna Charta. 1937. 180 pp. 4.75
A history of women's education at Oberlin, the first College to admit them; the early days seen from their letters; and achievements of their alumnae.
79. JOHNSON, EMILY C.--Dean Bond of Swarthmore. Phila., n.d. 239 pp., illus. 4.75
A career started in an abolitionist household; continued at Vassar and her own school; and culminated as Dean in the early days of co-education.

80. JONES, JANE LOUISE--A Personnel Study of Women Deans in Colleges and Universities. Teachers College, 1928. 155 pp., bibliography. 4.75
A survey of the training, experience and varied duties of women Deans.
81. KASUYA, YOSHI--A Comparative Study of the Secondary Education of Girls in England, Germany and the U.S. Teachers College, 1913. 211 pp., bibliog. 4.75
A Japanese woman College Professor shows the effect of the historical status of women in these Countries on the education of their girls.
82. KEELER, HARRIET L.--Life of Adelia Field Johnston. Cleve. (1912). 254 pp. 5.50
Oberlin's first woman Professor and Dean of Women, whose story reveals the slow progress of equality for women even at Oberlin.
83. KING. Exercises Commemorative of Lida Shaw King, Dean of Pembroke College, 1905-22. Providence, 1932. Ltd. to 500 copies. Cl. and bds., 23 pp. 3.00
An account of her efforts to improve the education of Rhode Island girls.
84. KNIPP, ANNA H. and THOMAS--The History of Goucher College. Baltimore, 1938. 659 pp., index, illus., appendices. D.W. Fine. 5.50
A definitive history of the Baltimore woman's college, with emphasis on the development of its curriculum and dedication to high academic standards.
85. MacCRACKEN, HENRY NOBLE--The Hickory Limb. 1950. 212 pp. D.W. Fine. 3.50
Vassar's President wittily recalls 30-odd years in the education of women.
86. MERRICK. In Memory of Priscilla B. Merrick. Camb., 1889. 31 pp. 3.25
Professor at Vassar from its opening and one of our first women Professors.
87. (MOORE, HANNAH)--Essays on Various Subjects, Principally Designed for Young Ladies. Lon., 1777. 1st ed. Calf and bds., 214 pp. 7.50
The popular British writer on the behavior and education of young ladies, epitomized by her quotation from Pericles, "Think it your greatest commendation not to be talked of".
88. NEWSOM, JOHN--The Education of Girls. Lon., 1948. 160 pp. 3.75
A British educator wants more home economy and less Latin in girls' schools.
89. PATON, LUCY A.--Elizabeth Cary Agassiz: A Biography. 1919. 423 pp. 4.75
The wife and co-worker of the great naturalist and her part in the early history of Radcliffe.
90. PATRICK, MARY MILLS--Under Five Sultans. Lon., 1930. 357 pp. bibliog. 6.50
Autobiography of an Iowa girl who fought Turkish prejudice and poverty to establish the Woman's College at Constantinople.
91. PIKE, ELSIE--The Story of Walthamstow Hall. Lon., 1938. 145 pp., illus. 3.75
The growth and progress of a British boarding school started in 1838 to educate the daughters of missionaries.
92. PORTER, MARY H.--Eliza Chappell Porter. Chi. (1892). 366 pp., illus. 5.50
A pioneer teacher on the frontier, in Indian territory and at Army forts; in Chicago's first normal school, and in the first school for freedmen.
93. RAIKES, ELIZABETH--Dorothea Beale of Cheltenham. Lon., 1908. 432 pp. 4.75
Principal of the Ladies' College whose influence on the education of the girls of her day is seen in this popular (girls will be girls!) rhyme:
Miss Buss and Miss Beale Cupid's darts do not feel;
How different from us Miss Beale and Miss Buss.
94. ROGERS, AGNES--Vassar Women. 1940. 223 pp., illus. D.W. Fine. 3.00
An interesting comparison between Vassar's early and modern students. (over)

95. SCUDDER, VIDA D.--On Journey. (1937). 445 pp., index, frontis. 4.75
A scholar and social reformer describes her difficulties in a college world, and the resolution of them by her studies of St. Francis and St. Catherine.
96. SIDGWICK, ETHEL--Mrs. Henry Sidgwick. Lon., 1938. 320 pp. Edges soiled. 4.25
Associate of Newnham College (for women) from its founding in a house jointly occupied by the students and the faculty.
97. STEPHEN, BARBARA--Girton College. Camb. U. Pr., 1933. 202 pp., index. 4.25
How England's first woman's college started, struggled, and grew.
98. STUART, JANET ERSKINE--Education of Catholic Girls. Lon., 1922. 257 pp. 4.25
The Catholic educator discourses on "the fundamentals of education".
99. STURTEVANT, SARAH M. and STRANG--Personnel Study of Deans of Women in Teachers
Colleges and Normal Schools. Teachers College, 1928. 95 pp., charts. 4.75
Another study to improve the performance and training of women Deans.
100. STURTEVANT, SARAH M. and STRANG--Personnel Study of Deans of Girls in High Schools. Teachers College, 1929. 150 pp., tables and charts. 4.75
And now, the office as seen from a study of 100 high schools.
101. STURTEVANT, SARAH M. and HAYES (Editors)--Deans at Work. 1930. 295 pp. 4.75
Finally, the women Deans themselves, eight of them, on phases of their work.
102. TAYLOR, JAMES MONROE and HAIGHT--Vassar. 1915. 232 pp., bibliography. 3.75
Its beginning; early characteristics; struggle for survival; and success.
103. TOPLIS, GRACE (Ed.)--Leaves from the Note-Books of Frances M. Buss. Lon., 1896. 168 pp. Fine. 4.75
Inspiring talks of the famous headmistress to her girls. See item 71.
104. TUKE, MARGARET J.--A History of Bedford College for Women. Oxford U. Pr.,
1939. 364 pp., index, illus., appendices. 4.75
Another pioneer college (now part of the U. of London) portrayed against the difficulties and derision attending women's education in the 1850s.
105. WELSH, LILIAN, M.D.--Reminiscences of Thirty Years in Baltimore. Baltimore, 1925. 167 pp., illus. 4.50
The Goucher Professor's experiences in educating and enfranchising women.
106. WHITNEY, HELEN--Maria Sanford. U. of Minn., 1922. 322 pp., illus. 5.75
Our first woman Professor and the attributes which made her memorable.
107. WOOD, FRANCES A.--Earliest Years at Vassar. Poughkeepsie, 1909. 98 pp. 3.25
When Vassar was young recalled by one of its first teachers.
108. YOUNG, ELIZABETH B.--A Study of the Curricula of Seven Selected Women's Colleges of the Southern States. Teachers College (1932). 220 pp. 4.75
The development of higher education for Southern women shown through the changes in their studies over a century.
109. Young (The) Lady's Own Book. By the author of The Young Man's Own Book.
Phila., 1833. 320 pp. Crack in backstrip; otherwise, very good. 5.50
What the young lady of the 1830s should study, read, do, and avoid!
- IN SOCIAL REFORM
110. ACLAND, ALICE--Caroline Norton. Lon., 1948. 236 pp., index, illus. 4.50
The beautiful society figure whose unconventionality brought her more notice than her fight to improve the legal status of married women.

111. ADDAMS, JANE--My Friend, Julia Lathrop. 1935. 228 pp., frontis. 3.75
The woman who "made a career out of kindness".
112. CARPENTER, J.E.--Life and Work of Mary Carpenter. Lon., 1881. 391 pp. 5.75
A life dedicated to the lowly--poor children, for whom she organized Ragged Schools; delinquent children, Industrial Schools; and prisoners, in whose behalf she became world-famous.
113. DANIEL, SADIE I.--Women Builders. Washington (1931). 187 pp., illus. 4.75
Seven Negro women who dedicated their lives to the uplift of their people, largely through the schools they founded in the South.
114. DELL, FLOYD--Women as World Builders. Chi., 1913. 104 pp. 4.50
The feminist movement seen through sketches of ten leading modern women.
115. EARHART, MARY--Frances Willard. U. of Chi. (1944). 418 pp., bibliog. 5.75
A new and full-size presentation of the temperance leader as a pioneer for women's rights, a role in which she had never before been shown.
116. GRAHAM, ABBIE--Grace H. Dodge. Womans Press, 1926. 329 pp., frontis. 4.75
Copper heiress who put her wealth and business ability to work for others, as organizer of clubs for working girls, a founder of Teachers College, and Y.W.C.A. leader.
117. GRAHAM, FRANCES W. and GARDENIER--Two Decades. Oswego (1894). 83 pp. 4.75
Leaders and achievements of the Women's Christian Temperance Union in New York State, from its founding in 1874.
118. HALL, FLORENCE HOWE--Julia Ward Howe and the Woman Suffrage Movement. Bos. (1913). 241 pp., frontis. 4.25
Selections from her writings, with a long introduction by her daughter.
119. HALL, MRS. WALTER A.--Progress and Achievement. 1932. 249 pp., illus. 4.75
An account of the Massachusetts Federation of Women's Clubs and its activities to improve living conditions in the State.
120. LARSEN, ARTHUR (Ed.)--Crusader and Feminist: Letters of Jane Grey Swisshelm, 1858-1865. Minn. Historical Soc., 1934. 327 pp., index, illus., facss. 6.50
Outstanding abolitionist and feminist of her day, recreated here through her fearless writings for the Minnesota paper she founded.
121. LAWRENCE, MISS CATHERINE S.--Sketch of Life and Labors of. By Herself. Albany, 1893. 174 pp., illus. Small tear top of spine. 5.75
A lifetime of service, as a crusader for temperance and abolition in the Albany area; and as an Army nurse in Virginia during the Civil War.
122. LEWIS, GEORGINA KING--Elizabeth Fry. Lon., ca. 1909. 176 pp., index. 4.25
A life devoted to visiting prisons and lecturing on their reforms.
123. MARTIN, FRANCES--Elizabeth Gilbert.... Lon., 1887. 307 pp., frontis. 5.50
Blind benefactress of the blind who opened the eyes of her countrymen to the possibility of making these people self-supporting.
124. O'CONNOR, LILLIAN--Pioneer Women Orators: Rhetoric in the Ante-Bellum Movement. Columbia U. Press, 1954. 264 pp., index, bibliog. Fine. 5.75
Study of early women orators--Frances Wright, Ernestine Rose, Sojourner Truth--showing that the basis of their effectiveness was logic, not emotion.
125. SQUIRE, BELLE--The Woman Movement in America. 1911. 286 pp., illus. 4.75
A spirited account of the woman's suffrage movement and its relation to the struggles for abolition and temperance. (over)

126. STANTON, ELIZABETH CADY--Address to the Legislature of New York. Albany, 1854. Wpps., 19 pp. Back wrapper missing. 4.50
A diatribe against "the pages of your statute books (showing) how like feudal barons you freemen hold your women".
127. STANTON, THEODORE and BLATCH (Eds.)--Elizabeth Cady Stanton. 2 vols. (1922). 730 pp., illus., appendix. 6.75
The suffrage leader speaks for herself in letters, diaries, reminiscences.
128. SWANWICK, H.M.--The Future of the Women's Movement. Lon., 1913. 208 pp. 4.50
A broad and vigorous treatment of the suffrage movement--its social and economic implications--by one of its leaders in Britain.
129. TOWNSHEND. Emily Townshend 1849-1934. Lon., 1936. 105 pp., illus. 4.75
The first student at Girton College, ardent Fabian, and suffragette, who went to jail for the cause--seen from her diary and letters.
130. WEBB, BEATRICE--My Apprenticeship. 1926. 442 pp., index, illus. Fine. 4.75
The distinguished liberal economist draws on her experiences as a social investigator to show why she became a Socialist.
131. WELLS. Leadership in a Democracy. Excerpts from the Letters of Marguerite Milton Wells...1940-1944. Priv. pub., 1944. Tall 8vo, 112 pp., appendix. 4.75
The formulation of policy for the National League of Women Voters during the War, seen from the letters of its forward-looking President.
132. WHITNEY, JANET--Geraldine S. Cadbury. Lon., 1948. 200 pp., bibliography. 5.50
Wealthy Quaker who put her religious precepts and money to work for juvenile delinquents, by the foster homes and open-air schools she instituted.
133. WORRELL, DOROTHY--The Women's Municipal League of Boston. 1943. 224 pp. 4.75
The women and the work of the organization founded in 1908 "to make Boston a better place to live in".

IN LITERATURE AND THE ARTS

134. BOADEN, JAMES--Mrs. Jordan. 2 vols. Lon., Grolier Soc., ca. 1830. Ltd. ed. 4.50
660 pp. Attractively illustrated, frontis of each volume in color.
The noted drama critic presents the great actress and the theater of her day.
135. BOUGHNER, GENEVIEVE J.--Women in Journalism. 1926. 348 pp., bibliog. 3.75
Preparation for, opportunities in, and techniques of those phases of journalism best suited to women.
136. BROUGHTON, LESLIE N.--Sara Coleridge and Henry Reed. Cornell U. Press, 1937. 137 pp., index. Fine. 4.75
The unpublished letters of Coleridge's daughter to the U. of P. Professor, showing her scholarship and unrecognized ability as a literary critic.
137. BRUCE, MARY L.--Anna Swanwick. Lon., 1903. 261 pp., illus. 4.75
The woman who overcame the inadequate schooling of her day to become a leading Greek and German scholar, honored by various Universities.
138. CRONWRIGHT-SCHREINER, S.C. (Ed.)--The Letters of Olive Schreiner, 1876-1920. 1924. 410 pp., index, illus., facss. 4.75
Memorable letters, mostly to Havelock Ellis, on life and literature, the woman's cause; and, indeed, all issues calling for reform.
139. CUNNINGHAM, ALISON. Cummy's Diary. Lon., 1926. Ltd. ed. 191 pp. 4.50
R.L. Stevenson's boyhood nurse, described by him as "My second mother, my first wife, the angel of my infant life".

140. FURSE, KATHARINE--Hearts and Pomegranates. Lon., 1940. 407 pp., illus. 3.75
The daughter of John Addington Symonds and the wife of the painter recalls her life in literature and art.
141. JOHNSON, THOMAS H.--Emily Dickinson. Harvard U., 1955. 276 pp. Fine. 5.50
The work and the world of the elusive poetess presented from new material.
142. KNIGHT, HELEN C.--Hannah More. (1862). Rev. ed. 282 pp., frontis. 4.25
The British moralistic writer of the late 18th century who became famous telling her readers how to be good.
143. Ladies' Magazine. Ed. by T.S. Arthur. Vols. 1 and 2. Phila., 1844. 7.50
564 pp., illus. (two in color).
"To make (it) worthy to lie upon the table of every American woman".
144. MARTIN, SADIE E.--Life...of Emma Abbott. Minn., 1891. 192 pp., illus. 4.50
Popular opera singer from the Midwest and co-manager of her own company.
145. MARTINEAU, HARRIET--Biographical Sketches. Lon., 1869. 445 pp. 3.75
The best journalism of the day seen in portraits of Mary Mitford, Charlotte Bronte, Amelia Opie, etc., by the pioneer journalist.
146. MAY, CAROLINE--The American Female Poets. (1869). 559 pp., illus. 5.75
Sketches of, and selections from, 80 of our earliest Muses.
147. O'SHAUGHNESSY, ARTHUR W.E.--An Epic of Women.... Lon., 1870. 229 pp. 4.50
The influence of history's most famous women--Cleopatra, Helen, Salome-- depicted in beautiful but cynical verse.
148. PORTER-MEEHAN, J.--Life...of Gene Stratton-Porter. Lon., 1927. 288 pp. 4.50
Intimate portrait of the Hoosier author, interspersed with her letters.
149. RAGG, FLORA M.--Women Artists of Bologna. Lon., 1907. 319 pp., illus. 4.25
Four women of humble origin who distinguished themselves in painting and sculpture between the 15th and 17th centuries.
150. ROSS, JANET--The Fourth Generation. Lon., 1912. 400 pp., index, illus. 3.75
Daughter of Lady Duff Gordon recalls her life in society and literature, flavored by her friendships with Mark Twain, J.A. Symonds, George Meredith.
151. RYAN, KATE--Old Boston Museum Days. 1915. 264 pp., index, illus. 3.50
A veteran of the old stock company recalls her career in it.
152. SANDERS, GERALD D.--Elizabeth Gaskell. Cornell U., 1929. 267 pp., index. 4.75
A study of the author of Cranford whose opposition to a biography of herself resulted in the errors this one attempts to correct.
153. STEBBINS, EMMA (Ed.)--Charlotte Cushman. 1879. 308 pp., index, illus. 4.25
The great Boston actress who contributed so much to the respect for the profession, drawn from her letters and reminiscences.
154. STURGEON, MARY C.--Women of the Classics. Lon., 1914. 292 pp., illus. 4.75
A study of the heroines of Greek tragedy showing the position of women in ancient Greece and the traits for which they were most admired.
155. TENISON, E.M.--Louise Imogen Guiney. Lon., 1923. 348 pp., index, illus. 4.75
A British view of the American poetess-in-exile, seen from her unpublished letters and annotated copies of her works.
156. TERRY, ELLEN--Four Lectures on Shakespeare. Lon., 1932. 201 pp. 3.50
Juliet, Desdemona, Cordelia, etc., as the great actress felt them. (over)

157. THOMAS, EDWARD--Feminine influence on the Poets. Lon., 1910. 352 pp. 4.75
Women as poets and the influence of women in great poetry.
158. WALLIS, DOROTHY--An Autobiography. Lon., 1892. 319 pp. 4.75
Trials of an English actress when the profession was held in low esteem.
159. WEST, KATHARINE--Chapter of Governesses. Lon., 1949. 263 pp. Fine. 4.25
Fascinating survey of the governess "from Maria Edgeworth to Henry James".

IN SCIENCE

160. BALFOUR, MARGARET I. and YOUNG--The Work of Medical Women in India. Lon., 1929. 201 pp., index, illus. 5.50
How British and American women physicians prevailed against the prejudice and poverty of the natives to bring medicine to India in the 70s and 80s.
161. LOVEJOY, ESTHER P.--Women Physicians and Surgeons. 1940. 246 pp., illus. 3.75
History and accomplishments of women's medical organizations in war & peace.
162. NORTH, MARIANNE--Recollections of a Happy Life. 2 vols. 1892. 694 pp. 4.75
British botanist's travels over the world in search of new plants to paint.
163. POOLE, ERNEST--Nurses on Horseback. 1932. 168 pp., illus. Fine. 4.50
The organization of women who, with saddle bags and lanterns, ride the mountain trails of Kentucky to help isolated women in childbirth.
164. ROSS, ISHBEL--Child of Destiny. (1949). 309 pp., index, bibliog. 3.75
What Elizabeth Blackwell, first woman M.D., did for medicine and women in it.
165. SHARP, EVELYN--Hertha Ayrton. Lon., 1926. 304 pp., index, illus. 4.75
Financed through Girton College, the girl who became an outstanding physicist and inventor of a fan which saved the lives of gassed soldiers.
166. VAN HOUSEN, BERTHA--Petticoat Surgeon. Chi. (1947). 324 pp. 4.75
Dramatic recollections of a leading woman surgeon from the days she was mocked as a "hen medic" to the age of 84 when she was still practicing!
167. WOODHAM-SMITH, CECIL--Florence Nightingale. (1951). 382 pp., bibliog. 4.75
An appreciative but realistic biography, based on new material.

IN INDUSTRY

168. DREIER, MARY E.--Margaret Dreier Robins. 1950. 278 pp., index, illus. 4.75
Veteran leader of every campaign for improving women's working conditions.
169. HAMILTON, ALICE, M.D.--Exploring the Dangerous Trades. 1943. 433 pp. 5.50
Adventures of a social reformer in medicine who became a pioneer in occupational disease and spent her life studying it all over the world.
170. HUTCHINS, B.L.--Women in Modern Industry. Lon., 1915. 315 pp., tables. 4.75
The history of women's place in British industry and their organization for industrial reform.
171. MAC ADAM, M.V.B.--Fortune in My Own Hands. (1940). 382 pp., illus. 4.75
Experiences of the first woman to head a realty firm in San Francisco.
172. MacDONALD, J. RAMSAY (Ed.)--Women in the Printing Trades. 1904. 206 pp. 4.50
Working conditions among women, seen in one trade, in the pre-union era.
173. PARKES, BESSIE R.--Essays on Woman's Work. Lon., 1866. 240 pp. 4.75
Women's working conditions a century ago described by an early reformer.

174. PRATT, EDWIN A.--A Woman's Work for Women. Lon., 1898. 135 pp., index. 3.75
Louisa M. Hubbard, founder of the Woman's Gazette which fought to extend "gentlewomen's" earning opportunities beyond teaching and needlework.
175. SINGER, DOROTHEA W.--Margrieta Beer. Manchester U., 1955. 81 pp. 3.75
Labor relations expert who represented her Government in industrial disputes.
176. WOLCOTT, ROBERT W.--A Woman in Steel. 1940. Wpps., 27 pp., illus. 2.50
Rebecca Lukens, mother of five, who took over the Iron Works (now Lukens Steel) in 1825 and managed it successfully for 22 years.

IN THE CHURCH

177. BACON, F.D.--Women in the Church. Lon., 1946. 146 pp. 3.75
The superior status and work of women in the church in bygone days.
178. BLISS, KATHLEEN--Service and Status...in the Churches. 1952. 208 pp. 4.25
Comparative utilization of women by the Protestant Churches in 45 Countries.
179. CHEEK, MRS. JAMES--Cherished Memories. L.A., ca. 1944. 234 pp., illus. 4.75
A description of revival meetings in the South in the 80s, which led to the author's conversion and the founding of her own non-denominational mission.
180. DUNBAR, AGNES B.C.--A Dictionary of Saintly Women. 2 vols. Lon., 1904-5. 12.50
815 pp., index, bibliography.
Biographical accounts of hundreds of women worshipped or regarded as saints, selected for their historical importance or reflection on their times.
181. ECKENSTEIN, LINA--Women of Early Christtianity. 1935. Rev. ed. 159 pp. 4.75
Women's importance as prophets, martyrs, healers, and heretics.
182. HORNER, I.B.--Women under Primitive Buddhism. Lon., 1930. 391 pp., illus. 6.50
A pioneer study of the "almswomen" or nuns in the 6th century B.C.--their way of life, difference in their status, and their contribution to Buddhism.
183. POLLEN, ANNE--Mother Mabel Digby. 1920. 404 pp., index, illus. 4.75
Convert to Catholicism who became head of the Society of the Sacred Heart and one of the leading Catholics in the world.
184. ROBINSON, CECILIA--Ministry of Deaconesses. 1914. Rev. ed. 255 pp. 5.75
A study of the Deaconess in the early Anglican Church to show the need for restoring her to her former importance.
185. STEPHENSON, SARAH. Memoirs of.... Phila., 1807. 233 pp. No flyleaves. 4.75
British Quaker who spread the gospel from house to house for 36 years.
186. WHARTON, MORTON B.--Famous Women of the Old Testament. (1889). 318 pp. 3.75
An Alabama pastor's portrayal of women who played a part in sacred history.

IN MISCELLANEOUS ENDEAVOR

187. ADAMS, W.H.D.--Celebrated Women Travellers of 19th Century. 1883. 459 pp. 4.50
Frederika Bremer, Ida Pfeiffer, Lady Brassey, etc. who defied the criticism of their day to scale the Alps, brave the jungles, and see the new world.
188. BEARD, MARY R.--Woman's Work in Municipalities. 1915. 344 pp., index. 4.75
A record of women's performance in civic administration and improvement.
189. BRECKINRIDGE, SOPHONISBA--Women in the 20th Century. 1933. 364 pp. 7.50
A documented study by the U. of Chicago Professor on women's organizations, employment opportunities, and relation to the State. (over)

190. BREAU, DAISY--Autobiography of a Chameleon. Wash., 1930. 407 pp., illus. 5.00
Celebrated beauty and hostess whose home in New Orleans, Charleston, Washington (as Daisy Calhoun) was the rendezvous of Presidents and Potentates.
191. CAREY, ROSA N.--Twelve Notable Good Women of 19th Century. 1897. 380 pp. 4.75
Victorian women who served the poor, imprisoned, wounded, and others in need.
192. CORNWALLIS-WEST, MRS.--Reminiscences of Lady Churchill. 1908. 470 pp. 4.25
The Brooklyn girl who became the wife of an M.P. and the mother of a P.M.
193. COURTNEY, JANET E.--The Adventurous Thirties. Lon., 1933. 279 pp., illus. 4.75
The women of the 1830s whose accomplishments in literature, travel and philanthropy sparked the woman's movement in England.
194. DE ROTHSCHILD, LADY. Extracts from Her Notebooks. Lon., 1912. 111 pp. 3.50
Reading and thinking over 50 years of a wealthy woman who led a useful life.
195. ELDRIDGE, ELLEANOR--Memoirs. Providence, 1843. 16mo, 128 pp. Fine. 5.75
The granddaughter of a slave recalls her life as a dairy manager and house painter in New England.
196. FURNISS, HARRY--Some Victorian Women. Lon., 1923. 226 pp., 58 drawings. 4.50
The illustrator sketches (in word and picture) Lucas Malet, Mrs. Humphry Ward, Ellen Terry and other eminent ladies he knew.
197. GRENFELL, ANNE and SPALDING--Le Petit Nord. 1920. 199 pp., illus. 3.50
Experiences of two missionaries directing an orphanage in Labrador.
198. GUEDALLA, PHILIP--Bonnet and Shawl. 1928. Ltd. ed. 200 pp. Signed. 3.50
Nine British wives and their part in the lives of their famous husbands.
199. HARMON, NOLAN--Famous Case of Myra Clark Gaines. L.S.U., 1946. 481 pp. 6.50
Indomitable wife of General Gaines whose fight for the fortune of her alleged father, New Orleans planter, intrigued the Country throughout her life.
200. HUBBARD, MRS. LEONIDAS--Woman's Way through... Labrador. 1908. 338 pp. 4.75
The expedition of a young Michigan woman through the "ill-omened wastes" to complete the mission left unfinished by her deceased husband.
201. PARTON, JAMES and others--Eminent Women of the Age. 1869. 628 pp. 3.75
A mine of material on pioneer writers, educators, physicians and feminists.
202. PFEIFFER, IDA--A Woman's Journey Round the World. Ca. 1850. 338 pp. 4.50
The daring and enduring of a pioneer traveler in gratifying her wanderlust.
203. PRATT, EDWIN A.--Pioneer Women in Victoria's Reign. Lon., 1897. 288 pp. 4.75
Women's progress in all kinds of endeavor seen through the pioneers in each.
204. PRESCOTT, MARJORIE WIGGIN--Securities and Dividends of a Banker's Daughter.
1935. Ltd. to 150 copies. Tall 8vo, 103 pp., illus. Signed. Fine. 5.75
The daughter of a leading bank president and the mother of five adopted sons "takes inventory" at 40, with provocative and charming results.
205. SCOTT, J.W.R.--Story of the Women's Institute Movement. 1925. 290 pp. 3.25
History and importance of the organization to improve rural life in Britain.
206. THOMPSON, ERA BELL--American Daughter. Lon., 1946. 214 pp. Fine. 4.75
How a Negress educated in North Dakota faced the Negro problem in Chicago.
207. Woman's Who's Who of America, 1914-15. 961 pp. Flyleaf missing. 6.50
The first woman's who's who, identifying almost 10,000 women.