A Look At Kernel Policy

The editorial policy of the Kernel is, in short, to present the student viewpoint on campus affairs as accurately and fairly as possible.

Beneath that simple statement lie the many dangers which a campus paper must pledge itself to avoid.

Propaganda and petty politics must not enter its pages. Interest and news value, and not special interests, must determine its news content.

And while we steer a clear course around these journalistic rocks, we shall endeavor to keep the Kernel lively, interesting, and readable.

It will take a great deal of time and experience for us to reach the goals we've set for the Kernel. Your letters of suggestion, criticism, and just plain encouragement can go a long way toward making your student newspaper a true reflection of life at UK.

And A Word To Freshmen

To those poor, bewildered individuals who have been trodden on, madly rushed, shoved in lines, and preached at all week, and who by this time are wondering if they have entered a track meet instead of a University, the Kernel extends a somewhat belated welcome.

We hope that by this time you have gotten into the swing of things and are becoming a real part of UK.

We're not going to advise you because you've probably had plenty of that these two weeks. But at this stage in the game, you might find these few suggestions valuable:

- Go slow. Stop and get your bearings. Don't try to do everything at once.
Be friendly. The impression you make these first few weeks may last a long time.
Don't worry. Just have confidence in yourself and do your best.
Join some organizations, but choose them wisely. You'll gain more by being active in one of them than by being "just a member" of six.

We hope the Kernel can be of service to you in getting to know your University.

A Dream Pays Off

The laying of the cornerstone of the new Journalism-Publications Building marks an important milestone in the history of the Kernel and of journalism at UK.

The completion of the $425,000 structure will mean the realization of a dream envisioned 26 years ago by the late Prof. Erich Crehan, founder and head of the Department of Journalism from 1914 until his death in 1937.

That was the beginning of a story which Dr. Donovan calls "without parallel on any campus in this country or elsewhere." He refers to the fact that out of this original investment has grown a business which enables the Kernel press to pay for the construction of the new journalism building without any investment by the University.

Not only will the new building raise the rating of the Journalism Department, but the University will now be able to do higher quality printing as well as regular departmental work.

Those who have guided the Department of Journalism and the printing plant through this period of growth have made an important contribution to the University and the profession of journalism.

The Kernel is honored that this first fall issue is among the materials to be placed in the cornerstone.

"Line for the Ben-All, my eye; this is registration line!"

DEAR Editor:

Writ By Hand

(The Kernel welcomes letters on any subject within reason. We reserve the right to refuse to publish anything we consider libelous or of doubtful value to the welfare of the students of University. All letters must be signed, but if you request that your name not be printed, you are assured that it won't be.)

A Timely Question

When I heard that this year the students of the University of Kentucky would receive tickets for the athletic activities and the concert and lecture series, I began to look forward to the new program.

Who ever arranged to have one photographer take 7000 pictures by two days? That person made a sad error. His error caused students to stand for hours, packed in, some without lunch all day, waiting to have their pictures snapped.

Finally, to relieve the pressure on the girls trying to hold back the cease students upstairs, someone gave them permission to classify before they had their pictures taken.

Arise, Slaves!

This letter is not to you but to your male readers. As I take type in my hand I wish not to console myself under dogs, but to organize them to revolt against the modicum of this cruel world.

Fashion Or Comfort

Why must we suffer so far tradition? The University bulletin requests that students do "not" bring summer clothes back to school with them.

Every time I see a girl in a dress after Labor Day (according to Mrs. Post), but everyone also knows that it is too hot, too winter clothes, minus the weather, is like, it is, is, is.

I tried wearing a cotton dress, and everyone reacted as though I were crazy, even though I was perfectly comfortable and they were melting in sweaters.

Let us revise the rules and wear summer clothes until the weather turns cooler! It is hotter now than it has been all summer!

Orientation Into Activities

Both the new students and the campus organizations which participated should have gained from Activities Night, a newcomer to the list of Freshman Week activities.

University clubs and honoraries have long needed an opportunity to introduce themselves to the students, old and new. It is important to a freshman to choose his clubs wisely and to join those which will benefit him most.

Both Mortar Board, which sponsored the event, and the students who rushed back to school to hurriedly plan skirts, deserve credit for a good job.

Evils Of College Life

After what happened over here at Pitt Hall Monday night I feel much better. I thought I was the most confused freshman at UK, but now I know I'm not.

Well, I got downstairs near the show and there was this boy standing in the hallway with his eyes nearly popping out of his head.

Do you think I ought to mention this in my next letter to Mother? After all, even boys make mistakes, I guess.

A Burning Need

Our educational system is seriously lacking. Freshmen girls arrive at the University absolutely devoid of the facts that every young freshman girl should know.

They should be told immediately by someone near and dear to them such as their counselors, the art of holding a cigarette properly and how to dispose it daintily into the receptacle upon taking their last puff.

In 1911 a marble ball near Knoxville, Tenn. was found to be the watchman was told to stay on the job and keep things in repair.

DR. LEO M. CHAMBERLAIN, vice-president of the University, is shown affixing his signature to the freedom scroll. Students will get their opportunity to join in the Crusade for Freedom when copies of the scroll are placed on campus for them to sign.

Freedom Crusade Will Reach Here

By Ed Coffman
 The Crusade for Freedom, a national drive led by General Lucius D. Clay, former commander of American troops in Berlin, is coming to the University campus next Monday. Every student can take part in this campaign for world freedom by simply signing the Freedom Scroll. These scrolls will be located through Sept. 30 in every major classroom building on the campus. The Student Union Building both the men and women's dormitories, fraternity and sorority houses, and in the University Training School. Each scroll contains the Declaration of Freedom and fifty spaces for signatures.

SIGNATURES ON THE Freedom Scroll will be permanently enshrined in the base of the Freedom Bell in Berlin. This bell and the scrolls will stand as a symbol to the people throughout the world that Americans are vitally interested in the drive for freedom.

General Clay, the national chairman, defines the Crusade as a spiritual airlift. The General added, "By working together, we can all help to put freedom and the free world on the offensive."

THE STUDENT CAN materially help the fight for freedom by contributing to Radio Free Europe. Containers will be placed near the scrolls.

Radio Free Europe is an independently operated radio station which answers Communist propaganda by bearing the truth to the people inside the Iron Curtain. The station which is located in Western Europe went on the air last July 4. Since then it has been on the air with native language broadcasts six hours a day, seven days a week. The free-will contributions will be used to expand the station into a network of stations fighting in the war of words.

Draft Not Expected To Hurt Enrollment

Fall enrollment will most probably not be greatly affected by the current Selective Service emergency, Dr. H. L. Donovan, president, said, when asked to give a statement on the draft situation.

"Local draft boards are authorized to defer men in college attendance for the remainder of the school year for which they are enrolled, and this would mean that any student who had not been called before the middle of September might reasonably expect deferment until the close of the school year in June," the president stated.

A supplementary Selective Service policy authorizes occupational deferment for the registrant who has completed at least one academic year of a full-time course of instruction at a college or university with a scholastic standing placing him in the upper half of his class. The local board, however, must be satisfied that he had fully intended prior to Aug. 1 to enroll in college for the 1950-51 school year.

New Singing Group To Be Formed Here

A new musical organization, the University Mixed Chorus, was formed on the campus Monday, according to Dr. Edwin F. Stein, head of the Department of Music.

The Chorus, directed by Miss Mildred Lewis of the University music staff, was formed to provide students, faculty, and other persons from throughout Central Kentucky an opportunity to participate in presentations of major choral works.

Newman Club Picnic Planned For Sunday

The Newman Club is sponsoring a get-acquainted picnic Sunday at the Officers' Club at Avon Signal Depot. Students will meet behind the SUB at 2:15 p.m.

Bob Ruberg, president, announced that food and transportation will be provided for all attending.

The monthly Newman Club Mass will be held at 10 a.m. Sunday at Christ the King Church. Rev. Hugh Galbraith, of Chicago, now conducting a Service mission at the Church, will speak to the students.

Campus Movie Opens With 'Sitting Pretty'

"Sitting Pretty," starring Clifton Webb, Robert Young, and Maureen O'Hara will be shown today from 3 p.m. to 7 p.m. and 9 p.m. in Memorial Hall. Admission is 30 cents.

Bengals, Cats Tangle Here Saturday

By Bob Gorham
Kernel Sports Editor

It will be Wildcat against Tiger in a tooth-and-nailed battle on Stoll Field Saturday night when Kentucky tangles with LSU in the game that is billed as the No. 1 grid clash in the country this weekend.

The Bayou Bengals, who finished ninth in the final national standings last year, come to Lexington with teeth bared in remembrance of the 19-0 pasting they took in 1949 at the hands of the Cats. After that singling loss, the boys from the Creole Country went on to trip three conference champions—Rice, Tulane and North Carolina.

And this year, in addition to wanting to avenge the 1949 loss, they are eager to upset the team picked by many to win the SEC crown.

The task they have set for themselves may have been made easier by two factors.

First, and most distressing, is the injury plagues which has hovered over the Wildcat camp. Sidelined for the biggest part of the drills prior to the first game were Emery Clark, slated to be one of the starting halfbacks; Don Bryant, who had looked pretty good in the Blue-White game last spring; Shorty Jamerson, the other halfback in the starting lineup; Donny Moody, the regular center on last year's Orange Bowl crew; and several reserves, of which Coach Bear Bryant doesn't have too many.

The climax came this week when the No. 1 and No. 2 quarterbacks—Babe Parilli and Bill Farley—jammed up with pains. Parilli suffered a groin injury in the North Texas game and missed practice all this week. Farley recently had a narrow brush with death when a whirlpool bath short-circuited and threw him to the floor, cutting his head. He was in the bath trying to mend a twisted ankle, which is re-injured this week.

Second, and almost as bad as the injuries, is the weather. With the sun on a prolonged jaunt, the Wildcats have been slow rounding into shape. This was evidenced last week when Co-Captain Bob Gain and Shorty Jamerson led their unit—winning 25-0 over North Texas State.

LSU Brinks Are Vets

Spearheading the Bengal attack will be their veteran backfield of Lee Hodges, Kenny Koss, Billy Eggett and Ebert Van Buren. Hodges is the youngster of the crew, being a junior. The other three are seniors and have won two letters each as LSU brinks from end to end.

The line is composed of five seniors and two sophomores and averages 186 pounds from end to end.

At left end is Jim "Egg" Leslie, a 202-pound senior; at left tackle is Harold Voss, a 225-pound senior; at left guard is 200-pound James Shoff; another senior; the center is Senior Joe Reid, a 215-pounder; at right tackle is Sam Leake, a 185-pound sophomore; at right guard is 194-pound Bob Luttrell, a sophomore; and at right end is Armond Kiko, a 170-pound senior.

Backing up this probable starting eleven are 46 other squadmen, including seven seniors, 14 juniors and 25 sophomores.

Kentucky is expected to counter with about the same starters that answered the first whistle in last week's opener.

In all probability, it will be Ben Zaranka and Al Bruno at ends, Bob Gain and Walt Yovanatzky at tackles,

Intramurals I-M Games Will Feature New Lighting System

By Lewis Danow

Something new for University of Kentucky intramural sports participants and fans—games under the lights—will be offered this fall as the result of efforts and contributions on the part of Omicron Delta Kappa and the Student Government Association.

The recently completed field will be inaugurated the night of October 2, when the first touch football game, beginning the fall season, will be played there.

Tennis and golf, the other two beginning fall sports, will open on the same date as football.

Intramural Director Bill McCubben has announced noon deadlines on September 29 for entries in the three sports. A meeting of intramural managers and directors will be held in his office Tuesday night at 8 o'clock to plan a program for the year and to draw up rules and scoring systems.

All teams interested in participating in the intramural league will follow the same procedure that they have in previous seasons—that is, submitting the team roster to the I-M director before the deadline date and appearing on the field at the scheduled times for their games.

The tennis and golf programs include both singles and doubles. A two singles, one doubles limit is the rule set for entries for each organization.

Other intramural sports that will present health certificates. The charge for each party is $10 per evening. University sponsored groups may arrange to use the pool at other times.

Saturday mornings are devoted to University faculty, staff and students' children. A child should be at least 32 inches tall or a swimmer before enrolling. Instruction will be given during the first two hours and from 10 to 12, the Play Club will utilize the pool for recreation and instruction in aquatics.

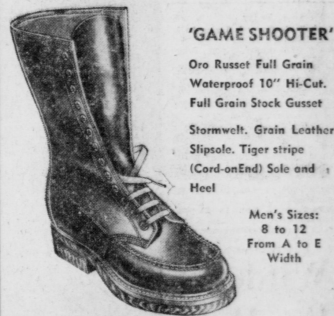

Frosh Called For Net Drills

Tryouts for the freshmen basketball team will be held Sept. 25-27, freshman basketball Coach Harry Lancaster has announced.

Players are asked to be ready for practice at 4 p.m. at Memorial Coliseum. Each player must bring his own equipment.

No locker privileges will be given, Coach Lancaster said.

Wildcats Open 1950 Grid Season By Defeating North Texas, 25-0

By Fred Lawson
Kentucky opened its 1950 football season last Saturday night by downing North Texas State College 25-0 before 24,000 fans at Stoll Field. It took the Wildcats less than six minutes to score the first touchdown, and six minutes later they added another one. By now the fans were looking for a rout similar to the 71-7 romp over Mississippi Southern in last year's opener. But the Eagles fought back, and although they made only one scoring threat, they proved to be a stronger foe than the Southerners.

Big Bob Gain, Kentucky's All-American tackle candidate, had the honor of setting up the first Kentucky TD.

After Kentucky received the opening kickoff but couldn't make a first down, Don Furet punted 21 yards to North Texas State's 35 yard line. The Eagles rolled off a first down but then the Kentucky line stiffened and Quarterback Zeke Martin went back on fourth down to punt from the Wildcat 48.

Gain broke through and blocked Martin's kick. The ball bounced back to the North Texas 30 yard line where Gain picked it up and raced to the 19 before he was pulled down from behind. He shook off two or three would-be tacklers and for a moment it appeared he was going all the way for a touchdown. Five plays later Babe Parill dived over from the one-yard line on a quarterback sneak for Kentucky's first score. Bobby Brooks' try for the extra point was wide.

The Wildcats scored their second touchdown on a 87-yard march, the longest drive of the night.

Bill Leskovar started the march, which took only 11 plays, with a 15-yard dash, and added a 21-yard try before Dick Martin went over the middle of the line for the touchdown. Brooks' second extra point attempt was also wide of the goalpost.

Kentucky's third touchdown came about midway of the second quarter, the result of an Eagle fumble recovered by Center Bill Schaffnit on the Texas' 24.

Leskovar picked up seven yards and Ed Hamilton rammed for seven more to put the ball on the 10. Harry Jones made one yard. Parill added three more. Leskovar went to the two, and on fourth down Harry Jones went over for the score. Bill Farley, sophomore quarterback, converted.

Late in the second quarter, the

Dury Gets Baseball Award From ODK Scholarship Fund

Jack Drury of Daytona Beach, Fla., has been awarded the Omiero Della Kuppa minor sports scholarship for baseball, it was announced this week by Fred Nichols, ODK president.

Drury, a 16-year-old pitcher, attended Seabreeze High school in Daytona Beach and compiled a record of five wins and two losses in his senior year. Included in his record were a one-hitter, a pair of two-hitters and a three-hitter.

This summer Drury pitched for the local Lexington Rustlers and authored a 6-0 record. One of the games he pitched was a three-hitter against Nicholasville of the Blue Grass League in which he retired the first 16 men he faced.

ODK finances its scholarship fund by having tag sales for each home football game. One scholarship is given each minor sport—baseball, track, tennis and golf—each semester. The recipient of each scholarship is chosen by the coach of the sport. No awards in any other sports have been made this year.

Vanderbilt beat Centre, 66-0, in 1949 without punting during the entire game.

THE Blue PRINT

By Bob Gorham

An indication of the spirit and determination which marks the 1950 edition of the Kentucky football team was revealed last Saturday night after the North Texas State game when Co-Captains Bob Gain and Sherry Jamerod led the entire squad in wind sprints up and down Stoll Field while an amazed crowd filed out of the stadium.

Many comments were heard about the unusual spectacle.

Almost everyone, including some of the sportswriters, thought it was Coach Bryant who ordered the post-game exercises as a public penalty for the Cats' bleak showing.

But it was later revealed that it was the players themselves, realizing the leader of the chorus was a special line, tired Gain, who showed he meant what he said by going back into the fray a moment later and personally throwing the White ball carrier back from the four-yard line to about the 50.

Someone else accounted for the tackle on the fourth carry and Gain's team took over the ball on the 44—which meant the Whites had approximately 49 yards in four tries.

It's going to be tough to beat a team that has that kind of an attitude.

YOM DISKIN, last year's Kernel sports editor and campus representative for Chamberlain cigarettes, has accepted a position as touring campus contact man for the Liggett and Myers Tobacco Company.

Diskin is based in New York and flies to and from various campuses in the Midwest and Southwest.

BOB GAIN, recipient of many accolades for his grid prowess, was tossed another rose recently when Francis Wallace picked him as the Lineman of the Year in Collier's annual pickup picnic.

Says Wallace, "I'm going to go for the boy who has probably been the best tackle of the last two seasons."

they don't have television in Kentucky and not much of a spotlight." Besides his prediction on Gain, Wallace says that Notre Dame will again be the No. 1 team in the land (he hum!) and that Kentucky will finish in the No. 16 slot (they finished 11th last year).

I agree heartily with him about Gain, but think a No. 8 or 9 national ranking is more becoming to the Cats.

WITH OTHER SEC schools putting out reams of copy about its football teams, it is amazing that one of the top powers—LSU—has yet to give out with a word. Surely they could do a little crying about their puny little fellows just to keep in step with the others, if for no other reason. Who knows? They may not show up at Stoll Field Saturday night.

BILL BOLLE, one of Coach Bryant's 1949 backfield boys, has been released by the Baltimore Colts, as has George Blanda, a 48 alumna. Bolle was one of the Colts' draft choices and Blanda had just been acquired from the Chicago Bears.

THE WILDCATS need to win just four more games to make Bear Bryant the "winningest" coach in Kentucky football history. To date, he has guided the Blue and White to 29 triumphs. That is three short of the high mark of 32 compiled by Harry Gammage, the grid mentor from 1928-33.

A. D. Kirwan, currently the Dean of Men, led his eleven to 23 wins over a six-year span to rank third. Kirwan was at the helm from 1928-44, not including 1943 when there was no team because of the war.

NEW FACE DEPARTMENT: Assistant Football Coaches George (Beck) Chapman and This Snyder and Trainer Smokey Harper. All three were added to the athletic staff this summer.

Chapman is a Georgia grad (28) and played against both Coach Bryant and Coach Mosley when the latter two were at Alabama. He came to UK from Augusta, Ga. Military Institute, where he turned out championship teams during his tenure.

Irving Marsh, Edward Ehre Produce Another Outstanding "Best Sports Stories" For 1950

Irving Marsh and Edward Ehre, in their "Best Sports Stories of 1950," have come up with another collection of fast-moving and entertaining American sports prose in this, their sixth annual compilation.

The authors divided the field into three classifications and awarding prizes for the year's top efforts. In the news story division, the judges, Franklin F. Adams, John Chamberlain and Quentin Reynolds, chose a piece by Allison Danzig of the New York Times on the tennis semi-finals at Forest Hills as the best of the year.

Red Smith's article, "Happy Holiday," dealing with boxer Billy Nicksie, was rated tops in the news feature story division, while W. C. Heinz's story, "Fighting the Wild," telling of the mental anguish of Mrs. Rocky Graziano on her husband's fight nights, was ranked first in the magazine story field.

"FIGHTER'S WIFE" is the most entertaining piece in the book. It is loaded with human interest. Its style is unusual, in that it is a combination of flashbacks, set in italic type, and current action, set in regular type. This would seem to make it hard to read, it doesn't—it gives the reader two stories at the same time, both of which are easily understood.

This anthology contains nine stories on baseball, eight on football, four on boxing, three on basketball, two on golf, two on horse racing, two on hockey and one each on skiing and hunting.

In addition, there are nine general stories of various subjects. The secondary feature of the book is the Best Pictures of 1950 section, containing 30 photographs on every phase of sport. There was a tie for first place in this division between Charlie Hoff's "Sack Treatment," a boxing shot which is brutality in its essence, and James Kavalines' "That's My Pop," which shows Joe DiMaggio's son embracing him and presents a tenderly touching and entirely human aspect.

"CHAMPIONS OF 1950" is another information-packed section, listing the champions in every division of sports from archery to winter sports.

"Stars in My Crown" Top Ben Ali Show Attraction

By Bob Gorham

"Stars in My Crown," new M-G-M attraction at the Ben Ali Theatre, is a tenderly-unfolded, heartwarming story of a small Southern settlement at the close of the Civil War and of a two-listed preacher who leads the way in making his community a better place to live in.

Joel McCrea enacts Josiah Gray, ex-cavalryman who comes to the little village of Walesburg, inspires the community to build its first church, marries the pretty organist, Harriet, and becomes a second father to their little ward, John. The parson's steadfast courage and honesty make themselves felt on almost every member of the village and he even wins the iconoclast Doc Harris over to his side when he saves the life of the latter's fiancée, Faith, after all the doctor's medical knowledge has failed. Only one man proves stubborn in his resistance to Josiah's precepts of honor and humility. He is Lon Backett, the town's richest man, who tries to exert his own authority over that of the law, but who in the picture's stirring climax, is forced to bow to the stronger will of the indomitable preacher.

Although "Stars in My Crown" has its share of rugged action, it is the atmospheric details of a small, growing village, the homespun humor and the vivid naturalness of characterization which give the picture its warmth and color. There is the glowing sequence, for instance, in which the experienced Uncle Prill and the neophyte John go fishing, or the uproariously funny Medicine Show.

Sacony wonder-priced: the shirt, 8.95; the skirt, 12.95.

"it's a wonderful buy!"

scenes, or the episode in which Doc Harris removes a fish hook from a young victim, or that in which Josiah backs the town bully into a pool of mud.

The picture has been beautifully cast, with Joel McCrea's portrayal of the parson, who can preach with his fists as well as with words, one of the most satisfying characterizations he has ever attempted. Ellen Drew is excellent as his industrious young wife, with Dean Brockwell winning many of the laughs in the role of little John who would like it always to be summer so that there would be no school.

THAT DELIGHTFUL teen-ager, Corliss Archer, who can audibly be heard all over the country today in the radio program, "Meet Corliss Archer," and who had her not so humble beginnings in the Broadway hit play, "Kiss and Tell," which later became a rib-tickling movie, comes to screen life again in "A Kiss for Corliss," the co-feature at the Ben Ali.

Shirley Temple once again essays the role of Corliss, which is based on the original character created by F. Hugh Herbert, with David Niven, as her co-star, playing a suave man-about-town. For those of you who are meeting the irrepressible Corliss for the first time, we must introduce her as the most infectious, as well as the prettiest, bobby-soxer getting her innings on the screen.

In passing may we remind you that never has Shirley looked more beautiful. Niven, who becomes engaged to her just as a lark to avenge himself on her father because he was made to look like a fool in the courtroom shenanigans does a good job.

But Darryl Hickman, who plays Dexter, steals the show by revealing the hoax and in the end, everyone is happy.

AT THE KENTUCKY, Pop loses his vice-presidency. Mom loses her peace of mind, the grocer loses his heart, the tycoon loses his shirt, sister loses her boy friend, grandma loses her manners, sonny loses his appetite, the boy friend loses his voice, and the maid loses her patience in a hilarious comedy, "Louisa."

The stars are Ronald Reagan, Charles Coburn, Ruth Hussey, Edmund Gwenn, Spring Byington, Tiger Laurie and Scotty Beckett, and the movie is a side-splitting tale dealing with the every-day problems of a typical family.

UK SUMMER STUDENTS MIXED WORK AND PLEASURE

This large crowd turned out to see the musical movies at the Memorial Hall amphitheatre last summer. Despite sound track difficulties, the shows went on and were a big success. Movies will be presented again this fall, but they will be shown inside Memorial Hall.

"Big Al" Groza, one of UK's all time basketball greats, who was enrolled in summer school, took a healthy swing in the Men's Dorm-Phi Sigma Kappa intramural softball contest July 11. PSK won the game, 7-6. Groza played for the Men's Dorm team.

Prof. Harold E. "Doc" Downing presented Bill Evans the first place trophy for the men's singles in the Downing Open Singles Tournament played last July. Looking on was Tommy Ashby, runner-up.

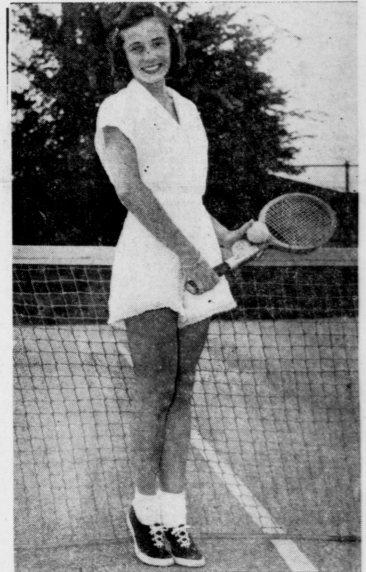

Dean M. M. White, of the College of Arts and Sciences, visited UK cadets at Fort Monmouth, N. J. The University students were part of 500 Signal Corps cadets attending ROTC summer camp at Fort Monmouth.

Maintenance and Operations will be located in this new building before long. The building, on Line across from the campus, is nearing completion.

Gorgeous Gussie Moran had a challenger — UK's own Eleanor Cash. Eleanor took time out from a summer tennis class to pose on the University High courts in her version of the raffish costume which Gussie startled conservative British sports fans.

The eternal conflict between studies and recreation was met by a typical student, Inez Black, who had to decide between a fast set of tennis and her Business Law workbook. We don't know what her decision was, but who cares?

The new Coliseum pool was officially opened last June by these members of an advanced swimming and diving class. The Kernel photographer arrived just in time to catch Zolt Sharff (above) demonstrating a front dive off the low board. The modern pool has complete diving facilities and is marked into six racing lanes for future swimming meets. There is equipment to heat the water to any temperature, and the room is air-conditioned.

Football And Rush Parties Highlight Big Social Week

Welcome back to U. of K. I. The summer was swell we know, but it's really great to be back. Except for the presence of a lot of new faces, and the conspicuous absence of a lot of old favorites, nothing has changed. The grill is just as crowded as ever, the lines just as long, and the parties just as gay. Yes, it's good to be back. Enough of that, let's see what the social whirl holds in store this week.

Rush Week
Uppermost in the minds of a great many new students at U. of K. is the sororities' rush week. Tonight is preference night, and of course some fine parties will be held for the rushers. The girls will go to their favorite houses. Preference cards will be assigned tomorrow morning between 7:50 and 10:30 in Rooms 208 and 209 of the SUB. We wish them best of luck in the group that they choose.

LSU Football Game
Football takes the spotlight this weekend. A rip-roaring pep rally will start things off at 7 o'clock Friday night on the intramural field. Let's all be there around the big bon-fire to show the boys that we are here to back them up.

Hillel Society Sets First Meeting Sunday
The Hillel society will have its first meeting of the semester at 8 p.m. Sunday at Temple Adath Israel on Ashland Avenue. Supper will be served at the meeting.

The Hillel officers for 1950 include Jerry Bass, president; Sue Neumann, vice-president; Frances Goldstein, secretary, and Malcolm Cole, treasurer.

Activity Groups Present Festivities

The annual College Night program, presented by the Student Union, Student Government Association, and YM-YWCA, will be held Sept. 29 in the SUB. The program begins at 7 P.M. and includes a pep rally, carnival, dance, and floor show. The College Night committee members are Jimmy Eubank, SUB; Kitty King, SGA; Juanita Ferguson, YWCA, and Henry Durhan, YMCA.

Barter Group To Present Play 'Sun Up'

The Barter Theater production, "Sun-Up," will be sponsored by the Community Recreation Association tonight at 8:15 o'clock at the Henry Clay High School Auditorium. This is the first week of the fall tour for the Barter Company, which last year toured almost every state in the country and played to over a half million people. This season's production, which was one of the greatest hits of all time on Broadway, stars the original Broadway star, Mary Perry.

Mary Perry, who plays the central role of Mother Cagle in "Sun-Up," is a veteran of a quarter of a century on Broadway. Miss Perry has been acclaimed by critics for her characterization of "Ananda" in the national company of "The Glass Menagerie." She has appeared in the role for three seasons and has co-starred in the Tennessee Williams' hit with Susan Peters, Lefty Ericson, William Eythe and others.

The organization plans to have both active and associate members. Active members will be those who work for the benefit gained from belonging. Associate members are those who cannot be active but will support the YWCA through contributions. Ticket fee is one dollar.

Tau Sigma Will Hold Pre-Tryout Practices

Tau Sigma, honorary modern dance society, will hold pre-tryout practices Monday and Thursday of next week and of the following week at 8:30 p.m. The Monday practices will be in the Women's Gym and the Thursday practices will be in the Men's Gym. Men and women interested in this group are to come prepared to dance. No previous dance experience is required. Final tryout will be Oct. 5, at 6:30 p.m. in the Women's Gym.

Theater Production, Exhibit And Former Wildcat Stars Highlight Summer Activities

By Bill Bonghez
You who were away from the University this summer probably wondered many times what was happening on campus. This will bring you up to date. The summer enrollment, about 4000, was approximately 500 below last year's total.

The art department presented the ninth annual exhibit of art by students, one of the largest displays on the campus. Thirty geology students spent 8 weeks in a Rocky Mountain field camp.

The Gungul Theater's summer production was "Torchbearers," a comedy satire on theater people, which was selected by Wake Forest in the double elimination playoffs of the NCAA.

At Groza and Wah Wah Jones, former Wildcat greats now playing pro ball, returned to UK for summer courses. Groza, teamed with the Men's Dorm softball team.

Dr. E. A. Parlow, former dean of the Graduate School, was elected chairman of the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies. A workshop of school superintendents and teachers was held on campus. School finances were studied.

A five-day string orchestra and ensemble clinic was held here in July. Also in July approximately 250 high school band members attended a clinic at the University.

UK ROTC STUDENTS captured sharpshooting honors at Fort Benning, Ga., during the summer. The fourth annual Family Life Institute was held on the campus. The purpose of the Institute is to promote a wider understanding of the role of the family in modern society.

The University accepted a total of $22,800 in gifts. THE MEN'S DORM defeated Cooperstown in the finals of intramural softball.

Fraternity Aids University By Pre-Registration Plot

By Bob Fain
Girls, you have been duped! Remember the table set up in front of the Sigma Nu house where you did your "pre-registering"? Or did you fill out one of the cards for the "Y-Sub Committee"? You may have been one of the lucky persons who signed up for a "reserved seat" at all of the football games.

Regardless of which type of card you filled out, things aren't what they seem. The whole thing started while the fraternity was selling ODK tags at a table set up in front of their house. As was to be expected, the boys began meeting people—people with curves and phone numbers and of the opposite sex (bawled the expression).

MEANSING WHAT an opportunity Hoppe to take the mixed doubles. In the Bluegrass Tennis Tournament Tom Asbury took the men's singles. Then he teamed with Sergus Leach and won the men's doubles.

Then & Now

The Philadelphia Club is making elaborate plans to provide entertainment for alumni, parents, the team and coaches on Oct. 21 when Kentucky plays Villanova at Philadelphia.

According to Palmer Evans, club secretary-treasurer, the Philadelphia Kentuckians have engaged the Franklin Room at the Ben Franklin Hotel for a buffet supper beginning at 5:30 p.m. Oct. 21. In addition, the club has reserved Room 244 for a pre-game gathering, place and lounge for those who do not plan to make hotel reservations. Refreshments will be available both in the supper room and in Room 244. Dinner will be served at 6 p.m. at a cost of $4 per person.

The Alumni "Alummas" carried the name and address of the Philadelphia club secretary-treasurer, through whom reservations should be made, but through some error Mr. Evans' address was incorrectly given. If you wish to make reservations for the buffet supper, address your reservation to Palmer Evans, 3863 Anne Street, Dressel Hill, Pa., not later than Oct. 10 if possible.

CLYDE ADAMSON, '32, has been in Arabia since 1949. He is in charge of engineering on the building of a pipeline extending from the Persian Gulf to the Mediterranean. He plans to be back in the states around Nov. 1.

Mr. Adamson's address is International Bechtel, Incorporated, Becker-Convay-Price Division Dhabran, Saudi Arabia.

DR. WILLIAM H. NICHOLLS, '24, formerly of Lexington, and now professor of agricultural economy at Vanderbilt University, was one of 12 specialists from this country who went to Turkey last summer where they undertook a broad survey of Turkish economy. Dr. Nicholls served as chief in agricultural economics for the mission.

Dr. Nicholls is the son of Dr. W. D. Nicholls, head of the UK Department of Farm Economics, and Mrs. Nicholls.

CLAUDE JOHNSTON, '36, assistant division engineer for the L&N Railroad, at Mobile, Ala., was promoted to division engineer at Birmingham, Ala., last summer.

Mr. Johnston has been with the L&N since 1946. He served in World War II with the 720th Railway Operating Battalion, reaching the rank of major. He is a native of Lexington.

JOHN DEURY, '35, of Lexington was assigned to the staff of the deputy commanding officer at the Avon Signal Depot, Lexington, last July, with the title of organization and methods examiner.

His duties consist of the gathering and analysis of facts and the preparation of plans and systems for more economical and efficient organization, operations, methods, and procedures for the operating divisions of the depot, according to Col. William M. Mack, Avon's commanding officer.

1928
DR. THOMAS M. MARSHALL, '28, of Frankfort received a master of science degree in Neurosurgery at the University of Minnesota. He studied under a fellowship in neurosurgery at the Mayo Clinic and Mayo Foundation for the past 3 years. He was recently elected to the Society of Sigma Xi, national honorary science society, in recognition of his investigative work.

Dr. Marshall was planning to become associated with Dr. Franklin Adams of Louisville upon completion of this work at the University of Minnesota last June.

WITH FORMER UK STUDENTS
BILL (SPIKE) ARNSPARGER, student at the University in 1944, has been named a line coach on Miami University's (Ohio) football coaching staff.

Arnsparger, first-string offensive tackle for Miami's Redskins last fall, also will teach physical education. The new coach played football at Parma High School under Blanton Collier, M.A. '47, now of the Cleveland Browns, and was named on All-Kentucky scholastic teams in 1943. He lettered at Kentucky as a freshman guard in 1944 and entered the Marine Corps.

ROBERT E. LEE, Jr., former University student from Lexington, received the degree of doctor of veterinary medicine from Michigan State College last June.

Dr. Lee has been appointed veterinarian with the Wolverine Pured Livestock and Sales Pavilion at Williamston, Mich.

To all you new students, we bid a fond welcome to this little column of assay. Those who were here this summer are well acquainted with what this is all about. But to the new students, the unlearned, we have a few words of warning:

If your doctor has warned that your heart is not what it should be, under no conditions is this column to be read. The same applies for a weak stomach. Never, never should girls sunbathing on the roof of Jewell Hall read this; the temptation to jump is too great. Don't read the jokes in class. The professor will think his words are causing those looks of anguish and screams of agony. This will place you in an unfavorable position around the end of the semester.

Enough said, let us be off: "So you were raised in a tough neighborhood, eh?" "Tough! I'll say it was tough—it was so tough that a cat with a tail was a tourist."

A cute female shopper asked the floor walker, "Do you have any poisons on this floor?" He sighed and replied, "Yes, but we try to suppress them."

Civilian: "What were you before you became a student?" Student: "Happy."

"Grace, I think your husband dresses nattily." "Yeah? Who's Natalie?"

Famous last words: "It's funny you boys didn't raid the same shore at the policeman's ball."

Upon entering a room in a Washington hotel, a woman recognized a well-known governor pacing up and down and asked what he was doing there.

"I am going to deliver a speech," he said.

Shutter Causes Shudder For Photographed Coed

By Shirley Porter

I clicked my heels and a black flip out of my top bunk, and landed with a dull thud on my trunk which I had yet to unpack. But I was oh, so happy! My last time to register had finally arrived. For three and one-half years I had sweated blood and tears during registration and classification. But now!—now I would soon be over. I had only three classes to sign for, three requirements for graduation. I knew I could do that in 20 minutes flat. Then I would be free to party until classes started.

"Do you usually get nervous before addressing a large audience?" "Nervous?" he replied. "No, I never get nervous."

"In that case," demanded the lady, "what are you doing in the Ladies' Room?"

"What is a delegate at large?" "A lodge member who goes to a convention without his wife."

They were standing about, at the party, busily eating watermelon. The moon was very bright and all was silent except for the crisp biting of the melon and the prating of the seeds. One girl was especially fond of watermelon—Oh! how that girl could put it away!

"Tell you right now, boys," her voice suddenly piped up, "when you eat more watermelon than I you gotta get up before day."

A young ex-GI was married to a twin. The housing shortage forced the couple to move into the home of the wife's parents.

"Those sisters look so much alike even their folks can't tell them apart. How do you know which one to make love to?" observed a friend.

"I don't know which it 'em either," was the reply, "but when I feel affectionate I seize one of 'em and if she ain't mine she defends herself."

Hilbilly Zeke had never seen a motorcycle, so when a man came roaring up the road on one, Zeke took a shot at it.

"Did you kill the varmint?" asked his wife.

"None," said Zeke, "but I sure made it let go of that man."

George: "Do you know why radio announcers have such small hands?" Harry: "No, why?" George: "Woe paws for station identification."

A candidate for sheriff called on a minister to ask his support at the coming election.

"Before I decide to give you my support," said the minister, "I would like to ask you a question. Do you partake of intoxicating beverages?"

"Before I reply," said the candidate, cautiously, "is this an inquiry or an invitation?"

I skipped to the Coliseum singing, "On, On, U. of K.," and humming the Alma Mater I never could remember those words.

AND THEN I SAW IT! A line stretching up Lexington Avenue almost reaching Maxwell. But I wasn't disheartened. Since this was my last time I was glad to see the line because it would hold the ex-Hat Football simplimon.

Moving like a herd of turtles, we finally got inside the building.

I sat in the bleachers and gazed down upon the professors behind the classification tables. But something was wrong, there were no students classifying. I had seen thousands of students going into the building but none were coming out. Was the building actually swallowing them? Where were they? The building was large and I had visions of thousands of students getting lost and falling into a furnace. I began to get worried.

THEY HERDED US out into the corridor to pay our fees, and then they turned us loose. I went through the turnstile and out into the hall. Suddenly I found myself in a stamping, bustling, pushing mob. It was horrible. They shoved and squeezed us into a mass that looked as though it were glued together. The short students really had a bad time. Every half hour the tall boys had to lift the short girls upon their shoulders to revive them.

What was it all about? What was going on? Someone yelled "smile" the optimist "comb your hair, put on your lipstick, we're going to get our pictures made!"

Oh, glory! At that point there was nothing I wanted more than to have my picture made.

WE STOOD THERE—we couldn't move. People kept pushing closer, and it got hotter, and at that point the typist and the rest of the officials took out for lunch and they seemed like such a sweet group. I might suggest a course in sociology for the entire bunch—moh psychology, and human welfare.

After a day of waiting, I finally got in front of the camera. He took exactly 15 seconds. I was crushed and wounded. After all that struggle the students at least deserved three or four poses.

On top of all this I had to classify my 20 minutes turned into exactly eight hours.

Now I guess in order to get into the ball game one should be at the gates at least five or six hours before game time so the guards can check each picture. And you will be extremely lucky if your own picture resembles you.

But as I say, I'm a senior, and it is all over for me. But I sure do feel sorry for you lower classmen when you register next year and have to be fingerprinted—with indelible ink.

LSU holds the conference consecutive-game scoring streak with 57. Tulane broke the string, 14-0, in 1950.

"What's all the huffin' and puffin' about? I've been a Puffin all my life!"

You may think this "bird" is funny—but he's no odder than many of the cigarette tests you're asked to make these days. One puff of this brand—one sniff of that. A quick inhale—a fast exhale—and you're supposed to know what cigarette to smoke from then on. The sensible test doesn't have to rely on tricks and short cuts. It's a day-after-day, pack-after-pack tryout—for 30 days. That's the test Camel asks you to make! Smoke Camels regularly for 30 days. Your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste) is the best possible proving ground for any cigarette. After you've made the Camel 30-Day Mildness Test, we believe you'll know why...

In literature, music, and art, a new set of courses were added to the requirements of all lower division students, called the Humanities.
