

May 1, 1913.

Mr. R. J. Burst,
Memphis, Tenn.

Dear Bob:-

Your wire came duly to hand, but evidently was somewhat mixed up, as I wrote a letter to Mr. Hopkins at the address given in the message, and the same has been returned to me here. I am enclosing the same to you, in the same envelope, and beg to request that you forward the same to him at once, so that we can get a reply early. The other gentleman whose name was given has written Mr. Alley a very satisfactory answer for you. The letter to Mr. Hopkins is the one of which I sent you a copy.

Very truly yours,