

THOMAS R. BROWN,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,

Catlettsburg, Ky. Jan 7th 1885.

W. S. Harkins esqr.

Prestonsburg Ky.

Dear Sir,

I never knew of the existence of the execution or fee bills vs Guardian of Lizzie & George Martin or of any returning property found. There will be need of any suit being brought to subject the amount of said Bennis.
Just let the matter stand for awhile until I can ^{see} into it. There is ~~no~~ ^{no} disposition to avoid the payment or to withdraw anything subject to payment of same. The amount realized out of the Bennis debt can remain in the ~~attys~~ ^{attys} hand & will not be attempted to be withdrawn without notice. Hoping this will be satisfactory for the time being.

I remain

Yours Resp^{tly} T. R. Brown
