American families now own more than one billion dollars of Kentucky Central life insurance.

And there are many good reasons why.

With more than one billion dollars of life insurance in force, Kentucky Central now ranks in the upper seven percent of the nation's 1,700 life insurance companies.

It doesn't "just happen" that a company grows to our size. And enjoys such widespread public acceptance. It takes a lot of plus factors.

Let's begin with age and service.

No "johnny come lately" in the life insurance business, Kentucky Central was founded in 1902 and is the oldest life insurance company with home offices in the Bluegrass State. In fact, less than six percent of all U. S. life insurers have been in operation longer.

During these 65 years, we've earned an enviable reputation for prompt, friendly and intelligent service. Just ask any Kentucky Central policyowner — from Oregon to Florida.

Then there's our wide selection of insurance plans. Most of them with more liberal features than can be obtained from other companies.

Or consider our financial strength. With approximately $130 of assets for each $100 of liabilities, we have one of the highest ratios of any major life insurance company.

Just a few of the many good reasons why more and more people are buying more life insurance from Kentucky Central. Everyday.

Kentucky Central Life Insurance Co.

LEXINGTON, KY. • AMERICA'S KEY TO FAMILY SECURITY SINCE 1902

UK Administration

GOVERNOR NED BREATHITT, the Commonwealth's chief executive and chairman of the Board of Trustees, is a graduate of the University of Kentucky and above all labels himself as a champion of education in the state. The articulate, 41-year-old Hopkinsville attorney entered UK in 1942 with thoughts of a career in politics and government uppermost in his mind. He earned degrees in commerce and law after serving nearly three years in the Army Air Force during World War II. Governor Breathitt's background includes three terms (1953-56) in the House of Representatives and several governmental positions.

————— K —————

PRESIDENT JOHN W. OSWALD took over as administrative head of Kentucky's state university only two short years ago but has already proven himself one of the nation's most able educational leaders. Dr. Oswald, at the age of 48, is a man ideally equipped in academic and general background to guide U.K. into its second century. He holds academic degrees from De Pauw and University of California and is well acquainted with athletics at all levels. The UK president served as captain of the 1937 De Pauw football team and later, at UC, coached the Davis campus gridgers for three years as an avocation. Dr. Oswald, a plant pathology specialist, came to U.K. from a position as vice-president-administration at California. He was honored in 1962 by selection on the Silver Anniversary All-America team chosen by Sports Illustrated.

————— K —————

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR BERNIE SHIVELY, a former All-America footballer at Illinois, is the guiding hand behind the development of UK as a nationally-respected power in the field of intercollegiate athletics. Serving in a variety of posts at the University since 1927, including terms as coach of football, track and baseball, "Shive" has been director of Athletics since 1938. In this position, he administers a harmonious program of activity in 10 different sports that feature more than 500 athletes in action almost the year around before audiences that exceed a half million persons and involving facilities valued at several million dollars. Shively has gained national recognition for his administrative excellence and fair-minded approach to many problems.

ADOLPH RUPP OF KENTUCKY

"The Baron of Basketball"

National Coach of the Year for 1966 and the nation's winningest basketball coach for nearly four decades and one of the most colorful figures in the game today . . . That's Baron Adolph Rupp, who this season aims at producing a winner at University of Kentucky for the 37th year.

Able to boast of a nation-leading career percentage of 83 percent success in his chosen profession, Coach Rupp has guided the Wildcats since 1930—and never had a losing season.

Few major goals of the coaching profession have escaped the grasp of this 65-year-old veteran, feared and respected by opponents and beloved by millions of fans to whom he is known familiarly as "The Man In The Brown Suit." The appellation was tagged on Rupp years ago in tribute to his superstitious preference of brown as the color of his game-night wardrobe.

In his own backyard (the Southeastern Conference) Rupp is generally regarded as the prime benefactor of Dixie basketball—having goaded loop schools into providing better places to play, recruiting better boys and giving more emphasis to the sport. His success in raising the stature of southern cage play has "come back to haunt" Rupp in the form of stiffer competition both on the court and recruiting battleground.

But Coach Rupp professes no regrets and his achievements serve as a buffer that is not likely to be broken down for many a year to come. Those achievements make a list too long to recount entirely. However, a few of the man's major accomplishments include:

- 752 victories in 904 starts during 36 years at Kentucky.
- Membership in the ultra-exclusive "700 Club" (700 career victories) achieved at the earliest stage of any coach.
- An unprecedented four NCAA titles captured during a record 15 tournament appearances.
- A record 22 conference championships in 33 years of SEC existence.
- Top world honors as he helped guide the USA entry to success in the 1948 Olympics.
- National "Coach of the Year" four times and overwhelming choice again in 1966 for top SEC coaching honors.
- Producer of more All-Americans (24 players honored 34 times), more Olympic gold medallion winners (7) and more material for the pro ranks (22 players) than any other coach.
- Membership on the national basketball rules committee.
- Coach of champions in the first International Universities Tournament last summer.

MEET A WILDCAT

BRAD BOUNDS
Senior Center
Bluffton, Ind.

Brad saw only 58 minutes of action in his junior season last year but that was enough to convince his followers and coaches that he can be depended upon when the going gets "sticky." He works in well with almost any lineup combination and unselfishly passes up shots he might take in order to set up others. His actions on the court last season made him a definite crowd favorite.

Bounds saw brief reserve action in 12 of Kentucky's 29 games last season and contributed 25 points plus hauling in 18 rebounds. Not a great scorer, his high point effort on one night was six against LSU and Tulane. Brad did better in his sophomore, break-in season in 1964-65. In his opening collegiate varsity appearance, he was impressive as he collected 13 big points against Dartmouth College. Although he never reached this peak again, his coaches have high hopes that Bounds can improve with experience and confidence to the point where he can put his size to good advantage in his final season.

His development was slowed as he missed the final seven games of his freshman campaign due to academic difficulties. Brad could easily become the "darkhorse" of 1966-67 if his progress matches his determination first displayed as a freshman. Born in Detroit, but played high school ball at Bluffton, Ind. near Ft. Wayne.

Assistant Coach HARRY LANCASTER

Recognized as one of the top assistant coaches in the profession, Harry Lancaster has served in the capacity of chief aide to Baron Adolph Rupp since 1946. Among his various duties, the Paris (Ky.) native spends much time scouting future opponents of the Wildcats, recruiting some of the best schoolboy talent in the nation and coaching with much success the UK freshman cage team. Lancaster in the past 16 seasons has guided the Kittens to a record of 175 wins and only 46 losses. Harry is a graduate of Georgetown (Ky.) College, where he was an all-around sports standout in early thirties. An All-Conference halfback in football three straight years, his grid career almost overshadowed his play on the basketball court. Even though he considered himself a better gridder than basketeer, he starred in basketball with an equal number of All-Conference selections and wisely chose to stick with the cage sport as a career. Lancaster spent nine years as a high school principal and coach before coming to UK in 1942 as a physical education instructor.

Assistant Coach JOE HALL

Former Kentucky basketeer Joe Hall of Cynthiana, who proved himself a successful coach for nine years, joined the cage staff of Adolph Rupp last season. The new Wildcat aide transferred from Central Missouri State College, where he was head coach during the 1964-65 season and posted a 19-6 record enroute to guiding his team to the school's first NIAA Conference championship since 1951. A guard on Coach Rupp's 1949 UK team, Hall entered coaching upon his graduation in 1955. He spent three years at Shephardsville High, twice achieving conference "Coach of the Year" honors, and then moved into collegiate ranks at Regis College. After one season as freshman coach, Joe was elevated to head coach and for five years posted successful records. The 37-year-old Kentuckian also coached the Capital Federal Denver team in the AAU Tournament and later was honored by selection as head coach of the AAU Stripes in the Olympic Trials. Hall is given much credit by Coach Rupp for his success in recruiting this season's outstanding freshman team.
