ATHLETICS AT KENTUCKY

Kentucky's athletic program, a well-balanced and ambitious activity featuring inter-collegiate competition in nine different sports, is organized under the Department of Athletics and a corporation known as the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

The program is conducted without overemphasis or sacrifice of educational objectives and in strict compliance with the rules of the University, the Southeastern Conference and the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

A Board of Directors, headed by UK President Frank Dickey, maintains overall policy supervision of the athletic program. Dr. Leo Chamberlain, vice-president of the University, has general supervision over the Department and serves as vice-chairman of the Board. Dr. A. D. Kirwan, one-time Wildcat coach and UK's faculty representative to the Southeastern Conference, serves the directors as secretary and Dr. Frank Peterson, UK vice-president for business administration, acts as treasurer in an ex-officio capacity.

Supervising the steady growth and balanced development of one of the nation's top athletic programs is Bernie A. Shively, a former Illinois grid All-American and a veteran of over 20 years in the post of Director of Athletics.

The Association's Board of Directors is composed of the following:

Dr. Frank G. Dickey,
Chairman

Dr. A. D. Kirwan, Secretary
James B. Allen

Dr. Ralph Angelucci

Dr. A. E. Biggie

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS BERNIE A. SHIVELY

Supervising the steady growth and balanced development of one of the nation's top athletic programs is the Herculean task being carried out successfully by Bernie A. Shively.

Few who have observed the untiring efforts of the tall, silver-haired former All-America footballer in the service of the University of

Chairman, NCAA Basketball Tournament Committee

Kentucky's football stadium, McLean Stadium on Stoll Field, has been doubled to bring the current number of seats to approximately 37,500 and on par with most other schools located in heavier-populated areas. Powerful lighting equipment also was installed during the 1948-49 construction to bring night football into new popularity. Partly to satisfy the overwhelming number of basketball devotees, who could not squeeze into the 2,800-seat Alumni Gymnasium, a long-planned

Kentucky since 1927 and as Director of Athletics since 1938 will argue his fitness as an athletic Hercules. Not only has Shively guided the development of Kentucky as a nationally-respected power in major sports, but he has also gained personal prestige through a fair-minded approach to many problems.

During his tenure as Athletic Director, Shively has directly supervised major expansions in Kentucky's athletic plant resulting from the progression of the school's football and basketball teams to greater national prominence and increased patronage by the sports-minded public.

The seating capacity of Memorial Coliseum was completed in 1950. Seating 11,500 persons for cage contests, the four-million dollar Coliseum also houses the Athletic Department and provided the first permanent home for the school's many minor sports teams. More recently, Shively directed the acquisition of a pair of modern, ranch-style living units which have served as the home of the football team since 1954.

A large dressing room building and football practice field, used since 1955, was abandoned in 1959 to make way for a huge new men's dorm. Under Shively's supervision, a spacious new Sports Center has been prepared a short distance away on the University farm to take even better care of the footballers and spring sports teams.

All-America Guard At Illinois

A native of Paris, Ill., Shively attended the University of Illinois where he was an All-America guard in 1926 on the same grid team made famous by Red Grange. Demonstrating a claim to being one of the finest all-around athletes in Illinois' history, "Shive" also laid claim to the Big 10 heavyweight wrestling championship and annexed letters in track before graduating in 1927.

Shively came to Kentucky in 1927 as line coach of football under Harry Gamage. A shift in the coaching ranks in 1933 resulted in Shively's promotion to head of the UK Physical Education Department, a position he retained until he succeeded Chet Wynne as Athletic Director in 1938. During this period and the years following, he also served as track and baseball coach for several seasons and continued as a football assistant until 1944. The next year, 1945, he assumed full charge of the grid squad for one season before turning the job over to mentor Paul (Bear) Bryant in 1946.

The Kentucky Athletic Director served as chairman of the Southeastern Conference basketball committee for a number of years and for the past seven years has been president of the SEC Coaches and Athletic Directors Association. He is current chairman of the NCAA Basketball Tournament Committee, chairman of the NCAA Summer Baseball group and is active in numerous state and civic projects, including current direction of the Fayette County Recreation Board. Thousands of his friends honored his 30th anniversary at Kentucky by presenting him with a Cadillac at the Tennessee football game in 1957.

Shively and his wife, Ruth, have two children. Doug was co-captain of the Wildcat grid team in 1958 and now is coaching at VPI while daughter Suzanne was a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of UK in 1957.

ADOLPH FREDERICK RUPP "Nation's Winningest Basketball Coach"

30 Years — Won 626, Lost 113 — 84.7%

For three decades, the sports world has watched an amazing record being forged with near perfection out of meager raw material by a colorful figure in the Bluegrass country of Kentucky known familiarly to hundreds of thousands as the "Man in the Brown Suit."

He is Adolph Rupp of Kentucky and when the sport of basketball is mentioned today, a direct chain of thought brings out the name of this maker of champions who holds undisputed rank as the "Nation's Winningest Basketball Coach." The name of Rupp, feared and respected in opponents' hearts and beloved by the millions who have witnessed the remarkable success of his Wildcat cage teams, has become synonymous with the game of basketball.

Such unprecedented recognition for the fabulous mentor is only natural since his success in the past 30 years as head man of the fabled Kentucky cage thoroughbreds has been nothing short of phenomenal. It would take a book longer than his own technical best-seller, "Championship Basketball," to recite the record completely. Briefly, however, that record includes:

- An amazing 626 victories out of 739 starts for an unparalleled winning percentage of approximately 85 percent against major competition.
- Selection as the national "Coach of the Year" in 1959 for the second time in his career.
- An unprecedented honor roll of four NCAA Tournament championships picked up by his Wildcats who hold the all-time record of 11 appearances in the national classic and can claim more victories in NCAA play (21) than any other team.
- A nominal world's championship as co-coach of the successful USA entry in the 1948 Olympic Games which included members of Kentucky's NCAA champions.
- A total of 19 Southeastern Conference titles since the league was organized in 1933.
- Election to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1959 and previous selection (in 1946) by Helms Athletic Foundation as a member of their exclusive cage Hall of Fame.

- Recipient of the Governor's Medallion in 1959 for meritorious service to the Commonwealth of Kentucky and plaques of appreciation from the U.S. Air Force (1959) and Sugar Bowl committee (1951).
- Election to the Kentucky Hall of Fame (1945), outstanding citizen of Lexington (1949) and twice honorary citizen of the City of New Orleans.
- Coach of the winning East team in the Shrine East-West game 1959.
- Development of more All-Americans (21) and more material for the pro ranks (20) than any other coach.
- Four Sugar Bowl Tournament championships, a National Invitation Tournament title and four trophies from the first seven UK Invitational Tournaments.
- Membership on the NCAA Basketball Rules Committee.

Rupp's Teams Play In Most Tournaments

Tournament invitations in pre-Rupp years were almost unheard of—Kentucky played in only seven sectional eliminations. In contrast, the Rupp-led Wildcats have the distinction of playing in more tournaments of all types than any other team. All told, his Bluegrass five has achieved the unequalled feat of 132 victories against only 35 defeats, covering action in 33 national classics plus 29 conference meets and the '48 Olympics.

Although the competition was nowhere near as rugged as the schedules played by today's nationally-recognized Wildcat brigades, Rupp's very first team compiled a respectable 15-3 record and Kentucky basketball has been on a winning plane ever since. The most games lost in a single season since Rupp added his touch was eight in 1940-41, but even that year was a winning campaign (17-8) and the remarkably low average number of losses per season in the Rupp Era is three.

His teams have finished as national champion in the polls four times in the last 11 years. They were unranked in the top 10 only in the 1952-53 campaign, when they were idle. Possibly his greatest achievement came in the 1953-54 season when the Wildcats rolled unchecked through a 25-game schedule of top-flight opposition to become the biggest-winning, perfect-record unit in all basketball history up to that time.

Rivaling that achievement, in the opinion of the sportswriters and broadcasters, is the tremendous coaching jobs turned in by the basketball miracle man in the past four seasons. Four years ago, Rupp guided a moderately talented club to an 18th SEC title, third place in the polls and a ninth NCAA Tournament appearance while achieving a 23-5 record. The surprised experts, who had predicted UK would not win their own conference, voted Coach Rupp the runner-up spot as "Coach of the Year."

Even that effort went by the boards in 1958, however, as Kentucky's talentless wonders copped the NCAA title for an unprecedented fourth time. The Wildcats were unsung and almost unknown except by reputation and heritage. Not a single man had been honored on the All-Conference fives selected before tournament time and they had lost more games (6) in regular season play than any UK team in 17 years—all of which added up to sure defeat except for the coaching genius of Rupp.

Wins National 'Coach of Year' Honor

If the experts thought that was tops in miracles, they reckoned without the amazing drive of this man Rupp. With four-fifths of his starting lineup gone, he re-built shattered foundations in such an astonishing fashion that the Wildcats rolled through the 1959 season almost unchecked. Although they failed to win the title in their increasingly-tough Southeastern Conference for only the third time since 1943, UK was generally conceded to be the nation's top team. Most experts agreed that the Kentuckians, who finished with a 24-3 record and ranked second nationally, missed a golden opportunity to pick up a fifth NCAA crown as they were upset by Louisville in the tourney opener. This feeling was given meaning as Rupp was accorded "Coach of the Year" honor by United Press International. The nationwide poll of 268 writers and broadcasters gave Coach Rupp twice as many votes as any other nominee.

Last year was not a great one by any standard as the Wildcats chalked up only an 18-7 mark—second worst season of the Rupp Era. However, many experts considered the outcome to be a tribute to one of the greatest coaching efforts ever turned in. Plagued from the beginning of the season to the end by adversity (sickness, injuries, eligibility difficulties and personnel problems), complete disaster was always imminent and avoided only by masterful juggling (16 different starting combos) and artful strategy moves.

Rupp is recognized by sports authorities with doing more than any other modern tutor to make basketball a national spectator sport. From the very outset of his career at Kentucky, which began in 1930, he has introduced or popularized many new and revised trends in the game that have aided materially in making the country basketball-minded. One such innovation was the controlled fast break offensive pattern that has since become the crowd-pleasing trademark of Wildcat cage teams.

The outstanding success of this man as a basketball coach is matched only by the personal fame he has attained outside the sports world.

The masterful story-teller is equally renowned on the banquet and coaching clinic circuit and is in constant demand as a speaker in the off season. He annually appears in more than a dozen states to make speaking engagements and believes he has missed only Alaska in tours throughout the 50 states. Rupp undoubtedly has conducted more coaching clinics than any other tutor. Overseas assignments for the Army and Air Force have taken him to the European theater, Hawaii and Japan.

Internationally recognized for his avocation as a registered Hereford breeder-enthusiast, Rupp is currently in his seventh term as president of the Kentucky Hereford Assn. He owns and operates one of the largest farms in the Bluegrass area and serves as a director of the Central District Warehousing Corp., world's largest tobacco marketing organization.

The coach is active in Shrine affairs, being chosen in 1950 as one of the 10 outstanding Shriners of the nation and holding honorary memberships in temples throughout the country. He is a Past Potentate of the Oleika (Lexington) Temple and serves as vice-chairman of the board for the Shrine Crippled Children's Hospital in Lexington. Two years ago, he was nominated as one of five candidates for the Imperial Outer Guard of the Shrine.

He has his own television and radio shows during the season, has produced two film shorts ("Basketball: Individual Offense" for Coca-Cola Co. and "Parade to National Championship") and written books on virtually every phase of the game.

Born in Halstead, Kansas, Sept. 2, 1901, Rupp attended University of Kansas where he played guard under Phog Allen. Following graduation in 1923, he coached high school ball one year at Marshalltown, Iowa, and then at Freeport, Ill., four seasons before coming to Kentucky in 1930. His fame as "The Man in the Brown Suit" stems from his superstitious preference of brown as the color of his game-night wardrobe.

HARRY LANCASTER

Assistant Coach

When Harry Lancaster finds a spare moment to reflect on his days as an all-around star athlete at Georgetown (Ky.) College back in the early thirties, he can recall with a degree of dismay how close he came to never pursuing the "round ball" sport that in the days since has earned him a highly respected position in the basketball world.

An All-Conference halfback for three straight years and captain during his last two seasons, Lancaster's football career almost overshadowed his play on the basketball court. In the cage sport, he was equally successful—with three All-Conference nominations and two team captaincies to his credit—but considered himself a better football player than cager. Experience, however, proved him a good student and teacher of the sport of basketball as he began his coaching career and he now has no regrets over the choice he made.

Lancaster bosses a promising group of yearling cagers and holds down the position of assistant varsity basketball coach and general right hand man to Adolph Rupp.

Born in Paris, Ky., in 1911, Lancaster attended Paris High School where he played four years in all sports, being coached at one time by Kentucky's current Head Football Coach Blanton Collier. Following graduation in 1928, he continued his athletic career at Georgetown College and gained star recognition in football, basketball and baseball. After finishing at Georgetown in '32, Harry remained on for the next school year as an assistant coach in both the grid and cage sports before moving into the high school field. He coached several sports, mostly basketball, for nine years and was a high school principal for six years before coming to the University of Kentucky in 1942 as an instructor in physical education.

Soon thereafter, the war intervened and Lancaster saw 26 months' Navy duty, rising from apprentice seaman to Lieutenant (Senior Grade). Returning to UK in March, 1946, he became a part-time assistant to the Wildcats' famous cage mentor, Adolph Rupp, in addition to carrying on his teaching duties and gaining his master's degree. He also served as Kentucky's baseball coach in 1946-47 and picked up the assignment again starting with the 1951 campaign.

Becomes Full-time Assistant Coach In 1948

He was promoted to full-time Assistant Varsity Basketball Coach in 1948 upon Coach Rupp's recommendation. In addition to his coaching duties, Lancaster manages to sandwich in a large slice of traveling. Besides checking on the nation's best high school cagers as potential material for future Wildcat national champion crews, his travel stems from a plan to extensively scout upcoming opponents. Coach Rupp was one of the first in the country to inaugurate this widespread scouting system in basketball and believes it has contributed materially to Kentucky's past success in carrying off championships with almost reckless abandon.

Lancaster also traveled to Greece in the summer of 1951 on a special athletic assignment for the U. S. State Department. The mission called for the Kentucky aide to act as an advisor to Greek Basketball Federation officials on Olympic procedure and other matters. He also conducted numerous clinics, coaching schools and gave public lectures on the cage sport as played in the U.S.A.

Lancaster's coaching success with his freshman teams has been commendable. The yearlings have lost only 18 contests under his tutelage the past ten seasons against formidable competition that included the more elite junior college clubs and top-notch service quintets. His record stands at 100 wins, 18 losses.

DOUG HINES

Assistant Coach

Recognized as one of the nation's outstanding young coaches, 31-year-old Doug Hines joined the Kentucky staff last August after a highly successful career in high school coaching and at Lindsey Wilson Junior College, in Columbia, Kentucky.

In his new position, Hines will assist Head Coach Adolph Rupp by working with both the freshman and varsity teams, doing scouting and recruiting, and supervising the study program of the entire basketball squad.

Born in Science Hill, Ky., Hines graduated from high school there in 1947. He received his baccalaureate degree from Eastern Kentucky State college in 1953 after work there and and at Lindsey Wilson Junior College. The master's degree was awarded by Eastern two years later and he expects to receive his Ph.D. degree from Indiana University in the next few months.

The youthful coach began his professional career in 1954 at Crab Orchard High School in Lincoln County and posted a 54-22 record for three years. He moved over to Lindsey Wilson in 1957 and during his four seasons there he became recognized as one of the nation's outstanding junior college mentors. His over-all record there shows 85 victories in 126 starts and a Kentucky Junior College Conference mark of 43-11.

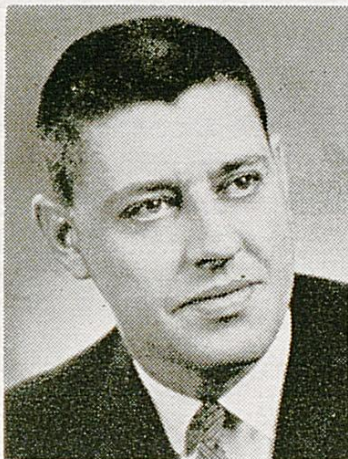

In three of the four seasons he was at Lindsey Wilson, Hines led his team to the conference seasonal title and a year ago took fourth place in the National Junior College Tournament. The 1959-60 Blue Raiders showed a 32-8 record, one of their setbacks coming at the hands of the Kentucky freshmen.

Hines produced no less than a dozen players at Lindsey Wilson who have been outstanding enough to gain full basketball scholarships at four-year schools. Kentucky grabbed off Bennie Coffman, a 6-0 guard who was the KJCC leading scorer three seasons back, and this year signed another guard, Doug Pendygraft, who also led the league in scoring and attained JC All-America honors.

TED LENHARDT Assistant in Basketball

Newest aide on the cage staff of Baron Rupp is a Michigander, 28-year-old Ted Lenhardt. Appointed last summer with the title of Assistant in Basketball, he brings to the staff experience of two seasons in the high school coaching field in his hometown of Coloma, Mich. Lenhardt's teams posted a 23-12 record in two years. He graduated in 1958 from Western Michigan State College where he played forward for two seasons before an injury sidelined him. At Kentucky, Lenhardt will assist in coaching the freshman team and perform other functions in a part-time capacity while working on his master's degree.

KENTUCKY BASKETBALL OUTLOOK — 1961

The safest way to phrase Kentucky basketball prospects any year is to say: "Don't sell Baron Rupp's Wildcats short!"

Perhaps more than ever before, that admonition may hold true in describing the outlook for the 1960-61 campaign. The famed and colorful Baron of the Blue Grass, basketball's winningest mentor, has spent a year on the sidelines looking into the throne room and is chafing at the bit to get his Kentuckians back in the national limelight.

Adversity, in the form of injuries, sickness and ineligibility, plagued the Wildcats all last season with the result that they were saddled with an 18-7 record that stood as the second poorest season ever in Rupp's 30-year Kentucky dynasty. And anyone who knows the Baron and is cognizant of Kentucky's winning habits in basketball should realize that both Rupp and his men are determined to "get back in business."

While the Kentucky quintet of last season was universally recognized as one of the nation's strongest when at full physical strength and losses were not too severe, prospects for the coming season might not be considered good except for the anticipated boost to be given by a pair of junior college All-America transfers.

The new faces Rupp is counting on heavily to put Kentucky back into contention for the Southeastern Conference title (which they have held 19 times but missed the past two seasons) and an unprecedented fifth NCAA championship are Vince Del Negro, 6-5½ center-forward from Northeast Mississippi J.C., and Doug Pendency, sharpshooting 6-3 guard of Kentucky's Lindsey Wilson J.C. Del Negro, a two-year All-American, has been the nation's leading junior college scorer in his first two campaigns while Pendency picked up Most Valuable Player honors in the National J.C. Tournament last season and set many new scoring records in tournament and All-Star play.

Kentucky opponents also look with considerable apprehension on the return to top physical condition of the Wildcats' All-America candidate, Bill Lickert. The versatile, 6-3 forward-guard repeated as an official All-Southeastern choice last season despite being incapacitated nearly a month in mid-season with calcification of a thigh muscle that required surgery. As a sophomore in 1958-59, Lickert had gained SEC Sophomore of the Year recognition and last season seemed to be on his way to an even greater year as indicated by a 29-point performance against Ohio State's eventual National Champions.

There's also a lot of hope being pinned on the shoulders of 6-4 forward-guard Roger Newman, who will be playing his first year of varsity ball despite senior status due to absences and ineligibility. Newman looked highly promising in practice last season about the time the SEC Commissioner's office refused to certify his eligibility as a replacement for the injured Lickert. He had played a couple of games with a local YMCA team before reporting to the Wildcats at mid-season.

Aside from these hands, however, the returnees in Baron Rupp's cage stable are not so highly regarded. Past performances stamp them as dependable, but it's debatable in most observers' minds whether they can take up the slack of the losses. Missing as the Wildcats take the floor next December to initiate action against a schedule including representatives of eight major conferences will be leading scorer Don Mills, 6-7 center, and a pair of guards who saw extensive action—starter Sid Cohen and alternate starter Bennie Coffman. All Three were drafted by professional clubs.

Coach Rupp Cautiously Optimistic

The way Coach Rupp views the club at the getaway point can be summed up as cautiously optimistic: "I am hopeful that we can have another good season. You might say I am optimistic over our chances, but equally cautious at the same time in going all out to predict this team will measure up to some of our great ones of the past. I like the 'on-paper' looks of our personnel, but then I start worrying by thinking that a lot of question marks have got to resolve themselves favorably.

"First of all, we have a couple of promising junior college transfers. They have never played in the calibre of competition that makes up our schedule. Then there is Newman. The kid has yet to play a minute of varsity ball. And there is the further question regarding our physical condition. Lickert came back after his leg operation last year to play again, but we are not sure how the leg will hold up all year. illness and injuries hampered Ned Jennings, Carroll Burchett and Dick Parsons last season. In fact, four-fifths of our starting lineup was lost before the Auburn game of last year was over (UK lost by one point to the eventual SEC champs). We just hope all the troubles of last year are past us. If they are, we should do OK—if these other tough clubs on our schedule let us."

The biggest man in the Kentucky lineup for next season will be 6-9 pivotman Jennings. After that, there is a sharp drop-off in the height department that has Rupp worried to some degree over his board control. Were the availability of Del Negro, Jennings might not see regular duty as Rupp sacrifices what little height he will have for speed which was lacking last season. The probable starting unit would graduate from Del Negro at 6-5½ down to Captain Parsons, 5-9 guard. If Jennings does come through (and no one is more hopeful than Rupp that he will), there could be considerable shuffling—Lickert probably would operate at guard and Del Negro take over a forward spot among other changes.

Four prospects will report from the freshman team, headed by promising six-foot guard Bernie Butts.

Defensively, Coach Rupp is hopeful of a continuation of the high standards his teams have maintained in the past several seasons. With ace defensive man Lickert in top shape again and an improvement in team speed expected; the Wildcat defense could be much improved.

UKATS LOST PROVERBIAL 'NINE LIVES' IN 1959-60

At first glance, there would seem to be little to commend the basketball season of 1959-60 to the memory of "spoiled" Kentuckians.

The famed Wildcats of Baron Adolph Rupp managed to post only an 18-7 overall record, which was the second worst in the 30 years of the Rupp dynasty at Kentucky although a very respectable mark by comparison with hundreds of other schools.

For the second straight year, Kentucky was edged out of the title in their own Southeastern Conference where they have been kingpins no less than 19 times since the league was organized in 1933. They failed to gain a spot in the NCAA playoffs, in which they have made a record 11 appearances and won four championships, for the first time since 1953 when they were out of competition.

They did not win the title in their own high-calibre Invitational Tournament, losing to West Virginia in the championship game to mark only the third time in the seven years of the tourney that they had proved a gracious host by not winning.

Behind this "poor" showing, however, was a story closely parallel to the proverbial cat with nine lives as adversity plagued the ambitious Wildcats throughout the campaign.

Troubles Start Before Season Opens

Before the opening of the season, in which many experts ranked them as high as third nationally and figured them as the team to beat in their conference, Kentucky lost its first two "lives" as a pair of highly-regarded forwards—Bobby Slusher and Howard Dardeen—were lost for disciplinary reasons. Both were counted on as potential starters.

Later, another promising player—soph forward Carroll Burchett—was sidelined by illness that kept him out of the lineup from early fall through the first month of the season.

Then, at the crucial mid-season point in their schedule, All-Conference forward Bill Lickert (SEC "Sophomore of the Year" in 1959) had to undergo surgery for a leg ailment and was sidelined for better than a month. Attempts to bring back a former player with eligibility remaining to replace Lickert were unsuccessful. SEC Commissioner Bernie Moore ruled that although Roger Newman had not played for UK since his freshman year, his participation in a YMCA basketball league made him ineligible for collegiate competition before next season.

As if this were not enough, another player—guard Bennie Coffman—ran into academic troubles that caused him to be benched temporarily and hampered his athletic efficiency for the remainder of the season.

Then the injury bugaboo struck. First 6-9 center Ned Jennings sprained an ankle and next the squad's "Little Man," 5-9 guard Dick Parsons (Captain-elect for 1961) hurt a wrist.

Eight "lives" had disappeared. Where the ninth "life" was lost is debatable but academic.

Auburn Game Was Last Straw

The climatic tilt with eventual-champion Auburn could be pinpointed as perhaps the last straw in Kentucky's chances to grab off the title and/or NCAA berth. With Jennings left at home, Parsons hurt again in the first half of the game and a third regular—center Don Mills—fouling out, the Wildcats still lost by only a single point. On the other hand, the final "life" could have been lost as they dropped an uninspired decision to arch-rival Tennessee in the final conference game of the season. As it turned out, this loss cost the Wildcats the runner-up spot in the SEC and saddled them with a third place finish that was their lowest since 1942.

Despite the adversity that dogged them all season, however, this band of Ruppmen never collapsed completely and never could be taken lightly by any opponent. In fact, Kentucky seemed to play its best against the better teams on a schedule of highly-ranked foes. And there was a general belief among qualified observers that the Wildcats, at full strength, probably were the best team in the league and one of the nation's top outfits.

Without a doubt, the highlight of the season came in a December tilt with eventual NCAA Champion Ohio State. The Buckeyes, even with the help of their great sophomore Jerry Lucas and a sensational 64.1 shooting percentage in the first half, could not cope with the not-to-be-denied Wildcats. Paced by an inspiring, 29-point performance by Lickert, Kentucky made a courageous comeback to overcome a 15-point deficit and cop a 96-93 decision. Only two other teams stopped Ohio State enroute to the national title.

Memorial Coliseum

Only a little more than a quarter century ago, the University of Kentucky provided its basketball team with its second home—a magnificent New Alumni Gymnasium seating 2,800 spectators.

A great many persons freely suggested that the arena would prove to be a "white elephant" which would never be crowded to anywhere near capacity by the sport that then was considered little more than innocuous winter-month's pastime.

But the hardwood game blitzed the nation and Kentucky's teams forged to the national forefront in such a crowd-pleasing manner that the "huge" hall soon could not begin to accommodate the large number of fans seeking to whet their new-found interest. In fact, the situation soon developed to the point where only the student body and faculty were admitted and for several years about all that Kentuckians at large knew of their state university's famed cage teams consisted of information gleaned from the press and radio.

In 1941, when Dr. H. L. Donovan became president of the University, one of his first recommendations was for a building "that will properly take care of our athletics, our health service, physical education, and recreation." From this beginning came the plan that culminated in the construction of 11,500-seat Memorial Coliseum, an unparalleled edifice costing $3,925,000 by the time it was completed in 1950.

The huge building, which serves as a memorial to the nearly 10,000 Kentucky heroes who lost their lives in World War II and the Korean conflict, covers an entire city block and contains as much space as a seven-story office building. Situated along Avenue of Champions, the Coliseum is used primarily for basketball games but also serves as the site of a sellout community concert and lecture series as well as numerous physical education classes and conventions.

In sharp contrast to the early days in Alumni Gym, the present hall plays host to more than 100,000 Kentuckians annually for appearances of the famous Wildcat cage teams alone and interest is increasing with such strides that even this splendid arena may someday be outgrown.

Player Profiles

DICK PARSONS—Senior—Guard—Yancey, Ky.—Captain of the 1961 Wildcats and one of the most honored athletes in UK history, Dick (Little Man) Parsons is a diminutive (5-9 and 155) playmaker equally dangerous in every phase of the cage game. The smallest regular ever to play for Coach Rupp, he can dash in for the quick crip or hit with deadly accuracy on a two-hand push from far out. And Rupp considers Parsons one of the squad's best defensive artists. He also is captain-elect of the '61 UK baseball team and won All-SEC shortstop honors, treasurer of the K Club (lettermen's group), a recent inductee of Omicron Delta Kappa (national men's leadership society), recognized last spring as the "Outstanding Student of the College of Education" and was 1959-60 winner of the Chandler Trophy—given annually by Radio Station WVLK in the name of ex-Governor A. B. (Happy) Chandler to the outstanding cager. While many off-court honors have been heaped on this 22-year-old native son, he has earned much respect for his basketball accomplishments as well. True to the tradition of small and elusive Kentucky guards, he is a quick-thinking competitor who makes up in hustle and determination what he lacks in size. He has missed only two games in his collegiate career, both last season when he was forced to sit out the Ohio State and Alabama tilts with injuries. Parsons, who is not prone to getting hurt but takes a terrific physical beating in most games, previously had logged time in 17 freshman contests, all 27 games as a soph, and the first eight last season. Dick was a four-sport star at Harlan High—the same school that produced UK All-America cager Wah Wah Jones. Quarterbacked his high school grid squad, ran the 880 in track and hit .450 his final season in baseball as well as starting at guard on the basketball team. Second team All-State in his senior year and scored 1,277 points for three-year schoolboy career. Also third in graduating class.

BILL LICKERT—Senior—Forward-Guard—Lexington, Ky.—Superlatives that have been heaped on the shoulders of this local product during his sensational schoolboy and collegiate careers are a dime a dozen.

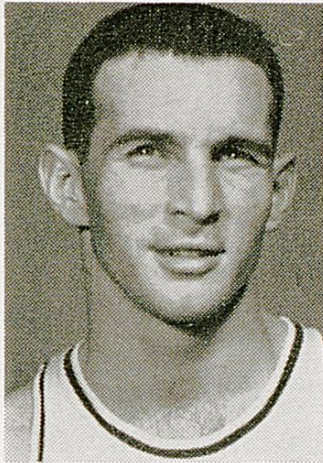

Already acclaimed as one of the nation's most versatile players (able to operate effectively at any position) and an exceptionally fine defensive man, Lickert last season picked up a new adjective—courageous. This stemmed from his determination to regain All-America candidate form after being sidelined a month in mid-season due to an operation for calcification of a thigh muscle. Seemingly well on his way to even greater heights than attained in his first varsity campaign two years ago, when he was accorded "Sophomore of the Year" honors in the Southeastern Conference, Bill was pacing Kentucky scoring at a better than 20-points-a-game clip and had stuffed in 29 against eventual national champ Ohio State in late December. When he departed for surgery on his leg in mid-January, many feared his career was at an end, but Lickert came back virtually as good as ever after missing five games to be the Cats' leading scorer in four of the last seven contests of the season. And, for the second straight season, SEC coaches accorded him a berth on the All-Conference team. He was second in UK scoring with 288 points, posted the best scoring average of 14.4 and was fourth in rebounding. He was the most accurate shot from the field, among the regulars, with a .401 mark. Best shot is a jumper from medium ranges. Often assigned other team's top scorer, he does exceptional job on defense because of speed and agility. Probably will play mostly forward this season, but might shift to guard. The question of how his leg will hold up is a big factor in Kentucky's success plans. The 6-3 former Lexington Lafayette All-America, who started his climb to fame years ago with a doubled-up coat hanger and tennis ball as equipment, had a fabulous schoolboy career. He scored 1,745 points, made the All-State team twice (once as a center) and won unanimous All-America honors.

VINCE DEL NEGRO—Junior—Center-Forward—Springfield, Mass.—

by Coach Rupp to bolster Kentucky's chances of getting back into the national limelight, Del Negro comes from Northeast Mississippi Junior College. This school also produced Adrian Smith, who was a guard on UK's last national champion team three seasons back and a star of the victorious USA Olympic team last summer. Along with Doug Pandygraft, who joins the team after two years at Lindsey Wilson JC, Del Negro joins a select list (five previously) of junior college transfers at Kentucky. The 6-5½ former Massachusetts All-Stater and two-time Junior College All-American was the nation's leading junior college scorer both years while playing center for Coach Bonner Arnold at the Booneville, Miss., school. He bucketed 1,748 points in 54 games for a two-year average of 32.3 a game. Del Negro and Pandygraft were on opposite sides for the three-game North-South Junior College All-America Classic last winter and wound up in a near-standoff for scoring honors, notching 54 and 51 points, respectively. Del Negro has a lot of good moves around the basket and a knack of being in the right place at the right time for rebounds. He also has a good touch and a variety of shots that make him dangerous all over the court. Also has good speed and agility that adds to the effectiveness of a deadly hook shot. Coach Rupp would like nothing better than to play Del Negro at forward, where he would not have to give away as much height and weight to his opponent. But it is likely he will have to be the Wildcats' center at the start, barring fast rounding into form of 6-9 veteran Ned Jennings.

DOUG PENDYGRAFT—Junior—Guard—Parksville, Ky.—Along with new teammate Vince Del Negro, Pendencygraft comes to Kentucky this season as the result of Coach Rupp's efforts to strengthen his hand immediately in the game of chance having the national title at stake. The 6-2 native Kentuckian from Parksville, joining a select list of junior college graduates (five previously) who have continued their education and careers at UK, spent his first two collegiate years at Lindsey Wilson Junior College of Columbia, Ky. During the 1959-60 campaign, Pendencygraft developed into one of the nation's top JC cagers—establishing all kinds of scoring records, winning unanimous selection at Most Valuable Player in the national JC tournament and attaining All-America honors.

He was leading scorer of the tournament, with 154 points in four games, and eclipsed by 10 points the previous one-game high as he notched 63 in pacing the LW Blue Raiders over Grand View (Iowa) in the fourth-place finale. Pendencygraft's 28 field goals in the final game also toppled a seven-year-old tourney record and he was the number one choice on the All-Tournament team. Having already agreed to play his final two seasons at Kentucky, he also became the third winner of the MVP award to attend UK. Previous UK-bound recipients were Bob Burrow and Sid Cohen. Pendencygraft's 25.7 scoring average for the past season slotted him just behind new teammate Del Negro in junior college ranks. He played against Del Negro in the post-season Junior College All-America Classic and the pair wound up in a virtual standoff for scoring honors as Pendencygraft posted 51 in the three-game series while the North's Del Negro showed a total of 54. Doug was coached at Lindsey Wilson by Doug Hines, who preceded him to Kentucky to become an assistant coach, and succeeds graduated Bennie Coffman as a LW alum on the Wildcat roster. Pendencygraft is being counted on to play a lot of guard this winter. He is a clever ball handler and possesses good speed and shooting ability.

ROGER NEWMAN—Senior—Forward-Guard—Greenville, Ky.—A 6-4 former unanimous All-Stater from Greenville, K.y, Newman will be playing his first and final varsity season with the Wildcats this year due to absences and quirks of eligibility rules. He was to have been Kentucky's "secret weapon" against Georgia Tech in the crucial closing days of the 1959-60 campaign, but never got to play as SEC Commissioner Bernie Moore interpreted rules barring outside competition as covering Newman even though the outside play came before he was a team member. Coach Rupp had spotted Newman in a game played by the Lexington YMCA team against the UK freshmen and, needing a replacement for ailing star Bill Lickert, invited Neman to rejoin the Wildcats. Newman had been considered a fine prospect as a UK freshman in 1956-57, standing second in scoring with a 16.1 average and turning a solid job of rebounding. After his freshman season, he ran into scholastic difficulties and quit the team. During the next two and one-half years, he cleared up his academic troubles and held down a good-paying job in Lexington. His only basketball competition was with the local YMCA team, but that was enough to cost him a chance to play last season after he rejoined the Wildcats in mid-January. The ruling probably cost UK the Georgia Tech game and possibly the SEC title. Newman had stepped into Lickert's forward spot with ease and familiarity. Although ineligible the rest of the season, Roger continued to show up well with a variety of shots, excellent speed, good ball handling, sticky defensive work, and toughness on the boards. He'll be a prime candidate to team with Lickert as a starting forward this year. As a schoolboy standout at Greenville High, Newman was a deadly jump shot artist and reckless driver with a 26-point average in his senior year. Coached by Ben Topmiller, he played in several all-star games and captained the Kentuckians in the 1956 Kentucky-Indiana game.

LARRY PURSIFUL—Junior—Guard—Four Mile, Ky.—One of the most promising youngsters in Baron Rupp's cage stable, Pursiful is a leading candidate for a guard starting job this season despite only two opening assignments last year. An unheralded schoolboy while playing good ball at Lone Jack and Bell County High Schools in the Eastern Kentucky mountain region, Larry was offered a college scholarship only by University of Kentucky even though he made the first All-State unit. He also was the most valuable player of the Southeast Kentucky Conference. In his final high school season (1958), Pursiful scored 750 points. He justified Coach Rupp's faith in his basketball ability by notching points at a phenomenal 58.6

percent shooting average during his freshman season. His 186 points and 19.1 scoring average paced all Kittens that season. Last year, while seeing mostly reserve duty during his 206 minutes of action, Larry again proved himself to be one of the best shots seen at Kentucky in many a season by connecting on 48 percent of his field goal tries—highest among the top 10 Wildcat scorers. At 6-1 and 165 pounds, Pursiful is small in the tradition of Wildcat guards of the past and, also following a pattern, is a good outside shot and speedy. In fact, Coach Rupp is on record as classing Pursiful as the 1961 team's fastest and best shot. He runs at the basket well and needs only the confidence that comes with regular duty to convince himself to shoot more. His lone starting jobs last season came against Alabama and Tennessee as a replacement for injured Dick Parsons. Also played two years of baseball in high school as a shortstop and was a straight "A" student. He plans a coaching career.

NED JENNINGS—Senior—Center—Headquarters, Ky.—At a towering 6 ft., 9 in., Ned Jennings is the tallest Wildcat since seven-foot

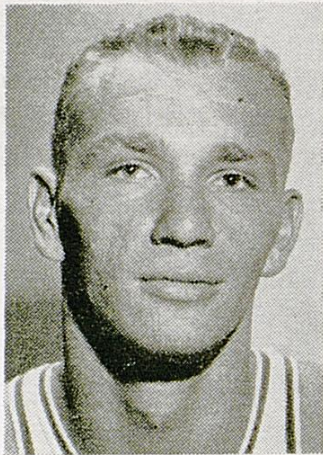

Bill Spivey and for the fourth straight year of his collegiate career is the key man in Kentucky's plans for a successful season. If he rounds into shape and reaches the form he is seemingly capable of attaining, big Ned could help the Wildcat cause immensely by providing desperately needed board strength. With Jennings out of the lineup (as appears the case in pre-season planning), Kentucky would go to the post with an opening unit whose tallest man is 6-5½ Vince Del Negro. Until such time as Ned proves himself ready to move, rebound and score better than smaller men, Rupp is inclined to sacrifice height for speed. There's also a worry over Jennings' physical condition. He's missed parts of every season. In the middle of his freshman year, he was out eight games following an emergency appendectomy; just before the 1958-59 season, he suffered a cut in the corner of his eye and then sprained an ankle that caused him to miss the last nine regular season games; and last year he had to sit out three crucial SEC games at season's end with another sprained ankle. When in shape, Jennings is well co-ordinated for his size and possesses a good jump shot from medium distances plus hooks with either hand. He is tough on the boards and a better than average defensive man. Besides avoiding the injuries this season, Jennings must trim off some of the excess weight that he had on at reporting time. In his first two varsity campaigns, Ned has played about 568 minutes in 33 games and collected 225 points. His high point effort came in a terrific night against Kansas last year with 27 points and he was second among Wildcat rebounders for the season with 162.

ALLEN FELDHAUS—Junior—Forward-Center—Burlington, Ky.—Appropriately tagged with the nickname, "Horse", by his teammates,

Allen Feldhaus lives up to the moniker by rugged workmanship on the basketball floor and baseball diamond. His first love is basketball, but you'll get an argument from UK fans over which sport he excels in the most. Although starting only two contests last season (surprise opener in first game against Colorado State and fill-in for Lickert versus Georgia Tech in late season), Feldhaus played in all but five games and picked up valuable experience. All told, the rugged, 6-5, 295-pounder showed 185 minutes of action time at forward and center and notched 44 points.

While these credentials hardly seem sufficient to warrant optimistic speculation on his cage future, the fact remains that he has been one of the real surprises of pre-season practice sessions this year and apparently will have much to say on the matter of a starting forward berth. Although he has picked up weight in the off-season, Feldhaus shows tremendous improvement in his speed as well as a better eye for the basket—or a better knowledge of the most opportune time to fire at the bucket. He was the leading hitter (.400) on the UK freshman baseball team two years ago and a record-breaking slugger (29 RBI's) as the Wildcats' regular catcher during his sophomore season last spring before suffering a broken elbow. A second team All-State pick, Allen scored 624 points in his senior schoolboy cage campaign and also participated in baseball, football and track. Third among UK freshman basketeers two years ago with a 12.7 average.

JIM McDONALD—Junior—Forward—Louisville, Ky.—Another rangy lad fitting with ease into the darkhorse category, McDonald made his bid early last season and then apparently settled into complacency. In the season opener, he starred in a substitute role by netting 14 points. This effort won him a starting job in the next two games Kentucky played on the West Coast, but he could collect only 12 in the pair and regained his scoring form only once later (in the 16th game against Georgia with 15) despite six more starts. Mac is short at 6-3 for a forward and not particularly fast afoot, but he has proved his capability and all that remains is to build on it. His long suit may be defense as he turned in several sparkling efforts last season, including a good job on the SEC's second best scorer—Jack Waters of Mississippi. The Louisville St. Xavier High product, who did not make the All-State team, is studying Electrical Engineering.

CARROLL BURCHETT—Junior—Forward-Center—Fuget, Ky.—A 6-4 mountain lad who has the proven capability to be the darkhorse in

Baron Rupp's 1961 cage stable. Held out two years ago after becoming eligible for varsity play at start of second semester, Burchett was being counted on last season before a hepatitis illness hampered his development. He saw only brief action until starting against Ohio State in the ninth game and he did not reach his peak until he notched 24 against Vanderbilt two games later. Although inconsistent in the remainder of the season, he showed sparks of real ability and was at his best as a rebounder. His 158 grabs in 22 games was third highest on the team and he added 155 points to the cause during 475 minutes of action. At season's end, the red-haired mountaineer was named to the All-SEC Sophomore Team. As a schoolboy at Flat Gap High, Burchett was a second team All-State pick. Coach Rupp attributes some of Carroll's cage success to "the longest arms I've ever seen on a fellow who stands only six-four."

BERNIE BUTTS—Sophomore—Guard—N. Miami Beach, Fla.—Two things were obvious concerning last year's UK freshman team: First, overall it probably was one of the least talented in school history; secondly, the exception was a boy named Bernie Butts and the saying "As Butts goes, so go the Kittens" held true. This ball-handling wizard from Hialeah High, potentially another Cliff Barker or Bob Cousy, was far superior to his teammates and better than his 18.7 team-leading scoring average indicates. The six-foot Florida southpaw, a schoolboy All-America and two-time most valuable player in the state, was personally scouted by Coach Rupp and the Baron has confidence Butts will develop to greatness as he gains consistency.

Butts caused a stir in his opening game wearing a Kentucky uniform as he bucketed 29 against Lindsey Wilson JC. His high output for a freshman game was 35. He possesses fine speed, good moves and handles the ball with amazing deftness that baffles even his own teammates. Butts played four years at Hialeah High, scoring 645 points and averaging 30 points a game in his final season. He also was All-City as a pitcher-outfielder in baseball. Only inexperience is expected to delay his breaking into the starting lineup this season.

GEORGE ATKINS—Sophomore—Center-Forward—Hopkinsville, Ky.—

The biggest man up from the freshman unit of last season and second tallest Wildcat on the '61 roster, 6-6 George Atkins is likely to fit in prominently if for no other reason than his outstanding size. Coach Rupp is hopeful that Atkins will take up where he left off as a yearling and develop into a dependable reserve this season. As a freshman, he came along fast late in the season to wind up as the fourth best scorer with 159 points in 14 games. The former Hopkinsville All-State poured through 1,621 points in three schoolboy years as a center. His high effort was 40 and he was over 30 twelve times. A good foul shooter and rebounder, he hit 76.6 percent of his free throws and was second in rebounding with 111 as a UK freshman.

SCOTTY BAESLER—Sophomore—Guard—Lexington, Ky.—Believed to be the first boy from his school to play on a major athletic team at University of Kentucky, Scotty Baesler is a dedicated player for reasons other than the honor of his former school. By nature, he is determined to be as much of a success as is within his power at everything he tries and applies this standard to his basketball play. It showed up in his performance last season as a UK yearling. He shook off early season jitters to come off the bench and garner 17 points against the Vanderbilt Frosh. With a starting job regained, the next night he netted 12 against Tennessee's Baby Vols. Although the Kittens lost both games, Scotty had lived up to his standard and even improved on it as he pumped over 20 points through the hoops in the last three games. The six-foot guard will find a rough road ahead to starting duty this season, but Baesler and his coaches are asking for no more than a meeting of his standard. He possesses good speed and hits from outside very well. An All-State second team choice, he scored 2137 points in three years' play at Bryan Station High near Lexington.

HERKY RUPP—Junior—Forward—Lexington, Ky.—Determined to prove the old saying, "where there is a will, there is a way," Adolph

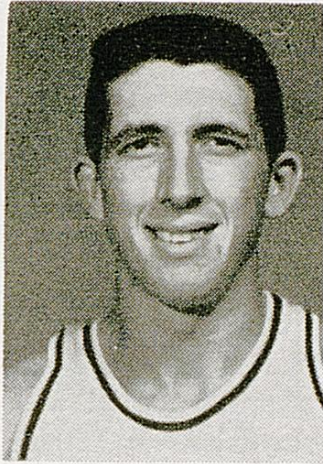

Rupp, Jr., is back again for another round in the fight to gain recognition as a basketballer in his own right. Admittedly, the 20-year-old son of Coach Rupp does not have all the natural ability to match the cage thoroughbreds corraled by his father. But he makes up for it in sheer determination to do his best and not the least of his attributes is an ability to do his part fully and right. As a UK freshman, Herky was an alternate forward starter. Last year he saw only 12½ minutes action in five games as a reserve forward. The 6-4 graduate of University High, who is studying pre-Law at UK, has above average maneuverability around the basket and could see more duty this year. Coach Rupp looks at it this way: "If I think he can help, he'll play. If not, not even his mother could persuade me to use him." By mutual understanding between he and his father, Herky is not on scholarship.

PAT DOYLE—Sophomore—Forward-Guard—Calvert City, Ky.—Behind in his basketball development as the result of skimpy game experience caused by scholastic ineligibility in the second semester of his freshman campaign, Pat Doyle may become the second UK basketball holdout in history this season. At least, Coach Rupp is toying with the idea—which has precedent only in the holdout two seasons back of Carroll Burchett—out of fairness to Doyle. In an abbreviated frosh season, he saw action in only six of the squad's 14 games. Nobody is giving up on the boy, however, as he proved himself capable in the scoring department with a 7.8 average and did a good job of rebounding on occasion despite his 6-2 and 175-pound size. Achieved All-State and All-America honors while leading North Marshall High in its bid for the state championship.

HARRY HURD—Junior—Forward-Center—Forks of Elkhorn, Ky.—

The chances of 6-5 Harry Hurd to see extensive duty this season are not too high—if you take into account only past experience. Harry saw only 13 minutes and 12 seconds of playing time in four Kentucky games last season as a sophomore and failed to get into the scoring column. He did contribute six rebounds to the Wildcat cause. These accomplishments hardly recommend the lanky Kentuckian-by-adoption for important assignments this season, but his height and determination could change the picture materially. Also, Coach Rupp is hoping for normal improvement that will make Hurd more valuable. Born in Dallas, Texas, but attended Elkhorn High in Kentucky's capital city of Frankfort. He averaged 25 points a game in his final season as a schoolboy and was honorable mention on the All-State lists. Scored 34 in nine games as a UK freshman in '59. Plans a career in Electrical Engineering.

ROY ROBERTS—Junior—Forward—Atlanta, Ga.—Only the third Georgian on Wildcat cage squads in recent years, 6-4 Roy Roberts has a heritage to live up to and has shown some indications that he will not fall short even though the road to stardom is a rough one. Previous Georgia natives were seven-foot Bill Spivey from Warner-Robbins and 6-7 Ed Beck of Ft. Valley. Roy came to UK with perhaps even more impressive credentials than either of his star predecessors. He won All-State, All-State-Tournament and All-Time Greater Atlanta honors in four years at Atlanta Northside. He was one-two in regional scoring his last two seasons and won All-City honor at center on his high school grid squad. Roberts finished fifth in scoring with 54 points as a UK freshman two seasons back, but did not break into the scoring column during brief forward reserve duty last year.

SCHOLARSHIP FRESHMEN

CHARLES (Cotton) NASH—Forward—Lake Charles, La.—Big, rugged, smart and a terrific basketball player, Cotton Nash was the number one schoolboy cage prospect of the country last winter. Courted by 34 colleges and universities. Personally signed by Coach Rupp. Before moving to Lake Charles, La., he was coached at Jeffersonville, Ind., High by ex-UK star Cliff Barker. The 6-5, 211-pound All-American, who averaged 32.8 in his senior year, was a sensation in four sports in high school and turned down several major league baseball offers in favor of a college education. Almost a straight "A" student, he plans to study Engineering.

GEORGE CRITZ—Forward—Bellbrook, Ohio—A virtual unknown hailing from the small community of Beelbrook, Ohio, near Dayton, Critz impressed Kentucky scouts with his hustle on the court as well as his scoring potential. Although the 6-4 Ohioan achieved only honorable mention on the All-State team during four years as a forward-center at Sugar Creek High, his 1,600 points indicated a good chance for development. Critz had a single game high of 50 points in his senior year. Also took part in track and baseball.

TED DEEKIN—Guard—Louisville, Ky.—A rebounding and scoring star on Louisville Flaget's state champions last season, Deekin will likely shift from center to forward as a Kitten. The 6-4 All-Stater, considered one of the best products produced in the state in 1959-60, has the speed to play anywhere, can hook well and is a good passer. "Deek" starred in post-season Kentucky-Indiana series and East-West game. Also a good student, studying pre-med, as well as a cross-country runner and baseball pitcher in high school.

CHARLES ISHMAEL—Forward—Mt. Sterling, Ky.—Named to units of various All-State selections in both basketball and football during a sensational all-around sports career at Mt. Sterling High, Ishmel will try double duty in the sports as a collegian. Signed to UK football scholarship as an end and played with the freshman gridgers last season. Considered a good prospect in both sports.

TOMMY HARPER—Guard—Winchester, Ky.—Called the "best shot I ever had" by his high school mentor, Harper joins a long line of outstanding cagers produced at Clark County High by Coach Letcher Norton. The 6-2 All-State pick, who averaged 25.7 points a game in his senior year while playing mostly forward, probably will shift to guard at UK because he gives away too much height. His 919 points represented a new school record at Clark County. A 60-footer by the sterling southpaw in the final four seconds avoided an upset by Lexington Henry Clay last year and was one of many such sensational shots.

PAUL WYATT—Center—Milford, Utah—Available records indicate this 6-8 youngster becomes the first Kentucky basketeer from the State of Utah and first from west of the Rockies. Milford, where roaming Kentucky scouts saw him, is in southwestern Utah about 175 miles as the crow flies from Salt Lake City. He impressed scouts with his size, agility of movement and potential for development to the extent that he became the first high school boy signed for 1960-61. Wyatt averaged 15.5 points and 31 rebounds a game and made the All-Utah team. Also an end in football and hurdler on his school track squad.

JUNIOR COLLEGE BOYS IN VOGUE AT UK

Although the club is still a select one, the presence of junior college graduates on University of Kentucky cage teams has become an accepted fashion in recent years. Since the Wildcats copped their second of four national championships in 1949, Coach Adolph Rupp has bolstered his depleted lineups on five occasions by importing immediate help in the form of junior college standouts. When the latest transfers, Vince Del Negro of Northeast Mississippi and Doug Pendygraft of Lindsey Wilson (Kentucky), don Wildcat uniforms this season, they will become the sixth and seventh JC boys to play at Kentucky. Roger Layne, a 6-7 center from Magnolia (Ark.) A&M, was the first back in 1950 as a relief man for seven-foot soph Bill Spivey. After that came another 6-7 pivotman, Bob Burrow of Lon Morris (Texas) JC, who filled the shoes of graduated Cliff Hagan to the extent that he too became an All-America. His production in 1955 and '56 of 1,025 points in 51 games as a Wildcat still stands as the best performance by a JC boy. Next in line in 1957 was 6-0 guard Adrian Smith, a native Kentuckian who spent his first two years at Northeast Mississippi. Smitty helped UK win its fourth NCAA title in 1958 and last summer starred as an Army member of the USA Olympic Team. Two years ago, a pair of guards named Cohen and Coffman came on the scene as replacements for the graduated Smith and All-America Vernon Hatton. Sid Cohen, a Brooklynite whom Rupp spotted in service ball during a European clinic, prepped at Kilgore (Texas) JC while Bennie Coffman came in from Lindsey Wilson JC of Columbia, Ky.

Eighth Annual
U.K. INVITATIONAL TOURNAMENT
Memorial Coliseum — December 21-22, 1960

First Night: California vs. St. Louis—7:30 p.m. EST

Kentucky vs. Illinois—Apx. 9:30 p.m. EST

Second Night: Consolation Game (first night losers)—7:30 p.m. EST

Championship Game—Approximately 9:30 p.m. EST

Bidding to improve on a reputation as the nation's most prestige-packed regular season tournament—as well as the most lucrative, the eighth annual University of Kentucky Invitational Tournament this winter will pair four major cage powers figured to be in the forefront of battling for the national championship at season's end.

Participants will include California's Bears, runner-up for the NCAA title last March; powerful Illinois of the Big Ten; always-rough St. Louis of the Missouri Valley Conference, only repeater from last year's tourney among the visitors; and the host Kentucky Wildcats, representing the Southeastern Conference.

Pairings for the opening night of the classic pit California against St. Louis in the first game and Kentucky against Illinois in the night-cap. On the second night, first round losers meet in a consolation preliminary while the winners square off for the imposing tournament trophy in the championship game.

UK Athletic Director Bernie Shively, the tournament manager, regards the 1960 UKIT field as the most evenly matched in the history of the cage extravaganza inaugurated in 1953. "There does not appear to be any obvious favorite among the teams," he says. "Each club reports pre-season expectations as promising with predominantly young and colorful outfits that are due to rank among the best in their section of the country."

Only California, who suffered a heart-breaking loss to Ohio State in the NCAA finals last season, will be a complete newcomer to the tournament. Illinois lost to Kentucky in the 1956 championship game while the Billikens of St. Louis became the 15th different participant as they took third place in last year's UKIT.

The Bears of Cal could be the team to beat in the UKIT and nationally this year. Despite the loss of big Darrall Imhoff from the 1959-60 club that compiled a 28-2 record, they are generally regarded as "the best in the West" again and a major national threat. A new coach, Rene Herrerias, will be at the helm.

St. Louis Returns 6-10 Bevo Nordmann

The St. Louis team that faces the Bears in the UKIT opener returns its big man of last season, 6-10 Bevo Nordmann, plus three other ace lettermen who helped post a 19-8 mark in the 1959-60 campaign and gain third in the Missouri Valley. With a good freshman unit to draw on, Coach John Bennington is not expected to be found wanting as he tries again for the UKIT title that escaped the Bills when West Virginia's eventual champs upended them in the opening game last December.

Third in the Big Ten last year behind Ohio State and Indiana, Illinois (16-7) is starting virtually from scratch, personnel-wise, this season with only 6-7 John Wessells returning. But Coach Harry Combes is not moaning as he anticipates the presence of at least four top-flight, hungry sophs who may more than offset the losses.

Kentucky's Adolph Rupp, who owns four titles in the name of his Wildcats from the first seven UKIT classics, is cautiously optimistic over chances of improving on last season's adversity-plagued, 18-7 mark. Both the caution and optimism stem from the physical condition of All-America candidate Bill Lickert and others on the injury-sick list last year and the untested status of a pair of All-America junior college imports.

Barring an unexpected decline in interest, the 1960 UKIT should attract another sellout crowd for the two nights of action and be worth approximately $15,000 to competing teams as the net gate is split into equal shares. Another national record was set last year when the payoff reached $15,420.35 per club as 22,713 fans crowded into spacious Memorial Coliseum.

The experts are hopeful, too, that there will be no decline in the national prestige of the tournament. Reflecting this prestige is the fact that in two out of the past three years, the UKIT winner has vaulted to the top spot in wire service polls and done well during the remainder of the season.

(Kentucky's home floor winning streak started against Ft. Knox on Jan. 4, 1943, following a loss to Ohio State two nights earlier. Before Ga. Tech snapped the string, the Wildcats had posted a national record 129 consecutive victories. All told, since the Ohio State loss, the Ruppmen have won 200 and lost only nine at home. Since Memorial Coliseum became the home floor at the start of the 1950-51 season, the record is 116-9.)

KENTUCKY IN THE SEC

(Perhaps the greatest supremacy enjoyed by any team in any sport is reflected by Kentucky's basketball success in the Southeastern Conference since 1933. Against SEC teams, UK has annexed a record of 305 victories and lost only 38—a winning average of nearly 90 per cent. They have annexed 19 league championships and own over 60 team and individual records from regular season and tournament play. Only Tennessee (1936, 1941, 1943-45) and Georgia Tech (1955) can boast of beating the Wildcats two in a row. Kentucky's record against SEC teams since 1933 is shown below.)

Scouting Reports

First Game—V. M. I. at Lexington—Thurs., Dec. 1

Site—Memorial Coliseum (11,500)      Tipoff—8:00 p.m. EST
Nickname—Keydets      Colors—Red-White-Yellow
Location—Lexington, Va.      Enrollment—1,050
Publicist—Dick Sessoms      Conference—Southern
Ath. Dir.—T. W. Gray      Series—UK Won 1, VMI Won 2
1959-60 Record—W 4, L 16      Last Game—UK 38, VMI 25 in '26
(Conf. Finish—7th)

COACH—Louis (Weenie) Miller (2 Years—Won 13, Lost 20)

Offense—Single Post, Fast Break      Defense—Man-to-Man, Zone
Chief losses—Roy Quinn (G) 13.1, Jerry Lawson (F) 3.3
Top returnees—Norm Halberstadt (6-2 F-G) 18.6, leading scorer, Joe Gedro (6-4 C) 13.5, George Lazaroff (5-11 G) 12.4

OUTLOOK: Keydets are not likely to outdo powerful West Virginia for sectional honors, but they "shoot a hot stick" all too often for anybody to take them lightly. Hopes of a good offense offsetting lack of board strength rest to large degree on 6-2 Norm Halberstadt. VMI will be bucking a jinx that has prevented any season opening opponent topping Kentucky since 1926.

Second Game—FLORIDA STATE at Lexington—Sat., Dec. 3

Site—Memorial Coliseum (11,500)      Tipoff—8:00 p.m. EST
Nickname—Seminoles      Colors—Garnet and Gold
Location—Tallahassee, Fla.      Enrollment—8,982
Publicist—Pat Hogan      Conference—Independent
Ath. Dir.—Vaughn Mancha      Series—UK Won 1, FSU Won 0
1959-60 Record—W 10, L 15      Last Game—UK 91, FSU 68 in '58

COACH—J. K. (Bud) Kennedy (12 Years—Won 148, Lost 145)

Offense—Variations Drake and Auburn Shuffle
Defense—Straight Man for Man
Chief losses—John Richter (C) 10.8; Jim Savage (G) 6.5; Fred Woodward (G) 8.1
Top returnees—Dave Fedor (6-6 F), 21.1, MVP Gator Bowl Tourn.;
Charles Long (6-4 F) 24.4 as Jr.

OUTLOOK: Seminoles face toughest schedule ever with squad expected to be best in 13-year cage history of school. Four starters return as experienced juniors and will have support from best soph contingent FSU has had. Chief worry facing Bud Kennedy is rebounding strength.

Third Game—NOTRE DAME at Louisville—Wed., Dec. 7

Site—Freedom Hall (18,500)	Tipoff—8:00 p.m. CST
Nickname—Fighting Irish	Colors—Gold and Blue
Location—South Bend, Ind.	Enrollment—6,396
Publicist—Charlie Callahan	Conference—Independent
Ath. Dir.—Edward W. Krause	Series—UK Won 10, ND Won 11
1959-60 Record—W 17, L 9	Last Game—UK 68, ND 65 in '60

COACH—John Jordan (9 Years—Won 153, Lost 78)

Offense—1-3-1 (Double Pivot)

Defense—Zone and Shifting Man-to-Man

Chief losses—Mike Graney (F) 17.3; Emmett McCarthy (F) 14.3

Top returnees—John Dearie (6-6 C) 13.0; Eddie Schnurr (6-0 G) 9.0;
Capt. Bill Crosby (6-4 G) 5.1

OUTLOOK: For the second year in a row, Coach Johnny Jordan will be missing his big star but this time the overall losses are not so severe and re-building work may have the Irish clicking again. Key operatives in the rugged Notre Dame youth movement should be 6-6 junior center John Dearie and Kentuckian Eddie Schnurr, late developing former Louisville St. Xavier star.

Fourth Game—NORTH CAROLINA at Greensboro, N. C.— Tuesday, Dec. 13

Site—Memorial Coliseum (9,000)	Tipoff—8:00 p.m. EST
Nickname—Tar Heels	Colors—Blue and White
Location—Chapel Hill, N. C.	Enrollment—8,500
Publicist—Jake Wade	Conference—Atlantic Coast
Ath. Dir.—C. P. Erickson	Series—UK won 2, NC Won 3
1959-60 Record—W 18, L 6 (Co-Champs ACC Reg. Season)	Last Game—UK 76, NC 70 in '59

COACH—Frank McGuire (8 Years—Won 145, Lost 54)

Offense—Fast Break, Tandem Defense—Point Zone and Man-to-Man
Chief losses—Lee Shaffer (F) 18.2; Harvey Salz (G) 13.0; Ray Stanley
(F) 9.1

Top returnees—Doug Moe (6-5 F) All-ACC '59, 16.8 (2nd ACC);
York Larese (6-4 G) All-ACC '59 & '60, 15.7; Dick Kepley (6-8 C)
injured '60

OUTLOOK: The Tar Heels will have strong competition in their own section from Duke and Wake Forest, but Coach McGuire is hopeful of bettering last season's 18-6 record that gave them a regular season tie with Wake Forest for the ACC title and 14th place finish nationally. Size and a couple of operatives named Moe and Larese should offset loss of five men off first two teams.

Fifth Game—TEMPLE at Philadelphia—Sat., Dec. 17

Site—Palestra (9,200)

Nickname—Owls

Location—Philadelphia, Pa.

Publicist—Al Shrier

Ath. Dir.—Ernest Casale

1959-60 Record—W 17, L 9
(Conf. finish—Third)

Tipoff—9:15 p.m. EST

Colors—Cherry and White

Enrollment—4,971

Conference—Middle Atlantic

Series—UK Won 12, TU Won 3

Last Game—UK 97, TU 92 in '59

COACH—Harry Litwack (8 Years—Won 141, Lost 76)

Offense—Set Pattern and Fast Break

Defense—Zone and Man-to-Man

Chief loss—Bill Kennedy (G) 22.2

Top returnees—Bruce Drysdale (5-10 G) 14.7 as soph; Russ Gordon
(6-4½ C) 9.7, best rebounder

OUTLOOK: The absence of fine playmaker Bill (Pickles) Kennedy will be felt, but the surprising Owls return their other four 1959-60 starters who gained much experience in winning the Keystone Holiday Tournament and losing to Dayton in the NIT. Cigar-chewing Coach Litwack, with eight successful seasons behind him, worries most about a lack of height. Assets are speed, good shooting and fine soph crop headed by Gary Kasmer.

U.K. INVITATIONAL TOURNAMENT

Wed. and Thurs., Dec. 21-22

Site All Games—Memorial Coliseum (11,500)

Tipoff Times—7:30 and Apx. 9:30 p.m. EST Both Nights

CALIFORNIA

(Meets St. Louis Opening Night)

Nickname—Golden Bears

Colors—Blue and Gold

Location—Berkeley, Calif.

Enrollment—20,000

Publicist—Wiles Hallock

Conference—AAWU (Big Five)

Ath. Dir.—Pete Newell

Series—No Games

1959-60 Record—W 28, L 2

Last Game—No Meeting

(Conf. finish—First)

UKIT Record—No Participation

COACH—Rene Herrerias (First Year)

Offense—Controlled, Patterned

Defense—Pressing, Switching Man-to-Man

Chief losses—Darrell Imhoff (C) 13.7; Tandy Gillis (F) 9.6

Top returnees—Bill McClintock (6-4½ F) All-AAWU 12.0; Earl Shultz (6-4½ F) All-AAWU 9.4; Dave Staford (6-3 F); Bobby Wendell (5-9 G) 4.9

OUTLOOK: Four tournament-tested veterans, led by a pair of All-America prospects, are charged with the unenviable task of carrying on in the pattern of the past four Bear cage outfits. That pattern has been victory. California has won 93 and lost only 20 over the last four seasons—annexing four conference championships, the NCAA title in 1959 and national second place last year. A new coach will be at the helm as Rene Herrerias replaces Pete Newell, "Coach of the Year" and tutor of the world champion USA Olympic cage squad. Little change is expected in the trademark of controlled, patterned offensive play and sticky-handed defensive tactics.

ST. LOUIS

(Meets California Opening Night)

Nickname—Billikens	Colors—Royal Blue and White
Location—St. Louis, Mo.	Enrollment—7,960
Publicist—Gloria Clark	Conference—Missouri Valley
Ath. Dir.—Bob Stewart	Series—UK Won 5, SLU Won 5
1959-60 Record—W 19, L 8 (Conf. finish—Third)	Last Game—SLU 73, UK 61 in '59

UKIT Record—Won 1, Lost 1 in 1959

COACH—John Bennington (4 Years—Won 60, Lost 42)

Offense—Single Post, Balanced Pattern

Defense—Switching Man-to-Man

Chief losses—Pete McCaffrey (F) 15.4, George Burkel (R)

Top returnees—Bevo Nordman (6-10 C), leading scorer (16.3) and rebounder (14.6); Gordon Hartweger (6-4 F)

OUTLOOK: Coach Bennington's thinking revolves around 6-10, 275-pound roadblock Bob (Bevo) Nordmann. After that, he has "problems" of deciding on a starting group from among a depth-rich squad that will include three other ace lettermen who aided the Bills to a 19-8 record last season and third place in the Missouri Valley. Tom Kieffer, a deadly shooting 6-3 junior, is moving over from guard to forward to help make the choice easier along the six-deep back line. Incumbents Glen Mankowski and George Latinovich appear to have inside track at guard posts. Due to relieve brother Bevo in the pivot or possibly hold down a forward job is 6-7 sophomore Bill Nordmann. Up from a talented frosh squad are at least three who should help, headed by Dave Harris—who scored 45 points in one game last year.

ILLINOIS

(Meets Kentucky Opening Night)

Nickname—Fighting Illini	Colors—Orange and Blue
Location—Champaign, Ill.	Enrollment—21,427
Publicist—Charles Bellatti	Conference—Big Ten
Ath. Dir.—Doug Mills	Series—UK Won 6, UI Won 2
1959-60 Record—W 16, L 7 (Conf. finish—Tied Third)	Last Game—UK 76, UI 75 in '58

UKIT Record—Won 1, Lost 1 in 1956

COACH—Harry Combes (13 Years—Won 217, Lost 80)

Offense—Pivot-Post
Chief losses—Gov Vaughn (F) 17.9, leading scorer and rebounder;
Mannie Jackson (G) 16.4 second scorer
Top returnees—John Wessels (6-7 G) 11.1

OUTLOOK: Only one starting member (6-7 center John Wessels) returns from the Combes Combo that showed a 16-7 mark for 1959-60 campaigning and the Fighting Illini are reputed to be a year away in their bid to return to power. However, Coach Combes readily admits to the presence of at least four top-flight, hungry sophomores who might easily turn Illinois into one of the nation's best darkhorse crews. Tops among the new faces is Billy Burwell, a 6-8, 243-pound giant rated as one of the finest prospects to come out of New York City in a long time. Illinois faces Kentucky's Wildcats in the UKIT first round with the knowledge no Illini outfit has ever beaten UK in tournament play. Twice (1949 and '52) Kentucky has used wins over Illinois as the stepping stone to national titles and beat them for the championship in their only UKIT appearance four years ago.

KENTUCKY

(Details Elsewhere In Brochure)

UKIT Record—Won 11, Lost 3 in Seven Appearances
Meets Illinois Opening Night

Eighth Game—MISSOURI at Lexington—Sat., Dec. 31

Site—Memorial Coliseum (11,500)	Tipoff—8:00 p.m. EST
Nickname—Tigers	Colors—Black and Gold
Location—Columbia, Mo.	Enrollment—11,000
Publicist—Bill Callahan	Conference—Big Eight
Ath. Dir.—Don Faurot	Series—no Games
1959-60 Record—W 12, L 13 (Conf. finish—Sixth)	Last Game—No Meeting

COACH—Wilbur Stalcup (14 Years—Won 175, Lost 150)

Offense—Single Post, Fat Break
Chief losses—Al Abram (C) 7.0, Cliff Talley (F) 5.4
Top returnees—Charlie Henke (6-7 C) 19.3; Joe Scott (6-4 G) 18.4

OUTLOOK: In their first meeting in history with the UK Wildcats on New Year's Eve, the Tigers figure to be the ones who will be celebrating. There's high hope in the Missouri camp for definite improvement over their ragged, 12-13 record of last year since losses were light and returnees include the best 1-2 scoring punch in the Big Eight—6-7 Charlie Henke and 6-4 outside shooter Joe Scott.

Ninth Game—MIAMI (Ohio) at Lexington—Mon., Jan. 2

Site—Memorial Coliseum (11,500)	Tipoff—8:00 p.m. EST
Nickname—Redskins	Colors—Red and White
Location—Oxford, Ohio	Enrollment—6,937
Publicist—Bob Kurz	Conference—Mid-American
Ath. Dir.—John Brickels	Series—UK Won 8, MU Won 4
1959-60 Record—W 8, L 16 (Conf. finish—Tied Third)	Last Game—UK 94, MU 70 in '58

COACH—Dick Shrider (3 Years—Won 40, Lost 36)

Offense—Single Pivot	Defense—Zone, Man-to-Man
Chief losses—Herb Rowan (F) 12.4, Jim Hamilton (G) 11.8
Top returnees—Vern Lawson (6-4 F) 15.8 leading scorer; Dave Zeller (6-0 G) 12.9 second All-Conference

OUTLOOK: Despite loss of two of top three scorers, the Redskins are looking forward to improvement with a generally experienced unit on hand. Leading offensive threat again will be 6-4 forward Vern Lawson and guard Dave Zeller is an ace playmaker. Rebounding strength, a problem last season, should be better. Miami holds distinction of being oldest still-active foe in UK cage history.

GEORGIA TECH

Tenth Game—at Lexington—Sat., Jan. 7

Fifteenth Game—at Atlanta—Mon., Jan. 30

Sites—Mem. Coliseum (11,500) (Lexington)	Tipoff—8 p.m. EST
Alexander Mem. Coliseum (6,966) (Atlanta)	Tipoff—8 p.m. EST
Nickname—Yellow Jackets	Colors—White and Old Gold

Publicist—Ned West	Conference—Southeastern
Ath. Dir.—Bobby Dodd	Series—UK Won 45, GT Won 9
1959-60 Record—W 22, L 6 (Conf. finish—Second)	Last Games—GT 62-54, 65-44 in 1959-60

COACH—John (Whack) Hyder (9 Years—Won 110, Lost 112)

Offense—Single Post, Controlled Break      Defense—Man-to-Man
Chief losses—Dave Denton (F) 15.0, Bobby Dews (G) 8.8, Jim Riley
(C) 3.9

Top returnees—Roger Kaiser (6-1 G) 22.8 SEC top scorer '60, All-
America; Wayne Richards (6-7 F) 8.9

OUTLOOK: Although three starters departed, Coach Whack Hyder has reason to be optimistic with All-America Roger Kaiser—the SEC's top scorer—still around. Bolstering the chances of Kentucky's new nemesis (Tech beat UK twice last season) to gain the loop title that barely escaped them a year ago are five other capable veterans plus seven sophs and a transfer junior. Best of the youngsters is 6-6 center Alan Nass while the transfer, from Kansas via the Marines, is 6-4 forward Roger Casida.

VANDERBILT

Eleventh Game—at Nashville—Mon., Jan. 9

Twenty-first Game—at Lexington—Tues., Feb. 21

Sites—Memorial Gym (7,324) (Nashville)      Tipoff—8:15 p.m. CST

Memorial Coliseum (11,500) (Lexington)      Tipoff—8:00 p.m. EST

Nickname—Commodores      Colors—Black and Gold

Location—Nashville, Tenn.      Enrollment—3,562

(Conf. finish—Tied Sixth)      in 1959-60

COACH—Bob Polk (13 Years—Won 178, Lost 101)

Offense—Shuffle, Controlled Break      Defense—Man-to-Man

Chief losses—Ben Rowan (F) 11.4, Jack Pirrie (C) 7.6

Top returnees—Bill Depp (6-7 C) 12.5, All-SEC; Bobby Bland (5-10 G)

OUTLOOK: Vandy is past the stage of relying on sophomores and should be stronger in '61 despite the loss of Ben Rowan, best rebounder and defender, and absence of leading scorer Bill Johnson.
Better outside play should develop with starting guard Bobby Bland back in the fold and All-Conference center Bill Depp also is still around to help in scoring and board sweeping. The Commodores will miss Johnson, who is laying out of competition this season while recovering from pneumonia.

Twelfth Game—LOUISIANA STATE at Baton Rouge— Friday, Jan. 13

Site—Parker Ag Center (8,500)      Tipoff—7:00 p.m. CST

1959-60 Record—W 5, L 18      Last Game—UK 77, LSU 45 in '60
(Conf. finish—Tied Eleventh)

COACH—Jay McCreary (5 Years—Won 47, Lost 61)

Offense—Single Pivot, Fast Break      Defense—Man-to-Man
Chief losses—Dick Davies (G) 12.4, Joe Clune (F) 10.7
Top returnees—George Nattin (6-0 G) 13.5, Tom Conklin (6-10 C) 6.9

OUTLOOK: If the sophomore crop comes through as Coach Jay McCreary is anticipating, the Tigers could be an improved lot this winter. With the team's top veteran, Guard George Nattin, able to register only a 13.5 scoring average last year, help must come from such youngsters as 6-2 forward Bobby Fetter and 6-0 guard Ellis Cooper. Letterman center Tom Conklin (6-10) has shown improvement, but general inexperience and tough card are obvious handicaps. LSU has never beaten Kentucky.

Thirteenth Game—TULANE at New Orleans—Sat., Jan. 14

Site—Tulane Gym (5,500)      Tipoff—8:15 p.m. CST
Nickname—Green Wave      Colors—Green and Blue
Location—New Orleans, La.      Enrollment—5,000
Publicist—Charley Thornton      Conference—Southeastern
Ath. Dir.—To be filled      Series—UK Won 32, T Won 4
1959-60 Record—W 13, L 11      Last Game—UK 68, T 42 in '60
(Conf. finish—Tied Fourth)

COACH—Cliff Wells, (15 Years—Won 229, Lost 127)

Offense—Single Post, Fast Break and Pattern
Defense—Man-to-Man
Chief losses—Vic Klinker (F) 14.8, Dave O'Brien (G) 10.3
Top returnees—Jack Ardon (6-9 C) 15.1, SEC Soph of Year

OUTLOOK: Tulane has never won the SEC title, but the experts are pointing to the perennial darkhorse as a force to be reckoned with again on the strength of outstanding Jack Ardon. The loop's "Sophomore of the Year" for 1960 should be even better as a junior and help is expected from soph Jim Kerwin, a 6-3 forward. Assistance in the Greenies' drive also is due from vets Gus Wenzel, Bob March and Rex Krider.

TENNESSEE

Fourteenth Game—at Lexington—Sat., Jan. 21
Twenty-fourth Game—at Knoxville—Sat., March 4

Sites—Mem. Coliseum (11,500) (Lexington)	Tipoff—8 p.m. EST
Armory-Fieldhouse (7,500) (Knoxville)	Tipoff—8:30 p.m. EST
Nickname—Volunteers	Colors—Orange and White
Location—Knoxville, Tenn.	Enrollment—10,000
Publicist—Gus Manning	Conference—Southeastern
Ath. Dir.—Gen. R. R. Neyland	Series—UK Won 76, UT Won 29
1959-60 Record—W 12, L 11 (Conf. finish—Tied Sixth)	Last Games—UK 78-68, UT 65-63 in 1959-60

COACH—Johnny Sines (1 Year—Won 12, Lost 11)

Offense—Single Post, Fast Break	Defense—Man-to-Man
Chief loss—Dalen Showalter (6-6 C), All-SEC
Top returnees—Glenn Campbell (6-1 G) 13.3, Bobby Carter (6-0 G) 11.7, Eddie Test (6-3 F) 9.8

OUTLOOK: Experience will be the big factor in the Volunteers' surge for a look-in on the conference title picture as Coach Johnny Sines starts his second season. Big gun Dalen Showalter, a two-time All-SEC selection, will be sorely missed at forward, but still around are tested starters Glenn Campbell, Bobby Carter, Eddie Test and Dick Fisher plus five other lettermen and a good soph group topped by Steve Van Antwerp. Sophs will provide size to go with other's experience and, if defense holds up, Tennessee must rate at least darkhorse consideration.

Sixteenth Game—FLORIDA at Lexington—Sat., Feb. 4

Site—Memorial Coliseum (11,500) Tipoff—8:00 p.m. EST
Nickname—Gators Colors—Orange and Blue
Location—Gainesville, Fla. Enrollment—13,000
Publicist—Jimmy Gay Conference—Southeastern
Ath. Dir.—Ray Graves Series—UK Won 17, UF Won 1
1959-60 Record—W 6, L 16 Last Game—UK 75, UF 62 in '60

COACH—Norm Sloan (First Year at UF)

Offense—Single Pivot Defense—Man-to-Man
Chief losses—Bob Sherwood (F) 13.9; Walt Rabhan (F) 8.1
Top returnees—Bob Shiver (6-2 G) 17.5; George Jung (6-7 F) 8.2

OUTLOOK: Norm Sloan has moved in from The Citadel to take over for 31-year veteran Johnny Mauer, but there's no indication the "New Deal" will pay off this year. Three of last year's top five scorers will be missing and the club generally is a youthful bunch. Heading the prospective stars list this season are Bobby Shiver, leading point producer a year ago with a 17.5 average, and six-foot guard Lou Merchant, who scored at a 30-points-per-game clip in the service last year.

Seventeenth Game—GEORGIA at Lexington—Tues., Feb. 7

Site—Memorial Coliseum (11,500) Tipoff—8:00 p.m. EST
Nickname—Bulldogs Colors—Red and Black
Location—Athen, Ga. Enrollment—7,200
Publicist—Dan Magill Conference—Southeastern
Ath. Dir.—Wallace Butts Series—UK Won 29, Ga. Won 6
1959-60 Record—W 12, L 13 Last Game—UK 84, Ga. 60 in '60
(Conf. finish—Eighth)

COACH—Harbin (Red) Lawson (9 Years—Won 67, Lost 158)

Offense—Fast Break Defense—Man-to-Man
Chief Losses—Peter Marsh (6-9 C), Clark Royer (6-3 F-G)
Top returnees—Phil Simpson (6-5 F) 14.2, Allan Johnson (5-10 G),
Gordon Darrah (6-2 G)

OUTLOOK: Losses included no key operatives and opponents know Coach Red Lawson will have a scrapping unit on the floor again.

With a year's experience under their belts, the Bulldogs could be rougher than a year ago when they were one of two SEC teams to beat Auburn's champs. Pacing the attack is Phil Simpson, who scored at a 14.2 clip last season, and the height department is taken care of by 6-7 veteran center John Johnson. Two swift and sure guards, Allan Johnson and Gordon Darrah, also return.

Eighteenth Game—MISSISSIPPI at Jackson—Sat., Feb. 11

Site—City Auditorium (3,000)	Tipoff—8:00 p.m. CST
Nickname—Rebels	Colors—Cardinal & Navy Blue
Location—Oxford, Miss.	Enrollment—Apx. 4,300
Publicist—Billy Gates	Conference—Southeastern
Ath. Dir.—C. M. Smith	Series—UK Won 22, UM Won 2
1959-60 Record—W 15, L 9 (Conf. finish—Tied Fourth)	Last Game—UK 61, OM 43 in '60

COACH—B. L. (Country) Graham (10 Years—Won 120, Lost 129)

Offense—Single and Double Post, Fast Break

Defense—Zone and Man-to-Man

Chief losses—Ivan Richmann (6-7 C) 14.8, John King (6-2 G) 6.0

Top returnees—Jack Waters (6-4 G) 19.5, All-SEC; Sterling Ainsworth (6-6½ F) 12.8

OUTLOOK: Last season's Johnny Reb cagers, tallest outfit in the SEC, zoomed all the way from a cellar finish in 1959 to tie for fourth. Coach Country Graham will miss some of his height this year unless some new giants show up, but shed no tears as returnees include All-SEC Jack Waters, the loop's second best point producer last winter, and 6-6½ Sterling Ainsworth, who is equally at home as a forward or pivot man. Ole Miss, which was one of only two SEC teams to stop SEC champion Auburn, could be troublesome again.

Nineteenth Game—MISSISSIPPI STATE at State College—
Monday, Feb. 13

Site—State Gym (5,000)	Tipoff—8:00 p.m. CST
Nickname—Maroons	Colors—Maroon and White
Location—State College, Miss.	Enrollment—4,600
Publicist—Bob Hartley	Conference—Southeastern
Ath. Dir.—Wade Walker	Series—UK Won 22, MS Won 4
1959-60 Record—W 12, L 13 (Conf. finish—Ninth)	Last Game—UK 90, MS 59 in '60

COACH—Babe McCarthy (5 Years—Won 85, Lost 39)

Offense—Single Post, Fast Break

Defense—Zone and Man-to-Man

Chief losses—Charlie Hull (6-4 F) 15.1, John Hutchinson (6-1 G) 4.7

Top returnees—Jerry Graves (6-6 C) 18.6, Dave Glasgow (6-5 F) 9.8

OUTLOOK: Sorely missing their departed star, Bailey Howell, the defending SEC champion Maroons could muster only a ninth place finish and 12-13 overall mark last season. But this year could be different for a couple of reasons: First, Coach Babe McCarthy will have the services of all but two lettermen—including All-SEC Jerry Graves. Then there were disturbing rumors about the prowess of the Maroons' freshman team of last season which went undefeated in 21 games. Graves was third in SEC scoring with 465 points.

Twentieth Game—U. C. L. A. at Lexington—Fri., Feb. 17

Site—Memorial Coliseum (11,500)	Tipoff—8:00 p.m. EST
Nickname—Bruins	Colors—Navy Blue and Gold
Location—Los Angeles, Calif.	Enrollment—17,300
Publicist—Vic Kelley	Conference—AAWU (Big Five)
Ath. Dir.—Wilbur Johns	Series—UK Won 2, UCLA Won 0
1959-60 Record—W 14, L 12 (Conf. finish—Second)	Last Game—UK 68, UCLA 66 in '59

COACH—John Wooden (14 Years—Won 277, Lost 111)

Offense—Modified Fast Break

Defense—Man-to-Man

Chief losses—Kent Miller (6-6 F-C) 8.8, Cliff Brandon (5-10 G) 4.4

Top returnees—John Green (6-3 F-G) 10.2, John Berberich (6-8 C) 9.5

OUTLOOK: UCLA has never had a losing season under Johnny Wooden and doesn't expect to start in 1960-61. The Bruins figure to be a more experienced and better balanced club than the one that scared Kentucky on the Coast last year. The squad will be built around eight returning lettermen, headed by guard John Green (6-3) and center John Berberich (6-8) who were 1-2 in scoring. Top newcomer is Ron Lawson (6-4 F-G), who averaged 24.5 as a yearling.

Twenty-second Game—ALABAMA at Lexington—Sat., Feb. 27

Site—Memorial Coliseum (11,500)      Tipoff—8:00 p.m. EST

Ath. Dir.—Paul Bryant                        Series—UK Won 38, UA Won 9
1959-60 Record—W 7, L 17                  Last Game—UK 75, UA 55 in '60
(Conf. finish—Tenth)

COACH—Hayden Riley (First Year as Head Coach)

Offense—Double Post, Fast Break

Defense—Man-to-Man and Zone

Chief losses—Porter Powers (6-1 G) 15.8, Lloyd Johnson (6-4 F) 8.3

Top returnees—Larry Pennington (6-4 F) 11.5, Henry Hoskins (6-6 C) 9.4

OUTLOOK: The Tide have a new head man in the person of Hayden Riley, moving up from an assistant's role to replace Dr. Eugene Lambert—who returned to Memphis State as Athletic Director. Riley likely will have an improved unit, but hardly a title contender unless unexpected help develops for forward Larry Pennington—himself only a 11.5 scorer last season. Top-scoring guard Porter Powers (15.8) has departed along with forward starter Lloyd Johnson.

Twenty-third Game—AUBURN at Lexington—Mon., Feb. 27

Site—Memorial Coliseum (11,500)      Tipoff—8:00 p.m. EST
Nickname—Tigers                              Colors—Orange and Blue

Ath. Dir.—Jeff Beard                         Series—UK Won 14, A Won 2
1959-60 Record—W 19 L 3                  Last Game—A 61, UK 60 in '60
(Conf. finish—First)

COACH—Joel Eaves (11 Years—Won 162, Lost 79)

Offense—Shuffle

Defense—Man-to-Man

Chief loss—Henry Hart (6-1 G) 15.5, All-SEC

Top returnees—Porter Gilbert (6-1 G) 11.4, Jimmy Fibbe (6-3 F) 12.3

OUTLOOK: The loss of stellar guard Henry Hart cannot be interpreted as cutting out the heart of Auburn's first SEC championship team in history. Coach Joel (Snow White) Eaves, a gracious loser on only three occasions last year, still has the other six members of his "Seven Dwarfs" and should be a favorite to make it two titles in a row. Center Jim Fibbie and guard Ray Groover pitched in 39 points between them in the spine-tingling, one-point conquest of Kentucky at Auburn late last season.

Twenty-fifth Game—MARQUETTE at Chicago—Sat., Mar. 11

Site—Chicago Stadium (19,440)

Tipoff—9:40 p.m. CST

Nickname—Warriors

Colors—Blue and Gold

Location—Milwaukee, Wis.

Enrollment—10,746

Publicist—Bob Harlan

Conference—Independent

Ath. Dir.—Laurence Mullins

Series—UK Won 4, M Won 1

1959-60 Record—W 13, L 12

Last Game—UK 98, M 69 in '59

COACH—Eddie Hickey (22 Years—Won 380, Lost 179)

Offense—Single Pivot, Fast Break

Defense—Man-to-Man

Chief losses—Walt Mangham (F) 17.3, Jim Kollar (G) 10.4, Jim Kersten (C) 8.1

Top returnee—Don Kojis (6-5 F) 20.9, Catholic All-America

OUTLOOK: One of only two still-active coaches able to boast of besting Adolph Rupp at least four times in his career, old rival Eddie Hickey (6-9 against the Baron) can call on All-America Don Kojis and an outstanding group of sophs as he tries for win number seven this season. The latest regular season windup in UK history will find the Wildcats facing that tallest Warrior outfit ever. Outstanding among sophs are 6-7 Dave Erickson and 6-8 Len Jefferson.
