

In the case of Mr. L. N. Taylor there was a conflict of interest { matter was referred to the Dean for adjustment.
 some of his students and Mr. X } On motion the faculty adjourned.

approved Nov. 26th

J. W. Boyer Sec.

November 26th 1901.

The Scientific Faculty met in the Botanical Lecture Room at 4 p.m. with the following present. Prof. White, Mr. Kenzie, Miller, Pence, Mathews, White and Boyer.

The standing of the following students was discussed. Imper Bitterman, A. Hebler, Lyne, McCauliffe, Moore, Nani, Whitfield, Thurman, Waller, Wallis, and Watkins, and Miss Denny, Harne, Griffing, E. B. Kelley, Orley, Pord, Pulman, Schaeffer, Taley and Hubbard.

There being no other business the faculty adjourned.

J. W. Boyer Sec.

approved Jan. 24th 1902

Jan 24th 1902.

The Scientific Faculty met in the Botanical Lecture Room at 4 p.m. with the following present. Prof. White, Mathews, Miller, Pence, Mr. Kenzie and Boyer.

Mr. Botts was reported sick and would not be able to resume his duties this session. Mr. Pullman's work in English was reported as unsatisfactory. Imper A. B. Hebler and Mr. Smith were doing poor work in their classes. The general standing of all Scientific students was discussed. On motion the faculty adjourned.

J. W. Boyer Sec.