My Son - Didn't get the mail to day Ray forgot to take my keys, I am just hoping I have a letter in the bag from you. I wrote you just after lunch to day but never did get it to the P. O. Ray and I cut the yard and Judy and I took Bill, Sue, Betty & Dwight down the railroad to the river to play awhile Judy & I waded knee deep while they played in the water. It was 4 o'clock by the time we got home, and Judy and I had been trying to find a time to have Uncle Henry for a meal and I decided to night would be as good a time as any so I made a pot roast cooked macaroni and had jam cake with sauce and ice cream and of course we had tea and slaw. We had a nice supper and served it in the
