CLIS SERIALS CONFERENCE

The College of Library and Information Science will sponsor a one-day conference for academic librarians with the topic "Serials: Problems and Prospects." The conference will be held Friday, February 9th from 9:30 to 3:30 on the UK campus. Principal speakers will be Dr. Dick Dougherty, ALA President-elect and former Director of Libraries at the Universities of California-Berkeley and Michigan and Jennie Boyarski, Director of the Library at Paducah Community College and former President of the Kentucky Library Association. The registration fee will be $20.00. Additional information and registration materials will be distributed after the first of the year.

DESKTOP PUBLISHING SEMINAR

The Padgett-Thompson Company will be presenting a one-day seminar titled "The Basics of Design Using Desktop Publishing" February 14th from 8:45 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at the Galt House East Hotel in Louisville. The seminar is for anyone who has a desktop publishing system and wants to improve their layout and design skills to produce more professional-looking brochures, documents, ads, forms, and newsletters. Course tuition is $125.00 covering registration, course materials, and refreshments during breaks. For registration or further information, call 1-800-255-4141 or 913-451-2900 or write Padgett-Thompson, P.O. Box 8297, Overland Park, KS 66208. (Submitted by Tari Keller.)
