OUT

A year ago,

the Lady Kat basketball outlook centered on what the team had lost. This year, they're talking about what's coming back.

"I'm definitely more excited about this season than I was last year," Coach Terry Hall says. "We have more experienced players this time and we've got possibly the best bench we've had since my first year here."

That was in 1980-81, before any of the current players were out of high school. For three straight years, teams led by three-time All-American Valerie Still stayed in the Top 20 and entertained thoughts of the Final Four. But Still and the other players Hall inherited are gone now, and for the first time at Kentucky, Hall has a group that was recruited by her alone.

While that exciting fact implies a new era in Lady Kat basketball, Hall readily admits the team's goals are the same as they've always been.

"We want to win 20 games and finish first or second in our (Southeastern Conference) division," she said. "And of course, we want to make the NCAA playoffs."

Carrying much of the team's hopes is All-American candidate Leslie Nichols, a versatile junior forward who led the team in scoring and rebounding last season. At 6-0, Nichols was ranked second in the conference in scoring at 18.4, first in free throw percentage at 82.5 and ninth in field goal percentage at 54.9. She led Kentucky in rebounding (8.0) and steals (64) and was third in assists (80). She was named to the All-Southeastern Conference squad last March.

"Leslie is an all-around player who is capable of doing anything she wants to do," said Hall. "She's among the best in the SEC and can become much better."

Fully recovered from a twice-broken nose, co-captain Leslie Nichols returns as the team's leading scorer and rebounder.

Kentucky returns both of its starting guards. Diane Stephens, the team's most consistent outside scoring threat and the only senior on the squad, hit 49.5 percent of her shots and was second to Nichols in scoring at 12.7. "She's one of the finest shooters in the country," Hall said of the 5-9 Stephens. "I can count on her from 20 feet in and under pressure situations."

Point guard Sandy Harding is also back and the 4-11 sophomore will undoubtedly provide plenty of thrills and excitement for spectators again. "She is one of the best ballhandlers in the country," Hall says. "I haven't seen many better at pushing the ball up and down the court."

Harding led the team in assists with 168 last season and her average of six a game was second best in the SEC. She was second in steals (55) for UK and hit 48 percent of her field goal attempts for 6.4 points a game.

Junior Karen Mosley, who started in 15 games last year, worked exceptionally hard over the summer and could be a key for the Lady Kats. She averaged 12.6 points and 6.6 rebounds, and hit 51.7 percent of her shots as a sophomore. She returns this season stronger and more confident.

"She will be a better rebounder because she's stronger and her mental attitude will be better because she's seen her own improvement," Hall said.

Mosley can play either center or forward, although she played more of the latter last season. "We've still got the same question mark we've had since Valerie Still left, though," says Hall. "Who will be our center?"

If not Mosley, perhaps Debbie Miller, a strong 6-1 sophomore who had some impressive moments off the bench last season. "Debbie is a strong, physical player who is a good shooter and gets very good position on the boards," Hall said.

Sophomores Melanie Warren and Shelly Miller and a class of six freshmen add little experience but big hopes for the squad. Warren is a 6-6 center who added strength and agility over the summer while Miller is a red-shirt who played volleyball two seasons ago at Penn State. "Melanie has improved a lot," Hall said. "And Shelly is a good, strong jumper who plays very well close to the basket."

Guards Nancy Cowan, Monique Tarantini, Belitta Croley and Michele

Pennie and forward Laurie Hudgens and center Michelle Smith constitute a freshman group that Hall describes as a "good crop of freshmen who can all shoot well."

"We'll be looking for a strong contribution from them," she adds.

Again, Kentucky has the dubious honor of playing one of the nation's toughest schedules (last year it was ranked fourth). Thirteen games on the 1984-85 schedule are with opponents who were ranked in the Top 20 last year. The Lady Kats' Nov. 27 game against Ohio State will be played in Rupp Arena in a preliminary to the Wildcats' opener against Toledo.

"Again, the schedule is going to be very challenging for the team," Hall said. "We're excited about playing in Rupp and we've got a good home schedule. This will be a fun season for us."

Midway through the 1983-84 season, Terry Hall became the winningest women's basketball coach in University of Kentucky history. As she enters her fifth season at UK with an 87-32 record, she once again takes aim at high goals, an approach to the game that has made her one of the top coaches in the country today.

Each year Hall expects her Lady Kats to win at least 20 games, and although they fell short of that goal for the first time last season, they have still averaged 22 wins per season since she began coaching at UK in 1980. It is dedication to the task at hand and hard work that has made both Hall and her team a force to be reckoned with throughout the country each year.

Hall's career record is 180-92, with previous stints at Louisville and Eastern Kentucky. In 10 years, her teams have never had a losing season.

"Kentucky is one of the few teams in the country totally dedicated to fast break basketball," Hall says. "We believe that applying immediate pressure to the defensive team is one of the best ways to win a basketball game."

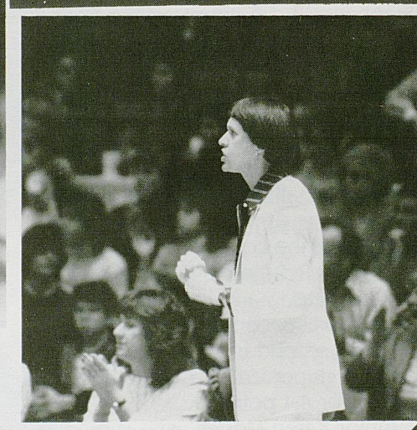

Hall began to establish Kentucky as a national contender in her first season as Lady Kats coach. That year the team had a 25-6 record, won the Kentucky Women's Intercollegiate Conference and reached the final 16 in the AIAW National tournament. As women's basketball moved to the NCAA in 1981-82, the Lady Kats advanced farther into national play, reaching the Midwest Regional finals before losing to eventual NCAA champ Louisiana Tech on the Techsters home floor.

The 1982-83 team rose to new heights as the Lady Kats were ranked fourth nationally and set a new women's basketball attendance record — 10,622 vs. Old Dominion in UK's Memorial Coliseum. The team was upset by Indiana in the first round of the playoffs, but finished with a 23-5 record.

Last season Hall had a very young and inexperienced team that was challenged with the fourth toughest schedule in the nation. The Lady Kats earned respect from their opponents despite their up-and-down season and finished 15-13.

A native of Salem, Ind., Hall earned undergraduate and graduate degrees in Health and P.E. at Indiana State while starring in basketball, field hockey and volleyball. She was honored with the "I" Woman Award in 1965, and received the prestigious Hillman Award in 1966 as the most outstanding female athlete at ISU.

Then she accepted her first coaching job — at Butler High School in Louisville. In five seasons, her Butler teams compiled a 69-33 record and earned two Jefferson County titles.

In 1974, Hall earned her Masters Degree at Eastern Kentucky University and stayed on to coach one season. That Eastern team won the KWIC title with a 14-6 record. From EKU, Hall moved on to

Dr. Otis A. Singletary

President, University of Kentucky

The University of Kentucky has made great strides toward academic excellence since. Dr. Otis A. Singletary assumed the office of president in August, 1969.

Two professional schools—dentistry and pharmacy—have been ranked among the best in the nation. Departments such as political science, history and mathematics have gained national attention. The UK library now ranks among the best in the Southwest and a large portion of the world-wide research related to tobacco and health is now done at UK.

Dr. Singletary had previously served as chancellor at the University of North Carolina, at Greensboro, executive vice chancellor for academics affairs in the University of Texas system and director for the Job Corps for the Office of Economic Opportunity. He holds degrees from Millsaps College and Louisiana State University.

In the 14 years he has been president, the University has grown to more than 23,400 students on the Lexington campus and about 21,000 students in UK's 13 community college, and the University has become one of the major research institutions in the country.

A native of Gulfport, Miss. Dr. Singletary is the author of two books and several monographs. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa Senate.

He and Mrs. Singletary, the former Gloria Walton, have three children: Bonnie, Scot and Kendall.

Clifford O. Hagan

Athletics Director

Cliff Hagan returned to the University of Kentucky in 1972 as assistant to athletics director Harry Lancaster and was assigned the task of implementing the Blue & White Fund for the 57,600-seat Commonwealth Stadium and later for the 23,000-seat Rupp Arena, home of the basketball Wildcats.

He replaced Lancaster as athletics director in July 1975, during the ensuing school year. Wildcat teams compiled one of the best records in the school's history, with the basketball team winning the National Invitational Tournament, the wrestling and rifle teams winning SEC titles and the baseball team winning the SEC Eastern Division.

The wrestling team repeated as conference champion the following year, the basketball team finished with a 26-4 record and advanced to the Eastern Regional finals while the football team won seven of 11 regular season games, shared the conference championship and defeated North Carolina in the Peach Bowl.

The football team compiled a 10-1 record and was undefeated in conference action in 1977 while the 1977-78 basketball team won the national championship.

While the athletics teams were winning championships, Hagan supervised an ever-expanding program that now operates with a budget approximating $6½ million. Continued growth in practically all phases of UK athletics has been the hallmark of his reign as athletics director, with fine attendance at football and men's basketball games, increased attendance at Lady Kat basketball games (a national attendance record of 10,622 was set at the Lady Kat-Old Dominion game in Memorial Coliseum in 1983), and a steady upgrading of facilities.

Also during the past year, the University successfully hosted the 1984 NCAA Volleyball championships in Memorial Coliseum. The prestigious NCAA "Final Four" basketball championships will be hosted by the University in March 1985 and the 1986 Women's Basketball "Final Four" will take place in Memorial Coliseum a year later.

One of the newest additions to the department is an Academic Learning Center in Memorial Coliseum.

Hagan has been an advocate of a strong scholar-athlete program, feeling "a genuine commitment to provide all the academic support and encouragement we can to help our athletes leave our campus with a college relocation and a degree."

MIKE KINDRED

Assistant Coach
Eastern Kentucky University, 1980

Mike was hired as a part-time assistant at UK in July 1983, and then was elevated to a full-time assistant two months later. A 1980 graduate of Eastern Kentucky, Mike served for two seasons as assistant girls' basketball coach at Estill County High School in Irvine, Ky., before coming to UK.

A native of Winchester, Ky., Mike graduated from Clark County High School in 1975. He then attended Morehead State University for one year before transferring to Eastern. He received a degree in Industrial Education, and then taught at Clark County for one year before accepting a job at Estill County.

In his first season at Estill, Mike helped direct the varsity squad to its first-ever winning season in 1982. The following year, the Lady Engineers won their first district championship. Mike's junior varsity squad, meanwhile, was doing even better, finishing with a 15-4 record in 1982 and a 19-4 record in 1983.

Mike is very active in the Big Brothers-Big Sisters program, and currently sits on the organization's Advisory Board in Winchester. He is also an active member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

HEATHER LONGTON

Head Manager

Heather is in her fourth year as manager for the Lady Kats. A junior political science major, she is a member of the Delta Gamma Sorority. Heather enjoys softball, golf and reading. She is 21 years old and is a native of Paducah, Ky.

ROBIN BOARD

Graduate Assistant Louisville, 1983

A former player for Coach Terry Hall at Louisville, Robin joined the Lady Kat staff in September 1983. While at Louisville, Robin lettered in basketball four consecutive years, two of those seasons with Coach Hall at the helm. She was a member of the Lady Card teams that won Metro Conference titles in 1979 and 1981 and is in the record book for best free throw percentage in a season, which she set in 1979. Robin was also an outstanding high school player at Louisville Butler High. She helped her team to the Girls' State Tournament in 1976 and 1978. She was All-State honorable mention for three straight years and played in the East-West All-Star game in 1978. She also played tennis for three seasons and ran track one year at Butler.

Robin has a great interest in young people and has participated as a volunteer for Special Olympics for five straight years. She also is credited with starting two Youth Basketball Camps in 1981 and 1982 at the St. Matthews YMCA in Louisville.

ne of the finest shooters to play for the Lady Kats, Diane will be counted on once again as a consistent outside scoring threat. She has a career field goal percentage of 47.4 percent and was the team's second-leading scorer last season when she hit 49.5 percent of her shots for a 12.7 average. Also outstanding from the free throw line, she has a career free throw percentage of 80.9 and holds the team record for consecutive free throws made at 22. One of the hardest workers on the squad, Diane has improved throughout her career and her senior season should be her best yet. She has played in 66 games as a Lady Kat, including all but one as a sophomore and all 28 last season. She started in 23 games last year, with her career high of 26 points coming against Nebraska early in the season. In that game, her picture-perfect jump shot was deadly as she hit 13 of 17 field goal attempts. She scored in all 28 UK games and hit in double figures 19 times.

“Diane has been a consistent outside scoring threat during her career at Kentucky and will again be depended upon to score in clutch situations. She possesses more desire to succeed than most all of the players on my team. She has been, throughout her career, an exceptional role model for the youngsters of the Commonwealth of Kentucky.”

A player with talent equal to anyone in Lady Kat history, Leslie has left no doubts that she is one of the top players in the country. Last season Leslie broke her nose twice and had to deal daily with the pressure of carrying most of the team's scoring and rebounding load. She excelled, however, and dominated most of the season despite playing against what the NCAA rated the fourth toughest schedule in the country. Only twice in 27 games did Leslie fail to score in double figures. Eleven times she scored more than 20 points and 11 times she rebounded in double figures. Her 18.4 scoring average was best on the team and second best in the Southeastern Conference. Her field goal percentage of 54.9 was the SEC's ninth best and her free throw percentage of 82.5 led the league. Additionally, she led the Lady Kats in steals with 64 and was third on the squad in assists with 80. She was one of four sophomores named to the 10-member ALL-SEC squad last season.

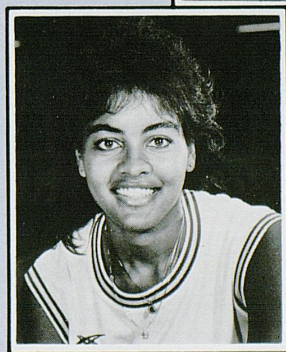

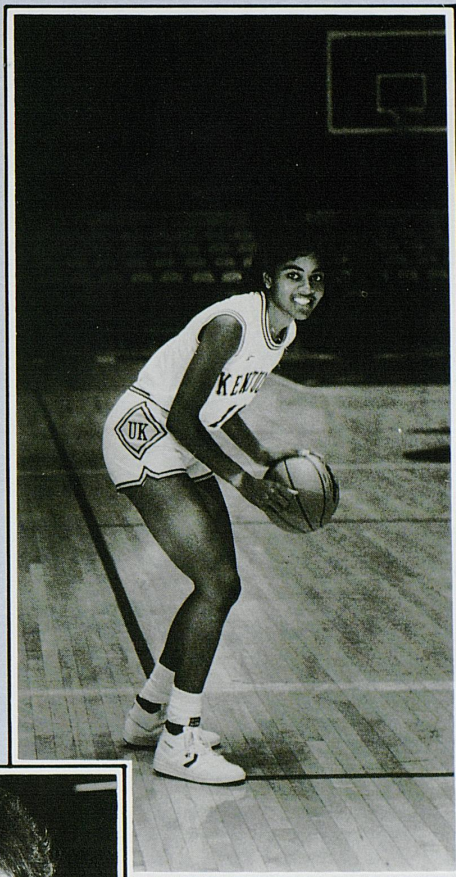

Already 11th on the all-time Lady Kat scoring list, Leslie's versatility and consistency make her a true All-American candidate. She has excellent speed and quickness, great leaping ability, exceptional ball handling skills and has a beautiful left-handed shot. Her two-year averages at Kentucky are 14.8 points and 7.5 rebounds and she has a field goal percentage of 54.0 and a free throw percentage of 75.1. Leslie was a fourth-team Parade All-American as a senior at Lexington's Henry Clay High School.

"Leslie has been a very successful player thus far in her young career. She has more natural talent than anyone on our team, and has been an exciting player for our fans to watch. We need to depend on her all around floor game and leadership abilities this year. She has the potential to become a superstar at Kentucky and can accomplish that with intensity at all times."

After a summer devoted to hard work, Karen should play a key role for the Lady Kats this season. As a sophomore, she played in all 28 games and started in 15 while averaging 12.6 points and 6.6 rebounds. Her contributions should be greater this year and she will likely have a secure spot in the lineup at either forward or center.

Karen lifted weights, worked on her ball handling and shooting and increased her vertical jump four inches over the summer. By improving all phases of her game, she also boosted her confidence and will enter the season with a better mental attitude. Last year she hit double figures in 17 games and scored more than 20 six times. She hit 51.7 percent of her shots and 81.7 from the line and was second in the Southeastern Conference free throw percentage category to teammate Leslie Nichols. She has played in all 56 games since she joined the Lady Kats two seasons ago. Karen was a third team Parade All-American as a senior at Toledo's Bowsher High School.

It took Sandy only one game to crack the starting lineup and the mighty mite was there to stay, earning recognition as one of the best freshman point guards in the country last year. According to Women's Basketball Yearbook, she led all freshmen in the assists category with an average of six per game. That was second best in the Southeastern Conference. She also showed good shooting touch, surprising rebounding ability, a harrasing style of defense and a sensational knack for coming up with big plays. The tiny speedster dazzled fans and baffled foes by throwing in impossible shots or dealing off incredible passes all season long. But she was more than just flashy. She was consistent, too, and Coach Hall feels she will be one of the top point guards in the nation this year. Her freshman statistics were 6.4 points, 2.5 rebounds, 6.0 assists, 2.0 steals and she had percentages of 48.1 from the field and 71.0 from the line. A national winner of the NBA Hot Shot competition in the eighth grade, Sandy holds the Central New York girls' all-time scoring record with 1,780 points.

Debbie Miller

Debbie is a hard-nosed player who won't look flashy, but will quietly win games with tough, steady play in the middle. A strong, physical center who can't be pushed around, Debbie excels because of good positioning and good instincts around the basket. Last year an anemic condition slowed her at the start of the season, but she played in all but four games and was a steady contributor throughout the season. Her best game came toward the end of the year, when she pitched in 10 points and grabbed three rebounds during a narrow loss at Tennessee. Coach Hall expects more performances like that from Debbie and feels she may be the key to the squad this season.

Debbie averaged three points and three rebounds last season, and showed a great shooting eye by hitting 52.1 percent from the field and 84.0 from the line.

A year ago Melanie entered college thin and timid. With only two years of high school experience and very little strength, it was obvious she would need improvement. Forty minutes in 13 games last season helped, but Melanie still needed more work and put her mind to that task this summer. A strenuous program of lifting weights, running and playing basketball has given Melanie much needed strength, weight and even increased her vertical jump by four inches. Now she is ready to make an important contribution, and even has hopes of cracking the lineup. Mobility and quickness help Melanie move up and down the court well for her size. Her height naturally makes her an intimidating factor on defense and she has developed a hook shot that will make her a better offensive threat.

Coach Hall on Melanie

“Melanie has worked hard this summer in the weight room, gaining strength and increasing her vertical jump. She has made great strides in one year, and I expect a big contribution from her this season. Her jumping ability and confidence have improved, as well as her dedication to the game.”

lthough she is a sophomore in eligibility, Shelly is a newcomer to college basketball. She played volleyball at Penn State as a freshman, but then decided to switch to basketball and transferred to Kentucky in the fall of 1983. After a redshirt season, she is ready to play and the Lady Kats welcome the depth she will add to the front line.

A three-sport star at Medina High School, Shelly was named All-State by both the Associated Press and United Press International during her senior season in 1982. That year she averaged 22 points and 14 rebounds. She also starred in volleyball and was named the Medina County Player of the Year in both basketball and volleyball, sports in which she lettered three years. She was a four-year letter-winner in track, and ran on Medina's state finalist mile-relay team as a senior.

A strong, physical player with quickness and great leaping ability, Shelly could develop into an important part of the Lady Kats squad. She's also an outstanding student who could gather some academic honors before she leaves UK.

Coach Hall on Shelly

"Shelly is tough on the boards, has good foot speed, and a nice shot close to the basket. She is one of the hardest workers on our team, and I feel she is going to contribute to our success this season."

Laurie could be a surprise for Lady Kats' fans and foes this season. The slender forward was a well-kept secret in high school, but drew big attention in her final games as she led York High School to the Illinois Class AA state title, pitching in 27 points and 10 rebounds in the championship game. She was named MVP of the tournament for her efforts. Blessed with good quickness, a nice shooting touch and exceptional leaping ability, Laurie will add much-needed depth to UK's front line. She averaged 18 points, 10 rebounds and hit 53 percent as a senior.

In Michele Pennie, the Lady Kats have an all-around athlete who can help at shooting guard or small forward. With an average of 32 points as a senior at Clearwater Catholic High School last year, Michele is primarily known as a scorer. But she is also an outstanding passer, a smart floor player and a good rebounder, as her 17 rebounds per-game last year indicates. An All-State player in Florida and honorable mention on Street and Smith's All-America squad, Michele was slowed by knee surgery in the spring, but she is expected to be ready by the start of the season.

She averaged 13 points and 10 rebounds and led Everett High to a 20-3 record and the State Class A semifinals as a junior. Memorial Coliseum seems an appropriate place to have hosted the largest crowd ever to attend a women's college basketball game. Already rich in the tradition of 30 years of Wildcat and Lady Kat basketball, it was only fitting that the historic old Coliseum be the site of the record-breaking crowd that watched the Lady Kats upset fifth-ranked Old Dominion on February 5, 1983. On that cold Saturday night, 10,622 enthusiastic fans filed into the 11,500-seat gymnasium and roared their team on to an 80-66 victory.

The Coliseum has been the exclusive home of the Lady Kats since the Wildcats moved downtown to 23,000-seat Rupp Arena in 1976. Throughout their 24-year history in Memorial, the Wildcats established a tradition that is recognized throughout the world. And the Lady Kats have proudly carried on that tradition. They were ranked fourth nationally after the Old Dominion victory, and in their three remaining home games in 1982-83 they averaged 7,600 fans, twice breaking the 8,000-spectator mark.

Just as their male counterparts did before them, the Lady Kats have made Memorial Coliseum the home of a winning, high-class program. They have compiled a 117-35 record in 10 seasons at home, and extended a home-court winning streak to 31 games before losing to Memphis State midway through the 1981-82 season.

Plans for construction of the Coliseum began in 1941, when Dr. H. L. Donovan became president of the University and recommended a building "that will properly take care of our athletics, our health services, our physical education and our recreation."

The Coliseum was completed in 1950 at a cost of $3,925,000. The huge building was dedicated to serve as a memorial to the nearly 10,000 Kentuckians who lost their lives in World War II and the Korean conflict. The Coliseum covers an entire city block and has as much space as a seven-story office building. Situated along the Avenue of Champions, Memorial Coliseum is used primarily for basketball games and Athletic Department offices, but also serves as the site of other sporting events, as well as concerts and lectures.

UK

The University of Kentucky's 716-acre campus is located south of downtown Lexington, Ky., which has a population of approximately one-quarter million people. There are approximately 200 buildings and other structures, walks, malls, gardens, playing fields, recreation space and parking areas on campus.

CAMPUS

Academic Program

The University has 17 academic colleges: Arts and Sciences . . . Agriculture . . . Engineering . . . Business and Economics . . . Education . . . Home Economics . . . Library Science . . . Social Work . . . Architecture . . . Communications . . . Fine Arts . . . Law . . . Medicine . . . Dentistry . . . Nursing . . . Allied Health Professions . . . Pharmacy.

Research

The University Library system contains approximately 1.7 million volumes and ranks 13th in the nation in microform holdings.

Among the major areas of research at the University are energy, engineering, medical (especially cancer research on the aging) and agriculture (especially in tobacco and equine).

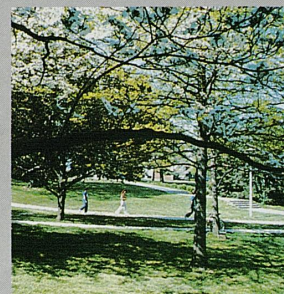

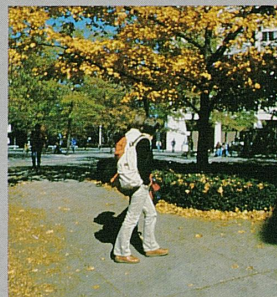

Faculty

UK's faculty numbers 1,430 on the Lexington campus. Including a graduate family of approximately 950.

Student Body

Enrollment on UK's Lexington campus is more than 23,000. The students come from every county in Kentucky and 48 other states and the District of Columbia and 78 foreign countries.

Approximately 5,400 students live in UK's resident halls with another 1,156 students in UK's 25 fraternities and 17 sororities.

Alumni

The University has approximately 70,000 alumni around the world with more than 22,500 of them paid members of UK's Alumni Association. There are 65 alumni clubs across the nation, with 34 of them in Kentucky and 31 outside the state from California to New York.

Community Colleges

The Lexington campus also is headquarters for UK's Community College System. UK has 13 of these two-year colleges across the state with a current enrollment of 20,700 students.

Medical Center

UK's Albert B. Chandler Medical College has a wide range of programs in education and research. The five colleges—Medicine, Dentistry, Nursing, Pharmacy, and Allied Health Professions—have more than 2,000 students pursuing bachelor, master's and doctoral degrees in health-related fields.

The Medical Center also has a 470-bed University Hospital as part of its teaching and service programs.

Social, Cultural and Recreational

Opportunities for UK students are not limited to the academic world. Involvement in the social and cultural aspects of University life also is important.

Recognizing this, the University provides the widest range of opportunities for personal and social development. If a student likes music, for instance, the Concert and Lecture Series brings outstanding soloists and symphonies on campus. There are chamber music concerts and hard rock concerts, impromptu bluegrass groups and flute recitals. If one likes to participate, opportunities abound—there are several choral groups, a marching band, the symphony orchestra, the symphonic band—or there is always the guitar with a few friends under the trees. Whichever one chooses, at UK it's available—and there's someone to share it.

There are 22 national fraternities and 16 national sororities on campus. "Rush," or member recruitment, takes place before classes begin, and informally throughout the year.

In addition to supporting the various Wildcat and Lady Kat teams, men and women students take part as individuals or in groups in competitive sports and in intramural programs. The Seaton Center houses facilities in basketball, volleyball, badminton, squash, wrestling, and table tennis. An Olympic-size swimming pool, tennis courts, and several sports fields are available to students.

A similar variety of opportunities in drama, student government, athletics, service organizations, and recreation, is available.

The city of Lexington also offers UK students much in the way of entertainment. Lexington has a Philharmonic Orchestra, Chamber Music Society, the Lexington Singers, a Council of Arts, and a local Ballet Company. Movie theaters, international restaurants, coffee-houses, top-ranked acts of all types at fabulous Rupp Arena in the Lexington Center, historical landmarks, parks, and shopping centers, thoroughbred and harness racing, fine fishing in lakes, ponds and streams . . . all in easy distance of the UK campus.

Tailgating at football games, lining up for tickets to see nationally famous Wildcat teams in Rupp Arena or Lady Kat games in Memorial Coliseum, participating in the "Little Kentucky Derby," attending concerts at the downtown arena or in the 11,500-seat Coliseum on the UK campus, visiting the internationally famous Kentucky Horse Park . . . all just a few of the many attractions of Lexington and the University of Kentucky.

UK

ACADEMIC LEARNING CENTER

In keeping with the continued emphasis that athletics director Cliff Hagan has placed on the academic life of its student-athletes, the University of Kentucky Department of Athletics is very proud of its Academic Learning Center in Memorial Coliseum.

The Center contains a large study area, a casual reading lounge, an individual reading aids center, graduate assistant offices, a career center and several tutoring rooms.

Bob Bradley, assistant to the athletics director for academic affairs, said the Center provides many services to the student-athlete, foremost of which is a diversified reading program that covers everything from a complete diagnosis of reading, reading study skills and speed reading.

"Athletics has acquired the assistance of a professor in UK's graduate reading program to coordinate what should be the best reading clinic available to athletes, comparable to any in the nation," Bradley said.

He said Hagan has always taken a special interest in his department and has gone the "extra mile" to ensure that UK athletes graduate. "There is no doubt in my mind that Mr. Hagan has the student-athlete's best interest at heart," he said. "The Academic Learning Center is a prime example of his concern."
