

COSY CORNER SERIES.

A Series of Short Original Stories, or Reprints of Well-known Favorites, Sketches of Travel, Essays and Poems.

The books of this series answer a long-felt need for a half-hour's entertaining reading, while in the railway car, during the summer outing in the country or at the seaside, or by the evening lamp at home. They are particularly adapted for reading aloud, containing nothing but the best from a literary standpoint, and are unexceptionable in every way. They are printed from good type, illustrated with original sketches by good artists, and neatly bound in cloth. The size is a 16m, not too large for the pocket.
