UK Will Host Annual State Speech Fest

300 High School Orators To Attend

UK will host to the 31st annual State High School Speech Fest Monday through Wednesday, Prof. Louis Clifton, head of the Extension Department, has announced.

Competing for prizes in eight speech events will be approximately 300 students from 120 high schools in all sections of Kentucky. Contestants in public speaking, oratory, and extemporaneous speaking will be included in the three-day program.

Prizes to be awarded this year include the Phil Cornett Cup presented by the Lexington Herald-Leader to the champion debate team, the University of Kentucky trophy to the debate runner-up, a $100 cash award from the Kentucky Education Association to the three top contestants in public speaking, and the Harry W. Schacter award of $100 to be divided among winners of superior ratings in all divisions.

Judges for the 1951 festival will include Dr. Clifford Blyden, Prof. Wallace N. Briggs and Dr. J. Reid Sorett of the UK Extension Department; Prof. Keith Roberts, Eastern State College; Prof. Robert Chalmers, Transylvania University; Prof. F. Covington, Morehead State College; Prof. Marjorie Donahue, Eastern Kentucky College; Prof. William Foley, Berea College, and Prof. Bert Pollock, Chicago.

The festival is sponsored by the UK Extension Department.

IFC Announces Changes In Pledging Regulations

New regulations for fraternity pledging will be announced by the Interfraternity Council here today, members of the Interfraternity Council have announced. The Faculty approved the regulations at its meeting Monday.

Beginning today any student is eligible for pledging to fraternities without making a standing order of 13. Students who are pledged now have to make their standing before being initiated. If they make their standing this semester they can be initiated in summer school. If their fraternity is active in the summer.

Standings for next fall will be decided on rules set next week's meeting of IFC.

Movie Titles Will Be Theme Of May Floats

Parade, Coronation, Dance To Feature Day's Activities

May 12 has been set by Suky, pep organization, as the date for the annual celebration of May Day, chairman Dick Walker has announced.

Each society entering a representative for the beauty contest has been asked to submit an eight by 10 photograph of the contestant. A campus-wide election to select the queen and her attendants will be held on the 12th.

'MOVIE TITLES' will be the theme for the floats. Only titles may be used, not names of actors or movies. (1) Relationship to title, 30 per cent. (2) Originality of decoration, 20 per cent. (3) Characterization of characters, 20 per cent. (4) Overall appearance, 30 per cent.

It has been suggested that the floats be a lighter vein in keeping with the whole May Day idea. Entries for the floats should be submitted to the YWCA, 409 Rose Lane, between April 15 and 30.

The parade will be held on Friday, May 11, at 1 p.m. The coronation will be on Saturday, May 12, at 11 a.m. The dance will be on Sunday, May 13, at 8 p.m. in the Student Union.

'Stars In Night' Program To Climax Day Set Aside For Coeds' Mothers

Program Is Secret Until Presentation Next Monday Night

A program of 300 coeds will be honored at 7:30 Monday night at the annual 'Stars in the Night' program in Memorial Hall. They will be recognized for their outstanding scholarship, leadership and service on campus.

'Star Shiners' will be the theme of this year's convocation. The list was written by Elaine Shaffer. Singing will be done by the Suky Patrol, Mary Ann Bradford, Suky Hancher, Carolyn Critchlow, Kappa Alpha Lambda, Jo Ann Anderson and Elaine Shaffer.

Priscilla Hancher, president of the Women's Administrative Council, will be mistress of ceremonies. No information was available on details of the program which is traditionally kept secret.

SPECIAL AWARDS will be made during the program which is traditionally kept secret. Organizational officers and members, and leadership organizations will tap their new pledges.

HAVING BEEN granted a term free from teaching duties in order to give full time to some research projects and to prepare the annual report, Dr. Scherago will speak on 'The Biological Basis of Allergic Reactions.'

Dr. Scherago said that he will try to explain in as laymanlike terms as possible why it is that allergic people react as they do.

FRESHMAN BARBARA BALDWIN sees a bright shiner star in her future. The 'Stars in the Night' program set for Monday night will divulge many similar glowing stars.

'Distinguished Professor' Scherago To Give Lecture In Guignol Thursday Night

The 'Distinguished Professor of the Year,' Dr. Morris Scherago, head of the Department of Bacteriology, will deliver the seventh annual Arts and Sciences Lecture at 8 p.m. Thursday in the Guignol Theatre.

Having been granted a term free from teaching duties in order to give full time to some research projects and to prepare the annual report, Dr. Scherago will speak on 'The Biological Basis of Allergic Reactions.'

Welch Is Ninth New Dean Named In Last Five Years

The recent appointment of Dr. Paul P. Boyl of the College of Agriculture and Home Economics makes the ninth new academic division head within the past five years. Dr. Welch replaces Dean Thomas P. Cooper, who will retire.

Since September, 1946, each of the seven colleges has acquired a new dean, and the Graduate School has received two administrative changes. Five appointments were made to fill vacancies created by retirements, two as a result of deaths, and one followed a resignation.

The merger of the Louisville College of Pharmacy with UK in 1947 created the ninth position, dean of the College of Pharmacy. After July 1, when Dean Welch's appointment becomes effective, the University's oldest dean, both in age and length of service, will be Dean D. W. Terrell, 64, of the College of Engineering. Dean Terrell was named to his present position in September, 1946. He joined the staff in 1916 as an assistant dean for the four years preceding his present position.

Others named as deans when their predecessors received change of duty were Dean E. S. Carpenter, 47, who replaced Dr. Edward Weiss as Dean of the College of Commerce in July, 1948; and Dr. M. M. White, 56, appointed in July, 1947, as successor to Dean Paul P. Boyl of the College of Arts and Sciences.

DR. FRANK DICKEY, 32, became dean of the College of Education Jan. 1, 1950, after the death of Dr. William S. Taylor. Dr. Louis Partridge became dean of the Graduate School in March, 1948, succeeding Dr. W. D. Funkhouser, who died. Dean Partridge left last September to accept a position at Virginia Polytechnic Institute and Dr. Herman E. Boywe, 43, was elevated from his position as head of the Department of English to take over the deanship.

Speakers Discuss Problems

500 Attend Road Conference At UK

Kentucky's highways must be good, serviceable roads instead of rutted highways, speakers told delegates at the third annual road conference at UK last week.

Maintenance costs can be reduced only by replacing or thoroughly reconditioning many obsolete and overloaded portions of the system. M. F. Johnson, director of the Highway Department's maintenance division said.

Highway Commissioner W. P. Curran told the delegates that road engineering practice that permits to facilitate traffic over the system as a whole.

JOHNSON, IN HIS TALK, also mentioned the problem of road revenue, and said the cost of maintaining existing road systems, not only in Kentucky but throughout the country, is far beyond the revenue available for such purposes.

'Kentucky highway law,' he declared, 'are not willful, nor are they to provide the funds necessary to replace or recondition a major portion of our state-maintained system of roads, if such replacement is to be done at present day standards of design.'

It is little comfort to the highway engineer, Johnson said, to find that his highway department has improved a short section of one of the main roads to an ultra-modern standard.

PE Majors To Take Detroit Field Trip

A field trip to Detroit, essential to all major Physical Education majors, will be held by members of the Physical Education Department Monday through Wednesday.

While in the Motor City the Kentuckians will attend the National Conference for the Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation, and will visit various Detroit schools.

A bus will be chartered for the trip which 12 women and 36 men are scheduled to make. The faculty advisers are to be Prof. Martha G. Carr and Mr. Maurice A. Clay, both of the Physical Education Department.

Society Elects UK Sophomore

Jack Woodhouse, a sophomore major in ancient languages at UK, was elected national president of Eta Sigma Phi, national honorary society for students of the classics.

Woodhouse is a married veteran student, preparing to teach ancient languages after graduation.

Delegates from 12 chapters of the society attended the convention which was highlighted by a tour of the Bluegrass home farms and three lectures. Colleges and universities represented were Vanderbilt, Birmingham Southern, University of Mississippi, Hampton-Sydney, University of Kentucky, Indiana, Ohio University, South Dakota, St. Louis University, Washington University, Denison University, and Lawrence College.

Lectures were given by Dr. Malcolm F. McGregor, University of Cincinnati, who spoke on the restoration of the Albanian Tribune; Dr. Richard Woodbury, UK, who discussed the restoration of Zaccala; a Mayan ruin in Guatemala; and Dr. Wilbert L. Carr, UK, who spoke on Helen of Troy and the Moralists.

The delegates voted to hold next year's convention April 23 and 24 in Indiana University.

Sweater Swing Postponed

The weekly Sweater Swing in the Bluegrass Ballroom Tuesday, will be postponed because of the State Music Festival.

Only with such cooperation can this program to teach foreigners about American life be a success. In addition to their classroom work, the students will be taken on weekly field trips. Dr. Brady said, who included visits to the daily newspaper plant, radio and television stations, and to industrial manufacturing concerns, and a trip to Frankfort for inspection of the Kentucky High School Press Association.

THE GROUP WILL LEARN about American social and recreational activities during their stay at UK from Prof. Maurice Clayton, the department of Physical Education. Other faculty members to be associated with the orientation program include Dr. Morton England, history; Dr. Irwin T. Sanders, sociology; Dr. A. E. Bigger, Dr. Louis J. Budd, Prof. Gordon E. Bigelow and Dr. John L. Carter, languages.

The students will be housed in the University dormitories during their stay in Lexington. A CHAMPIONSHIP UNIVERSITY now has an avenue befitting its acclaim. The Avenue of Champions, a section of Euclid Avenue between Lane and Rose Streets, was named to honor UK's Sugar Bowl champion football team and the NCAA basketball champs.

Journalism Awards Made

Outstanding records of service in the field of scholastic Journalism were made last week.

Dr. Niel Plumber, head of the UK Department of Journalism, announced the Grahner certificate for yearbook service to 45. Awards were made on the basis of 70 scientific papers and several hundred reviews, and is listed in 'Who's Who in America.'

The newspaper award honors the late Prof. Knoch Grehan, founder and head of the UK Department of Journalism from 1914 to 1937. Honored by the yearbook staff is Miss Marguerite McLaughlin, one of the first women to teach Journalism in the UK Faculty.

Established last year, both awards are presented through the auspices of the Kentucky High School Press Association.

Foreign Students Will Get Six Weeks Training Here

Foreign students will get six weeks of intensive training in English, plus short courses in American history and social custom.

Since most of the students will be totally unfamiliar with life in the United States, informal lectures giving practical tips on travel, shopping, care of laundry and other routine facts that might be troublesome to newcomers will be included in their daily schedule.

'The coming of these students,' Dr. Brady said, 'gives the orientation center, were established last year on a limited basis. The experiment proved so successful that it is being expanded to include orientation courses now have been made an integral part of the foreign student program.'

The six-week program offered by UK beginning July 29 and closing Sept. 7, will include intensive training in the oral use of English, plus short courses in American history and social custom.

Coach Lancaster's Reply

Having received two letters charging the baseball coaches with showing favoritism to lettermen in football and basketball, the Kernel this week asked Coach Harry Lancaster to present the Athletic Department's side of the story.

In regard to the basketball players on the team, Coach Lancaster said that he believed the record would show that his judgment was not gone far wrong there.

Mr. Lancaster also pointed out that this is the first time since 1947 that he has coached the baseball team and that he hardly feels that he could have had anything to do with any reputation UK may have earned for quick cuts from the team or favoritism to basketball players.

So there you have both sides of the picture. We frankly admit that we don't know enough about the situation to comment upon it, but further discussion from those who do is welcomed.

Please Sign Your Letters!

We're tempted to run this sentence in 48-point type on page one: LETTERS-TO-EDITOR MUST BE SIGNED!

To say that the Kernel welcomes letters is an understatement. We have tried every practical method we know to stimulate interest in "The Mailbox."

The Mailbox gives every student an opportunity to express his opinion on just about anything under the sun as long as it isn't libelous or completely ridiculous and far-fetched.

"Frank," "A Loyal Kentucky Fan," "Thoughtfulman," "Indignant," etc. We will gladly publish letters under fictitious names if that request is made.

So please, if you take the time to write to "The Mailbox," take a little extra time and sign the letter.

Baseball Policy Again Questioned

I would like to throw in my two cents worth on the matter which Baseball Lover brought to your attention last week.

I am planning to enter UK next fall and while talking to a fellow sports writer the other day, I mentioned the fact that I was thinking of trying out for the baseball team up there.

Being a neutral observer, I am not trying to criticize the coaches. I realize the fact that the SEC baseball season opens early and that this Kentucky weather is not conducive to baseball at this time of the year.

Mutual Consent? I am a member of the music fraternity, Phi Mu Alpha. Last week's Kernel featured a front-page article concerning another reverberation of the "Jazz Concert Fiasco."

Monkey Business

Abba-Dabba Dabba, Said The Monkey

By Richard Taylor

Just how close is the resemblance between humans and monkeys? "Closer than some of us think," says Jack Tinker, animal keeper in the Biological Sciences building.

Jack should know. He was the only witness present when "Joe" and "Phyllis," two pet monkeys under his care, became the parents of their first offspring at 8:48 a.m. Saturday.

The period of pregnancy lasted about 23 weeks. The mother, according to Jack, was up, taking care of her baby immediately after it arrived.

"It's a boy," said Jack, "we'll name it Joe Jr." He hasn't decided what to name it if it's a girl.

When Joe is tossed into the cage "Joe" grabs it and places it within reach of "Phyllis." Regardless of how tempting the morsel may be, she refuses to take a bite until his family is provided for.

Jack is pretty nervous about the whole thing. When he reported the blessed event to Dr. R. S. Allen, head of the Anatomy and Physiology Department, he said, "I've worried about that baby so much I think I'm going to adopt it. Maybe I can classify it as a deduction on my income tax."

Scoring Machine

TRYING IT OUT—Bob O'Nan, UK fencer, Stan Dickinson, Keys, Stewart Carpenter, Keys, Jr., Gardner, Keys, Scott Breckinridge, fencing coach, and Bill Seiler, fencer and Keys member, watch Paul Wright, UK fencer, and Tom Brooge, U. of Cincinnati fencer, try out the new scoring machine for fencing presented to the team by Keys, sophomore, and his brother.

UK Fencers Top Bearcats; Next Meet With Vanderbilt

The University of Kentucky fencing team improved on its season record last Saturday by edging the University of Cincinnati 15-12. The Wildcats were greatly handicapped by an under-manned squad.

Captain Alan Solomon led the attack with six wins and no losses. Bill Seiler won five and lost four. Paul Wright added three victories and Bob O'Nan finished the scoring with one win.

Kentucky started fast by crushing the Bearcat full team 7-2, but ran into considerable trouble losing the repechage 4-5. Their lead looked quite slim in the light that Sabre was Cincinnati's strong weapon.

Moreover, the Kentuckians were showing signs of lifting due to the necessity on Kentucky's part to use the same men in different weapons.

Next week Coach Breckinridge takes his boys to Nashville to try to secure an early season upset by Vanderbilt. The Commodores looked good this weekend defeating Cincinnati's full team 8-4 on the neutral Kentucky floor.

The big step in encouraging this minor sport at the University. It will be used at all home meets of the University, and at the Mid-West Tournament to be held in Lexington.

Phi Kappa Tau, defending bowling champs, again headed the list of intramural alley-ites as league competition neared completion Wednesday.

The Phi Taus had 20 points as the top team in Division One, followed by Delta Tau Delta II (14 points), Sigma Nu II (11 points), Sigma Chi (11), and Alpha Tau Omega (10).

Four teams from each division will begin a single-round elimination tourney on Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The entries will be determined on the point system.

Badminton singles and doubles were narrowed to semi-final play Wednesday night. Winners will be given in next week's Kernel.

Softball play begins Tuesday afternoon at the intramural field. The schedule for games will be posted Monday afternoon. Deadline for entries will be at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

At least one more independent softball team is needed to form a separate division for non-Greek teams. Five independent outfits have already signed up to play.

Wildcats Meet Georgia Tech Today

Regular Kentucky Lineup To Face Jackets Plus Dom Fucci And Possibly Ben Zaranaka

Kentucky's diamond squad met the Tech outfit three times last season, lambasting them on all three occasions. Coach Harry Lancaster is expected to go along with his regular lineup today, consisting of Walt Hirsch, Harry Jones and Bob Terrell at first, second and third bases, respectively. Larry Jones at shortstop, and Allen Hamilton, Frank Ramsey and Walt Yowarsky in the outfield berths.

Harry Stille or Dom Fucci will do the rousting. Guy Strong is scheduled to be on the mound for the Wildcat nine. This year's version of diamond-nine is running along at the same rate as the year's Eastern Division SEC champions were at this point of the season. Lancaster announced his final roster this week, consisting of 20 men. On the list he has three catchers, seven infielders, six outfielders, and four pitchers. Four of the men listed at other positions also double as pitchers.

Fucci, on the inactive list until Wednesday because of injuries is expected to see action again this weekend. On the Wildcat roster are: Catchers—Lou Tsionopoulos, Dominic Fucci and Harry Stille. Infielders—Bob Terrell, Nicholas Gumbon, Thomas Williams, Harry Jones, Carter Hamilton, Walt Hirsch, and Larry Jones. Outfielders—Roy Skens, Frank

Cat Baseballers Beat Georgia

Best Bulldogs 8-4 In Seven Innings

The drizzling rain that fell all Wednesday afternoon didn't dampen Kentucky's baseball Wildcats as they took Georgia, 8-4, in seven innings. The game was called because of darkness.

It was a vengeance victory for the Cats since Georgia had handed them a pair of setbacks on April 3 at Athens, Ga., with a 5-3 win and a forfeit. The two teams played again yesterday afternoon.

Georgia drew first blood as they took advantage of a wild first inning by Cat starting pitcher C. M. Newton. With two down, Sonny Dykes gained first base when Newton hit him with a pitched ball. Jack Roberts drew a walk on four straight pitches.

The bases were loaded when Harry Babcock also walked. Harry Stille, catching for Kentucky, let one of Newton's curve balls get away and Dykes, roused home.

Kentucky tied the score in the last of the second when Dom Fucci, Cat All-American making his first appearance in the lineup, punched a single to the left of third base, scoring Harry Jones.

Nate Williams opened the Georgia third inning with a walk and a double to left center. Roberts' single advanced Dykes to third and a wild pitch by Newton put Georgia on top by two runs.

The Cats exploded for four runs in the last of the third, going ahead, 4-4. Hirsch started things off with a free pass after working Georgia's pitcher, Charlie Kell, to a three-to-count. Frank Ramsey tugged back to the mound and Kell threw wild to first. Hirsch and Ramsey advancing to third and second. Hamilton walked, loading the bases.

Third baseman Bob Terrell, next man up, laced a clean single over and a triple in three official times at bat. Walt Yowarsky hit his homer with two aboard in the third and Larry Jones socked one with short stop and Terrell came home a few minutes later on a passed ball.

C. M. Newton gained his second win in going the seven-inning route. He allowed five hits, struck out ten batters, and walked five.

Kentucky opened its home schedule last Friday afternoon with a 17-5 win over Vanderbilt at Legion Field. The second contest of the two-game series was raised out after four innings with the Cats in the lead by 5-2.

Vanderbilt scored first on a walk and a triple by John Rich. He came home with the second tally when Hamilton slipped on the wet outfield grass and made a bad throw.

Kentucky came up with a run in the last of the second when Harry Stille scored Bob Terrell from third with an infield grounder. In the third inning the Cats went ahead to play as they garnered four runs.

Walt Hirsch opened with a walk, stole second, and went on to third when Vandy Catcher Bill Jones threw wild into center field. Frank Ramsey scored Hirsch with an infield ground-out. Hamilton and Terrell drew successive passes.

Walt Yowarsky powered a home run over the Cat field fence and scored behind his two mates.

The Wildcats got five insurance runs in the last of the fourth inning, added another trio in the sixth, and still four more in the seventh.

Guy Strong was the winning pitcher in the two-hour and 31-minute marathon. In nine innings, the slender Irvine, Ky., right-hander gave up only five hits and two earned runs. Howard Leifer, starter for Vandy, was the losing hurler.

Allen Hamilton led the Cats at the plate with four runs, a double, and a triple in three official times at bat. Walt Yowarsky hit his homer with two aboard in the third and Larry Jones socked one with short stop and Terrell came home a few minutes later on a passed ball.

Cold Weather Slows Gridders

The odd, rainy weather Lexington has had for the past three or four weeks has slowed up Coach Paul Bryant's spring football practice through plays.

It is almost impossible to get in condition for rough work in this weather so most of the time has been spent in conditioning and running through plays.

To make matters worse Coach Bryant is faced with the biggest rebuilding program he has met since he has been at Kentucky. He must find replacements for the 17 seniors who played on the offensive or defensive starting team.

The offensive team has four holdovers who played on the Sugar Bowl championship team. Returning starters are only right guard Gene Donaldson, right tackle Jim Mackenzie, quarterback Babe Parilli and fullback Bill Leskovar.

Graduating are: ends Al Bruno and Ben Zaranaka, tackle Bob Cain, guard Pat James, center Roger Kavanaugh, halfbacks Clayton Webb and Sherry Jamerson.

Even harder hit than the Wildcat offensive unit is the defensive team. Defensively, the Cats were one of the best in the nation last year when they won 10 games and dropped one. They climaxed the season by beating Oklahoma in the Sugar Bowl.

Only two defensive starters are returning next fall. They are tackle Jim Mackenzie, who plays on both units, and linebacker Doug Moseley.

Gene and ends Zaranaka and Charlie McCordron, guards James and Bill Wannamaker, linebacker Bill Schaffartz, defensive halfbacks Harold Woodell and Dick Martin and safety-man Dom Fucci.

One of the hardest positions to fill will be the spot vacated by Big Bob Cain. Cain, one of the greatest linemen ever to play at UK, was on practically every All-American team last fall. His shoes will be hard to fill at the tackle slot.

Another boy that will be hard to replace is Al Bruno. Bruno was one of the leading pass receivers in the Conference last year and was one of Parilli's favorite targets.

The annual basketball banquet given by the UK Alumni Association Monday night was a big success from almost every standpoint. Its two major measuring rods—the quality of the program and the attendance—were fully up to par.

A full and appreciative house watched the presentation of skits by some of the basketball players and listened to the talks at the program. The response was fine up until the closing moment, when everyone stood up for the singing of "On, On, U. of K." That part was even weaker than the renditions given at the basketball games.

Roger (Cowboy) Layne, Walt Hirsch, C. M. Newton, Shelby Linville, Dick Haycox and Team Manager Bobby Moore took part in the skits, which were arranged by Cliff Hagan.

The pepping-up role was nothing new for one of the performers. Layne, the tall boy from Arkansas, has been doing that all year for the Wildcats. Warming may seem like old stuff to many of the fans but not so for Roger. He didn't see a lot of action this year though he did play enough to win a letter but he was a most important man on the Wildcat squad. The fans may not have yelled too much for the Cats but he was in there all the time, whooping it up and shouting encouragement to his mates. That's a lot of what it takes to make a team.

Interest in UK sports by the alumni seems stronger than that displayed by the present student body.

This column continually receives letters from former students who send in clippings about the Wildcats from newspapers throughout the country, or from fans who would like some bit of information about them.

Many of the comments I received would make interesting reading for UK students, but for some reason or another we did not get to publish them. Some arrived too late and some we could not squeeze in because of space limitations, but we would like to acknowledge some of these reports, just to let the senders know we received them. Maybe they'll keep on sending them, anyway. We do enjoy getting them.

Senders included Tom Diskin, John Franks, Miss Helen King (alumni secretary), Kenneth Willoughby and Roger Carnes. Diskin wrote an interesting first-hand account of the finals of the NCAA tournament but it arrived in Lexington too late for publication that week. Thanks, anyway, Tom, and let us hear from you again.

Sports quizzes with cigarette rewards, once a circulation-puller for the Kernel sports pages, are coming back again. Joe Sopchek, Journalism major, will edit the column and pass out the fun.

A pine-nop tournament, starting April 23, will be held in the Student Union Building. It was announced this week.

Deadline on registration for the tourney has been set for April 23. Participants are required to pay a 25-cent entrance fee.

Winner's and runners-up trophies will be presented. The tournament is being sponsored by the Student Union Sports committee.

Track Squad At Vanderbilt

By Fred Lawson

Track Coach Don Seaton and his team will leave at noon today for Nashville where the Cats will meet the Vanderbilt Commodores in the opening meet of the season for both teams tomorrow afternoon.

The addition of several basketball and football boys will add strength to the team as they seek their first victory of the season. Dwight Price and Skippy Whitaker have joined the squad after the close of the basketball tournaments.

Cliff Lawson, John Ignarski and Al Bruno are the footballers out of the team.

But the Cats were weakened this week when Jim Wise was declared ineligible for Conference competition. Wise has been showing up well in practices this week and was expected to help the team in the dashes. But a recent Conference ruling that an athlete could only compete in track within a five week period made him ineligible.

At Nashville the Wildcats will be seeking to avenge the drubbing they took at the hands of the Commodores last year on Stiel Field. The score last year was Vanderbilt 47, Kentucky 41.

Wallace, Price, Bradbury, and Sither will form the two-mile relay team. Each man runs a half-mile in this event.

Skippy Whitaker and Cliff Lawson will run in the 100-yard dash. Jay Wallace will enter the half-mile event.

Capt. Gray Weeks and Jim Bradbury will run in the 220-yard low hurdles, and this same team will compete in the 128-yard high hurdles.

Harold Ziegler, a triple-threat man, will enter the pole vault, high jump and broad jump. Ziegler is a good performer in the pole vault event.

Throwing the discs for the Cats will be John Gunsten, John Ignarski, and Al Bruno.

Harold Ziegler and Skippy Whitaker will form the high jump team. In the 220-yard dash will be Cliff Lawson and George Hishell.

Capt. Weeks and Dwight Price will run the two mile race for the Cats.

Hirsch, Ramsey Honored At Alumni Banquet

Dale Barnstable Principal Speaker

By Lewis Donohew

1950 is an Olympics year and next year's Kentucky basketball squad is faced with a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity—that of playing in the Olympic Games.

This reminder to UK's eager crowd the talk Monday night of Dale Barnstable, captain of the 1949-1950 Kentucky squad and principal speaker at the University of Kentucky Alumni Association's annual basketball banquet in the ballroom of the Student Union Building.

Barnstable spoke chiefly on his experiences during his first season of coaching at Louisville Manual high school this year.

The awarding of trophies to Walt Hirsch and Frank Ramsey was also a highlight of activities at the banquet.

Hirsch, captain of the 1950-1951 Wildcats, was presented the Jerome Lederer trophy which is awarded each year to the basketball player voted most valuable by his teammates.

Ramsey was given the Albert Benjamin Chandler trophy, presented for the first time. Qualifications for the trophy include athletic ability, leadership, character and scholarship. The award was presented by

Coch Rupp made the presentation of the Lederer trophy.

Barnstable also took a few playful verbal swings at Coach Rupp during his talk.

"When Coach spoke at our banquet in Louisville," he said, "He told the people I had done a very silly thing this year." Barnstable went on to tell that Rupp had said he should have started off winning only a few games and gradually should have been saving for next year.

Other speakers included President H. L. Donohew, Coach Rupp, Judge Edwin R. Denny, Alumni Association president and Hugh Fairclough, Jr., Associated Press columnist.

Hirsch, Roger Layne, and Paul Lansaw, the three seniors on the squad, were awarded traveling bags by the Alumni Association.

This year's varsity lettermen included Hirsch, Hirsch, Layne, Bill Sprave, Bobby Watson, Shelby Linville, Skippy Whitaker, Cliff Hagan, Lou Tsoropoulos and Team Manager Bobby Moore.

Parilli, Moseley Grid Captains

All-American Quarterback Vito "Babe" Parilli and Center Doug Moseley were chosen this week to captain Kentucky next fall on the gridiron by their teammates.

It was the second time in as many years that two Wildcats were voted the joint honor of being co-captains. Last season, for the first time in UK history, Bob Cain and Shorty Jamerson were elected to the positions.

Parilli made virtually every all-star squad last year as he set a national record for touchdown passes with 23, the SEC mark for most carries accounted for in a season by running for five six-pointers himself, and many other yardage records.

Moseley, regular offensive center since a soph in 1949, was a top line-backer last season. He is expected to anchor a generally green set of linemen. Both men are seniors next year.

Three Student-Written Plays Draw Overflow Audience

By Ed Coffman

The Grigol Theatre presented three original one-act plays before an overflow audience in the laboratory theatre last Saturday. The plays which were written for an English course in the fall semester were "Lisa, My Darling" by Ruth Adams, "The New Marshal" by David Dick, and "The Strike" by Dudley Saunders.

"LISA, MY DARLING" is the story of an invalid woman who tries to break up her brother's marriage. The setting was a sophisticated apartment in New York City.

The play was filled with uncluttered situations. Everyone was either in love with everyone else or had been at one time. As a result of the overly melodramatic tendencies, the play was strained at times.

"THE NEW MARSHAL" has the story of a man's decision. The setting was a realistic pool-room in a small Southern town. The realism of this play made the greatest impression upon this reviewer.

Prof. the town marshal, was forced to decide whether he should enforce the law and lose his old friends, to keep his old friends and pay lip service to the law, or to give up his job. The process of making this decision made up the course of action of the play.

The element of real life as personified by Toughy and Mike who continued to snoot pool throughout the entire play and paid very little attention to Prof. provided comic interest. This comic angle balanced the brutal realities of life as personified by Prof's conflict. Prof's final decision left the audience with a sense of comic-tragedy or tragic-comedy, depending upon the receptive mood of the individual. Incidentally, he decided to give up his job.

The third play, "THE STRIKE," was probably the most intellectual in its approach. It was the realistic story of a small factory owner who lost sight of his ideals under the pressure of a strike and possible blackmail. After an outburst from his son who had been kicked out of college because of Communist leanings, the father regains his ideals and his self-confidence.

The author of this play was working with two great modern problems, communism and the uprise of labor unions. On the whole he handled the problems realistically. There were times when the play seemed to drag, however.

The acting and the directing in all of the plays was very good. The authors directed their own plays except in the case of David Dick who is now in the Navy. His play was directed by Ed Henry.

MILDNESS
Plus NO UNPLEASANT AFTER-TASTE

OVER 1500 PROMINENT TOBACCO GROWERS SAY:
"When I apply the standard tobacco growers' test to cigarettes I find Chesterfield is the one that smells milder and smokes milder."

A WELL-KNOWN INDUSTRIAL RESEARCH ORGANIZATION REPORTS:
"Chesterfield is the only cigarette in which members of our taste panel found no unpleasant after-taste."
