ABBAY OF GETHSEMANI
TRAPPIST, KENTUCKY

Nov. 5, 1965

Dear Victor:

I spoke to Father Abbot yesterday about the possibility of his making an exception and permitting you and Carolyn to visit here as you did before. He said you could certainly come, so I am delighted. I do not know how much longer the good weather will hold out, so come as soon as you can. Probably you will want to stick to Saturdays as before, but any day is all right from my point of view. Perhaps next Saturday, the 13th or the following one the 20th? The only day that would be not so good for me would be the 15th, Monday.

Please let me know if you are coming soon. I hope we will have good weather. If you come, just tell me the day and even if I do not reply at once, come that day because it will surely be all right unless I call you or send an urgent message. We will meet as usual at the gatehouse about 11.15. However, I will confirm the arrangements as soon as I can when you suggest a day.

How nice to think that we will continue to have our pleasant meetings out by the lakes or at the edge of the woods. I miss them.

With cordial good wishes always and blessings,
in Christ,

Tom.
