

HIGH SCHOOL INSPECTION

E. E. BROWN
LUTHER RUSSELL
GEO. C. WELLS

State of Oklahoma
Department of Public Instruction

M. A. NASH, SUPERINTENDENT
CLAY W. KERR, ASST. SUPERINTENDENT

Oklahoma City

RURAL SCHOOL SUPERVISION

E. A. DUKE
HASKELL PRUETT
VICTORIA LYLES

This is the picture of the dear teacher and a part of the dear pupils; taken on Sunday afternoon:

These seven did so well in night school that when the mine superintendent visited class he gave them permission to enter an advanced class of mine foremanship etc. which they formerly could not enter because they were considered too lacking in education: The mine owner said that if they entered this class and surpassed the fellows who belonged there but who seemed not so ambitious that he would promote them first.

