ANNUAL STATE - CENTRE CLASH HOLDS ATTENTION OF KENTUCKY GRID FANS

Pigskin Classic Attracts Thousands to New Colonel Stadium

CATS READY FOR CONTEST

Winn Faces Real Problem in Selecting His Starting Eleven

It has come! The time for which Kentucky fans have waited for patiently since 1916 looms close at hand. In short, tomorrow afternoon will mark the annual Centre-Kentucky controversy, with the Cats, for the first time in many a moon, having an excellent chance to win.

When Jack Winn took charge of the Cats early in September he fell heir to a crop of gridders that would do justice to any school. Hampered by numerous injuries that have kept some of his regulars out of every game, Winn has whipped into shape, a combination, which he thinks will make the "Praying" Colonels bite the dust. He took an eleven that contained scarcely a man who was not injured and held Washington and Lee to a 6-6 tie, the Cats staging one of the most brilliant rallies in the last period that, has ever been pulled off on Stoll Field. Now, with all of his regulars in excellent shape with the exception of "Big Bill" McFarland, Winn faces the problem of handing Centre her first defeat by a Wildcat eleven since 1916.

Whether or not the former Princeton star will be successful in his first attempt to down the Colonels will be demonstrated tomorrow afternoon. Winn and his men are confident, not over-confident. They are confident that they will put out every effort to win, and if defeated will have given all that they have and will go down into glorious defeat. They are determined

GRID-GRAPH TO SHOW CENTRE GAME SATURDAY

Every Play in Great Contest To Be Seen in Phoenix Palm Room

For the benefit of those who will be unable to see the Wildcats defeat the Colonels at Danville, this Saturday, the game will be shown, play by play, on the Grid-Graph score board in the Palm Room of the Phoenix Hotel. Mr. Kramer of the Phoenix has donated the use of the room in order to accommodate the students and backers of the team who want to keep up with the game every minute. The admission will be fifty cents and all profits will be used to send the band to Georgia Tech.

The board was used to show the Cincinnati game at the same time the freshmen were playing Eastern State Normal and created as much interest as the game itself. All who saw the board declared it to be the best thing of its kind ever shown here. All the plays are easily followed, and the direct leased wire by the Western Union gives every play as it is executed. Play will start at 2:30 and it is expected that the Palm Room will be crowded.

Candidate for Governor

HUMOROUS MAGAZINE TO BE OUT THIS WEEK

Students Respond Readily To Calls For Subscriptions

The first issue of "The Meow," a new student publication, will appear on the campus on Thursday or Friday of next week, according to Raymond Kirk, editor. This magazine, the first of its kind ever launched at the University, will be largely devoted to humorous work of the students, exchanges, etc. It will be fashioned to a great extent along the lines of "The Punch Bowl," "The Purple Cow" and other collegiate publications.

The subscription capacity of the students was tested carefully by tentative subscription blanks before it was fully decided to put thru the publication. These blanks were signed with such enthusiasm that the entire circulation is estimated at more than 3,000. According to the management, eight issues will be put out during the school year and will retail on the news stands of the city at 30 cents the copy.

GET YOUR COLORS

Kentucky buttons and blue and white ribbons for individuals and blue and white ribbons for automobiles will be on sale Friday and Saturday on the campus and on the special trains to Danville. Be sure that you have the blue and white on before you enter the stadium. Decorate your machines for the pep meeting tonight.

DAWSON, FIELDS PLEDGE AID TO UNIVERSITY IN ADDRESS TO STUDENTS

Dawson Spoke Wednesday, Fields Friday, Both to Large Crowds

BOTH FORMER STUDENTS

Inadequacy of Chapel and Equipment Realized by Candidates

The students of the University last week heard the next governor of Kentucky, a former student at the University of Kentucky, address the student body in the chapel. Of this every one is sure, but whether the next governor spoke on Wednesday or Friday will not be known until after November 6.

Last Tuesday morning at the fourth hour the students were addressed by Charles I. Dawson, Republican candidate for governor. In his speech General Dawson spoke confidently of his election to the position of chief executive of the state and pledged himself that if he is elected the University of Kentucky will receive some of the things of which it looked so badly in need.

Mr. Dawson spoke of the crowded condition of things as they appeared to him and of the needs of the University as consisting of more recitation space, larger endowment appropriations for maintenance another girls' dormitory.

He recalled some of his earlier experiences as a freshman at the University, leading the greenest freshman to hope that he may become a candidate for governor some day, as the present candidate acknowledges that he spent one night walking guard at the entrance of the University, unsuccessfully trying to keep the students from straying from the campus.

In his speech Mr. Dawson extended the Wildcats his best wishes for a successful Centre game and requested that some one wire him if the Wildcats beat Centre Saturday.

On Thursday morning at the fourth hour, William J. Fields, Democratic candidate for governor of Kentucky, addressed the students. In his speech Mr. Fields did not allude to his campaign for governor either directly or indirectly. He spoke of his desire to see Kentucky stand among the highest in education. Mr. Fields stated afterward that he did not want to im-

THIRD PAYMENT DUE

Students, your third payment for the Greater Kentucky campaign was due on October 1. If you haven't paid it yet drop into the Alumni office and leave a check with us the next time you are passing. You can see for yourself the good work they are doing down on the basketball building, but those concrete mixers are calling for some pay. The third payment is needed to keep the wheels turning. It takes a lot to get up steam if the engine dies down. Let's keep 'er going. Make check to George B. Carey, Treasurer.

Alumni Secretary.

FROSH BUILDING DRIVE CAMPAIGN UNDER WAY

Teams Meet in Cafeteria to Make Reports on Subscriptions

The campaign to raise the fund of $40,000, the quota of the freshman class, was started Tuesday, October 30, and will end Friday. Forty teams of two persons each comprised the working force to put the drive over and with all the freshmen interested, there is no doubt but that the campaign will go over "big." The campaign workers held their first meeting Tuesday night in the University cafeteria where reports for the day's work were received and new inspiration and pep were given to the teams in soliciting subscriptions, so that work on the stadium can go forward at once.

The appearance of the large button, "Class '27 Builds Basketball Building," on the lapels of the coats of the freshmen has increased daily and it is expected that the freshman class will "go over the top" with more than their quota, thereby making possible the completion of the stadium while they are in the University.

FORMER STUDENT WRITES OF RECENT DISASTER IN JAPAN

Is Missionary Taking Correspondence Course

One of the few letters received by Lexington people since the Japanese earthquake was delivered Tuesday afternoon to Miss Cella Taylor, secretary of the Department of University Extension of the University, from Miss Sarah Clarke, a correspondent student of the University, who, for the past eight years, has been a missionary in Japan. The letter graphically describes the quake of several weeks ago which destroyed thousands of lives and rendered hundreds of thousands homeless.

Miss Clarke attended the 1922 summer session at the University and returned to Japan the following fall, where she continued her University course, by taking correspondence work in the Extension Department. Miss Clarke's home is at Midway, and friends were glad to hear of her welfare and of the interesting account which she gave of the disaster.

SERIES OF CONCERTS TO BE GIVEN BY U. K. BAND

Program to be Announced At Close of Football Season

The University Band, under the direction of Professor Lampert, has planned for the year several concerts to be given throughout the state. This plan was instigated by the numerous requests coming from all parts of the state for the services of the band.

The present band is well prepared to enter the field of concert work as it comprises, for the first time in the history of its existence over fifty men, all of whom are musicians of merit and interested in the work. The band consists of thirty-two men of the freshmen and sophomore classes who are required to take the military work, and approximately twenty men of the upper classes who volunteer their services that the band may continue to be a success as it has been in past years.

Whenever possible the band accompanies the football team on its trips

Home-Coming

The Lexington Alumni Club at a meeting held Monday afternoon, October 29, completed definite plans for the entertainment of old students who come to Lexington for the annual home-coming game, to be played between Tennessee and the University on Thanksgiving day.

It was decided to hold a general reception at the hotels on the morning of the game to welcome old students to Lexington and aid them in any way possible. The Athletic Association has reserved seats on the north side of Stoll Field for the Alumni and former students, in addition to a number of boxes on the south side. "Daddy" Boles has already received a large number of checks and telegrams asking for seats for the Thanksgiving home-coming game.

After the game the Lexington Club will be hosts at a dinner-dance to be held at the Phoenix from 6 to 11 o'clock. The Tennessee team and the Wildcats will be guests of honor on this occasion.

Duncan Hamilton, president of the Lexington Club, is chairman of the committee to arrange plans for the home-coming game. Among the members of the committee present at the meeting Monday were Marie Barkley, Lucile Hutchinson, Nancy Inness, Bessie Conkright, Marguerite McLaughlin, W. C. Wilson, White Guyn, Ed Dabney and Fred Staples. Four hundred guests are expected at the dinner-dance while more than 1,000 are expected to come to Lexington for the game.

DINNER DANCE BIG SUCCESS

Philadelphia Club's Party For Centre Draws Appreciative Crowd.

The Philadelphia Alumni Club dinner dance held at the Bellevue-Stratford hotel last Saturday night in honor of the Centre football team was a great success according to a telegram received from the president of the club. The message said about 100 were present at the dinner and 200 at the dance following. Among those present at the dance were many socially prominent Philadelphians, college girls from Bryan Mawr and from other girls schools.

The Alumni clubs at New York, Washington, Buffalo and Pittsburgh were represented. "It was a big time for Kentucky," the message read, "and Centre men seemed much cheered by the party."

At the dinner addresses were made by Dr. Montgomery, president of Centre; Dr. J. J. Tigert, United States Commissioner of Education, Dean F. P. Anderson, Coach Charlie Moran, of Centre and Captain Kubale, of the Centre team.

This is one of the biggest affairs that any of the Alumni Clubs has yet attempted and the success with which it was given will be an encouragement to other clubs to get together in the name of their Alma Mater.

Buffalo Club Installs Officers

At the last regular monthly meeting of the University of Kentucky Club of Buffalo, the new officers were installed. Kirk Dyer '04 is to hold the president's chair, while Luke Milward, ex-retains the vice-presidency. Other officers are: Herman Worsham, '16, treasurer, and L. C. (Red) Davidson '23, secretary. Since Mr. Davidson expects to be in southern Illinois on business for at least a month longer, Mr. Frankel '19, last year's secretary, will continue in that position until Davidson's return.

The following resolutions were adopted regarding the unfortunate death of Price McLean:

Whereas, It has pleased God in His infinite wisdom to call from the midst of his friends and classmates, Price Innes McLean, who thru his manliness and high standards has made himself respected by all, and beloved by those who were fortunate enough to know his personality.

Therefore, be it resolved, That, in the death of Mr. McLean we lost one of Kentucky's best; that a vacancy has been left in the hearts of his companions that never can be adequately filled; that we extend to his family our sympathy in this distress that has befallen them.

Chas. Graham,
C. S. Carter,
Flavius Jones,
Committee.

O. K. Dyer, President.

The chief topics of interest discussed were the football team and the stadium fund. Even the older members, some of whom have not seen the team play in years, were just as interested in everything as the students who are lucky enough to be able to see all the games.

If Mr. Dyer gets the cooperation which he would surely will, Buffalo club will certainly be a big success under his leadership. His plans place everyone who has been in the club for as much as a year and some of the new members in positions where they must work. They are confident that no one will shirk, as this is work for "Kentucky."

An Invitation to All Alumni

You have probably heard that there are a few alumni in Schenectady and this letter is for the purpose of letting the Kentuckians at large know that those few have a real live wire organization. There are twenty members of the club, sixteen of whom are loyal alumni of the University of Kentucky and the other four, although not alumni no less loyal. They are as follows: Mrs. and Mrs. L. C. Hardesty, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wilson (Oline Cruickshank), Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bierbaum, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Owens, Messrs. S. D. Fendley, T. M. Riley, J. F. Baugh, Neil Wilkerson, Jas. L. Shouse, Earle Baughman, Clifford Duke, and Jas. E. Wilkins. All the male members of the club are in the employ of the General Electric Company with the exception of M. E. Pendleton, who is with the Armstrong Cork and Insulation Company. The club has regular monthly meetings, the last being held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Owens, and a part of the entertainment being music by our talented pianists and singers.

"The club extends a welcome to all 'Kentuckians' who may come to Schenectady. None of the members who have paid dues want to miss a single copy of the Kernel. The doings of the Cats sure sound encouraging. Keep 'er up. Yours till the cannon is fired."—J. W. Owens, Mrs. J. W. Owens, C. A. Duke, Jas. E. Wilkins, committee.

Betwixt Us

A number of letters have been received recently in which small contributions were enclosed. In almost each case the donor was apologetic about the amount, expressing regret it was not possible to give more. There is no cause for any former student to feel that his or her contribution is too small to be appreciated. We want every person who ever attended the University of Kentucky to take part in the campaign for a Greater Kentucky and small contributions of the heart are as welcome as the larger ones from the more opulent. There are 20,000 former students. Suppose each one wished to help but was able to give only $5. We would have $100,000 or half of the total fund desired.

Here are what some of the former students say:

"Enclosed you will find a small check toward the $200,000 campaign. I wish it were ten times as large. Illness has prevented me replying sooner."

"The enclosed was, small check is intended for the stadium and memorial campaign fund, and I sincerely hope it is not too small nor too late to be accepted. I was away during the greater part of the summer and the campaign news was not forwarded to me. However, I do want to share in the big thing that is coming to the University of Kentucky. I only wish I were able to add three ciphers where they would be most effective on the enclosed contribution."—Florence Edmonds '21, Lebanon, Ky.

Another one writes: "For a long time I have deeply regretted my inability to give something to the stadium fund. Since you have given me the opportunity, I thank you for the chance to contribute something, even though the something is extremely insignificant."

One lady writes, "I did not suppose you cared for as small amounts as $5. I am enclosing a check for $5 which I am glad to give. Next month I hope to pay up my dues, and I shall later contribute a little more if I can."

"It has been my sincere desire to contribute to the Greater Kentucky campaign, but circumstances have prevented. I am not in a position to give much as there are many obligations I must meet. However, I wish the move all the success and perhaps I can help later. I am enclosing a $2 check on a $5 contribution."

In behalf of those who have written these letters the Alumni Association wishes to express its thanks and any one who has just such a contribution to offer will be welcomed into the group of those who are helping towards a Greater Kentucky.

He has been named John Harlan, and with his mother is now the guest of Mrs. Stanley Milward, on North Broadway. Mrs. Moore was formerly Anne Milward ex-15.

"I agree with you perfectly that it is necessary to have a 100 per cent membership from the alumni body. I am sure that there is not one of us that does not wish he was in a position to give ten times the amount requested."—Mrs. Sheldon K. Johnson (Eloise E. Ginn), Room 202 Hall of Records, Los Angeles, Calif.

Frank Davis Cain has been with the St. Bernard Mining Co., Eastington, Ky., ever since he graduated, except for the period of the World War when he was in the service of his country. He is now chief engineer with the company. In February, 1921 he married Miss Lurline Coil. They have one son, Frank Davis Cain, Jr., five months old. Residence address, 305 So. Main street, Madisonville, Ky. Richard Henry Barker ex-, is with the Boone Trail Coal Company, at Pineville, Ky., and is a member of the Bell County Alumni Club. Mrs. Barker was formerly Miss Virginia H. Bullitt.

Miss Mary Kinkead Venable is studying art at Columbia University, New York City. Her address is 106 Morningside Drive, Apt. 66.

Reuben Thornton Taylor went with the Charles Hartmann Company, 985 Dean Street, Brooklyn, N. Y., immediately after receiving his B. M. E. degree in June, '15, and is now engineer with them. Mr. Taylor married Miss Mary H. Utterback, June 10, 1919, and they have two children, John Lewis, three and one-half years old, and Mary Mason, one year. Mr. Taylor is president of the New York Alumni Club. During the World War he served in the Engineers' Corps U. S. A. The family reside at 118 E. Fortieth Street, Brooklyn.

Herbert E. Barth has been with the American Blower Company ever since he graduated except during the World War when he served in the Engineers' Corps, U. S. Army. He is now district sales manager with offices at 526 Swetland Building, Cleveland, Ohio.

"I have been wandering around so lately I have neglected to do many things that I should have done long ago. I am enclosing check for dues and first payment on pledge to the 'Greater Kentucky' campaign fund. I am so anxious to get the Kernel. I feel lots nearer home when I know all that is happening and I can tell by the things I hear of the University that she is growing rapidly. Best wishes for a good year."—May Stephenson (teaching in high school) Nacogdoches, Texas, Box 128.

The Shelby Sentinel gives a description of the very beautiful wedding of Charlton Phillips Nash and Miss Sarah Caldwell Harbison, which was solemnized in the First Presbyterian Church, Shelbyville, Ky., last week. Miss Margaret Dean Harbison, member of the class of '22, was her sister's maid of honor.

Winn V. Hutchcraft ex- and Miss Pauline Jones were married in the Methodist Church, Millersburg, Ky., October 24. Mr. Hutchcraft is a former student of the College of Engineering and a member of Sigma Chi. He is now employed with the L. & N. R. Co., at Paris, Kentucky, where they will make their home after a short wedding trip to Florida.

A recent visitor on the campus was John Felix Shouse, who has come to Louisville to reside. Mr. Shouse is conducting a sales engineering business under the name of J. F. Shouse and Company, 78 Kenyon Bldg. Mrs. Shouse was Miss Mary Barnes Browning, ex-20.

Announcement is made of the marriage of John William McKenzie and Miss Mary Lawless Gatewood, in Lexington, Saturday, October 20. Mr. McKenzie is engaged in the practice of law at 342 McClelland Bldg., Lexington, Ky. After a bridal trip of a few days they will return to Lexington to reside.

"Your booster's card makes every-one want to ride on the 'Boosters' express, so here's my fare. This is my third year teaching in the Louisville public schools. Best wishes for the success of the Association and the University of Kentucky."—Hannah Weakley, 1100 Cherokee Road, Louisville, Ky.

"I am extremely glad to see the Wildcats going so good this season and certainly hope they will walk off the Colonels."—H. H. Bennett, care The Merritt Manufacturing Company, Mayfield, Ky.

"We regret that owing to similarity of names, the item appearing in last week's issue of the Kernel concerning Mr. and Mrs. Howard Forman is in error. Howard C. Forman, graduate of the College of Engineering, is not the one referred to in the newspaper item which was copied in the Kernel, and is not married."

"I saw Kentucky play Marshall and Washington and Lee this season. The team has made a creditable showing and I am sure most of us feel that we will soon have the equal of anything in the south."

"While the championship team is in development, it seems to me that a start should be made in building up the spirit of the student body to championship calibre. It is far from that now. It takes determined effort to give a team support when they are 'backing up' down the field, but in comparison to the effort the team has to put forth to stage a comeback, it is nothing."

"Numerous clubs have been organized at the University in the last few years, but I believe a bunch of fifty men, organized and grounded in the center of the bleachers, determined to give their support to their team every minute of play, winning or losing, would shove the rest of the student body into line."—Fred Luker. Mr. Luker has left the General Motors Research Corporation and is now with the A. C. Spark Plug Company, as experimental and research engineer. Address 609 Mary Street, Flint, Mich.

The marriage of Irvine Phelps Stapp and Miss Katie Dickerson was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Lancaster, Ky., October 25, 1923. Mr. Stapp was a student in the College of Engineering during the years 1918-1920. He is road engineer of Garrard county. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Stapp will be at home on Maple avenue, Lancaster.

"I am sending check to cover first payment on stadium pledge and dues. I regret very much that my subscription is not larger but you know the way of the average graduate as to finances the first year or two out of college."—George K. Nicholson (contractor and builder) Walton, Ky.

"Please send me the Kernel as that is the only means I have for keeping in touch with affairs of the University. I am now connected with the traffic department of the Andrews Steel Company, of this city, and am intensely interested in the work. Best wishes for the University."—J. C. Merz, 602 Monroe Street, Newport, Ky.

Alumni dues were received from Ruth Hughson and also Marie Gordon and Elizabeth Green, both '22, at lot whom are teaching in the high school at Jenkins, Ky.

TRIBUTE PAID TO THEODORE ROOSEVELT

Farquhar and Ellis Speak at Memorial Exercises on Campus

Theodore Roosevelt, the twenty-eighth president of the United States, was honored at exercises held Monday morning on the campus of the University of Kentucky in the dedication of the oak tree which had been planted in his memory in April, 1919. The metal tablet erected beside the tree was given by General Roger Williams, a friend of Colonel Roosevelt. Speakers at the exercises were Prof. E. F. Farquhar, of the University, and General Tandy Ellis.

The dedication was in the form of a field memorial by the regiment, of which two companies of the R. O. T. C., unit of the University, were present, together with about 200 students, friends and admirers of Colonel Roosevelt.

President Frank L. McVey presided, and made a short address in which he said the purpose was to commemorate the life and work of Theodore Roosevelt as soldier, patriot, author and citizen. He praised Colonel Roosevelt for his virility, force, good sense and true Americanism, and spoke also of his ability in handling complicated problems which presented themselves during his administration as president of the United States; the more important among these being trust legislation and the Panama Canal project.

Doctor McVey expressed appreciation to General Williams for his gift of the memorial tablet, and introduced Professor Farquhar, who spoke of the high ideals of Roosevelt and explained how these are needed to counteract the tendency toward luxury, which he said is a "progressive paralysis of thrift, industry and frugality."

"The Persians had a belief that the souls of our beloved one returned to live in trees," General J. Tandy Ellis said, "the oak, which is dedicated to-day represents the spirit of Theodore Roosevelt, calling to memory in all seasons a great and loyal American. Beneath its branches will come many whose lips will breathe the name by which they knew and loved him, 'Teddy.'"

COMMITTEE TO MAKE FINAL DECISION ON "MARTHA" CAST

Talented Students Urged To Try For Parts

Due to the discovery last week of several excellent new voices, final tryouts for the principals of the cast of the opera "Martha" have not been held. The final decision, according to Professor Carl Lampert, who is directing the production, will be held the latter part of this week before a large committee of faculty and townspeople. In this way it is believed that the fairest and best results can be obtained.

All students who feel that they have the slightest talent are urged to try for parts. It has often happened that the University's best material was not discovered until the last minute because of the hesitation of students making application.

CONFERENCE Y. W. C. A.

The Kentucky conference of the Young Women's Christian Association will meet here next week, and preparation is being made for over a hundred delegates, who will represent not only the colleges of Kentucky but also those of Tennessee and North Carolina.

This conference is for the purpose of discussing problems of importance for the welfare of the organization.

WILLIAM KONRAD ROENTGEN 1845-1923

Born in Lennep, Prussia. Educated at Zurich. Awarded the Rumford Medal of the Royal Society in 1896 jointly with Philip Lenard for discovery of X-rays. Won the Nobel Prize in physics in 1901.

"I did not think— I investigated"

One day in 1895, Roentgen noticed that a cardboard coated with fluorescent material glowed while a nearby Pluecker tube was in action. "What did you think?" an English scientist asked him. "I did not think; I investigated," was the reply.

Roentgen covered the tube with black paper. Still the cardboard glowed. He took photographs through a pine door and discovered on them a white band corresponding to the lead beading on the door. His investigation led to the discovery of X-rays.

Roentgen's rays have proved an inestimable boon to humanity. In the hands of doctor and surgeon they are saving life and reducing suffering. In the hands of the scientist they are yielding new knowledge—even of the arrangement and structure of atoms. The Research Laboratories of the General Electric Company have contributed greatly to these ends by developing more powerful and efficacious X-ray tubes.

The General Electric Company manufactures everything electric—from fans to powerful locomotives, from tiny lamps to mighty power plants. Its products are used around the world.

"ON TO CENTRE"

The eleven men that wear the colors of any school on the football field do not make up the team. They do not do all the playing. They do not win or lose a game. It is the whole student body, each man and woman student in the university that constitute the athletic teams. Every student on the bleachers in the boxes or on the sidelines is just as responsible for his part in the game as the players on the field are responsible for their parts.

These statements came from a man who knows more about football than any other man in the University, Coach Jack Winn. Coach Winn, in an address to the students at a pep meeting held in the chapel last week, urged every one to accompany the team to Danville on Saturday, November 3, and with uplifted head tell the world in general and Centre College students in particular that Kentucky is there and there to fight.

In the opinion of the writer Coach Winn hit the nail on the head. The team is no stronger than its backers. Without the pulling and fighting of the students Kentucky will not come out of the fray with a whole skin. It is not eleven trained athletes pitted against eleven others; it is The University of Kentucky against Centre College. If the student body fails in doing its part in this, the crucial game of the season, the team cannot be expected to win a victory and bring it to us on a silver platter.

Kentucky is expecting big things from the University on that day and it is up to the University to come thru. This can be accomplished only by 100 percent attendance and backing from the student body. Every man and woman student of the University should get to Danville in some way and into the game. Every man and woman student should be on his or her toes every minute during the game pulling, not only when we may be gaining, but going both up and down with the team, running, tackling and blocking with it. This is the spirit that will carry the Wildcats thru the greatest season that any of us has been fortunate enough to experience; it will make the University of Kentucky one of the biggest athletic factors in the south.

This is the time to start the good work.

On to Centre. Let's go!

K

BE PATIENT

Criticism has come to us frequently in the last several days because the Kernel has not been able to publish all the matter from the various campus organizations submitted to it. It is exceedingly difficult for a small paper to give representation in every issue to all organizations that seek it and ought to have it. Consequently we have been compelled to withhold, on various occasions, stories that we would have much preferred to print.

In increasing its size to accommodate these contributions it would be necessary to set ten extra columns of matter which would be a serious imposition upon the Kernel at the present cost of publication.

We are hoping that increased advertising patronage will, nevertheless, thru its demand for increased space, compel us at an early date to increase the volume of the Kernel to 10 pages. Meantime we beg your patience and cooperation.

LAGNAPPE

There are students of the University of Kentucky, reputedly freshmen, who painstakingly celebrate, in a manner peculiarly their own, the numerous victories of our athletic teams. Now victory, we think, should by all odds be celebrated; one should ring the proverbial welkin, clash the loud timbral, perform mid-air calisthenics, and in general disport one's self without much regard for decorum. But when a celebration includes weekly theatre rushing, annoyance to the townspeople and a general rough-neck program, that celebration is doing the University a grievous injury. To see why the University suffers from such tactics requires only a minimum of intelligence, and we earnestly believe that college freshmen are not totally deficient in this commodity.

The dean of women at the University of Wisconsin sounds a warning to freshman co-eds against taking up the habits of "petting" and "fussing." Without wishing to display our own sophistication, we humbly ask if it ever occurs to her that she should have dispensed this advice when these co-eds were high school freshmen.

A movie director who is producing a picture portraying illiterate people, says the only suitable characters he can find are college students.

An eminent educator believes that a Bible should go in every school desk. Before taking such an important step, the Kernel suggests that we first remove the accumulated chewing gum.

The college diploma looks less and less important as we learn that plasterers are getting $105 a week.

into enemy territory. Last year the band furnished the "pep" on the memorable Knoxville trip and this year will render "Chopin's Dirge in reverence to the downfall of the Colonels of Centre," after which it will accompany the team to Georgia Tech.

After the close of the football season the program of concerts to be given will be announced by Professor Lampers, which will probably include several concerts in nearby towns and a concert broadcasted from the radio station, WHAS, at Louisville.

WESLEY FOUNDATION TO BE ESTABLISHED AT THE UNIVERSITY KENTUCKY

Methodist Conference Authorizes Organization for Religious Education

McVEY APPROVES PLAN

Robert L. Bowden, of Ohio, is Appointed "Minister to University"

At the Kentucky conference of the Board of Education and the Board of Home Missions of the Methodist Church, authorization for the organization of a Wesley Foundation was granted. This Foundation will function in connection with the University and is intended to promote an all-year program of religious activities among the students and professors.

The special appointment of the Rev. Robert C. Bowden to head this work in connection with the Centenary Church, Broadway and Church Street, was made by Bishop Wm. F. Anderson of the Cincinnati Area. Reverend Bowden will be attached to the staff of Centenary Church as Minister to the University.

When recently approached as to the attitude of the University toward such a program, Dr. Frank L. McVey, indicated his satisfaction in learning of the proposal to establish a Wesley Foundation for the purpose of carrying on religious work at the University. He said, "I have been familiar with what has been done in other State Universities, such as Illinois, North Dakota, Kansas, Missouri and Ohio, and I shall be very glad to see established here in the neighborhood of the University of Kentucky a similar Foundation. The University will be glad to cooperate in any way it can to bring these plans to a successful issue."

The largest celebration ever pulled off in the history of the University will be staged this Friday night beginning at 6:30 and continuing well up into the night. Two big trucks have been hired to haul the band around and every student, faculty member and backer of the team who owns a car is expected to report to the members of the Su-Ky Circle on the campus not later than 6:30.

On the eve of the great battle between Kentucky and Centre every Kentucky man and woman is keyed up to the highest pitch with enthusiasm, and all manner of noise making instruments will make their appearance in the auto parade.

Permission has been obtained from the police department for the parade to go through the streets of Lexington and before the night is over everybody in the city will know that the backers of the team are expecting a victory.

ANNUAL STATE-CENTRE

that if a Centre man crosses the Kentucky goal line that it will be only after a hard fight; and finally, they are determined to SCORE ON and DEFEAT CENTRE.

The hardest job that Winn has now is the problem of selecting the eleven Cats to take the field for the opening whistle. There have been staged on Stoll Field these afternoons, innumerable fights for the honor of being chosen for one of the regular berths. Practically no position of the eleven has been without its scrap. And, all in all, it will sure be a gang of fighting Wildcats that will be Winn's starting choices.

The line—"Thubby" Sauer, scrappy jack-of-all trades, who has been shifted around from position to position but who finally found the center job to his liking, will start at the pivot position. "Cave Man" Rice, renovated fullback, and Captain Dell Ramsey, appear first choices for the guard berths, while the two "Tinie's," Montgomery and Stephenson, will likely be found at tackles. "Chuck" Rice and Kenneth King, are practically certain starters at the ends.

The backfield presents a more problematic task for Winn to solve. With two of the men who started the season in regular positions, out by virtue of injuries, Winn was forced to develop another combination. These two regulars have returned to the fold but have found that two other backs have almost established permanent claim on the jobs. Ab Kirwan, speedy half-back, and Curtis Sanders, fullback, are certain starters. Gregg, Brewer, Hughes, and Tracy have been the chief contenders for the two remaining berths, during the past week, and any of the four may be used by Winn to round out the quartet. Hughes and Brewer appear the best choices, especially Hughes, who has developed into one of the best triple-threat men in the south. "Turkey" can run, pass, or kick and will probably be used to keep the opposition guessing.

Hughes, Gregg, Sauer or "Chuck" Rice have been dividing the kicking duties among them this week, with Hughes and Sauer getting off the more consistent spirals. Off the two Hughes appears to be Winn's best bet.

WILDCATS USE STRAIGHT FOOTBALL IN DEFEATING GEORGETOWN TEAM 35-0

Kentucky Eltven Outplays the Orange and Black Through-out Game

MANY CATS GET IN GAME

Sanders Has Perfect Day at Kicking Goal—Leonard Tracy Stars

Depending almost exclusively on straight football as its means of attack Kentucky's Wildcat eleven swept over the Georgetown Tigers to a 35-0 victory on Stoll Field Saturday afternoon. The Cats outplayed the orange and black by a wide margin in every department of play, running up a total of twenty-seven first downs to the Tigers' three.

The Blue and Whites' superiority was in evidence from the opening whistle, when, after Georgetown had tried three times to gain through the heavier Kentucky line, the Tigers punted to Hughes. Line plays by Kirwan and Sanders, coupled with three brilliant end runs by Tracy, carried the oval over the Georgetown goal, Tracy counting on a sweeping flank play around right end. Sanders place-kicked the goal.

The second Cat score was not far behind. Sauer kicked off for Kentucky. Georgetown started a march down the field, catching the Cats by surprise, but met a stone wall in the form of the Blue and White forwards, who most of the time caught the Tiger runners before they could get started. Georgetown punted to Hughes. The Cats failed to gain and Hughes punted to Hackman, who fumbled. Ramsey, Cat guard, scooped up the ball and ran thirty yards for a touchdown. Sanders kicked goal.

Kirwan Scores Touchdown
The third touchdown in the first quarter came after the Cats had worked the ball from midfield by a series of tackle smashes by Kirwan to the Georgetown eleven-yard line. Kirwan went off right after tackle for a touchdown. Sanders kicked goal.

The second period had barely gotten under way when Kentucky again counted, this time when Sanders bucked from the ten-yard line in three plays for the score. Sanders again kicked goal.

The fifth and last Cat score came in the final period, a few minutes after the quarter opened. The Tigers held the Cats for downs on the Georgetown six-yard line and punted out sixteen yards to Tracy. A pass, Kirwan to King, put the oval on the one-yard line and Sanders plunged through the line for the touchdown. Sanders place-kicked in the try for goal, making it a perfect day in addition of the extra point.

The Cat forward wall played its best game of the season against the Tigers Saturday. The linemen charged hard and fast and opened up huge holes through which the backs plunged for large gains. Captain Dell Ramsey, Stephenson and "Doc" Martin played best for the Cats in the line, although the work of Sauer, W. H. Rice, King and Russell, was not far behind.

Leonard Tracy Stars

Leonard Tracy, Lexington youth, was the shining light in the backfield. Besides scoring the initial touchdown of the game, Tracy played a wonderful defensive game, intercepting four Tiger passes and converting them into long runs. Hughes, Kirwan and Sanders, along with Tracy, composed the starting backfield and all three gained ground almost at will. A few minutes before the first half was ended, "Doc" Rodes, assistant coach, taking charge in the absence of Jack Winn, started a line of substitu-

FRESHMEN WORK HARD PREPARING FOR VANDY

Changes in Lineup Gives Promise of Stronger Team

The freshman football team has been working very hard the last two weeks, even though they meet no hard opposition until Nov. 17, when they play the Vanderbilt freshmen. Most of the squad are in the best of condition and will not be satisfied unless they defeat Vandy by an overwhelming score. The defeat by the Centre Lieutenants has not lowered the morale of the team and all they want is another chance at their opponents.

Friday afternoon the Kittens play the Kentucky Reserves, in a practice game. The Reserves have been using Centre plays in their scrimmages against the Varsity this week. Friday, November 9, they meet the Georgetown Reserves, at Georgetown, who promise to give the Kittens a hard game; then the following week they play the big game with Vandy.

The team will miss the services of Mandt, All-State back of '21, who has quit school in order to go to work. His place at half will likely be filled by Arnold, who played well in the Centre game. Arnold cannot plunge the line like Mandt did, but is an exceptionally good end runner. Williams, who hurt his leg in a scrimmage, will probably be out of the fray for three weeks.

Coach Buchheit has been working his reserve backfield men hard this week and will likely give them a chance in the next game. Allender, Simpson, Edger, Lindel and Robinson have been working good and will give the regular backs a hard fight to hold their positions. The line will remain about the same for a time at least.

Indications at present point toward "Tiny" Montgomery being the unanimous choice of all gridiron experts for All-American quarter. Monty's performance against the "Phantom" eleven last Saturday stamps him as one of the best pilots in the country. The work of Gregg, center, and Brewer, guard, in the same game was scarcely less impressive. Wonder if the trio were trying to steal Ted Creech's stuff?

The Kentucky-Centre game, the Georgia Tech-Alabama, and the Georgia-Auburn contests will see the elimination of three of the leading elevens in the south Saturday. None of the above six have lost a southern game this fall and all are considered among the leading teams of the southland. While a prediction of the outcome of any of the above games is indeed a hazardous attempt, the "dope bucket" ventures the following: Kentucky to beat Centre; Tech to beat Alabama; Georgia to beat Auburn.

BLUE AND WHITE CAPS APPEAR ON CAMPUS

"Invisible Union" Issues Edict Saying: "Caps, Slippers or Cannon."

Curiosity was excited on the campus Saturday morning by posting notices signed "The Invisible Union of C. C. or C.," which was translated by many as a warning to freshmen of "caps, clippers or cannon."

It was said that when the student body voted to abolish the annual custom of shaving the hair of freshmen during the first two or three days of the school term, the first year men, among other requirements, were ordered to appear at all athletic events wearing caps of a certain kind.

The caps arrived Saturday, and another notice signed by the Union announced that freshmen should attend the Kentucky-Georgetown game Saturday afternoon wearing the prescribed head-gear.

Of significance was a nearby notice announcing a meeting of the Union "Saturday night at 11 o'clock at headquarters."

No student on the campus was ignorant of the meaning of "cannon," if that is what the last "c" meant, as the old gun mounted on the campus has been used in disciplining unruly freshmen, it is said.

U. K. RIFLE TEAM RECEIVES CHALLENGE FROM NEBRASKA

Colonel Freeman of the Military Department, has received from the University of Nebraska a challenge requesting the Kentucky rifle team to compete in a dual meet to be held in February of next year, both teams firing in its own gallery. The Kentucky team which was successful last year is to be reorganized and practice is soon to start. The team will likely be composed of several of last year's men, together with new men who demonstrate ability with the rifle in the rifle course now being conducted by the officers of the Military Department.

TO OPEN DIRECT ROAD

Through the efforts of the Lexington Automobile Club, the Lexington-Lancaster road, the most direct route to Danville, will be opened for the Kentucky-Centre game November 3, according to word received from Irvine Stapp, road engineer of Garrard county.

It is estimated that 2,000 automobiles will make the trip to Danville. The Brooklyn bridge road will also be open on that day, and motorists may also go by way of Munday's Landing or High Bridge.

ENGINEERING FACULTY SENDS GREETINGS TO PHILA. CLUB

Expression of Pride in Centre Football Team

At the weekly meeting of the Engineering faculty last Monday, resolutions of greeting to the Philadelphia

Alumni Club and an expression of good will and pride in the Centre College football team which played in Philadelphia Saturday, were drawn up. The resolutions were forwarded in a letter to Dean F. Paul Anderson, who is in Philadelphia attending an alumni conference.

Signing the document, which follows, were Professors C. J. Norwood, T. J. Barr, L. E. Nollean, W. E. Freeman and D. V. Terrill.

"We, the faculty of the College of Engineering, request Dean Anderson to extend our greeting to the members of the Philadelphia Alumni Club of graduates of this college when he shall meet them at the banquet which is to be given by the club Saturday, October 27. Also, that he express to them our earnest wishes for the good health, happiness and prosperity of the members of the club, coupled with the assurance of our lively interest in them at all times and of our pride in the fine record each one has made in his chosen branch of engineering.

"We also request him to express to their special guests, the football team of Centre College, our hearty good will toward them and our pride in them as worthy exponents of the Kentucky spirit in their contests on eastern grounds. Though intensely loyal to our own Wildcats in the friendly rivalry between Kentucky State and Centre for supremacy within Kentucky's bounds, we are not less loyal to the Colonels when they are on tour in other fields as upholders of Kentucky's fame. We know that, win or lose, they always play a great game, clean and courageous, and thus reflect honor on our state. We trust that when they shall receive this message, old Centre's standard will be flying proudly, with victory emblazoned thereon."

"MAKER OF DREAMS" TAKES AMATEUR NIGHT PRIZE

Play By Oliphant Downs Best in Annual Amateur Performance

"The Maker of Dreams," by Oliphant Downs, was proclaimed the best of the three plays presented in the University chapel on traditional amateur night. The cast was made up of Marjorie Warden, of Louisville; Judy Jones, of Bowling Green, and Harry Melton, of Oklahoma, each of whom displayed dramatic talent well worthy of the honor bestowed upon them.

The other productions were: "The House of Cards," played by Margaret Youngblut and Joe Hays, and "The Traitor," played by John Chenault, Neal Stewart, Sam Hillen, A. B.

Boyd, Virgil Watson, Hunter Green and Salin Brassman

The evening's program was introduced and conducted by Gardner Bayless, whose usual efficiency and fair-mindedness have been of invaluable service to the Strollers. He explained that the plays which comprised the program had been chosen as the three best of all the tryout skits and that the judges, Miss Sally Bullock Cave, well known Lexington reader, Mr. Farquhar, professor of English at the University, and Mr. Grehan, professor of Journalism, were to select the best one of the three.

The prize of a block of seats at the Stroller production, "Seventeen," was awarded to the winning cast. The list of Stroller eligible, which were announced will be printed in next week's issue of the Kernel.

JOINT MEETING

On Tuesday night the cabinets of the Young Men's and Women's Christian Associations had a joint meeting for the purpose of considering matters of interest to both the men and women students of the University. The one main idea of both Associations is the development of the christian life and it is believed by the leaders that certain phases of the work can be better accomplished by co-operation than by working separately.

A TYPEWRITTEN exam, thesis, or theme has many advantages. It is easy to read, and makes a good impression; it is usually more fluent and more accurate, and it saves time. Use a Remington Portable for all your writing.

This sturdy, little machine is compact, convenient, and complete, with the regulation four-row keyboard like the big machines, and other "big machine" features. It can be operated on your lap, if you wish, for it carries its table on its back.

JOHN McCORMACK SINGS IN LEXINGTON NOV. 16

Noted Tenor to Open Concert Series at Woodland Auditorium

"Again John McCormack, the magnetic name of John McCormack, attracted a capacity house at the Century Theatre, N. Y., when the celebrated tenor made his first 'regular' appearance in recital on Sunday night last. It was the singer's second recital of the new season, but he chose this one as the starter of his series which, it is easy to predict, will not only present many new and interesting offerings, but also attract sold-out houses."

Critics state that Mr. McCormack has come back in fine form, and even better voice than ever—that he even "surpassed himself." It is safe to say that in the history of music John McCormack is one of the few who have had such universal sway. He has the most sympathetic natural tenor voice in the world; he sings real words, not sounds, and every song he sings tells a story. "The people who attend McCormack concert come in small cars and big limousines, in taxis and trolleys, while thousands walk. Distances are forgotten. Lips hum half-forgotten airs. Society folk, men and women of various business and professional interests, students—in fact the world—gather to a McCormack concert and go away the happier." Such is expected to be the case Friday evening, November 16, when John McCormack will open the "Sixth Annual Concert Series" in Lexington at the Woodland Auditorium at 8:15 o'clock.

press the students of the University that he was coming to them to deliver a political address. He expressed the opinion that in the past Kentucky has not stood for education as liberally as it would have been to her advantage to do.

Both addresses were attended by large crowds of students and the inadequacy of the University chapel was easily seen by the candidates on account of the crowds that filled the doorway and stood up around the walls and even out in the halls.

The attitude of both candidates towards the University from their speeches seems to be not only one of kindness but of keen realization of the need for action to relieve the crowded conditions caused by the increasing enrollment of each year.

DIRECTOR OF WELFARE LEAGUE SPEAKS HERE

Gives Address on Social Work at Chapel Exercises Tuesday

Mr. David C. Leggett, Director of the Welfare League of Louisville, spoke at the exercises held in the chapel Tuesday at the fifth hour. His subject was "Professional Aspects in the Social Work."

After conducting devotional exercises, President McVey introduced Mr. Leggett, who made an interesting talk in which he put before the students some of the many opportunities offered along the line of social work. The three main branches of social work, he said, are the family case work, the recreational work and the community organization work.

The family case work includes help given to an individual family both medical and psychological, the recreational work includes play grounds and boy scout work and community organization work includes all clubs and societies for the betterment of the community.

The field of social work offers innumerable opportunities for work, and is as large a field for work as many of the other fields more frequently chosen. Two selections were given by the University Trio.
