

Madam P. H. Sproule.

Respected Madam,

Miss
Nannie, your Daughter, received a "Dispatch" from her Pa, about two weeks ago, to join him, in a Hotel in Cincinnati; stating he was still very unwell, and to come immediately. She left us, in a half hour after; since then, we have not heard a word of her, tho' she promised to write. We ^{are} feel very uneasy about her, more especially, since
