ABOUT THE LIBRARIES

Library Associates Reactivate:

The University of Kentucky Library Associates, a "friends of the Library" group of faculty, alumni, and citizens, is hosting a public reorganizational dinner and meeting on Monday, 25 April, at 6:15 PM at Spindletop Hall. (see attached invitation). Speaker for the occasion will be Elizabeth Hardwick, music will be provided by the LaMay String Quartet, and the latest product of the King Library Press will be on display. A reception and short business meeting will complete the program. Miss Hardwick, a Lexington native and graduate of UK (BA and honorary doctorate) is a noted writer and critic. She is a founder and editor of The New York Review of Books, her pieces appear regularly in Harpers, New Yorker, and The New York Times, and she had published several novels and books of criticism. Her most recent deals with women as literary authors and subjects. (Seduction and Betrayal, 1974).

The Library Associates were originally founded in 1954. Over the years their dues and contributions of books and funds enabled the Libraries to purchase materials they could not normally afford. In return, the organization provided an opportunity for its membership to keep in touch with the Libraries through special programs and publications. Although inactive in recent years, a number of faculty, alumni and friends have remained interested in the group and have been meeting this winter to plan the reorganizational effort the dinner will provide an opportunity for members and others to express their interest and plan for the coming year. Additional information and dinner reservations are available from David Farrell, King Library North, Tel. 258-2651.

Faculty Book Reception:

The Staff Organization reception for faculty authors will be held Thursday, 7 April, from 2 to 4 PM in the Department of Special Collections. John Cleveland will perform at the Steinway (or Yamaha), refreshments will be served, and the public is cordially invited.

Administrative Services Note:

There remains in current expenses a modest amount of money to go towards supplies for the remainder of the FY. If you have supply needs, please check with Clifford Black to see if what you need might not be in stock or on order. If what you need is neither in stock nor on order, please submit requests for needed supplies by 15 April.

SLA-Kentucky Chapter-Spring Plant Sale:

The Student Chapter of SLA at the University of Kentucky will hold its second annual SPRING PLANT SALE beginning at 9:30 AM on Tuesday, April 5, at the Student Center Patio. Brighten the corner where you are or give someone else a lovely plant for Easter. Stop by and meet the student members while you shop!

Kentucky Council on Archives meets:

A meeting of the Kentucky Council on Archives was held at Western Kentucky University, March 28, 1977. During a morning business meeting, a constitution for the newly formed organization was adopted and an Administrative Council elected.

At an afternoon session, a panel of individuals discussed different types of archival holdings such as special collections, historical societies, newspaper archives, photographic archives, and oral history. Following the session, the Western Kentucky University Archives, Folklore Archives and the Manuscript Division of the Kentucky Library were open for interested visitors.

Representing the University of Kentucky were Bill Marshall, Claire McCann, and Terry Birdwhistell.

Graphic Arts Seminar:

Friday, 15 April, a seminar on various aspects of the graphic arts will be held at UK. Among the topics of interest to librarians are a film on printmaking (9 AM) and a lecture by a leading paper conservator, Douglas Kenyon, "The Care of Works of Art on Paper." All events will be held in the Fine Arts Building; complete schedules and additional information available from the Fine Arts Gallery, Tel. 8-2808.

MANAGEMENT WORKSHOPS

Two management workshops of note are scheduled this spring and summer:

At ARL (Association of Research Libraries), the Office of University Library Management Studies is organizing a "Library Management Skills Institute" at Kansas City MO, 19-22 April. Further information is available from Denise Cook, at (202) 232-8656.

At Miami University (ohio), the School of Business Administration is holding a week-long program in administrative leadership, "Executive Development Program for Library Administrators," 31 July-6 August, 1977. Additional information from Harry F. Brooks at (513) 529-4129.
