Mr. S. M. Wilson,

Dear Sir:

Yours of the 29th ult., relative to the case of D. D. Ison vs. L. & E. Railway Company, in which I addressed wrong, received. I could not understand from what I had before me what case it was, and as I could not get any connection over the wire to Whitesburg, I assumed because the consolidated causes had been transferred to the equity docket that that was the one. I have carefully noted this letter as to how to keep up with these Ison cases and will follow your suggestion.

I am very sorry that you made the trip to Huntington on an error of mine.

Very truly yours,

Jesse Morgan.
