

Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company.

Benjamin D. Warfield,
District Attorney.

Charles H. McCrman,
Asst. District Attorney.

James J. Donohue,
Chief Law Agent.

Law Department for Kentucky.

Louisville, Ky.

Dec. 19, 1914.

Messrs. Wootton & Morgan, Hazard, Ky.

Gentlemen,

In accordance with your letter December 3,
to Judge Wilson, not received by me until yesterday, I enclose a pass for Mr. Willis W. Reeves, from Hazard to Owensboro and return.

Of course Mr. Reeves will understand that we have no direct line from Louisville to Owensboro, and that the only way he can use the pass from here to that point will be by way of Russellville, and the O. & N.

If he wants to go direct to Owensboro, he will have to pay his way on the L.H. & St. L. from Louisville to Owensboro, as I do not issue passes on that road.

Enclo.

Yours truly,

B. D. Warfield

Dist. Atty.

✓ Copy for Judge Samuel M. Wilson,
Lexington, Ky.

Copy for Mr. W. A. McDowell,
Lexington, Ky.