

April 6, 1916.

Messrs. Wootton & Morgan, Attys.,
Hazard, Kentucky.

Gentlemen:

I am in receipt of ~~letter~~ of your Mr. Morgan, under date of April 5, 1916, saying that on account of business which calls him to Roanoke, Virginia, it is impossible for him to attend the approaching term of Court at Whitesburg, which begins on Monday, April 10th. I note, however, that your Mr. Wootton will be on hand at Whitesburg to assist Mr. Harvie in all matters affecting the L & E and L & N.

Very truly yours,

SMW/a

Counsel.
