

June 3, 1914.

Mr. C. H. Moorman,
Asst. Dist. Attorney, L & N R R Co.,
Louisville, Kentucky.

Dear Sir:-

Find herewith bill of Caroline Adams for taking depositions of the defendant in the case of Johnson & Company against the L & E, a suit upon a lien claim in the Perry Circuit Court. This bill has been forwarded to me with approval by Messrs Wootton & Morgan, Local Attorneys at Hazard.

I also hand you herewith copy of a letter of the 1st instant regarding this claim and also regarding the claim for $15.00 in favor of Miss Callie Williams, who was summoned as a witness in the case of Bert Feltner v. L & E and Mason & Hurst. I think this bill is a proper one and should be paid, but by rights it should be paid out of any funds in our hands which are due Mason & Hurst, who are primarily responsible for the entire claim. If you find that we have funds of Mason & Hurst sufficient to meet the claim, kindly draw a voucher against that fund and forward to me or to Wootton & Morgan for delivery to Miss Williams, and oblige,

Yours truly,
