LETCHER CIRCUIT COURT.

ALBERT COPLEY,

Plaintiff.

-vs- ORDERS.

LEXINGTON & EASTERN RAILWAY COMPANY, &c.,

Defendants.

The Court having considered defendants' Motion for a judgment in favor of defendants, notwithstanding the verdict herein, and being sufficiently advised, it is ordered that said Motion be and the same is hereby overruled, to which the defendants except.

Wherefore, it is adjudged upon said verdict that the plaintiff recover of the defendants, Lexington & Eastern Railway Company and Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company, the sum of Twelve Thousand Dollars ($12,000.00), with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum from the 4th day of February, 1916, until paid, and plaintiff's costs in this action expended. To which judgment the defendants except.

Thereupon came the defendants in open Court and filed herein their written motion and grounds for a New Trial, which Motion and Grounds are now filed and noted of record in open Court.

In support of said Motion and Grounds, the defendants introduced J. M. Maggard, one of the jury, who, after being sworn testified as a witness for defendants, as is more fully set out in the Official Stenographer's Report and Transcript of said evidence, which was ordered by the Court to be made a part of the Bill of Exceptions and record herein.

Also, came the defendants, by Samuel M. Wilson, one of their attorneys, and filed herein the Affidavit of said Wilson traversing the affidavit of W. G. Dearing, which was filed and noted on February 4, 1916, and, upon motion of defendants, said affidavit of Samuel M. Wilson is now ordered to be
