

JESSE MORGAN      LEWIS E. HARVIE
MORGAN & HARVIE
ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW
WHITESBURG, KY.

January 3rd, 1915.

Judge S. M. Wilson,
Lexington, Ky.

Dear Sir:-

I came to Whitesburg on yesterday to look after Rule Day matters here on today. The demurrer will be filed to the petition in the Sam Collins case as directed.

Mr. Lewis E. Harvie will be permanently located at Whitesburg hereafter and you may communicate direct with him about any Letcher County matters. He will promptly carry out any directions you may give. Of course, this means in connection with Mr. D. I. Day, your local attorney here.

I want you to send to Mr. Harvie a supply of your blank forms, viz.

non-employee witnesses 100
judgment reports 30
valuable package stamps
employee witnesses 50

Will you please write Mr. Harvie and D. I. Day telling them how you desire the L. & E. Cases set for trial at the coming January Term. They will be thinking over the matter then and trying to work to the end to suit your convenience and I will make this suit me.

Yours truly,

Jesse Morgan
