

2 33

PERRY CIRCUIT COURT.

W. L. Mullins,

Plaintiff.

Vs/ Judgment at Law, #956.

Lexington & Eastern Railway Company, Leighton & Ambrose, a firm, consisting of O. F. Leighton and W. L. Ambrose, and Sharp & Combs, partners consisting of J. H. Sharp and Spencer Combs,

Defendants.

On this day came the Jury and answered to the call of their names and they were given the instructions by the Court and ordered to their room to consider of their verdict and after a time the jury returned into open Court with the following verdict: "We, the following Jurors agree and find for the plaintiff the sum of $3,000, Three Thousand Dollars, including $400 Four Hundred Dollars for loss of time, and $60 for Doctor bill, against all the defendants, "Signed by 9". Henry Campbell, Larkins Adams, John Feltner, Ben Grigsby, John Morgan, N. W. Couch, John D. Spencer, James Fields, James Napier".

It is therefore adjudged by the Court that the Plaintiff, W. L. Mullins, have and recover of the defendants, Lexington & Eastern Railway Company, O. F. Leighton, W. L. Ambrose, J. H. Sharp and Spencer Combs, each and all of them the sum of Three Thousand ($3000) dollars with interest from this date and his costs herein expended, for which he may have execution. To which the defendants, and each of them except.

29th day of Aug. term