

September 29, 1917.

Judge O. H. Pollard,
Jackson, Kentucky.

Dear Judge:

Receipt is acknowledged of yours of the 20th instant, enclosing some twenty-seven fee bills in <sup>as</sup> many different cases, in favor of Matt Spencer, Sheriff of Breathitt County, for costs originally chargeable to the plaintiffs in said suits, but, as you say, due to be paid by the L&N RR Co., inasmuch as these suits have been dismissed at defendant's cost.

I am forwarding these bills, with a separate letter about each, to the Louisville office, with the request that voucher may issue in payment.

Very truly yours,

SMW/a

Counsel.
